Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

JURY ACT 1995

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 19 July 2002]

An Act about juries

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Jury Act 1995.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions—the dictionary

The dictionary in schedule 3 defines particular words used in this Act.

PART 2—CITIZEN'S OBLIGATION TO PERFORM JURY SERVICE

4 Qualification to serve as juror

(1) A person is qualified to serve as a juror at a trial within a jury district (“qualified for jury service”) if—

- (a) the person is enrolled as an elector; and
- (b) the person's address as shown on the electoral roll is within the jury district; and

(c) the person is eligible for jury service.

(2) A person who is enrolled as an elector is eligible for jury service unless the person is mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) The following persons are not eligible for jury service—

- (a) the Governor;
- (b) a member of Parliament;
- (c) a local government mayor or other councillor;
- (d) a person who is or has been a judge or magistrate (in the State or elsewhere);
- (e) a lawyer actually engaged in legal work;
- (f) a person who is or has been a police officer (in the State or elsewhere);
- (g) a corrective services officer;
- (h) a person who is 70 years or more, if the person has not elected to be eligible for jury service under subsection (4);
- (i) a person who is not able to read or write the English language;
- (j) a person who has a physical or mental disability that makes the person incapable of effectively performing the functions of a juror;
- (k) a person who has been convicted of an indictable offence, whether on indictment or in a summary proceeding;
- (l) a person who has been sentenced (in the State or elsewhere) to imprisonment.

(4) A person who is 70 years or more may elect to be eligible for jury service in the way prescribed under a regulation.

5 Obligation to perform jury service

A person who is qualified for jury service is liable to perform jury service unless the person is excused from jury service by a judge or the sheriff.¹

¹ For power to excuse from jury service, see sections 19 to 23.

6 Verdict not to be questioned on ground of qualification of juror

The fact that a person who is not qualified for jury service serves on a jury is not a ground for questioning the verdict.

PART 3—JURY DISTRICTS AND JURY ROLLS*Division 1—Jury districts7 Jury districts—establishment and boundaries

- (1) A jury district may be established or abolished under a regulation.
- (2) The boundaries of a jury district are as defined under a regulation.

8 Assignment of responsibility for jury districts to other sheriffs and persons

(1) Responsibility for carrying out the sheriff of Queensland's functions under this Act for a particular jury district may be assigned under a regulation to—

- (a) the central sheriff; or
- (b) the northern sheriff; or
- (c) a deputy sheriff; or
- (d) another officer or person specified under a regulation.²

(2) However, despite an assignment of responsibility under this section, the sheriff of Queensland—

- (a) remains responsible for keeping jury rolls and preparing lists of prospective jurors for all jury districts; and ² The northern sheriff and the central sheriff are appointed under the Supreme Court Act 1995, section 273. The deputy sheriffs are appointed under the Supreme Court Act 1995.

- (b) may, by agreement with the sheriff to whom responsibility for a particular jury district has been assigned, issue notices³ and summonses⁴ to prospective jurors for the jury district.

Division 2—Jury rolls

9 Keeping of jury rolls

(1) The sheriff of Queensland must keep a jury roll for each jury district.

(2) A jury roll may be kept in any way, including, for example, by computer.

10 Jury roll for a jury district

(1) The jury roll for a particular jury district must consist of a list of the names, addresses and occupations of electors whose addresses, as recorded in an electoral roll, are within the jury district.

(2) However, the sheriff of Queensland must exclude from the jury roll the names of persons who are, to the sheriff's knowledge, not qualified for jury service.

(3) The sheriff of Queensland may make reasonable inquiries to find out which persons enrolled as electors for addresses in a particular jury district should be excluded from the jury roll.

11 Electoral commission to give information

If asked by the sheriff of Queensland, the electoral commission must—

- (a) give the sheriff information reasonably required for keeping a jury roll; and
- (b) allow the sheriff access to any information the commission has relevant to the keeping of jury rolls.

3 See section 18 (Notice to prospective jurors).

4 See section 27 (Summons for jury service).

12 Arrangements with commissioner of the police service

(1) For keeping a jury roll, the sheriff or the electoral commission may arrange with the commissioner of the police service for the police service to—

- (a) make inquiries reasonably required for keeping a jury roll; or
- (b) give other reasonable help relevant to keeping a jury roll.

(2) The sheriff or the electoral commission must give a police officer helping under the arrangement any information the sheriff or commission has that may help the officer conduct the inquiries.

(3) Subsection (1) does not limit the help the sheriff or the electoral commission may require.

(4) The Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 does not apply to the disclosure of information for inquiries, or to the sheriff or the electoral commission, under this section.

PART 4—ASSEMBLY OF JURORS

Division 1—General powers of senior judge administrator

13 Practice directions

After consulting with the chief judge of District Courts, the senior judge administrator may issue directions under the *Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991*⁵ about—

- (a) the preparation of lists of prospective jurors for each jury district and, in particular, how often a fresh list is to be prepared for each jury district; and

⁵ The Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991, section 60, deals with the responsibility of the senior judge administrator for the administration of the Supreme Court in the trial division. The section empowers the senior judge administrator, among other things, to issue directions about the practices and procedures of the Supreme Court in the trial division (s 60(2)(b)).

- (b) summoning and assembling prospective jurors for jury service; and
- (c) forming panels of prospective jurors from the available persons who have been summoned for jury service in a jury district so juries may be selected for civil and criminal trials that are to begin in the jury district; and
- (d) the criteria for excusing from jury service and the circumstances in which a person may be excused permanently from jury service; and
- (e) jury members being informed of the names of the parties and any witnesses to be called.

14 Administrative directions

After consulting with the chief judge of District Courts, the senior judge administrator may give administrative directions for the proper and efficient administration of this Act to sheriffs and other persons engaged in the administration of this Act.

Division 2—Preparation of lists of prospective jurors

15 Lists of prospective jurors

(1) The sheriff of Queensland must prepare lists of prospective jurors for each jury district.

(2) The sheriff of Queensland may decide how often a list of prospective jurors is to be prepared for each jury district and the number of persons to be included in each list according to the sheriff's estimate of the likely need for jurors in the jury district.

(3) However—

- (a) the sheriff of Queensland must comply with requirements under the practice directions about how often fresh lists of prospective jurors are to be prepared for each jury district; and
- (b) subject to the practice directions, the sheriff of Queensland must comply with the request of another sheriff—

- (i) for the preparation of lists of prospective jurors for the jury district for which the other sheriff is responsible; and
- (ii) about the number of prospective jurors to be included in each list.

16 Selection of persons to be included in list of prospective jurors

(1) The names of persons to be included in the list of prospective jurors are to be drawn from the jury roll for the relevant jury district.

(2) The selection must be made—

- (a) by a computer programmed to make a random selection of names from the jury roll; or
- (b) by random selection of cards bearing the names of, or numbers representing, the persons whose names are on the jury roll.

17 Copies of list must be given to other sheriffs

When the sheriff of Queensland prepares a list of prospective jurors for a jury district for which another sheriff is responsible, the sheriff of Queensland must give a copy of the list to the other sheriff.

Division 3—Notice to prospective jurors

18 Notice to prospective jurors

(1) The sheriff must give each prospective juror a written notice (a “notice to prospective jurors”) stating—

- (a) the person may be summoned for jury service; and
- (b) the jury service period for which the person may be summoned.

(2) The notice must include or be accompanied by—

- (a) a questionnaire (a “prospective juror questionnaire”) to find out whether the person is qualified to serve as a juror and, if the person claims not to be qualified to serve as a juror, the ground of the claim; and
- (b) a form (an “application form”) to enable the person to apply to be excused from jury service.

(3) A person to whom the notice is given must not fail to return the completed prospective juror questionnaire to the sheriff within the reasonable time allowed in the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

(4) If the person wants to be excused from jury service, the person must return the completed application form to the sheriff.

(5) Unless permitted by the practice directions, the sheriff may excuse a person from jury service only on an application form that states the reasons for asking to be excused from jury service.

(6) A person must not state something the person knows is false in response to a prospective juror questionnaire, or in an application to be excused from jury service.

Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

Division 4—Power to excuse from jury service

19 Sheriff’s power to excuse from jury service

(1) On an application to be excused from jury service, the sheriff may excuse the applicant from jury service—

- (a) for a particular jury service period (or part of a particular jury service period); or
- (b) permanently.

(2) In exercising the power to excuse from jury service, the sheriff must comply with procedural requirements imposed under the practice directions.

20 Power of judge to excuse from jury service

(1) A judge may excuse a person from jury service—

- (a) for a particular jury service period (or part of a particular jury service period); or
- (b) permanently.

(2) A judge may exercise the power to excuse from jury service—

- (a) on the judge's own initiative; or
- (b) on application by a member of a jury panel who wants to be excused from jury service.

(3) A judge may hear an application under this section with or without formality.

(4) If the judge's decision on an application under this section is inconsistent with the sheriff's decision on an earlier application made to the sheriff by the same applicant, the judge's decision prevails.

21 Criteria to be applied in excusing from jury service

(1) In deciding whether to excuse a person from jury service, the sheriff or judge must have regard to the following—

- (a) whether jury service would result in substantial hardship to the person because of the person's employment or personal circumstances;
- (b) whether jury service would result in substantial financial hardship to the person;
- (c) whether the jury service would result in substantial inconvenience to the public or a section of the public;
- (d) whether others are dependent on the person to provide care in circumstances where suitable alternative care is not readily available;
- (e) the person's state of health;
- (f) anything else stated in a practice direction.

(2) A person may be permanently excused from jury service only if the person is eligible to be permanently excused from jury service in the circumstances stated in the practice directions.

22 When prospective juror entitled to be excused from jury service

(1) This section applies to a prospective juror if the prospective juror—

- (a) has been summoned to perform jury service for a particular jury service period, or is on a list of prospective jurors who may be summoned to perform jury service for a particular jury service period; and

- (b) has earlier been summoned for jury service and has attended as required by the summons for a jury service period (or, if excused from jury service for part of a jury service period, the balance of the jury service period) ending less than 1 year before the jury service period mentioned in paragraph (a).

(2) The prospective juror is entitled to be excused from jury service for the jury service period.

23 Time for exercising power to excuse

A prospective juror may be excused from jury service before or after the prospective juror is summoned for jury service.

Division 5—Revision of list of prospective jurors

24 Revision of list

(1) After the end of the time allowed in the notices to prospective jurors for the return of prospective juror questionnaires, the sheriff must revise the list of prospective jurors.

(2) The revision is made by noting on the list the exclusion from the list of the name of each person—

- (a) who, in the sheriff's opinion—
- (i) cannot be located within a reasonable time; or
 - (ii) is not qualified for jury service; or
- (b) who has been excused from jury service.

(3) The sheriff may make reasonable inquiries to find out whether the name of a person on the list of prospective jurors should be excluded from the list because the person is not qualified for jury service.

25 Effect of revised list

(1) On revision of the list of prospective jurors, the list (the “revised list of prospective jurors”) becomes the basis for issuing summonses for jury service in the relevant jury district for the jury service period concerned.

(2) However, an unrevised list of prospective jurors may be used as the basis for issuing summonses for jury service, if the sheriff considers there is not enough time to allow the list to be revised before the summonses are issued.

(3) A prospective juror selected from an unrevised list of prospective jurors may be summoned for jury service only if the notice to prospective jurors⁶ has been given to the prospective juror, or is given to the prospective juror together with the summons.

Division 6—Summoning for jury service

26 Selection of persons for summons

(1) The sheriff must from time to time (as the sheriff considers necessary) select for summons enough prospective jurors to enable the selection of juries for trials starting in the relevant jury district in the jury service period concerned.

(2) The persons to be summoned must be selected—

- (a) by a computer programmed to make a random selection of names from the revised list of prospective jurors; or
- (b) by random selection of cards bearing the names of, or numbers representing, the persons whose names are on the revised list of prospective jurors.

(3) However, the selection may be made from the unrevised list of prospective jurors, if the sheriff considers there is not enough time to allow for the list to be revised before the summonses are issued.⁷

27 Summons for jury service

(1) The sheriff must give to each person selected for summoning a summons requiring the person—

- (a) to attend for jury service as instructed by the sheriff at places and times to be stated in the instructions; and
- (b) if selected as a member of a jury, to attend as instructed by the court until discharged by the court.

6 See section 18(1) (Notice to prospective jurors).

7 See section 25(2) (Effect of revised list).

(2) A person summoned for jury service may only be instructed by the sheriff to attend for jury service at a time that falls within a period stated in the summons as the jury service period.

(3) The sheriff must instruct a sufficient number of persons to attend for jury service on each day on which a trial or trials are to start in the jury district to enable the selection of juries for the trial or trials.

(4) An instruction to attend for jury service may be given—

- (a) personally, whether directly or indirectly; or
- (b) by notice in a newspaper circulating generally in the jury district; or
- (c) by telephone, radio, television or other form of distance communication; or
- (d) in a way—
 - (i) authorised under a regulation; or
 - (ii) agreed between the sheriff and the person to whom the instruction is given.

(5) The persons required to attend on the sheriff's instructions may be identified in the instructions in a way stated in the summons.

Example—

The summons might allocate an identifying number to the person to whom the summons is given.

28 Obligation to comply with summons

(1) A person must not fail to comply with a summons under this division, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

(2) If a person fails, without reasonable excuse, to attend before a court as instructed by the sheriff or the court under this division, the failure may be dealt with either as an offence against subsection (1) or as a contempt of the court.

29 List of persons summoned for jury service

(1) For each jury service period, the sheriff must prepare and keep up-to-date a list of the persons summoned for jury service in a jury district and not later excused from jury service (the “list of persons summoned for jury service”).

(2) The list of persons must state the name, address and occupation, as mentioned in section 37,⁸ of each person on the list.

(3) If asked by a party to a civil or criminal trial that is to take place in the jury district in the jury service period, or a lawyer or other person representing a party, the sheriff must—

- (a) give the party, lawyer or other person a copy of the list of persons summoned for jury service; and
- (b) identify or provide a means of identifying each person who has been instructed by the sheriff to attend on the day the jury for the relevant trial is to be selected.

(4) The request may be made no earlier than 4.00 pm on the business day immediately before the day on which the jury for the trial is to be selected.

(5) A person who has received a copy of the list must return the copy to the sheriff as soon as practicable after the jury for the trial is selected, unless the person has disposed of it in the way directed by a judge under subsection (6).

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

(6) A judge may direct a person who has received a copy of the list to dispose of it as the judge directs.

(7) The sheriff must destroy copies of the list returned to the sheriff.

30 Reproduction of list of persons summoned for jury service

(1) A person who receives a copy of the list of the persons summoned for jury service must not—

- (a) reproduce the list or permit its reproduction; or
- (b) give the list, or disclose any information in the list, to a person other than a party, or a lawyer or other person representing a party, to the civil or criminal trial to which the list relates.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

⁸ Section 37 (Materials to be given by sheriff)

(2) However, the sheriff or a person acting under the sheriff's authority may—

- (a) reproduce the list or permit its reproduction; or
- (b) give a copy of the list, or disclose information in the list, to a person who is not a party or the representative of a party;

if it is reasonably necessary for the proper administration of this Act.

Example—

The sheriff or a person acting under the sheriff's authority might have a copy of the list made and give it to the judge who is to preside at the trial or the judge's associate or clerk.

31 Questions relating to jury service

(1) A person must not ask questions of a person who has been summoned for jury service to find out how the person is likely to react to issues arising in a trial or for other purposes related to the selection or possible selection of the person as a juror in a trial unless—

- (a) the questioning is authorised or required under another provision of this Act; or
- (b) a judge authorises the questioning under this section.

Maximum penalty—2 years imprisonment.

(2) A person must not ask questions of anyone about a person (the “other person”) who has been summoned for jury service to find out how the other person is likely to react to issues arising in a trial or for other purposes related to the selection or possible selection of the other person as a juror in a trial unless the questioning is authorised or required under another provision of this Act.

Maximum penalty—2 years imprisonment.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to discussions between a party and the party's lawyer.

(4) A judge may, on conditions the judge considers appropriate, authorise a person to ask questions of a person who has been summoned for jury service.

(5) A person must not contravene a condition under subsection (4).

Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—2 years imprisonment.

PART 5—FORMATION OF JURIES

Division 1—Number of jurors in trials

32 Juries for civil trials

The jury for a civil trial consists of 4 persons.

33 Juries for criminal trials

The jury for a criminal trial consists of 12 persons.

34 Reserve jurors

(1) The judge before which a civil or criminal trial is to be held may direct that not more than 3 persons be chosen and sworn as reserve jurors.

(2) Reserve jurors—

- (a) are to be selected in the same way as ordinary jurors; and
- (b) are liable to be challenged and discharged in the same way as ordinary jurors; and
- (c) must take the same oath as ordinary jurors; and
- (d) are otherwise subject to the same arrangements as other jurors during the trial.

(3) If a juror dies or is discharged after a trial starts but before the jury retires to consider its verdict, and a reserve juror is available, the reserve juror must take the vacant place on the jury.⁹

(4) If 2 or more reserve jurors are available, the juror to take the place on the jury must be decided by lot or in another way decided by the judge.

(5) When a jury retires to consider its verdict, a reserve juror who has not been called on to take a place on the jury must be discharged from further attendance at the trial.

⁹ See section 56 (Discharge or death of individual juror).

(6) The death or discharge of a reserve juror before the juror has been called on to take a vacant place on the jury does not affect the validity of the trial.

Division 2—Suitability of jurors

35 Information about prospective jurors to be exchanged between prosecution and defence in criminal trials

(1) If a party to a criminal trial obtains information about a person who has been summoned for jury service that may show the person is unsuitable to serve as a juror in the trial, the party must disclose the information to the other party as soon as practicable.

(2) The Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 does not apply to the disclosure of information under this section.¹⁰

Division 3—Attendance of jury panel

36 Sheriff to arrange for attendance of jury panel

(1) When a civil or criminal trial is about to begin, the sheriff must arrange for the attendance of a jury panel before the court.

(2) The panel must be formed from among the persons (the “relevant prospective jurors”) who—

- (a) have been summoned for jury service for the relevant jury service period; and
- (b) have not, after being summoned, been excused from jury service or excluded from the list of prospective jurors because they are not qualified for jury service; and
- (c) are not currently serving on a jury.

¹⁰ The Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, section 6, places restrictions on disclosure of the criminal history of a person by someone if the rehabilitation period under the Act has come to an end.

(3) The panel must be formed by selection from among the relevant prospective jurors in a way decided by the sheriff subject to any relevant direction issued by the senior judge administrator under section 13(c).¹¹

(4) When the panel is formed, the sheriff must give the instructions to the members of the panel necessary to ensure their attendance before the court.

37 Materials to be given by sheriff

(1) Before the attendance of the jury panel before the court, the sheriff must give the judge's associate or clerk—

- (a) a list stating the names, locality addresses and occupations of all persons on the panel; and
- (b) cards of identical size and shape, 1 for each member of the panel, on which is written the name, locality address and occupation of the member.

(2) If a person has no present remunerative occupation and is not engaged in domestic duties, the person's occupation is taken to be the person's last remunerative occupation and, if the person has never had a remunerative occupation and is not engaged in domestic duties, a note to that effect must appear in place of a statement of occupation.

(3) In this section—

“locality address”, of a person, means the city, town, suburb or other locality in which the person resides.

Division 4—Supplementary jurors

38 Supplementary jurors

(1) If a trial is likely to be delayed because there are no persons or not enough persons, who have been summoned for jury service, available for the selection of a jury, the judge may, on application by a party to the proceeding, direct the sheriff to make up or supplement a jury panel by selecting from among persons who are qualified for jury service and instructing them to attend for jury service.

11 Section 13 (Practice directions)

(2) The number of persons to be selected, and the way the selection is to be made, must be as directed by the judge.

(3) The persons instructed to attend for jury service under this section become (subject to being excused or discharged under this Act) members of the jury panel from which the jury for the trial is to be selected.

(4) Unless the person has a reasonable excuse, a person must not fail to comply with—

- (a) an instruction to attend for jury service under this section; or
- (b) a further instruction about jury service given by the sheriff or the judge.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 2 months imprisonment.

(5) A contravention of subsection (4) may be dealt with either as an offence or a contempt of the court.

Division 5—Preliminaries to jury selection

39 Defendant to be informed of right of challenge

Before the selection of a jury for a criminal trial begins, the court must inform the defendant that—

- (a) the persons whose names are to be called may be sworn as jurors for the defendant's trial; and
- (b) if the defendant wants to challenge any of them, the defendant, or the defendant's lawyer or other representative, must make the challenge before the person is sworn as a juror.

40 Challenge to jury panel as a whole

(1) A party to a civil or criminal trial who objects to the entire jury panel may challenge the entire jury panel by informing the judge of the reasons for the objection before any juror is sworn for the trial.

(2) The judge must decide the challenge before proceeding with the selection of the jury for the trial.

Division 6—Selection of jury41 Procedure for jury selection

(1) When a jury is to be selected for a civil or criminal trial—

- (a) a selection must be made as directed by the judge from among the members of the jury panel by random selection of cards bearing the names of, or numbers representing, the members of the jury panel; and
- (b) as each person is selected an officer of the court must call aloud the name of the person selected.

(2) However, the judge may direct that persons selected be identified by numbers only if the judge considers that, for security or other reasons, the persons' names should not be read out in open court.

(3) The judge's associate or clerk must inform the sheriff as soon as practicable of—

- (a) the names of the persons sworn to serve on the jury or as reserve jurors; and
- (b) if the judge orders that a juror or prospective juror be excused, discharged or fined—the name of the person and the terms of the order.

42 Peremptory challenges

(1) In a civil trial, each party is entitled to 2 peremptory challenges.

(2) If reserve jurors are to be selected for a civil trial, each party is entitled to—

- (a) if 1 or 2 reserve jurors are to be selected—1 additional peremptory challenge; and
- (b) if 3 reserve jurors are to be selected—2 additional peremptory challenges.

(3) In a criminal trial, the prosecution and defence are each entitled to 8 peremptory challenges.

(4) If reserve jurors are to be selected for a criminal trial, the prosecution and defence are each entitled to—

- (a) if 1 or 2 reserve jurors are to be selected—1 additional peremptory challenge; and
 - (b) if 3 reserve jurors are to be selected—2 additional peremptory challenges.
- (5) If there are 2 or more defendants in a criminal trial—
- (a) each defendant is entitled to the number of peremptory challenges allowed to the defence under subsections (3) and (4); and
 - (b) the prosecution is entitled to a number of peremptory challenges equal to the total number available to all defendants.

43 Challenges for cause

(1) A party to a civil or criminal trial may challenge for cause against a person selected to serve on the jury or as a reserve juror.

(2) A challenge for cause under this section is made by objecting to the selection of the person against whom the challenge is made on either or both of the following grounds—

- (a) the person is not qualified for jury service;
- (b) the person is not impartial.

(3) A party who makes a challenge for cause must inform the judge of the reasons for the challenge and give the judge information and materials available to the party that are relevant to the challenge.

(4) If the judge is satisfied there are proper grounds to inquire into the qualification or impartiality of the person against whom the challenge is made, the judge may—

- (a) permit the party to put questions to the person in a way and in a form decided by the judge; and
- (b) if the person's answers to the questions give grounds for further inquiry—permit the examination or cross-examination of the person on oath.

(5) The Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 does not apply to the disclosure of information in response to questions asked under this section.¹²

(6) After considering the evidence and submissions of parties, the judge must uphold or dismiss the challenge.

(7) The judge's decision under this section is not subject to interlocutory appeal but, if the final judgment of the court is liable to appeal, may be considered on an appeal against the final judgment of the court.

(8) A challenge for cause does not reduce the number of preemptory challenges available to the party who makes the challenge.

44 Time for challenges

(1) A preemptory challenge must be made before the officer assigned by the court to administer the oath begins to recite the words of the oath to the person challenged.

(2) A challenge for cause must be made before the officer assigned by the court to administer the oath begins to recite the words of the oath to the person challenged.

(3) A challenge for cause may also be made during a proceeding under section 47.¹³

Division 7—Final stage of jury selection process

45 Final stage of jury selection process

The court reaches the final stage of the jury selection process when all jurors and reserve jurors have been selected and sworn but the jury panel has not yet been discharged.

12 The Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, section 6, places restrictions on disclosure of the criminal history of a person by someone if the rehabilitation period under the Act has come to an end.

13 Section 47 (Special procedure for challenge for cause in certain cases)

46 Judge's discretion to discharge juror in final stage of jury selection process

(1) When the judge reaches the final stage of the jury selection process, the judge may discharge a person who has been selected as a juror or a reserve juror if the judge considers there is reason to doubt the impartiality of the person.

(2) The judge may discharge a person under this section whether or not a challenge for cause is made.

(3) If a person is discharged under this section, another person must be selected from the jury panel to take the person's place as a juror or reserve juror.

47 Special procedure for challenge for cause in certain cases

(1) If a judge who is to preside at a civil or criminal trial is satisfied, on an application by a party under this section, that there are special reasons for inquiry under this section, the judge may authorise the questioning of persons selected to serve as jurors and reserve jurors when the court reaches the final stage of the jury selection process.

Example—

Prejudicial pre-trial publicity may be a special reason for questioning persons selected as jurors or reserve jurors in the final stage of the jury selection process.

(2) The application must be made to the judge at least 3 days before the date fixed for the trial to start unless the judge, for special reasons, dispenses with the requirement.

(3) On the application, the applicant may suggest, and the judge may decide, questions that are to be put to persons selected to serve as jurors or reserve jurors for the trial.

(4) The judge must put the questions in a way decided by the judge.

Example—

The judge might decide that the questions are to be put to the persons selected to serve as jurors or reserve jurors in each other's presence in open court, or that the questions are to be put to each person individually.

(5) If, after hearing the answers of a person questioned under this section, the judge considers further inquiry is justified, the judge may give the parties leave to cross-examine the person on oath (under limits fixed by the judge) to find out whether the person is impartial.

(6) When a person has answered the questions put under this section and any further examination allowed by the judge has finished, a party may make a challenge for cause against the person on the ground that the person is not impartial.

(7) A party who makes a challenge under this section must inform the judge of the reasons for the challenge and, if the party has information or materials relevant to the challenge in addition to the information or materials already before the court, give the judge the information and materials.

(8) After considering the evidence and submissions of the parties the judge must—

- (a) uphold the challenge and discharge the person selected to serve as a juror (or reserve juror); or
- (b) dismiss the challenge.

(9) If the judge upholds the challenge and discharges the selected person, another person must be selected from the jury panel to fill the vacancy.

(10) When a person is selected to fill a vacancy under subsection (9)—

- (a) a party may—
 - (i) if the party has not already exhausted the party's rights of peremptory challenge—challenge the person peremptorily; or
 - (ii) challenge the person for cause; in the same way as on the original selection of persons to serve as jurors (or reserve jurors¹⁴); and
- (b) the person is also liable to be questioned, cross-examined and challenged under this section in the same way as the other persons selected as jurors or reserve jurors.

(11) A decision of the judge under this section is not subject to interlocutory appeal but, if the final judgment of the court is liable to appeal, may be considered on an appeal against the final judgment of the court.

14 See sections 42 (Peremptory challenges) and 43 (Challenges for cause).

48 Judge's discretion to discharge entire jury

(1) Before the court finishes the final stage of the jury selection process, the judge may discharge all the persons selected to serve as jurors if the judge considers that the challenges made to persons selected to serve on the jury or as reserve jurors have resulted in a jury of a composition that may cause the trial to be, or appear to be, unfair.

(2) If all the persons selected to serve as jurors are discharged, another jury must be selected from the jury panel.

Division 8—Presumption of authority49 Presumption of authority for challenge

If a challenge to a person selected as a juror or reserve juror is made by a lawyer or other representative of a party, the challenge is presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary to have been made on the party's authority.

PART 6—JURY TRIALSDivision 1—Procedure following selection of jury50 Jury to be sworn

The members of the jury must be sworn to give a true verdict, according to the evidence, on the issues to be tried, and not to disclose anything about the jury's deliberations except as allowed or required by law.¹⁵

¹⁵ For the form of the oath, see the Oaths Act 1867, sections 21 (Swearing of jurors in civil trials) and 22 (Swearing of jurors in criminal trials). Under the Oaths Act 1867, section 17, a juror may make an affirmation instead of an oath in certain cases (see also section 5).

51 Jury to be informed of charge in criminal trial

When the jury for a criminal trial has been sworn, the judge must ensure the jury is informed—

- (a) in appropriate detail, of the charge contained in the indictment; and
- (b) of the jury's duty on the trial.

Division 2—Inspections and views52 Inspections and views

(1) If, on a trial, the judge considers it desirable for the jury to have a view of a particular place or object, the judge may give the necessary directions.

(2) The view must be held in the presence of the judge, and the parties and their lawyers or other representatives are entitled to be present.

(3) The validity of proceedings is not affected by contravention of a direction but, if the contravention is discovered before the verdict is given, the judge may discharge the jury if the judge considers the contravention appears likely to prejudice a fair trial.

Division 3—Segregation of jury in criminal cases53 Jury not to separate

(1) After the jury in a criminal trial has been sworn, the jurors must not separate until they have given their verdict or have been discharged by the judge.

(2) However, the judge may allow the jury to separate before retiring to consider its verdict during an adjournment of the court or while proceedings are held in the jury's absence.

(2A) Despite subsection (2)—

- (a) the judge must allow the jurors to separate during a lunch or dinner adjournment to obtain meals; and
- (b) if the judge considers allowing the jury to separate may prejudice a fair trial—the judge may order the jurors not to separate.

(3) If a juror separates from the rest of the jury in contravention of this section, the juror may be punished summarily for contempt of the court.

(4) The validity of proceedings is not affected by contravention of this section but, if the contravention is discovered before the verdict is given, the judge may discharge the jury if the judge considers that the contravention appears likely to prejudice a fair trial.

54 Restriction on communication

(1) While a jury is kept together, a person (other than a member of the jury or a reserve juror) must not communicate with any of the jurors without the judge's leave.

(2) Despite subsection (1)—

- (a) the officer of the court who has charge of the jury may communicate with jurors with the judge's leave; and
- (b) if a juror is ill—communication with the juror for arranging or administering medical treatment does not require the judge's leave.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) may be punished summarily for a contempt of the court.

(4) The validity of proceedings is not affected by contravention of this section but, if the contravention is discovered before the verdict is given, the judge may discharge the jury if the judge considers that the contravention appears likely to prejudice a fair trial.

Division 4—Accommodation for jury

55 Accommodation for jury

(1) While a jury is kept together outside the courtroom, the jurors must be kept—

- (a) in a private place under the supervision of an officer of the court; or
- (b) as the judge directs.

(2) While a jury is kept together outside the courtroom, the jurors must be provided with accommodation, meals and refreshments as the judge directs.

Division 5—Discharge of individual jurors or of whole jury

56 Discharge or death of individual juror

(1) If, after a juror has been sworn—

- (a) it appears to the judge (from the juror’s own statements or from evidence before the judge) that the juror is not impartial or ought not, for other reasons, be allowed or required to act as a juror at the trial; or
- (b) the juror becomes incapable, in the judge’s opinion, of continuing to act as a juror; or
- (c) the juror becomes unavailable, for reasons the judge considers adequate, to continue as a juror;

the judge may, without discharging the whole jury, discharge the juror.

(2) If a juror dies or is discharged before the trial begins, the judge may direct that another juror be selected and sworn.

57 Continuation of trial with less than full number of jurors

(1) If a juror dies or is discharged after a trial begins, and there is no reserve juror available to take the juror’s place, the judge may direct that the trial continue with the remaining jurors.

(2) However, a civil trial cannot continue with less than 3 jurors and a criminal trial cannot continue with less than 10 jurors.

(3) The verdict of the remaining jurors has the same effect as if all the jurors had continued present.

58 Failure to reach unanimous verdict in civil cases

(1) If after deliberating for 6 hours, a jury in a civil trial has not reached a verdict, the judge may discharge the jury.

(2) However, if the jury has not reached a unanimous verdict after 6 hours deliberation, the court may, if the parties agree, take the verdict of 3 of the jurors as the verdict of the jury.

59 Unanimous verdict in criminal cases

The verdict of the jury in a criminal trial must be unanimous.

60 Jury may be discharged from giving verdict

(1) If a jury cannot agree on a verdict, or the judge considers there are other proper reasons for discharging the jury without giving a verdict, the judge may discharge the jury without giving a verdict.

(2) If proceedings before a jury are to be discontinued because the trial is adjourned, the judge may discharge the jury.

(3) A decision of a judge under this section is not subject to appeal.

61 Discharge of jury when judge dies or becomes incapacitated

If the judge dies, or becomes incapable of proceeding with the trial, an appropriate officer of the court must discharge the jury.

62 What happens when jury is discharged

(1) When a jury is discharged, the judge may proceed immediately with the selection of a new jury, or may adjourn the trial.

(2) If the defendant in a criminal trial is in custody when the jury is discharged, the defendant remains in custody unless granted bail.

PART 7—JUROR'S REMUNERATION AND ALLOWANCES

63 Remuneration and allowances is entitled to remuneration and allowances on the scale prescribed under a regulation.

64 Special payments in certain cases

(1) The Governor in Council may authorise a special payment compensating a person who suffers injury, damage or loss arising out of the person's jury service.

(2) A person may only apply for special compensation for financial loss arising out of inability to carry on a business or engage in a remunerative activity while performing jury service, if the applicant served as a juror (or reserve juror) in a trial that continued for at least 30 days.

(3) An application for special compensation under this section—

- (a) must be made in writing to the Minister; and
- (b) must include full details of the injury, damage or loss; and
- (c) must be accompanied by all documentary evidence in the applicant's possession of the injury, damage or loss.

(4) On receiving an application under this section, the Minister may make inquiries to verify the details of the injury, damage or loss claimed by the applicant.

65 Fee for jury in civil cases

(1) If a party to a civil trial requires a jury, the party must pay to the registrar of the court before which the trial is to be conducted—

- (a) the fee prescribed under a regulation before the trial begins; and
- (b) the further fees required under a regulation as and when payment is required under the regulation.

(2) If the court before which a civil trial is to be conducted requires a jury, the plaintiff must pay to the registrar of the court—

- (a) the fee prescribed under a regulation before the trial begins; and
- (b) the further fees required under a regulation as and when payment is required under the regulation.

(3) If the trial does not proceed and no person attends the court for jury service, the party who paid the fee is entitled to the return of the fee less any amount necessarily spent by the sheriff in arranging for the attendance, or cancelling the attendance, of prospective jurors at the proposed trial.
