INDUSTRIAL COURT (INDUSTRIAL ORGANISATIONS) RULES 1990

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 14 July 2000]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Purpose

1.(1) The general purpose of these rules is to provide an orderly and coherent method of approach in relation to the range of matters likely to be dealt with thereunder.

(2) In particular these rules aim to encourage the effective disposition of the business of the Court, Commission, Industrial Magistrates and registrar by ensuring that—

- (a) the tribunals and the parties to the proceedings are apprised of any contentious issues involved without undue technical requirements; and
- (b) the parties have addressed the issues between them; and
- (c) the tribunal is apprised of those issues without delay.

Short title

2. These rules may be cited as the Industrial Court (Industrial Organisations) Rules 1990.

Application

3. These rules shall apply to all proceedings before the Court, the Commission, Industrial Magistrates (subject to the Justices Act 1886, and the Magistrates Courts Act 1921 where relevant), and the registrar.

*Industrial Court (Industrial Organisations)
Rules 1990*

Continuance of proceedings and appointments

4. Any proceeding or appointment lodged or commenced prior to the commencement of these rules shall continue and/or may be acted upon as if they were lodged under these rules, notwithstanding any differences in form and procedure and shall be taken as always to have been valid and effectual for all purposes.

Interpretation

Definitions

5. In these rules—

“agent” includes a natural person, an incorporated body and an authorised representative of a partnership or business registered in Queensland duly appointed in accordance with these rules.

“appellant” means a party appealing from or against a decision and subsequent order or judgment and subsequent order and includes, where necessary, any person directed by the Court or Commission, to have the carriage of the appeal, or a proceeding arising out of the appeal.

“applicant” means a party or person claiming relief.

“filed” means filed in the Office of the Registrar. A document is filed when the relevant fee (if any) is paid and the registrar or authorised officer marks upon it the registrar’s stamp.

“form” means a form contained in Schedule 2 or an approved form in accordance with these rules.

“month”, in any judgment or order and in any document in any proceeding, means calendar month.

“officer of the Court” means any person who acts under the direction of the Court, Commission, Industrial Magistrate or registrar.

“respondent” means a party against whom relief is claimed, or named as respondent in a proceeding or matter.

---

“sealed” means marked with the seal of the Court or Commission.

“stamped” means marked with the stamp of the registrar.

Meaning ascribed

6. Words and phrases used in these rules other than those herein defined shall unless the contrary intention appears, have the same meaning as ascribed thereto in the Act.<sup>1</sup>

Reckoning of time

7. In all cases in which a particular number of days is prescribed for doing any act or for any other purpose, the same shall be reckoned in accordance with the Acts Interpretation Act 1954.

PART 2—FEES

Fees

8.(1) The fees payable in the court or commission or before the registrar are in schedule 1.

(2) If a fee payable is for a supply on which GST is payable, the fee is to be increased to take account of the GST.
