Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2010

Erratum to Explanatory Notes

Title of the Bill

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation and Other Legislation
Amendment Bill 2010

Reasons for Erratum

To correct an error and clarify certain provisions.

Notes on Provisions

1. Under the heading "Consistency with Fundamental Legislative Principles", page 3, third paragraph, first sentence

Replace "a notice of claim was lodged" with "proceedings commenced" to ensure consistency with clause 45.

2. Under the heading "Consistency with Fundamental Legislative Principles", page 4, last paragraph, after "Electrical Safety Act 2002."

Insert a new paragraph: "The provisions of the Bill as they amend the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 do not codify the law relating to civil claims for damages by injured workers. Accordingly, the development of the law of negligence in those areas not referred to can continue.”

3. Clause 21, page 10, first paragraph, last sentence, after “inappropriate for work situations.”

Insert a new paragraph: “This clause, in amending the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003, does not codify the law relating to civil claims for damages by injured workers. Accordingly, the development of the law of negligence in those areas not referred to can continue.”
