
Explanation about this publication

The cumulative reprints update contains information about legislation published in the Queensland Legislation Reprints series. It includes—

- Acts and subordinate legislation that have been reprinted in the series
- information about all reprints of legislation in the series, including unauthorised (that is, electronic) reprints
- details of amending legislation passed, made or approved
- information about amendments included in unauthorised reprints
- legislation that has been repealed, expired or lapsed.

Also included in this electronic publication is—

- reprint number
- new amendments included in each reprint
- effective date (if a reprint was published with a ‘publication date’ this date is shown in brackets ‘[date]’)
- information about revision notices
- amendments currently uncommenced—shown underlined.

For older legislation reprinted prior to the introduction of unauthorised reprints, all the amendments included in the reprint are not listed. For reprints of this type, only the last amendment included will be mentioned, but with the wording ‘up to Act No. ...’.

A list of reprinted legislation to be removed and added each monthly release is not included in this format. This information is available in the ‘Weekly update to Queensland legislation’ published by Goprint.
