Replacement of ss.7–15

6. Sections 7 to 15—

omit, insert—

‘Appointment of inspectors

‘7.(1) The chief executive may appoint an officer or employee of the department as an inspector.

‘(2) The chief executive may appoint a person to be an inspector only if—

- (a) in the chief executive’s opinion, the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an inspector; or
- (b) the person has satisfactorily completed a course of training approved by the chief executive.

‘(3) An inspector whose appointment is limited in its application may exercise a power under this Act only if the exercise of the power is permitted by the appointment.

‘Role of police officers

‘8. A police officer is, without further appointment, an inspector.

‘Accredited officers

‘9.(1) The chief executive may appoint an officer or employee of a unit of the public sector as an accredited officer.

‘(2) The chief executive may appoint a person to be an accredited officer only if—

- (a) in the chief executive’s opinion, the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an accredited officer; or
- (b) the person has satisfactorily completed a course of training approved by the chief executive.

‘(3) An accredited officer whose appointment is limited in its application may exercise a power under this Act only if the exercise of the power is permitted by the appointment.

‘Identity cards for inspectors and accredited officers

‘10.(1) The chief executive must issue an identity card to each inspector and accredited officer (other than a police officer).

‘(2) The identity card must—

- (a) contain a photograph of the inspector or accredited officer; and

- (b) be in the approved form; and
- (c) be signed by the inspector or accredited officer.

‘(3) A person (other than a police officer) who ceases to be an inspector or accredited officer must return the person’s identity card to the chief executive as soon as practicable after ceasing to be an inspector or accredited officer.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

‘(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person if the person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with it.

‘Proof of authority by inspectors and accredited officers

‘11.(1) This section applies to—

- (a) an inspector (other than a police officer) who is not wearing a uniform approved by the chief executive; and
- (b) an accredited officer (other than a police officer) who is not wearing a uniform approved by the chief executive; and
- (c) a police officer who is not wearing a police uniform.

‘(2) An inspector or accredited officer may exercise a power in relation to a person only if the inspector or officer first produces his or her identity card for inspection by the person.

‘(3) If, for any reason, it is not practicable to comply with subsection (2) before exercising the power, the inspector or accredited officer must comply with the subsection at the first reasonable opportunity.

‘Delegation by chief executive

‘12. The chief executive may delegate the chief executive’s powers under this Act to an officer of the public service employed in the department.

‘Reports to be made

‘13.(1) An accredited officer who makes an inspection or examination for the purposes of Part 4 must provide the chief executive with a written report about the inspection or examination.

‘(2) A copy of the report must be kept in a way approved by the chief executive.

‘Inspection of reports

‘14. A person who pays the fee prescribed by regulation and satisfies the chief executive that—

- (a) the person is the owner, or prospective buyer, of a motor vehicle that has been the subject of a report under section 13; or
- (b) the solicitor of a person mentioned in paragraph (a);

is entitled to be given a copy of the report.

‘Protection from liability

‘15.(1) An inspector or accredited officer does not incur civil liability for an act or omission done honestly and without negligence under, or for the purposes of, this Act.

‘(2) A liability that, apart from subsection (1), would attach to the inspector or officer attaches instead to the State.

‘Inspectors and accredited officers to give notice of damage

‘15A.(1) An inspector or accredited officer who, in the exercise of a power under Part 2A, damages anything must immediately give written notice of the particulars of the damage.

‘(2) The notice must be given to the person who appears to the inspector or officer to be the owner of the thing.

‘(3) If, for any reason, it is not practicable to comply with subsection (2), the inspector or officer must—

- (a) leave the notice on the thing that is damaged; and
- (b) ensure that it is left—
 - (i) in a reasonably secure way; and
 - (ii) in a conspicuous position.

‘Compensation

‘15B.(1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs any loss or expense—

- (a) because of the exercise or purported exercise of a power under Part 2A; or
- (b) in complying with a requirement made of the person under Part 2A.

‘(2) A payment for compensation may be claimed and ordered—

- (a) in a proceeding brought in a court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of compensation; or
- (b) during a proceeding for an offence against this Act brought against the person against whom the claim is made.

‘(3) A court may order the payment of compensation for the loss or expense only if it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case.

‘(4) This section does not apply to the exercise of a power (including the making of a requirement) to which section 18B(3)(a) applies.

‘PART 2A—POWERS OF INSPECTORS*‘Division 1—General powers of inspectors‘Application of Division

‘15C. The powers conferred by this Division are in addition to powers conferred by any other Division.’.

Insertion of new Divisions 2 and 3 of Part 2A

7. After section 18—

insert—

Division 2—Power to stop vehicles at checkpoint or otherwise

‘Approval of random inspection program

‘18A.(1) The chief executive may approve a program under which inspectors may set up checkpoints to inspect motor vehicles to ensure the compliance of the vehicles with applicable motor vehicle safety and performance requirements.

‘(2) A checkpoint may be on a road or elsewhere.

‘Power to stop motor vehicles at checkpoints

‘18B.(1) This section applies if an inspector has set up a checkpoint.

‘(2) An inspector at the checkpoint may require the driver of a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle at the checkpoint.

‘(3) The inspector may require the driver to stop the vehicle only if—

- (a) the vehicle is a type of vehicle that the inspector is stopping at the checkpoint by reference to objective criteria that are part of a program approved under section 18A; or
- (b) the inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that the vehicle does not comply in every respect with applicable motor vehicle safety and performance requirements.

‘Power to stop motor vehicles other than at checkpoints

‘18C.(1) An inspector may require the driver of a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle other than at a checkpoint.

‘(2) The inspector may require the driver to stop the vehicle only if the inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that the vehicle does not comply in every respect with applicable motor vehicle safety and performance requirements.

‘Way in which driver is to be required to stop

‘18D. An inspector may require the driver of a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle by indicating the requirement to the driver in a way prescribed by regulation.

‘Failure to obey requirement to stop

‘18E.(1) The driver of a motor vehicle must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement to stop the vehicle made under—

- (a) section 18B (Power to stop motor vehicles at checkpoints); or
- (b) section 18C (Power to stop motor vehicles other than at checkpoints).

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

‘(2) It is a reasonable excuse if—

- (a) to obey the requirement immediately would have endangered the person or another person; and
- (b) the person stops the vehicle as soon as it is practicable to stop it.

‘Police officer may arrest if certain requirements disobeyed

‘18F.(1) This section applies if a police officer—

- (a) finds a person committing an offence against section 18E; or
- (b) finds a person who the officer believes on reasonable grounds has committed an offence against section 18E.

‘(2) The police officer may arrest the person if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that proceedings by way of complaint and summons against the person would be ineffective.

Division 3—Powers after vehicle is stopped‘Application of Division

‘18G. The powers under this Division may be exercised only after a motor vehicle is stopped under section 18B or 18C.

‘General powers after vehicle is stopped

‘18H.(1) After the motor vehicle is stopped, an inspector may examine or inspect it with any reasonable assistance.

‘(2) For the purposes of the examination or inspection, an inspector may—

- (a) unlock, unfasten or open a closed door on, or a component of, the vehicle or remove a removable cover on it; and
- (b) enter the vehicle; and
- (c) inspect a thing (other than a document or personal possession) in or on the vehicle that the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, may relate to the vehicle’s use or condition; and
- (d) move the vehicle.

‘(3) The inspector may require the driver of the vehicle to give the reasonable assistance that is necessary to enable the examination or inspection to be carried out.

‘(4) Without limiting subsection (3), the inspector may require the driver of the vehicle to give reasonable assistance—

- (a) by moving the vehicle to a reasonable place specified by the inspector (but the place must not be more than 1 km from where the vehicle was stopped); and
- (b) by remaining in control of the vehicle at the place for a reasonable period.

‘(5) If the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, that—

- (a) a document in or on the vehicle may relate to the use or condition of the vehicle; and

- (b) it is necessary for the inspector to inspect the document in order to decide whether the Act is being complied with;

the inspector may require the driver of the vehicle to produce the document to the inspector for inspection.

‘Failure to give assistance

‘18I.(1) A person who is required under section 18H (General powers after vehicle is stopped) to give reasonable assistance to an inspector must comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

‘(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if a person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with the requirement.

‘(3) If the assistance that is required to be given by the person is to answer a question, it is a reasonable excuse to fail to answer the question if complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person.

‘Failure to produce document

‘18J.(1) A person who is required under section 18H(5) (General powers after vehicle is stopped) to produce a document to an inspector for inspection must comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

‘(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if a person has a reasonable excuse for not complying with the requirement.

‘(3) It is a reasonable excuse for the person to fail to produce the document if complying with the requirement to produce might tend to incriminate the person.

‘(4) If—

- (a) an inspector requires a person to produce a document under section 18H(5) on the basis of a reasonable belief about a document; and
- (b) the document does not in fact relate to the use or condition of the vehicle;

the person does not commit an offence against this section by failing to comply with the requirement.

‘Power to require name and address for specified cause

‘18K.(1) This section applies if an inspector—

- (a) finds a person committing an offence against this Act; or
- (b) finds a person who the inspector has reasonable grounds for suspecting has committed an offence against this Act.

‘(2) The inspector may—

- (a) require the person to state the person’s name and address; and
- (b) if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that the name or address given by the person is false—require evidence of its correctness.

‘(3) If the inspector makes a requirement under subsection (2), the inspector must warn the person that it is an offence against this Act to fail to comply with the requirement without reasonable cause.

‘Failure to provide name and address

‘18L.(1) A person who is required under section 18K to state the person’s name or address must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

‘(2) A person who is required under section 18K to give evidence of the correctness of a name or address must not without reasonable excuse, fail to give the evidence.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

‘(3) If—

- (a) an inspector makes a requirement of a person under section 18K on a suspicion of the person having committed an offence; and
- (b) the person is not proved to have committed the offence;

the person does not commit an offence against this section by failing to comply with the requirement.

‘(4) A person must not state a false name or address, or give false evidence of a name or address, to an inspector.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

‘Police officer may arrest for failure to provide identification

‘18M. A police officer may arrest a person if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) the person has committed an offence against section 18L; and
- (b) proceedings by way of complaint and summons against the person would be ineffective.

‘Power to require answers to questions for limited purposes

‘18N.(1) If an inspector believes on reasonable grounds that a person may be able to provide information relevant to the enforcement of this Act, the inspector may require the person to answer a question in relation to any of the following matters—

- (a) the history of the ownership of the motor vehicle;
- (b) if the vehicle does not comply in every respect with the applicable motor vehicle safety and performance requirements—
 - (i) any certificate of roadworthiness issued in relation to the vehicle; and
 - (ii) any modifications to the vehicle.

‘(2) If the inspector makes a requirement under subsection (1), the inspector must warn the person that it is an offence against this Act to fail to comply with the requirement without reasonable excuse.

‘Failure to answer question

‘18O.(1) A person who is required under section 18N to answer a question must not, without reasonable excuse—

- (a) fail to comply with the requirement; or

- (b) give false or misleading information to an inspector (whether or not the person is required to give the information).

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

‘(2) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to answer a question if answering the question might tend to incriminate the person.

‘(3) If—

- (a) an inspector requires a person to answer a question under section 18N on the basis of a reasonable belief about information; and
- (b) the information is not in fact relevant to the enforcement of this Act;

the person does not commit an offence against this section by failing to comply with the requirement.’.

Replacement of ss.23 and 24

8. Sections 23 and 24—

omit, insert—

‘Certain motor vehicles require certificate of inspection

‘23.(1) An owner of a category A vehicle must not use the vehicle, or permit it to be used, unless a certificate of inspection is in force for the vehicle.

Maximum penalty—15 penalty units.

‘(2) This section applies to a new motor vehicle during the first year after it is first registered only if a regulation provides that this section applies to the vehicle.

‘Certificate of inspection

‘24.(1) A certificate of inspection is obtained from—

- (a) an accredited officer; or
- (b) a Part 4 AIS.

‘(2) A certificate of inspection from a Part 4 AIS must be signed by—

- (a) the Part 4 examiner who examined the vehicle; and
- (b) the proprietor or nominee of the Part 4 AIS.

‘(3) An accredited officer or Part 4 examiner must not sign a certificate of inspection unless the person is satisfied that the motor vehicle—

- (a) is in good repair; and
- (b) has no defect that would affect its safe use on the road.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

‘(4) A certificate of inspection must be in the approved form.

‘(5) A certificate remains in force for 1 year unless a regulation provides that another period applies to the vehicle.

‘(6) However, a motor vehicle’s certificate of inspection ceases to be in force if the vehicle’s registration under the Transport Infrastructure (Roads) Act 1991 is cancelled.

‘(7) The proprietor or nominee of a Part 4 AIS must not sign a certificate of inspection unless the proprietor or nominee is satisfied that the motor vehicle—

- (a) is a type of vehicle that the Part 4 AIS may inspect under its approval; and
- (b) was inspected at the premises specified in the approval of the Part 4 AIS; and
- (c) was inspected by a Part 4 examiner.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.’.

Replacement of ss.38–42

9. Sections 38 to 42—

omit, insert—

‘PART 5AA—APPROVALS UNDER INSPECTION SCHEME

‘Division 1—Matters relevant to all applications for approval

‘Application of Part

‘38. This Part applies to the following approvals—

- (a) an approval of a Part 4 AIS;
- (b) an approval of a Part 5 AIS;
- (c) an approval of an individual as a Part 4 examiner;
- (d) an approval of an individual as a Part 5 examiner;
- (e) an approval of an individual as a nominee.

‘Requirements for applications

‘38A.(1) An application for an approval under Part 4 or 5 must—

- (a) be made to the chief executive; and
- (b) be on an approved form; and
- (c) specify, or be accompanied by, the particulars required by the approved form; and
- (d) be accompanied by the application fee prescribed by regulation.

‘(2) An application must be in relation to—

- (a) all motor vehicles; or
- (b) a class of motor vehicles.

Examples of paragraph (b)—

Vehicles owned or operated by the applicant as a fleet.

Vehicles of a particular make or size.

‘More than 1 approval may be granted

‘38B. A person may apply for, and be granted, more than 1 approval, whether of the same kind or different kinds.

‘Form of approvals

‘38C.(1) An approval must be in a form approved by the chief executive.

‘(2) An approval is subject to any conditions that are—

- (a) specified in the approval; or
- (b) prescribed by regulation.

‘(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the conditions that may be specified in the approval or prescribed by regulation include conditions relating to—

- (a) the method of inspecting motor vehicles; and
- (b) the equipment to be used in an inspection.

‘(4) If a condition specified in the approval is inconsistent with a condition specified in a regulation in relation to the approval, the condition specified in the regulation prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

‘Division 2—Applicant must be a fit and proper person‘Approval only if applicant is a fit and proper person

‘38D.(1) The chief executive may grant an application under this Part only if the chief executive is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person.

‘(2) Subsection (1) is in addition to any other limitation on the chief executive’s power to grant an application.

‘Determining whether applicant is a fit and proper person

‘38E.(1) In deciding whether a person is a fit and proper person, the chief executive must have regard to—

- (a) whether the person demonstrates knowledge and understanding of the obligations of an approved person of the relevant kind under this Act; and
- (b) whether the person is a person of good repute who does not have a history of behaviour that would render the applicant unsuitable to be approved.

Examples of behaviour that would render an applicant unsuitable—

~~I~~ Involvement in car theft.

~~R~~ Receiving a stolen vehicle.

‘(2) If the applicant is a body corporate, or the chief executive knows, or suspects on reasonable grounds, that the applicant would hold an approval on behalf of a partnership, the chief executive must discharge the responsibility under subsection (1) by applying the subsection to—

- (a) each person in a position of authority or influence in relation to the body corporate; or
- (b) each person who is a member of the partnership;

as if each person were an applicant.

‘Reports needed before approval

‘38F.(1) The chief executive may obtain—

- (a) a report from the Commissioner of Police about the criminal history of—
 - (i) an applicant for approval; and
 - (ii) each person to whom section 38E, 38I or 39A applies as if the person were the applicant; and
- (b) if the applicant or person holds or previously held in another State or a Territory a relevant licence, permit, authority, interest or position—a report from the appropriate authority in the State or Territory.

‘(2) Section 6 of the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 does not apply to a report under subsection (1)(a).

‘Division 3—Approval of premises‘Application of Division

‘38G. This Division applies to an application for approval of premises as a Part 4 AIS or Part 5 AIS.

‘Who may apply for approval?

‘38H. An application must be made by the proprietor of the premises the subject of the application.

‘Nomination of individuals to be nominees

‘38I.(1) If the applicant—

- (a) is a body corporate or a member of a partnership; or
- (b) is already approved under this Act for other premises; or
- (c) will not be present at the premises to supervise work at the premises on a daily basis;

the applicant must nominate, in the application, an adult individual to be the nominee for the approval sought by the applicant.

‘(2) Another applicant may nominate, in the application, an adult individual to be the nominee for the approval sought by the applicant.

‘(3) An application that nominates a person as a nominee of the applicant must be accompanied by, or include, an application for approval of an adult individual as a nominee.

‘(4) The application for approval of a nominee may be granted only if the chief executive is satisfied that the nominee is a fit and proper person.

‘(5) If—

- (a) subsection (1) requires an applicant to nominate an individual to be the nominee for an approval; and
- (b) at any time after the approval is granted, the individual is the only nominee and ceases to hold the position in which the person is charged with responsibility for the conduct of the business for which approval was granted;

the proprietor must nominate another individual to be the nominee for the approval.

‘(6) A person ceases to be the nominee for an approval if the person ceases to hold the position in which the person is charged with responsibility for the conduct of the business for which the approval was granted.

‘Role of nominee etc.

‘38J.(1) If an application for an adult individual to be the nominee in relation to the approval of premises is granted, the individual becomes the nominee for the approval.

‘(2) In the conduct of business on the premises to which the approval relates, the nominee—

- (a) is responsible for ensuring that the functions of the proprietor of the premises are properly performed; and
- (b) is subject to the obligations imposed by this Act on the proprietor; and
- (c) is liable as the proprietor for an offence against this Act, or for failure to perform an obligation of the proprietor, in relation to the premises.

‘(3) The nominee’s liability to be punished for a contravention of this Act does not affect the liability of the proprietor to be punished for the contravention.

‘Approval of premises

‘38K. The chief executive may grant an application in relation to premises only if the chief executive is satisfied that—

- (a) the premises are equipped and will be maintained in accordance with the regulations; and
- (b) the proprietor of the premises is a fit and proper person.

‘Notice of approval of premises

‘38L. The proprietor of a Part 4 AIS or Part 5 AIS must exhibit the approval at the premises as required by regulation.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

‘Division 4—Approval of approved examiners‘Who may apply?

‘39. An adult individual may apply for approval as a Part 4 examiner or a Part 5 examiner.

‘Approval of examiners

‘39A. The chief executive may approve of a person as an examiner of the type specified in the application if the chief executive is satisfied—

- (a) that the person is a fit and proper person for approval as an examiner of the specified type; or
- (b) that the person has the qualifications prescribed by regulation for an examiner of the specified type.

‘Division 5—Variation, cancellation and suspension of approvals‘Variation of approval on application

‘40.(1) The holder of an approval may apply to the chief executive for a variation of the approval.

‘(2) The chief executive must determine the application by—

- (a) varying the approval in the way sought; or
- (b) refusing to vary the approval.

‘(3) The chief executive must vary the approval unless the chief executive is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the variation is not desirable for the effective administration of this Act.

‘Variation of approvals without application

‘40A.(1) If the chief executive believes on reasonable grounds that it may be desirable for the effective administration of this Act to vary a condition of an approval, the chief executive may give the holder of the approval a notice under this section.

‘(2) The notice must—

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) specify the administration matter involved; and
- (c) outline the facts and circumstances that form the basis for the belief; and
- (d) invite the holder to show cause within a specified period (not less than 14 days) why the approval should not be varied in the way specified in the notice.

‘(3) After the end of the specified period, the chief executive must—

- (a) consider any representations properly made by the holder; and
- (b) if the chief executive is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the variation is desirable for the effective administration of this Act—vary the approval.

‘Procedure for effecting variations

‘40B. For the purpose of effecting the variation of an approval, the chief executive must—

- (a) by written notice, request the holder to send the approval to the chief executive within the period (not less than 7 days) specified in the notice; and
- (b) after varying the approval in the appropriate way—return it to the holder.

‘Cancellation and suspension of approvals—grounds

‘41. Each of the following is a ground for the cancellation or suspension of an approval—

- (a) that the holder of the approval has contravened a provision of this Act, a regulation or the approval concerning the examination of motor vehicles (whether or not the holder has been prosecuted for the contravention);
- (b) that the AIS does not comply with a provision of this Act, a regulation or the approval concerning the equipment to be used for examining motor vehicles;
- (c) that the holder of the approval has been convicted of an offence against this Act;
- (d) that the holder of the approval is no longer a fit and proper person because of behaviour that has rendered that person unsuitable, for example, involvement in car theft or receiving a stolen vehicle;
- (e) that the holder of an approval has failed to respond to a request under section 40B(a);
- (f) that the approval was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.

‘Cancellation and suspension of approvals—procedures

‘41A.(1) If the chief executive believes on reasonable grounds that a ground for the cancellation or suspension of an approval exists, the chief executive must give the holder of the approval a notice under this section.

‘(2) The notice must—

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) specify the grounds for cancellation or suspension; and
- (c) specify the administration matter involved; and
- (d) outline the facts and circumstances that form the basis for the chief executive’s beliefs mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (e) invite the holder to show cause within a specified period (not less than 14 days) why the approval should not be cancelled or suspended.

‘(3) After the specified period, the chief executive must—

- (a) consider any representations properly made by the person; and
- (b) if the chief executive is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a ground for cancellation or suspension of an approval exists—take the appropriate action and serve the holder of the approval with notice of the decision to cancel or suspend.

‘(4) The appropriate action is—

- (a) if the notice was a notice of intention to cancel the approval—
 - (i) cancel the approval; or
 - (ii) suspend the approval for a period that the chief executive considers is appropriate; or
- (b) if the notice was a notice of intention to suspend the approval for a specified period—suspend the approval for—
 - (i) the period; or
 - (ii) a shorter period that the chief executive considers appropriate.

‘(5) A cancellation or suspension of an approval takes effect—

- (a) on the day on which notice mentioned in subsection (3) is given to the holder; or
- (b) if a later day is specified on the notice—on the later day.

‘Surrender of approvals

‘41B.(1) The holder of an approval may surrender the approval by written notice given to the chief executive.

‘(2) The approval must accompany the notice.

‘(3) A surrender of an approval takes effect—

- (a) on the day on which the notice is given; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—on the later day.

Division 6—Appeals‘Appeals concerning decisions of chief executive

‘42. A person who is aggrieved by any of the following decisions of the chief executive under this Part may appeal to the Tribunal—

- (a) a decision that an applicant is not a fit and proper person;
- (b) a decision not to approve premises as a Part 4 AIS or Part 5 AIS;
- (c) a decision not to approve a person as a Part 4 examiner or Part 5 examiner;
- (d) a decision to refuse to vary an approval sought by the holder of the approval;
- (e) a decision to vary an approval under section 40A(3)(b);
- (f) a decision to cancel or suspend an approval under section 41A(3)(b).’.

Insertion of new s.50A

10. After section 50—

insert—

‘Chief executive may approve forms

‘50A.(1) The chief executive may, by Gazette notice, approve a form for use under this Act.

‘(2) If the chief executive approves a form for a purpose, the form must be used for that purpose.’.

Amendment of s.51 (Regulations)

11. Section 51(2)—

omit, insert—

‘(2) The regulation may prescribe—

- (a) offences against this Act as offences in relation to which a notice may be given or posted to an offender or affixed to a motor vehicle advising that a specified penalty may be paid for the offence within a specified period without involving court proceedings; and

- (b) amounts (not more than 10 penalty units) that are payable by way of penalties in relation to offences mentioned in paragraph (a); and
- (c) the particulars to be contained in the notice; and
- (d) the way the notice may be given to a person or affixed to a vehicle.

‘(3) A regulation made for the purposes of subsection (2) may prescribe that a notice may also advise that an amount (determined by the chief executive) not more than double the amount of any fee payable for any purpose under this Act may be paid within the period mentioned in subsection (2)(a), without involving court proceedings.

‘(4) A notice mentioned in subsection (2) may be given in relation to a matter in addition to another notice given under this Act in relation to the matter.’.
