Chapter 2	Public interest disclosures	1
Part 1	Interpretation	2
11	Meaning of public interest disclosure	3
	A public interest disclosure is a disclosure under this chapter and includes all information and help given by the discloser to a proper authority for the disclosure.	4 5 6
	Note—	7
	This chapter sets out requirements about the information that may be disclosed and who may disclose it, to whom, and how.	8 9
Part 2	General public interest disclosures	10 11
Division 1	Information that may be disclosed and who may disclose it	12 13
12	Disclosure by any person	14
(1)	This section applies if a person (whether or not the person is a public officer) has information about—	15 16
(a)	a substantial and specific danger to the health or safety of a person with a disability; or	17 18
(b)	the commission of an offence against a provision mentioned in schedule 2, if the commission of the offence is or would be a substantial and specific danger to the environment; or	19 20 21 22
(c)	a contravention of a condition imposed under a provision mentioned in schedule 2, if the contravention	23 24

- is or would be a substantial and specific danger to the environment; or 1 2
- (d) the conduct of another person that could, if proved, be a reprisal. 3 4
- (2) The person may make a disclosure under section 17 in relation to the information to a proper authority. 5 6
8
10
11
- (b) the information tends to show the conduct or other matter, regardless of whether the person honestly believes the information tends to show the conduct or other matter. 12
13
14
15
- 13 Disclosure by a public officer 16
- (1) This section applies if a person who is a public officer has information about— 17 18
- (a) the conduct of another person that could, if proved, be— 19
- (i) official misconduct; or 20
- (ii) maladministration that adversely affects a person's interests in a substantial and specific way; or 21
22
- (b) a substantial misuse of public resources (other than an alleged misuse based on mere disagreement over policy that may properly be adopted about amounts, purposes or priorities of expenditure); or 23
24
25
26
- (c) a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety; or 27
28
- (d) a substantial and specific danger to the environment. 29
- (2) The person may make a disclosure under section 17 in relation to the information to a proper authority. 30
31

- (3) For subsection (1), a person has information about the conduct of another person or another matter if—
- (a) the person honestly believes on reasonable grounds that the information tends to show the conduct or other matter; or
  - (b) the information tends to show the conduct or other matter, regardless of whether the person honestly believes the information tends to show the conduct or other matter.

Division 2 To whom disclosure may be made

14 When member of the Legislative Assembly is a proper authority

- (1) A member of the Legislative Assembly is a proper authority to whom a person may make any disclosure under section 12 or 13.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to a disclosure if the information that is the subject of the disclosure relates to a judicial officer.

15 Public sector entity is a proper authority if particular connection

- (1) A public sector entity is a proper authority to which a person may make a disclosure under section 12 or 13 if—
- (a) the information that is the subject of the disclosure relates to—
    - (i) the conduct of the entity or any of its public officers; or
    - (ii) anything the entity has a power to investigate or remedy; or

[s 16]

---

(iii)	the conduct of another person that could, if proved, be a reprisal that relates to a previous disclosure made by the person to a proper authority; or	1 2 3
(b)	the person honestly believes that the information that is the subject of the disclosure relates to a matter mentioned in paragraph (a).	4 5 6
(2)	However, subsection (1) does not apply to a disclosure if the information that is the subject of the disclosure relates to a judicial officer.	7 8 9
16	Chief judicial officer etc. is only proper authority	10
(1)	This section applies to a disclosure relating to a judicial officer, other than a disclosure made under section 23.	11 12
(2)	A disclosure relating to a judicial officer that could, if the conduct were proved, be official misconduct or a reprisal relating to a previous disclosure under this Act, may be made only—	13 14 15 16
(a)	to the chief judicial officer of the relevant court or tribunal; or	17 18
(b)	to the Crime and Misconduct Commission.	19
(3)	Another disclosure relating to a judicial officer may be made only to the chief judicial officer of the relevant court or tribunal.	20 21 22
(4)	A chief judicial officer of a court or tribunal may receive a public interest disclosure only if the disclosure is about the conduct of another judicial officer of the court or tribunal.	23 24 25
(5)	The chief judicial officer may refer a public interest disclosure made to the chief judicial officer about the conduct of another judicial officer to a proper authority that is a public sector entity.	26 27 28 29
(6)	Section 31(2) to (5) applies to a referral under subsection (5) as if the chief judicial officer were a public sector entity.	30 31

- (7) In this section— 1
- disclosure relating to a judicial officer* means a disclosure 2 where the information that is the subject of the disclosure 3 relates to the conduct of the judicial officer. 4
- relevant court or tribunal*, for a judicial officer, is the court or 5 tribunal of which the judicial officer is a member or to which 6
the judicial officer is attached. 7

Division 3                      How disclosure may be made 8

17                      How disclosure to be made 9

- (1) A person may make a disclosure to a proper authority in any 10 way, including anonymously. 11
- (2) However, if a proper authority has a reasonable procedure for 12 making a public interest disclosure to the proper authority, the 13 person must use the procedure. 14
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if the proper authority is a public 15 sector entity, the person may make the disclosure to— 16
- (a) its chief executive officer; or 17
  - (b) for a public sector entity that is a department—the 18
Minister responsible for its administration; or 19
  - (c) if the proper authority that is a public sector entity has a 20 governing body—a member of its governing body; or 21
  - (d) if the person is an officer of the entity—another person 22 who, directly or indirectly, supervises or manages the 23 person; or 24
  - (e) an officer of the entity who has the function of receiving 25 or taking action on the type of information being 26 disclosed. 27

Examples of officers for paragraph (e)— 28

- 1 an officer of an entity's ethical standards unit, if the 29
disclosure is made under section 13(1)(a)(i) 30

Part 5	Miscellaneous provisions	1
21	Conduct of unknown person	2
	A person may make a public interest disclosure whether or not the person is able to identify a particular person to whom the information disclosed relates.	3 4 5
22	Involuntary disclosure	6
	A person may make a public interest disclosure even though the person makes it under a legal requirement.	7 8
23	Disclosure in court or tribunal proceeding	9
(1)	The section applies if a person—	10
(a)	has information that the person may disclose as a public interest disclosure to a proper authority; and	11 12
(b)	discloses the information to a court or tribunal in a proceeding in which the information is relevant and admissible.	13 14 15
(2)	The disclosure is taken to be a public interest disclosure made to the court or tribunal as a proper authority under section 15(1)(a)(ii).	16 17 18
(3)	The court or tribunal may refer the disclosure to another proper authority.	19 20
(4)	Section 31(2) to (5) applies to a referral under subsection (3) as if the court or tribunal were a public sector entity.	21 22
(5)	The fact that a court or tribunal is treated as a public sector entity under this Act, and therefore can be a proper authority under section 15(1)(a)(ii) to receive a public interest disclosure, does not give a person a right to take a proceeding before the court or tribunal that the person does not have apart from this Act.	23 24 25 26 27 28

---

24	Past, present or future event	1
	A person may make a public interest disclosure about—	2
	(a) events that happened or may have happened, whether before or after the commencement of this Act; or	3 4
	(b) events that are or may be happening; or	5
	(c) events that will or may happen.	6
25	Number of disclosures not limited	7
	The fact that a person may make a public interest disclosure under a particular provision of this Act does not prevent the person from making the disclosure under another provision of this Act to the same or another proper authority.	8 9 10 11
Chapter 3	Obligations of entities to whom disclosures may be made	12 13 14
Part 1	Preliminary	15
26	Definition for ch 3	16
	In this chapter—	17
	public sector entity includes—	18
	(a) a corporate entity; and	19
	(b) a GOC.	20
27	Purpose of chapter	21
	The purpose of this chapter is to state the obligations of—	22

[s 29]

29	Record of disclosure	1
(1)	The chief executive officer of a public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is made must keep a proper record of the disclosure, including—	2 3 4
(a)	the name of the person making the disclosure, if known; and	5 6
(b)	the information disclosed; and	7
(c)	any action taken on the disclosure; and	8
(d)	any other information required under a standard made under section 60.	9 10
(2)	The chief executive officer of a public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is referred under section 31 or 34 must keep a proper record of the disclosure, including—	11 12 13
(a)	the name of the person making the disclosure, if known; and	14 15
(b)	the information disclosed; and	16
(c)	the name of the public sector entity, or member of the Legislative Assembly, that referred the disclosure; and	17 18
(d)	any action taken on the disclosure; and	19
(e)	any other information required under a standard made under section 60.	20 21
(3)	In this section—	22
	public interest disclosure includes a purported public interest disclosure.	23 24
	public sector entity does not include—	25
(a)	a court or tribunal; or	26
(b)	the Executive Council.	27

- 30 When no action required 1
- (1) A public sector entity may decide not to investigate or deal 2 with a public interest disclosure if— 3
- (a) the substance of the disclosure has already been 4 investigated or dealt with by another appropriate 5 process; or 6
- (b) the entity reasonably considers that the disclosure 7
should be dealt with by another appropriate process; or 8
- (c) the age of the information the subject of the disclosure 9
makes it impracticable to investigate; or 10
- (d) the entity reasonably considers that the disclosure is too 11 trivial to warrant investigation and that dealing with the 12 disclosure would substantially and unreasonably divert 13 the resources of the entity from their use by the entity in 14
the performance of its functions; or 15
- (e) another entity that has jurisdiction to investigate the 16 disclosure has notified the entity that investigation of the 17 disclosure is not warranted. 18
- (2) If an entity decides not to investigate or deal with a public 19 interest disclosure under subsection (1), the entity must give 20 written reasons for its decision to the person making the 21 disclosure. 22
- (3) A person who receives written reasons for a decision of an 23 entity under subsection (2) may apply to the chief executive of 24 the entity for a review of the decision within 28 days after 25 receiving the written reasons. 26
- 31 Referral of disclosure 27
- (1) A public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is 28 made under section 15, or referred under section 34, may refer 29 the disclosure to another public sector entity (the referral 30 entity) if the disclosure is about— 31
- (a) the conduct of the referral entity or a public officer of 32
the referral entity; or 33

[s 32]

---

- (b) the conduct of an entity (including itself), or another matter, that the referral entity has the power to investigate or remedy. 1
3
  - (2) The power of a public sector entity to investigate or remedy conduct that is the subject of a public interest disclosure is not limited by a referral of the disclosure under subsection (1). 4
6
  - (3) The public sector entity must not refer a public interest disclosure to another public sector entity if it considers there is an unacceptable risk that a reprisal would happen because of the referral. 7
10
  - (4) In considering whether there would be an unacceptable risk, the public sector entity must, if practicable, consult with the person who made the public interest disclosure. 11
12
13
  - (5) This section does not affect another law under which a public sector entity must refer a report, complaint, information or evidence to another entity. 14
15
16
- 32 Person who made disclosure, or referring entity, to be informed 17 18
20
22
23
  - (2) For subsection (1), reasonable information about the disclosure includes at least the following— 24
25
    - (a) confirmation that the disclosure was received by the public sector entity; 26 27
    - (b) a description of the action proposed to be taken, or taken, by the public sector entity in relation to the disclosure; 28
29
30
    - (c) if action has been taken by the public sector entity in relation to the disclosure—a description of the results of the action. 31
32
33

---

(3)	The information must be given to the person or the entity in writing.	1 2
(4)	The public sector entity need not give information under subsection (1) if giving the information would be likely to adversely affect—	3 4 5
(a)	anybody’s safety; or	6
(b)	the investigation of an offence or possible offence; or	7
(c)	necessary confidentiality about an informant’s existence or identity.	8 9
(5)	If a person makes a public interest disclosure to the Crime and Misconduct Commission in a complaint of misconduct or official misconduct, this section does not impose on the commission any duty that the commission does not already have under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001 .	10 11 12 13 14
33	Disclosure information to be given to oversight agency	15
(1)	The oversight agency may make, under section 60, a standard that requires the chief executive officer of a public sector entity to give to the oversight agency all or any of the information mentioned in section 29.	16 17 18 19
(2)	The standard may provide for the way in which and the period within which the information is to be given.	20 21
Part 3	Members of Legislative Assembly	22 23
34	Referral of disclosure	24
(1)	A member of the Legislative Assembly to whom a public interest disclosure is made under section 14 may refer the disclosure to another public sector entity (the referral entity )	25 26 27

[s 35]

	if the member considers the referral entity has power to investigate or remedy the conduct or other matter that is the subject of the disclosure.	1 2 3
(2)	For the purposes of this Act, the member has no role in investigating the disclosure.	4 5
(3)	In this section— public interest disclosure includes a purported public interest disclosure.	6 7 8
35	Legislative Assembly may still deal with disclosure	9
(1)	This Act does not limit the immunities, powers, privileges or rights of the Legislative Assembly or its members or committees in relation to a public interest disclosure made to a member of the Legislative Assembly.	10 11 12 13
(2)	In this section— committee means a committee of the Legislative Assembly, whether or not a statutory committee. public interest disclosure includes a purported public interest disclosure.	14 15 16 17 18
Chapter 4	Protection	19
Part 1	General	20
36	Immunity from liability	21
	A person who makes a public interest disclosure is not subject to any civil or criminal liability or any liability arising by way of administrative process, including disciplinary action, for making the disclosure.	22 23 24 25

---

37	Confidentiality provisions do not apply	1
	Without limiting section 36, a person who makes a public interest disclosure does not by doing so—	2 3
	(a) commit an offence under any Act that imposes a duty to maintain confidentiality in relation to a matter or any other restriction on the disclosure of information; or	4 5 6
	(b) breach an obligation by way of oath or rule of law or practice or under an agreement requiring the person to maintain confidentiality or otherwise restricting the disclosure of information in relation to a matter.	7 8 9 10
38	Protection from defamation action	11
	Without limiting section 36, in a proceeding for defamation, a person who makes a public interest disclosure has a defence of absolute privilege for publishing the information disclosed.	12 13 14
39	Liability for own conduct	15
	(1) A person's liability for the person's own conduct is not affected by the person's disclosure of that conduct under this Act.	16 17 18
	(2) In this section—	19
	liability includes civil or criminal liability or any liability arising by way of administrative process, including disciplinary action.	20 21 22
40	Reprisal and grounds for reprisal	23
	(1) A person must not cause, or attempt or conspire to cause, detriment to another person because, or in the belief that—	24 25
	(a) the other person or someone else has made, or intends to make, a public interest disclosure; or	26 27

---

- (b) the other person or someone else is, has been, or intends to be, involved in a proceeding under the Act against any person. 1
3
- (2) An attempt to cause detriment includes an attempt to induce a person to cause detriment. 4 5
- (3) A contravention of subsection (1) is a reprisal or the taking of a reprisal. 6 7
- (4) A ground mentioned in subsection (1) as the ground for a reprisal is the unlawful ground for the reprisal. 8 9
11
12
13
- 41 Offence of taking reprisal 14
- (1) A person must not take a reprisal. 15
Maximum penalty—167 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment. 16
17
- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is an indictable offence. 18
- 42 Damages entitlement for reprisal 19
- (1) A reprisal is a tort and a person who takes a reprisal is liable in damages to any person who suffers detriment as a result. 20 21
- (2) Any appropriate remedy that may be granted by a court for a tort, including exemplary damages, may be granted by a court for the taking of a reprisal. 22
23
24
- (3) If the claim for damages goes to trial in the Supreme Court or the District Court, it must be decided by a judge sitting without a jury. 25
26
27
- (4) The right of a person to bring proceedings for damages under this section does not affect any other right or remedy available to the person arising from the reprisal. 28
29
30

- (5) Proceedings for damages may be brought under this section even if a prosecution in relation to the reprisal has not been brought, or can not be brought, under section 41. 1
3
- (6) The Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 does not apply to proceedings for damages brought under this section. 4
5
6
- 43 Vicarious liability of public sector entity 7
- (1) If any of a public sector entity's employees contravenes section 40 in the course of employment, both the public sector entity and the employee, as the case may be, are jointly and severally civilly liable for the contravention, and a proceeding under section 42 may be taken against either or both. 8
9
10
12
- (2) It is a defence to a proceeding against a public sector entity under section 42 if the public sector entity proves, on the balance of probabilities, that the public sector entity took reasonable steps to prevent the employee contravening section 40. 13
14
15
16
17
- (3) In this section— 18
- public sector entity* includes— 19
- (a) a corporate entity; and 20
- (b) a GOC. 21
- 44 Complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 22
- (1) A person may make a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal. 23 24
- (2) The complaint may be dealt with under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991, chapters 6 and 7 as if the complaint were about an alleged contravention of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991. 25
26
27
28
- (3) However— 29

[s 45]

---

- (a) if a person commences proceedings in a court under section 42 in relation to a reprisal, the person can not subsequently make a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about the reprisal; and
- (b) if the person makes a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal and the complaint is accepted under that Act, the person can not subsequently commence proceedings under section 42 in relation to the reprisal.
- (4) A complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal may be made even if a prosecution in relation to the reprisal has not been brought, or can not be brought, under section 41.
- 45 Reasonable management action not prevented
- (1) Nothing in this part is intended to prevent a manager from taking reasonable management action in relation to an employee who has made a public interest disclosure.
- (2) However, a manager may take reasonable management action in relation to an employee who has made a public interest disclosure only if the manager's reasons for taking the action do not include the fact that the person has made the public interest disclosure.
- (3) In this section—
- manager*, of an employee, means a person to whom the employee reports or a person who directly or indirectly supervises the employee in the performance of the employee's functions as an employee.
- reasonable management action*, taken by a manager in relation to an employee, includes any of the following taken by the manager—
- (a) a reasonable appraisal of the employee's work performance;

- (b) a reasonable requirement that the employee undertake counselling; 1 2
  - (c) a reasonable suspension of the employee from the employment workplace; 3 4
  - (d) a reasonable disciplinary action; 5
  - (e) a reasonable action to transfer or deploy the employee; 6
  - (f) a reasonable action to end the employee's employment by way of redundancy or retrenchment; 7 8
  - (g) a reasonable action in relation to an action mentioned in paragraph (a) to (f); 9 10
  - (h) a reasonable action in relation to the employee's failure to obtain a promotion, reclassification, transfer or benefit, or to retain a benefit, in relation to the employee's employment. 11
12
14

Part 2 Administrative actions 15

46 Right of appeal or review of public officer 16

- (1) This section applies to a public officer who, under an Act, may appeal against, or apply for a review of, any of the following actions— 17
19
  - (a) disciplinary action taken against the public officer; 20
  - (b) the appointment or transfer of the public officer or another public officer to a position as a public officer; 21
22
  - (c) unfair treatment of the public officer. 23
- (2) Whether or not the Act specifies grounds for the appeal or review, the public officer may also appeal the action or apply to have the action set aside because it was the taking of a reprisal against the public officer. 24
25
26
27

[s 47]

---

- (3) Subsection (2) applies even if the decision on the hearing of the appeal or review is in the form of a recommendation. 1
2
- (4) In this section— 3
  - public officer* includes— 4
    - (a) an employee of a corporate entity; and 5
    - (b) an employee of a GOC. 6

47 Relocation of public service employee 7

- (1) This section gives a public service employee a right to apply for relocation. 8 9
- (2) The application must be made on the ground that— 10
  - (a) it is likely a reprisal will be taken against the public service employee if the employee continues in the employee's existing work location; and 11
13
  - (b) the only practical way to remove or substantially remove the danger of a reprisal is to relocate the employee. 14
15
- (3) The application may be made by the public service employee to the appeals officer of the Public Service Commission (the appeals officer). 16
17
18
- (4) For the purposes of the Public Service Act 2008— 19
  - (a) the application is taken to be an appeal against a decision not to relocate the employee; and 20 21
  - (b) the decision mentioned in paragraph (a) is taken to have been made by the chief executive of the employee's department on the day the employee makes the application under subsection (1). 22
23
25
- (5) If the appeals officer considers the ground is established, the appeals officer may direct that the employee be relocated within the employee's department or to another department. 26
27
28
- (6) The appeals officer can not direct that the employee be relocated without the agreement of— 29

(c)	the Crime and Misconduct Commission acting in the employee's interests with the employee's consent if—	1 2
(i)	the employee is a public officer; and	3
(ii)	the reprisal involves or may involve an act or omission that the Crime and Misconduct Commission may investigate.	4 5 6
(3)	The Industrial Relations Act 1999 , section 277 applies to the application, but this part prevails if it is inconsistent with that section.	7 8 9
(4)	If the industrial commission has jurisdiction to grant an injunction on an application under subsection (1), the jurisdiction is exclusive of the jurisdiction of any other court or tribunal other than the Industrial Court.	10 11 12 13
(5)	Without limiting this section, the application is an industrial cause within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 1999 .	14 15 16
49	Right to apply to Supreme Court	17
(1)	This section applies only to a person who can not apply under section 48 to the industrial commission for an injunction about a reprisal.	18 19 20
(2)	An application for an injunction about a reprisal may be made to the Supreme Court by—	21 22
(a)	a person claiming that the person is suffering or may suffer detriment from a reprisal; or	23 24
(b)	the Crime and Misconduct Commission acting in the person's interests with the person's consent if—	25 26
(i)	the person is a public officer; and	27
(ii)	the reprisal involves or may involve an act or omission that the Crime and Misconduct Commission may investigate.	28 29 30

50	No right to apply for injunction if complaint made under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991	1 2
	Despite sections 48 and 49, a person may not apply for an injunction about a reprisal under either of those provisions if the person makes a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about the reprisal.	3 4 5 6
	Note—	7
	See the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 , section 144 (Applications for orders protecting complainant’s interests (before reference to tribunal)).	8 9
51	Grounds for injunction	10
	The industrial commission or Supreme Court may grant an injunction under this part, in terms it considers appropriate, if it is satisfied that a person has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage, in conduct amounting to—	11 12 13 14
	(a) a reprisal; or	15
	(b) attempting a reprisal; or	16
	(c) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a reprisal; or	17
	(d) inducing or attempting to induce, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, a reprisal; or	18 19
	(e) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, a reprisal.	20 21
52	Order may require stated action	22
	If the industrial commission or Supreme Court is satisfied that a person has engaged or is engaging in conduct mentioned in section 51, it may grant an injunction, under this part, requiring the person to take stated action to remedy any detriment caused by the conduct.	23 24 25 26 27

[s 53]

---

53	Evidence	1
(1)	The industrial commission or Supreme Court may grant an injunction, under this part, restraining a person from engaging in conduct mentioned in section 51—	2 3 4
(a)	whether or not it considers that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in the conduct; or	5 6 7
(b)	whether or not the person has previously engaged in the conduct; or	8 9
(c)	whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to anyone if the person engages in the conduct.	10 11 12
(2)	The industrial commission or Supreme Court may grant an injunction, under this part, requiring a person to do something—	13 14 15
(a)	whether or not it considers that the person intends to fail again, or to continue to fail, to do the thing; or	16 17
(b)	whether or not the person has previously failed to do the thing; or	18 19
(c)	whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to anybody if the person fails to do the thing.	20 21 22
54	Interim injunction	23
	An interim injunction may be granted pending the final decision on an application for an injunction under this part.	24 25
55	Restrictions about application	26
(1)	For an application for an injunction under this part that is before it, the industrial commission or Supreme Court may direct that—	27 28 29

---

(a)	a report of the whole or part of the proceeding for the application must not be published; or	1 2
(b)	evidence given, or anything filed, tendered or exhibited in the application must be withheld from release or search, or released or searched only on a stated condition.	3 4 5 6
(2)	The direction may be given if the industrial commission or Supreme Court considers that—	7 8
(a)	disclosure of the report, evidence or thing would not be in the public interest; or	9 10
(b)	persons other than parties to the application do not have a sufficient legitimate interest in being informed of the report, evidence or thing.	11 12 13
(3)	An application for an injunction under this part may be heard without notice to another person if the industrial commission or Supreme Court considers a hearing without notice to another person is necessary in the circumstances.	14 15 16 17
(4)	This section does not limit the power of the industrial commission or Supreme Court.	18 19
56	Undertaking as to damages and costs	20
	If the Crime and Misconduct Commission applies for an injunction under this part, no undertaking about damages or costs is to be required.	21 22 23
Chapter 5	Oversight agency	24
57	Definition for ch 5	25
	In this chapter—	26
	public sector entity —	27

[s 58]

---

	(a) includes a corporate entity and a GOC; and	1
	(b) does not include a court or tribunal.	2
58	Who is the oversight agency	3
	The Public Service Commission is the oversight agency .	4
59	Main functions	5
	The oversight agency's main functions are to—	6
	(a) monitor the management of public interest disclosures, including, for example, by—	7 8
	(i) monitoring compliance with this Act; and	9
	(ii) collecting statistics about public interest disclosures; and	10 11
	(iii) monitoring trends in relation to public interest disclosures; and	12 13
	(b) review the way in which public sector entities deal with public interest disclosures generally, or particular public interest disclosures; and	14 15 16
	(c) perform an educational and advisory role, including, for example, by—	17 18
	(i) promoting the objects of this Act;	19
	(ii) providing advice about public interest disclosures; and	20 21
	(iii) providing, or co-ordinating the provision of, education and training programs about public interest disclosures.	22 23 24
60	Standards	25
	(1) The oversight agency may make standards about the way in which public sector entities are to deal with public interest disclosures.	26 27 28

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a standard may provide for procedures relating to—
- (a) the way in which public sector entities are to facilitate the making of public interest disclosures; and
  - (b) the way in which public sector entities are to perform their functions under this Act; and
  - (c) the protection of persons from reprisals taken by public sector entities or public officers; and
  - (d) the provision by public sector entities to the oversight agency of statistical information about public interest disclosures.
- (3) Before making a standard, the oversight agency must take reasonable steps to consult with the public sector entities to which the standard may apply.
- (4) For subsection (3), the consultation must take place with—
- (a) for a GOC—the GOC’s shareholding Ministers; or
  - (b) otherwise—the public sector entity’s chief executive.
- (5) A failure to consult under subsection (3) does not affect the validity of the standard.
- (6) A standard is binding on a public sector entity.
- (7) However, if the public sector entity is a GOC, the standard is binding on the GOC only if the GOC’s shareholding Ministers—
- (a) notified the GOC’s board, under the Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 114(1), that the standard was to apply to the GOC; and
  - (b) before giving the notification mentioned in paragraph (a), complied with the Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 114(3).
- (8) If a standard is not binding on a GOC because of the application of subsection (7), the shareholding Ministers of the GOC must notify the oversight agency, in writing, that the standard is not binding on the GOC.

[s 61]

---

- (9) A standard may be amended or replaced by a later standard made under this section. 1 2
- (10) A standard may be made only by gazette notice. 3
- (11) As soon as practicable after the oversight agency makes a standard, the oversight agency must ensure the standard is published on the oversight agency's website. 4
5
6
- Editor's note—* 7
- At the commencement of this section, the oversight agency's website was at <www.psc.qld.gov.au>. 8 9
- (12) If a standard is inconsistent with an Act or subordinate legislation, the Act or subordinate legislation prevails to the extent of the inconsistency. 10
11
12
- 61 Annual report 13
- (1) The oversight agency must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare a report on the operation of this Act during that year and give a copy of the report to the Minister. 14
15
16
17
- (2) A report under subsection (1) may include, in relation to the financial year to which it relates, information about the following— 18
19
20
- (a) the performance of the oversight agency's functions under this Act; 21 22
- (b) the performance by public sector entities of the requirements of this Act, including any requirements of standards made under section 60; 23
24
25
- (c) other matters prescribed under a regulation. 26
- (3) A report under subsection (1) must include statistical information about public interest disclosures. 27
28
- 62 Review of Act 29
- (1) The oversight agency must carry out a review of the operation of this Act. 30
31

- (2) The review must commence within 5 years after the commencement of this section. 1 2
- (3) The objects of the review include— 3
- (a) deciding whether the main objects of the Act remain 4
valid; and 5
- (b) deciding whether the Act is achieving its main objects; 6
and 7
- (c) deciding whether the provisions of the Act are 8
appropriate for achieving its main objects. 9
- (4) The oversight agency must give the Minister a report about 10
the outcome of the review. 11
- (5) The Minister must, as soon as practicable after receiving the 12 report, table the report in the Legislative Assembly. 13

63 Application of chapter to Crime and Misconduct 14
Commission and ombudsman 15

- (1) Nothing in this chapter— 16
- (a) gives the oversight agency the power to review or 17
monitor— 18
- (i) the way in which the Crime and Misconduct 19
Commission exercises its functions under the 20
Crime and Misconduct Act 2001; or 21
- (ii) the way in which the ombudsman exercises the 22
ombudsman’s functions under the Ombudsman Act 23
2001; or 24
- (b) requires the Crime and Misconduct Commission to 25 report to the oversight agency about the way in which 26
the Crime and Misconduct Commission exercises its 27 powers under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001; or 28
- (c) requires the ombudsman to report to the oversight 29 agency about the way in which the ombudsman 30 exercises the ombudsman’s powers under the 31
Ombudsman Act 2001. 32

[s 64]

---

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to— 1
- (a) the functions of the Crime and Misconduct Commission 2 as a public sector entity in relation to a public interest 3 disclosure made to the commission by a public officer of 4 the commission, or a public interest disclosure referred 5 to the commission under section 31(1)(a); or 6
- (b) the functions of the ombudsman as a public sector entity 7 in relation to a public interest disclosure made to the 8 ombudsman by a public officer of the ombudsman, or a 9 public interest disclosure referred to the ombudsman 10 under section 31(1)(a). 11

Chapter 6 Miscellaneous 12

64 Protection from liability 13

- (1) A relevant person is not civilly liable to someone for an act 14 done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence 15
under this Act. 16
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a 17
person— 18
- (a) for a person who is a public officer of a local 19 government, corporate entity or an entity established 20 under local government authorisation—the liability 21 attaches instead to the local government; or 22
- (b) for a person who is a public officer of an entity, other 23 than an entity mentioned in paragraph (a), that does not 24 represent the State—the liability attaches instead to the 25 entity; or 26
- (c) otherwise—the liability attaches instead to the State. 27
- (3) In this section— 28
- relevant person* means a person who is responsible for 29 discharging a function, or part of a function, under this Act. 30

---

65 Preservation of confidentiality

- (1) If a person gains confidential information because of the person's involvement in this Act's administration, the person must not make a record of the information, or intentionally or recklessly disclose the information to anyone, other than under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—84 penalty units.

- (2) A person gains information because of the person's involvement in this Act's administration if the person gains the information because of being involved, or an opportunity given by being involved, in the administration.

Example—

If a person gains information because the person is a public officer who receives a public interest disclosure for a proper authority, the person gains the information because of the person's involvement in this Act's administration.

- (3) A person may make a record of confidential information or disclose it to someone else—
- (a) for this Act; or
  - (b) to discharge a function under another Act including, for example, to investigate something disclosed by a public interest disclosure; or
  - (c) for a proceeding in a court or tribunal; or
  - (d) if the person to whom the confidential information relates consents in writing to the making of the record or disclosure of the information; or
  - (e) if—
    - (i) the person can not reasonably obtain the consent of the person to whom the confidential information relates; and
    - (ii) making the record or disclosing the information is unlikely to harm the interests of the person to whom the confidential information relates and is reasonable in all the circumstances; or

[s 65]

---

- (f) if the person reasonably believes that making the record or disclosing the information is necessary to provide for the safety or welfare of a person; or
- (g) if authorised under a regulation or another Act.
- (4) This section does not affect an obligation a person may have under the principles of natural justice to disclose information to a person whose rights would otherwise be detrimentally affected.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies to information disclosing, or likely to disclose, the identity of a person who makes a public interest disclosure only if it is—
- (a) essential to do so under the principles of natural justice;
and
- (b) unlikely a reprisal will be taken against the person because of the disclosure.
- (6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if there is an inconsistency between this section and section 10(1), this section prevails.
- (7) In this section—
- confidential information—
- (a) includes—
- (i) information about the identity, occupation, residential or work address or whereabouts of a person—
- (A) who makes a public interest disclosure; or
- (B) against whom a public interest disclosure has been made; and
- (ii) information disclosed by a public interest disclosure; and
- (iii) information about an individual’s personal affairs;
and
- (iv) information that, if disclosed, may cause detriment to a person; and

(b) does not include information publicly disclosed in a public interest disclosure made to a court, tribunal or other entity that may receive evidence under oath, unless further disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.

law, for a public interest disclosure made to a committee of the Legislative Assembly, includes a standing rule, order or motion of the Legislative Assembly.

66 False or misleading information

(1) A person must not—

(a) make a statement to a proper authority intending that it be acted on as a public interest disclosure; and

(b) in the statement, or in the course of inquiries into the statement, intentionally give information that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—167 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

(2) An offence against subsection (1) is an indictable offence.

(3) In this section—

proper authority includes—

(a) a corporate entity; and

(b) a GOC.

67 Misconduct by breach of Act

(1) A public officer is guilty of misconduct under an Act under which the officer may be dismissed from office or disciplined for misconduct, if the officer contravenes any of the following—

• section 41 (Offence of taking reprisal)

• section 65 (Preservation of confidentiality)

• section 66 (False or misleading information).

[s 68]

---

- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001, the Crime and Misconduct Commission may investigate the contravention, or the alleged or suspected contravention, if—
- (a) the public officer is a member of the police service; or
  - (b) the contravention is official misconduct by a person holding an appointment in a unit of public administration within the meaning of the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001.
- 68 Proceedings for offences generally
- An offence against this Act other than an offence declared to be an indictable offence is a summary offence.
- 69 Proceedings for indictable offences
- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a proceeding on a charge for an indictable offence under this Act must be heard and decided summarily.
- (2) A Magistrates Court must abstain from dealing summarily with a charge for an indictable offence under this Act—
- (a) if satisfied, at any stage, and after hearing any submissions by the prosecution and defence, that because of the nature or seriousness of the offence or any other relevant consideration the defendant, if convicted, may not be adequately punished on summary conviction; or
  - (b) if satisfied, on an application made by the defence, that because of exceptional circumstances the charge should not be heard and decided summarily.
- (3) If the court abstains from jurisdiction, the proceeding for the charge must be conducted as a committal proceeding.

70	Change to a committal proceeding during summary proceeding	1 2
(1)	This section applies if, during a proceeding before a Magistrates Court to hear and decide a charge for an indictable offence summarily, the court decides the charge is not one that should be decided summarily.	3 4 5 6
(2)	The court must stop treating the proceeding as a proceeding to hear and decide the charge summarily and start treating it as a committal proceeding.	7 8 9
(3)	The defendant's plea at the start of the hearing must be disregarded.	10 11
(4)	The evidence already heard by the court must be taken to be evidence in the committal proceeding.	12 13
(5)	To remove any doubt, it is declared that the Justices Act 1886 , section 104 must be complied with for the committal proceeding.	14 15 16
71	Regulation-making power	17
(1)	The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.	18 19
(2)	A regulation may provide that, for all or particular public interest disclosures—	20 21
(a)	a public sector entity is to be treated as a part of another public sector entity; or	22 23
(b)	a part of a public sector entity is to be treated as part of another public sector entity or a separate public sector entity; or	24 25 26
(c)	public sector entities or parts of public sector entities are to be treated as a single public sector entity.	27 28
(3)	A regulation under subsection (2) may not—	29
(a)	apply to a public sector entity mentioned in section 6(1)(a) or (b); or	30 31

[s 72]

---

(b)	provide for a court or tribunal to be treated as part of a public sector entity not consisting of courts or tribunals of like jurisdiction or their administrative offices; or	1 2 3
(c)	be inconsistent with a requirement under an Act that a public sector entity act independently.	4 5
(4)	In this section—	6
	public sector entity includes—	7
(a)	a corporate entity; and	8
(b)	a GOC.	9
