VETERINARY SURGEONS REGULATION 1991

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 11 July 2000]

Short title

1. This regulation may be cited as the Veterinary Surgeons Regulation 1991.

Fees

5.(1) The fees payable under the Act are in schedule 1.

(2) A veterinary surgeon who is an officer of the public service within the meaning of the *Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988*¹ is exempt from payment of registration fees and the annual roll fee.

Primary and secondary registration

5A.(1) A person entitled to be registered as a veterinary surgeon under section 18 of the Act may apply for—

- (a) primary registration as a veterinary surgeon—if the majority of the person's practice is carried on in Queensland; or
- (b) secondary registration as a veterinary surgeon—if the majority of the person's practice is carried on in another State or a Territory.

(2) A veterinary surgeon entitled to be registered as a veterinary specialist under section 19C of the Act may apply for—

- (a) primary registration as a veterinary specialist—if the majority of the veterinary surgeon's practice is carried on in Queensland; or
- (b) secondary registration as a veterinary specialist—if the majority of the veterinary surgeon's practice is carried on in another State or a Territory.

¹ Now see Public Service Act 1996, section 138 (References to Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988).

Elections

6.(1) The registrar must give each veterinary surgeon at least 3 months notice of the day appointed by the board for the holding of triennial elections of the elective members of the board.

(2) The registrar must—

- (a) fix a date by which nominations for the election of veterinary surgeons to the board must be received; and
- (b) cause notice to be given—
 - (i) inviting veterinary surgeons to nominate candidates for election to the board; and
 - (ii) of the time and date by which nominations must be received by the returning officer.

(3) A notice under subsection (2)(b) must be published not less than 28 days before the date by which nominations must be received in 2 newspapers circulating generally throughout the State.

Nominations

7.(1) A nomination must—

- (a) nominate 1 person only; and
- (b) state the nominee's full name; and
- (c) be signed by—
 - (i) the nominee; and
 - (ii) at least 3 other veterinary surgeons; and
- (d) be received by the returning officer by noon on the day on which nominations close.

(2) A nomination may be accompanied by a candidate's statement of up to 200 words.

Conduct of elections

8.(1) The returning officer must, as soon as is practicable after nominations close, conduct a ballot of veterinary surgeons by sending to each veterinary surgeon a ballot paper, an envelope for the ballot paper and an envelope addressed to the returning officer.

Veterinary Surgeons Regulation 1991

(2) A ballot paper must—

- (a) contain the full names of all candidates, arranged in alphabetical order; and
- (b) specify the time and date by which completed ballot papers must be received by the returning officer; and
- (c) be initialled by the returning officer; and
- (d) be accompanied by statements (if any) furnished by the candidates.

(3) A veterinary surgeon may vote on a ballot by—

- (a) marking the ballot paper with a cross opposite the names of not more than 3 candidates; and
- (b) placing the marked ballot paper in the envelope for the ballot paper and sealing that envelope; and
- (c) placing the sealed envelope in the envelope addressed to the returning officer, signing that envelope and forwarding it to the returning officer so as to be received by the time specified on the ballot paper.

Count

9.(1) At the close of the ballot, the returning officer must—

- (a) open each envelope received by the returning officer; and
- (b) accept as formal ballot papers which are marked as required by section 8(3)(a); and
- (c) reject as informal ballot papers which are not marked as required by section 8(3)(a); and
- (d) count and record the number of formal votes for each candidate.

(2) A ballot paper is not informal merely because of an informality in the way it has been dealt with if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the intention of the voter is clear.

Scrutiny

10. Each candidate may appoint 1 scrutineer to be present when the returning officer conducts the count and must notify the returning officer of that appointment, in writing, not less than 5 days before the close of the ballot.

Declaration

11.(1) If there are more than 3 candidates, the returning officer must declare elected from those candidates the 3 candidates who receive the highest number of votes.

(2) If 3 candidates can not be declared elected because 2 or more of them have received an equal number of votes and the number of those candidates, together with the number of candidates entitled to be declared elected exceeds 3, the returning officer must draw lots to determine which of those candidates whose votes are equal is to be declared elected.

(3) A draw conducted under subsection (2) must be conducted in the presence of the deputy registrar and the scrutineers (if any).

(4) All ballot papers used in an election must be retained by the returning officer for 3 months, and after that time must be destroyed, at a convenient time, in the presence of a member or officer of the board.
