EDUCATION (CAPITAL ASSISTANCE) REGULATION 1994

[reprinted as in force on 8 March 1994]

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Education (Capital Assistance) Regulation 1994.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 18 February 1994.

3 Prescribed day for submission of application for capital assistance (s 15(1))

An application to the Minister for capital assistance for a proposed capital project to be carried out at an eligible non-State school must be given to the CAA by 31 March in the relevant year.

4 Application for capital assistance (s 15(4))

The following information must be contained in or accompany an application for capital assistance by an eligible non-State school—

- (a) the school's name and address;
- (b) the year the school was established;
- (c) a description of the proposed project identifying the major facilities to be provided;
- (d) the purpose for which the facilities will be used;
- (e) the estimated total project cost;
- (f) the amount of capital assistance sought;
- (g) other proposed sources of funding for the project, including any Commonwealth grants that have been approved or applied for;
- (h) the year the facilities are needed.

5 Assessment of application by CAA (ss 16(1)(a) and 19(1)(a))

The following are the criteria on which the CAA must assess an application for capital assistance, or an application for a review of a decision to grant capital assistance, from an eligible non-State school—

- (a) the condition and number of existing facilities in relation to the level of facilities needed;
- (b) the financial situation of the school;
- (c) the age of the school;
- (d) the extent to which the school provides boarding places to students from remote areas of Queensland.

6 Prescribed day for submission of recommendation for capital assistance (s 16(2))

A recommendation by the CAA about an application for capital assistance must be given to the Minister by 30 September in the relevant year.

7 Prescribed day for provision of return by eligible non-State school (s 23(2))

The approved authority of an eligible non-State school must give, to the CAA, the written return for the relevant year required by section 23(2) of the Act by 31 May in the following year.

8 Prescribed day for provision of return by CAA (s 24(1))

A CAA must give to the Minister, by 30 June each year, the written return for the previous year required by section 24(1) of the Act.
