RACING AND BETTING REGULATION 2000

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 17 April 2002]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Racing and Betting Regulation 2000.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 July 2000.

PART 1A—PROVISIONS ABOUT SELECTION PANELS

2A Establishment of selection panel as occasion requires

(1) For the purpose of selecting and appointing a person or persons as a member or members of the Thoroughbred Racing Board, or a member as the chairperson or deputy chairperson of the board, the Minister may establish a selection panel by giving written notice to each person the Minister selects for the panel.

(2) The notice must state—

- (a) the name and address of each person on the panel; and
- (b) the position or positions on the Thoroughbred Racing Board for which a selection and appointment is required.

(3) A selection panel must consist of 3 members.

(4) In establishing a selection panel, the Minister must consult with the persons involved in the thoroughbred racing industry the Minister considers appropriate.

2B Persons who are ineligible for selection panel

(1) A person is ineligible to be or to continue as a member of a selection panel if the person—

- (a) is affected by bankruptcy action; or
- (b) is, or has been, convicted of an indictable offence or an offence against the Act; or
- (c) becomes incapable of performing the duties of the member because of physical or mental incapacity; or
- (d) is warned off, disqualified, or is named on the forfeit list, under the rules of racing; or
- (e) is licensed by the Thoroughbred Racing Board, including, for example, as a licensed racing bookmaker, jockey, owner-trainer, strapper and trainer.

(2) For subsection 1(a), a person is affected by bankruptcy action if the person—

- (a) is bankrupt; or
- (b) has compounded with creditors; or
- (c) as a debtor, has otherwise taken, or applied to take, advantage of any law about bankruptcy.

2C Selection and appointment of board members

In selecting and appointing a person as a member of the Thoroughbred Racing Board, a selection panel must have regard to—

- (a) the interests of the thoroughbred racing industry in the State; and
- (b) achieving a board membership with skills or experience in the following—
 - (i) business or financial management;
 - (ii) law;
 - (iii) leadership;
 - (iv) marketing;
 - (v) the thoroughbred racing industry.

2D Selection and appointment of chairperson or deputy chairperson of board

(1) In selecting and appointing a member of the Thoroughbred Racing Board as the chairperson or deputy chairperson of the board, a selection panel must consult with the members of the board.

(2) A member may be selected and appointed as the chairperson or deputy chairperson only by a unanimous resolution of the selection panel.

2E Engaging a person to help a selection panel

(1) The chief executive may engage a person, who provides services in recruiting individuals for positions, to help a selection panel in recruiting individuals for positions on the Thoroughbred Racing Board.

(2) The chief executive may engage the person before the selection panel is established.

PART 2—RACING ASSOCIATIONS

3 Composition of the South-East Queensland Racing Association

(1) The South-East Queensland Racing Association is comprised of the following members—

- (a) 2 members nominated by the Queensland Turf Club;

- (i) 1 member nominated by licensed jockeys.

8 Nomination of member to racing association

(1) The nomination of a member to a racing association must be made as soon as practicable after 28 February in each year that nominations are to be made.

(2) A member of a racing association is eligible for renomination and reappointment as a member.

(3) The Queensland Principal Club must invite nominations and conduct elections for the members of each racing association that are to be nominated by licensed trainers, racing bookmakers or licensed jockeys.

9 Appointment of member to racing association

A person nominated under sections 3 to 7 is, on nomination, appointed a member of the racing association for which the person is nominated.

10 Term of office

A member of a racing association holds office for 3 years from the day the member is appointed.

11 Vacation of office

The office of a member of a racing association becomes vacant if the member—

- (a) dies; or
- (b) becomes incapable of continuing as a member; or
- (c) resigns by signed notice given to the racing association; or
- (d) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the racing association and is not excused by it for the absences at any time before the end of the next meeting after the third absence.

12 Casual vacancies

(1) If a casual vacancy happens in the office of a member (the “previous member”), another person is to be nominated and appointed in the same way as the previous member was nominated and appointed.

(2) A person appointed to fill a casual vacancy as a member is to be appointed and to hold office—

- (a) for the balance of the previous member’s term of office; or
- (b) until the person sooner vacates office.

13 Racing association may regulate its own proceedings

A racing association may regulate its proceedings as it considers appropriate.

PART 3—PROVISIONS ABOUT BETS

14 Bet stands despite death

(1) A bet stands despite the death of either party to the bet.

(2) Subsection (1) applies subject to—

- (a) section 16; and
- (b) any conditions imposed by a declaration under section 161(1) of the Act.¹

15 Results of sporting contingencies

A control body’s written notice under section 161(3) of the Act about the declaration of a sporting contingency must include the way in which the result of the sporting contingency is to be decided.

16 Abandonment etc.

If a sporting contingency, other than a horse race, trotting race or greyhound race, is abandoned or no result is declared, all bets are cancelled and the amount bet by bettors must be refunded.

17 Approved place for paying and settling certain bets

The payment and settlement at Tattersall's Club Rooms, 215 Queen Street, Brisbane of a bet lawfully made by and with a racing bookmaker at any racing venue is approved.

PART 4—SAMPLING AND ANALYSIS FOR DRUGS

18 Definitions for pt 4

In this part—

“approved” means approved by the Racing Codes Advisory Board.

“container” includes a bag.

“declares” means declares in writing.

“racing science centre” means the unit of the department that, under the department's strategic plan, is responsible for analysing samples taken under section 228A(2) of the Act.

“sample” means biological or other material taken from or produced by, a horse or greyhound, including blood, faecal material, hair, saliva, sweat, tissue, urine or vomit.

“sample number”, for a sample, means—

- (a) if the sample is contained in 1 container—a unique number used to mark the container; or
- (b) if the sample is contained in 2 or more containers—a unique number used to mark each container.

“taken”, in reference to a sample, includes collecting the sample and placing it in 1 or more containers.

“tamper-evident seal”, for a container, means a seal designed to assist in detecting whether—

- (a) the container has been tampered with or opened; or
- (b) an attempt has been made to tamper with or open the container.

19 Way samples to be taken, marked, sealed and delivered for analysis

This part prescribes the way a sample must be taken, marked, sealed and delivered for analysis for section 228A of the Act.

20 General—applies to all samples

(1) A sample must be taken in a way that provides a reasonable safeguard against a contaminant being introduced into the sample by any of the following means while the sample is being taken and sealed—

- (a) a person not involved in taking the sample;
- (b) an accidental act by a person involved in taking the sample;
- (c) another accidental act.

(2) However, a sample may contain a thing that is part of the process of taking the sample.

Examples—

1. A sample of saliva may contain a swab used to take it.
2. A sample of blood may contain an appropriate anti-coagulant.
3. A sample of urine may contain the residue of an appropriate fluid used to rinse a container holding the sample.

(3) A responsible person must witness the whole process of taking the sample and sealing the container or containers.

(4) A record of the sample must be made that includes the following information—

- (a) the name of the relevant control body;
- (b) the registered name of the animal;
- (c) the type of sample;
- (d) where the sample was taken;
- (e) the date and time the sample was taken;
- (f) the sample number;

- (g) if the sample was taken in connection with a race that has been run, or is about to be run, at a race meeting—
 - (i) the race club conducting the meeting; and
 - (ii) the race number; and
 - (iii) the placing, if any, of the animal in the race;
- (h) the name of the person who collected the sample;
- (i) the name of the person who placed the sample in 1 or more containers and sealed the container or containers;
- (j) for a blood sample—the sample number on each adhesive sticker on each tube of blood is the same and matches the number on the seal over the cap of the container into which the tube of blood was placed;
- (k) the name of the witness;
- (l) the witness witnessed the whole process of taking the sample and sealing the container or containers.

(5) The witness must verify the information mentioned in subsection (4)(a) to (f) and (j) to (l) by signing the record.

(6) The person who took the sample must verify the information mentioned in subsection (4)(a) to (h) and (j) by signing the record.

(7) The person mentioned in subsection (4)(i) must verify the information mentioned in subsection (4)(a) to (g), (i) and (j) by signing the record.

(8) A copy of the record must be given to—

- (a) an owner or trainer of the animal; or
- (b) a strapper or other person attending the animal.

21 Blood samples

(1) A blood sample may consist of 1 or more tubes of blood taken at approximately the same time.

(2) The tube of blood, or if there is more than 1 tube each tube, must have an adhesive sticker on it marked with the same sample number.

(3) A sticker may have the number already written on it, or be prepared without a number.

(4) The tube or tubes of blood must be placed inside 1 or more containers.

(5) A container may hold more than 1 tube of blood.

(6) The container, or if there is more than 1 container each container, must be capped, and a tamper-evident seal must be placed over the cap and part of the container.

(7) Each tamper-evident seal for the sample must be marked with the same sample number as is marked on each sticker on each tube of blood.

22 Other samples

(1) A sample other than of blood may consist of 1 or more containers of the sample taken at, or approximately at, the same time.

(2) The container, or if there is more than 1 container each container, must be capped, and a tamper-evident seal must be placed over the cap and part of the container.

(3) Each tamper-evident seal for the sample must be marked with the same sample number.

23 Analysis of samples

(1) Each sample taken under section 228A(3) of the Act must be delivered to the racing science centre for analysis by an analyst.

(2) If the chief executive declares that, for any reason, a sample can not be tested at the racing science centre within a reasonable time, the chief executive must deliver the sample to an approved laboratory for analysis by an analyst.

(3) Delivery under subsection (1) or (2) must take place as soon as is reasonably practicable.

24 Delivery of samples

For section 228A(6) of the Act, the prescribed ways of delivery of samples for analysis are—

(a) personally; or

(b) by dispatching the samples through the post, or through an approved delivery service, in a container sealed under this part and designed to ensure the sample is adequately protected in transit.

PART 5—FEES

25 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are set out in schedule 6.

PART 6—REPEAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

26 Repeal

The Racing and Betting Regulation 1981 is repealed.

27 Saving of appointments of members of racing associations

(1) This section applies to a person who held office as a member of a racing association immediately before the commencement of this section.

(2) The person is taken to properly hold office as a member of the racing association under this regulation.

(3) Subject to the Act, the term of the person's appointment is the balance of the term for which the person held office immediately before the commencement.
