PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This declaration may be cited as the Fisheries (White Spot Syndrome Virus) Quarantine Declaration 2001.

2 Definitions

In this declaration—

“declared quarantine area” means an area declared to be a quarantine area under section 3.

“restricted prawns” means imported green prawns in a declared quarantine area.

“virus” means the declared disease white spot syndrome virus.

PART 2—DECLARED QUARANTINE AREAS

3 Declaration of quarantine areas

Each of the following areas is declared to be a quarantine area for section 95(1) of the Act—

- (a) lot 50 on RP889481, Parish of Tingalpa, County of Stanley;
- (b) lot 8 on RP749474, Parish of Cairns, County of Nares.

4 Nature of quarantine

The quarantine is for restricting movement of restricted prawns out of the declared quarantine areas to prevent the spread of the virus to live fisheries resources.

PART 3—DISEASE CONTROL MEASURES

5 Restrictions on moving restricted prawns

(1) A person must not, without an inspector's written consent, move restricted prawns out of a declared quarantine area.

(2) An inspector's consent may include directions about moving the prawns.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), a direction may be about—

- (a) how the prawns must be moved; or
- (b) where the prawns may be moved to; or
- (c) the purposes for which the prawns may be used after they are moved.

6 Taking and removing, or destroying, restricted prawns

If an inspector reasonably believes restricted prawns are infected with the virus, the inspector or a person authorised by the inspector may take and remove, or destroy, the prawns in a way the inspector considers appropriate for eliminating the virus.

PART 4—EXPIRY

7 Expiry

This declaration expires on 2 July 2001, unless it is sooner revoked under section 102 of the Act.
