¹ The Justice and Other Legislation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1997 was assented to on 5 December 1997.

Justice and Other Legislation (Miscellaneous Provisions)

	Amendment of s 10 (General powers as to bail)	1
Clause	5. Section 10(1), after ‘charge of an offence’—	2
	insert—	3
	‘, or in connection with a criminal proceeding.’	4
	 Insertion of new ss 19B–19F	 5
Clause	6. Part 2, after section 19A—	6
	insert—	7
	‘Review of certain bail decisions	8
	‘19B.(1) This section does not apply to the following decisions about bail—	9 10
	(a) a decision by the Supreme Court;	11
	(b) a decision under section 10(2); ²	12
	(c) a decision by a magistrate acting as a reviewing court under this section.	13 14
	‘(2) If a decision has been made about bail for a defendant, the defendant or the Crown may apply to the reviewing court for a review of the decision.	15 16
	‘(3) The reviewing court is—	17
	(a) for a decision by a police officer or justice—a Magistrates Court constituted by a magistrate;	18 19
	(b) for any other decision—the Supreme Court constituted by a judge.	20 21
	‘(4) On the review, the reviewing court may make any decision the reviewing court considers appropriate about bail for the defendant.	22 23
	‘(5) The person or court that made the decision under review must give the reviewing court any documents in the person’s or court’s possession that may be relevant to the review.	24 25 26

² Section 10 (General powers as to bail)

Justice and Other Legislation (Miscellaneous Provisions)

- ‘(6) The reviewing court must decide an application under this section as soon as possible. 1
- ‘Telephone review by magistrate of decision on bail made by police officer or justice 3 4
- ‘19C.(1) This section applies if— 5
- (a) a decision is made by a police officer or justice about bail for a defendant; and 6 7
 - (b) the defendant wishes to apply for a review of the decision under section 19B; and 8 9
 - (c) there appears to be no magistrate in the vicinity immediately available to constitute a Magistrates Court to review the decision. 10
11
13
- ‘(3) On receiving the application, the police officer or justice must inform a magistrate of the application. 14
15
- ‘(4) The police officer or justice must— 16
- (a) explain to the magistrate the circumstances relevant to the bail decision; and 17 18
 - (b) tell the magistrate what the decision was and the reasons for it. 19
- ‘(5) The magistrate must then speak with— 20
- (a) the defendant (or the defendant’s lawyer if the defendant wants the magistrate to speak to the lawyer instead); and 21
 - (b) anyone else the magistrate considers the magistrate should speak with to ensure the magistrate has enough information to decide the application. 23
24
25
- ‘(6) If— 26
- (a) the decision under review was made by a justice; and 27
 - (b) a police officer appeared before the justice; and 28
 - (c) the police officer wishes to speak to the magistrate for the 29

Justice and Other Legislation (Miscellaneous Provisions)

purposes of the review;	1
the magistrate must then speak with the police officer.	2
‘(7) On the review, subject to subsection (9), a magistrate may make any decision the magistrate considers appropriate about bail for the defendant.	3 4
‘(8) The magistrate must inform the police officer or justice who made the decision under review of the decision.	5 6
‘(9) The police officer or justice must grant or refuse bail in accordance with the decision.	7 8
‘(10) This section does not apply to a bail decision made by a police officer on the arrest of a defendant, if the defendant can be brought before a court (other than a Magistrates Court constituted by justices) not later than 4 p.m. on the day after the day of arrest.	9 10 11 12
‘(11) Nothing in this section compels a person (other than the police officer or justice who decided the application) to speak, or continue speaking, with the magistrate.	13 14 15
‘Review by Supreme Court of magistrate’s decision on a review	16
‘19D.(1) If a decision is made by a magistrate on a review of a bail decision, the defendant or the Crown may apply to the Supreme Court as constituted by a judge for a review of the magistrate’s decision.	17 18 19
‘(2) The decision may be reviewed only with the court’s leave.	20
‘(3) On the review, the court may make any decision the court considers appropriate about bail for the defendant.	21 22
‘Stay of release on application for review	23
‘19E.(1) This section applies if a decision is made, other than by the Supreme Court, to release a person on bail.	24 25
‘(2) If a police officer or a person appearing on behalf of the Crown immediately indicates to the person or court making the decision that an	26 27

application for review of the decision will be made under section 19B,³ the release must be deferred. 1

‘(3) The deferral ends on whichever of the following events happens first— 3

(a) the review is completed; 5

(b) a police officer, or a person appearing on behalf of the Crown, gives the person or court that made the decision a written notice that the Crown does not wish to proceed with the review; 6

(c) the end of 72 hours from when the decision was made. 9

‘(4) If a person is released under section (3)(b) or (c), the conditions of bail are those that would have applied had the person’s release not been deferred. 10
12

‘Review provisions do not affect other powers 13

‘19F. Sections 19B to 19E do not affect a power of the Supreme Court under section 10,⁴ or any other power of a court to grant, enlarge, vary or revoke bail under other provisions of this or any other Act.’ 14
15
16
