  - (c) a reference to a floating charge over property is taken to be a reference to a security interest that is attached to a circulating asset.

Chapter 2 Migration of personal property data

Part 1 General

6 Giving of information to PPS registrar

- (1) The chief executive is authorised to give the Commonwealth, the PPS registrar or any other officer of the Commonwealth information recorded in, or concerning the use of, a Queensland register that the chief executive considers appropriate in order to assist the PPS registrar to establish the PPS register.
- (2) The chief executive may give the information in whatever form the chief executive considers appropriate including by means of electronic data or in an approved form under the PPS Act.
- (3) This section applies despite any other Act or law.

7 Protection from liability

- (1) An official does not incur civil liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence in relation to the giving of information under section 6.

[s 8]

---

(2)	If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to an official, liability attaches instead to the State.	1 2
(3)	In this section—	3
	official means—	4
(a)	the chief executive; or	5
(b)	an officer or employee of the department; or	6
(c)	a public service employee to whom the chief executive delegated powers under a Queensland register Act.	7 8
8	Delegation	9
(1)	The chief executive may delegate the chief executive’s powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified officer or employee of the department.	10 11 12
(2)	In this section—	13
	appropriately qualified includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.	14 15
9	Regulation-making power	16
(1)	The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.	17 18
(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation may be made about the fees payable under this Act and the matters for which the fees are payable.	19 20 21
Part 2	Transitional provisions	22
10	Proceedings	23
	A proceeding relating to a matter arising under the provisions of a Queensland register Act that was commenced before the	24 25

	commencement of this part, but was not finally decided as at the commencement, may continue to be dealt with or otherwise decided as if those provisions had not been repealed.	1 2 3 4
11	Offences	5
	(1) This section applies if a person is alleged to have committed an offence against a Queensland register Act before the commencement of this part.	6 7 8
	(2) Despite the Criminal Code, section 11, a proceeding for the offence may be started or continued, and the court may hear and decide the proceeding, as if this Act, other than this section, had not commenced.	9 10 11 12

Division 2	Transitional provisions	1
13	Definitions for div 2	2
	In this division—	3
	existing Act means the Bills of Sale and Other Instruments Act 1955 as in force immediately before its repeal.	4
	repeal means repeal of the existing Act.	5
14	Words have meanings given by existing Act	7
	A word used in this division and defined under the existing Act has the same meaning as it had under the existing Act.	8
15	Continuing of provisions of existing Act	10
	If, despite the repeal, a provision of the existing Act (the primary provision ) is continued in effect for a purpose under this division, any other provision of the existing Act (a related provision ) mentioned in the primary provision is also continued in effect to the extent necessary for the purposes of the continued application of the primary provision.	11
16	Applications for registration or renewal of registration of security interests	18
	(1) This section applies if, after the application closing time, the chief executive receives an application for the registration, or renewal of registration, of a security interest.	19
	(2) Despite sections 9, 10 and 11 of the existing Act, the chief executive—	20
	(a) can not deal with the application after the application closing time; and	21
	(b) must refund any fee that accompanied the application.	22
		23
		24
		25
		26

- 17 Inspection of register 1
- (1) Despite the repeal, section 13 of the existing Act continues to 2 apply for a period of 2 years after the repeal in relation to 3 particulars included in the former register in the period 4 starting 7 years before the repeal and ending at the repeal. 5
- (2) A regulation may prescribe a fee for inspecting the former 6
register. 7
- (3) The chief executive must keep a copy of the information 8 contained in the former register, as it existed immediately 9 before the repeal, for 7 years after the repeal. 10
- (4) For section 13(1)(a) of the existing Act, the offices of the 11 department at the following places are offices where the 12 register may be inspected— 13
- (a) Brisbane; 14
- (b) Cairns; 15
- (c) Mackay; 16
- (d) Maroochydore; 17
- (e) Rockhampton; 18
- (f) Southport; 19
- (g) Townsville. 20
- (5) In this section— 21
- former register* means the register of security interests 22 required to be kept under section 8 of the existing Act. 23
- 18 Requests for registration of confiscation orders 24
- (1) This section applies if, after the application closing time, the 25 chief executive receives a request for the registration of a 26 confiscation order in relation to chattels of a person or 27 creating a charge over the chattels of a person. 28
- (2) Despite section 15 of the existing Act, the chief executive can 29 not deal with the request after the application closing time. 30

19	Applications for registration of assignments of registered security interests	1 2
(1)	This section applies if, after the application closing time, the chief executive receives an application for the registration of an assignment of a registered security interest.	3 4 5
(2)	Despite sections 16 and 17 of the existing Act, the chief executive—	6 7
(a)	can not deal with the application after the application closing time; and	8 9
(b)	must refund any fee that accompanied the application.	10
20	Applications for discharge of registered security interests	11 12
(1)	This section applies if, after the application closing time, the chief executive receives an application for the full or partial discharge of a registered security interest.	13 14 15
(2)	Despite sections 18C and 18D of the existing Act, the chief executive—	16 17
(a)	can not deal with the application after the application closing time; and	18 19
(b)	must refund any fee that accompanied the application.	20
21	Requests to register discharge or change in particulars	21
(1)	This section applies if—	22
(a)	before the repeal, the borrower in relation to a registered security interest made a request to the lender under section 18F(1) of the existing Act in relation to the security interest; and	23 24 25 26
(b)	at the time of the repeal, the lender had not complied with section 18F(2) of the existing Act in relation to the request.	27 28 29

- (2) Despite the repeal, section 18F continues to apply to the request. 1
2
- (3) However, subsection (4) applies if the lender— 3
- (a) has been given a notice under section 18F(4); and 4
- (b) has not complied with section 18F(5)(a) or (b) before the end of the notice period. 5 6
- (4) The chief executive must ask the PPS registrar to, in accordance with the request under section 18F(1)— 7 8
- (a) register the discharge in the PPS register; or 9
- (b) change the particulars included in the PPS register. 10
- 22 Applications to change particulars in register 11
- (1) This section applies if, after the application closing time, the chief executive receives an application to change stated particulars included in the register in relation to an interest. 12
14
- (2) Despite section 18G of the existing Act, the chief executive— 15
- (a) can not deal with the application after the application closing time; and 16 17
- (b) must refund any fee that accompanied the application. 18
- 23 Removal of particulars of improperly registered interests 19
- (1) This section applies if— 20
- (a) before the repeal, the chief executive gave a notice under section 18I(2) of the existing Act to a person who appeared to the chief executive to be the lender under an interest; and 21
22
23
24
- (b) at the time of the repeal, the person had not complied with the requirement in the notice. 25 26
- (2) Despite the repeal, section 18I continues to apply to the registration of the interest. 27 28
- (3) However, subsection (4) applies if the person— 29

[s 24]

---

- (a) has been given a notice under section 18I(6); and 1
- (b) has not complied with section 18I(7)(a) or (b) before the 2 end of the notice period. 3
- (4) The chief executive must ask the PPS registrar to remove the 4
particulars in relation to the interest from the PPS register. 5
- 24 Applications for compensation for loss 6
- (1) This section applies if a person suffers loss because an act or 7 omission mentioned in section 18J of the existing Act was 8 done or made before the repeal. 9
- (2) Despite the repeal, the person may apply for payment of 10 compensation under section 18K of the existing Act. 11
- 25 Protection from liability 12
- (1) An official continues to incur no civil liability after the repeal 13 for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without 14 negligence in the performance or purported performance of 15 functions under the existing Act if— 16
- (a) the act was done or the omission was made before the 17
repeal; or 18
- (b) the act was done or the omission was made after the 19 repeal in relation to a matter that was authorised to be 20 done under this division after the repeal. 21
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to an 22
official, liability attaches instead to the State. 23
- 26 Delegations 24
- (1) The chief executive may delegate, to an appropriately 25
qualified public service employee, the chief executive's 26 powers under a provision of the existing Act that continues, 27 under this division, to have effect after the repeal. 28

(2)	A delegation that was in force immediately before the repeal in relation to a provision of the existing Act that continues, under this division, to have effect after the repeal continues to have effect as a delegation under this section.	1 2 3 4
