Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 15 March 2008. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

 - (a) on being continued in office as, or on again being appointed or becoming, a justice of the peace under any provision of this Act; or
 - (b) on being appointed or becoming a commissioner for declarations under any provision of this Act; before performing any of the functions of office as justice of the peace or, as the case may be, commissioner for declarations.

- (8) If in compliance with subsection (5) a person has taken or made the oath or affirmation referred to in the subsection on being appointed or becoming a commissioner for declarations, the person is not required, on again being appointed or becoming a commissioner for declarations under any provision of this Act, to take or make the oath or affirmation before performing any of the functions of office as commissioner for declarations.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

21 Registration of justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations

- (1) On proof to the satisfaction of the registrar that a person—
 - (a) has been appointed to be a justice of the peace or a commissioner for declarations under section 15; and
 - (b) has taken or made the prescribed oath or affirmation of allegiance and office; and
 - (c) has complied with any prescribed conditions;the registrar is to register the person as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations, unless subsection (7) applies.
- (2) The registrar is to register a person under subsection (1) by entering in the register—
 - (a) the name and address of the person; and
 - (b) a note of the office to which the person has been appointed; and
 - (c) the person's registered number of office mentioned in subsection (3); and
 - (d) the date of registration.
- (3) On registering a person under subsection (2), the registrar is to issue to the person, in a form approved by the Minister—
 - (a) a seal of office; and
 - (b) a registered number of office.
- (4) A seal of office approved by the Minister is to allow for an imprint—
 - (a) that indicates the office of the person to whom it is issued; and
 - (b) provides a space for the insertion of the person's registered number of office.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (5) The registrar is to cause notification of the appointment and registration of a person as a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations to be published in the gazette.
- (6) Upon payment of the prescribed fee, the registrar may issue to an appointed justice of the peace or appointed commissioner for declarations a certificate of registration in a form approved by the Minister.
- (7) If, 6 months after the appointment by the Governor in Council of a person as a justice of the peace or a commissioner for declarations—
 - (a) the appointment has not been registered under subsection (1); and
 - (b) proof of the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) has not been provided to the registrar's satisfaction;the appointment lapses.

22 Registrar to be notified of change to registered particulars

- (1) A person who is an appointed justice of the peace or an appointed commissioner for declarations is to notify the registrar of any change to the person's name or address as stated in the register within 30 days of the change and provide any reasonable proof the registrar may require of the change.
- (2) Upon receipt of such a notification, subject to any required proof being provided, the registrar is to record the change in the register.

23 Resignation

- (1) A person who is an appointed justice of the peace or an appointed commissioner for declarations may resign from office at any time by giving a written resignation to the registrar.
- (2) The registrar is to cause notification of the resignation to be published in the gazette.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (3) Upon publication in the gazette of a notification—
- (a) the person ceases to hold office; and
 - (b) the registrar is to remove the person's name from the register;
- as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations.

24 Revocation of appointment

- (1) The Governor in Council, by notification published in the gazette, may revoke the appointment of a person as an appointed justice of the peace or an appointed commissioner for declarations for such reason as the Governor in Council thinks fit.
- (2) Upon publication in the gazette of a notification—
- (a) the person ceases to hold office; and
 - (b) the registrar is to remove the person's name from the register;
- as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations.

24A Change in person's office

- (1) This section applies if a person holding office (the existing office) as an appointed justice of the peace or appointed commissioner for declarations is later appointed to hold office (the later office) as—
- (a) for an appointed justice of the peace—an appointed justice of the peace of another category or an appointed commissioner for declarations; or
 - (b) for an appointed commissioner for declarations—an appointed justice of the peace.
- (2) The registrar is to remove the person's name from the register as the holder of the existing office and insert an entry that the person holds the later office.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (3) When the entry is made, the person stops holding the existing office and holds the later office.
- (4) This section does not apply if section 42 or 44 applies.¹

25 Prohibition on acting in office

- (1) The Governor in Council, by notification published in the gazette, may prohibit an appointed justice of the peace or an appointed commissioner for declarations from acting in office for a period defined in the notification.
- (2) The Governor in Council may act under subsection (1) for such reasons as the Governor in Council thinks fit.
- (3) A person prohibited from acting as a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations pursuant to a notification—
 - (a) ceases to hold office as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations on and from the commencement of the period defined in the notification; and
 - (b) resumes office as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations, on and from the expiration of the period defined in the notification.
- (4) Upon publication in the gazette of a notification, the registrar—
 - (a) at the commencement of the period defined in the notification, is to remove the name of the person from the register; and
 - (b) at the expiration of the period defined in the notification, is to enter the name of the person in the register;as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations.
- (5) A person who resumes office under subsection (3)(b) is not required to take the oath or make the affirmation prescribed

¹ Sections 42 and 44 already provide transitional arrangements for certain office holders becoming justices of the peace (commissioners for declarations) and commissioners for declarations.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

by section 20 before performing any of the functions of the office.

26 Notification of cessation of office

- (1) A person who ceases to hold office as a justice of the peace or as a commissioner for declarations by virtue of being disqualified under a provision of this Act must immediately notify the registrar.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) The registrar upon receiving such a notification or on otherwise becoming aware that an appointed justice of the peace or an appointed commissioner for declarations has ceased to hold office by virtue of disqualification under this Act is to—
- (a) cause notification of the cessation of office to be published in the gazette; and
 - (b) remove the person's name from the register as a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a commissioner for declarations.

27 Return of certificate of registration and seal of office

- (1) A person who ceases to hold office as an appointed justice of the peace or appointed commissioner for declarations under section 17(a), (b) or (c),² within 14 days is to deliver up to the registrar any seal of office or certificate of registration issued to the person under this Act or under the repealed Act.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) The registrar is to return to any person who resumes office as an appointed justice of the peace or as an appointed commissioner for declarations under section 25(3)(b), a certificate of registration or seal of office of the person delivered up to the registrar under subsection (1).

² Section 17 (Disqualification from office)

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), if a person to whom a seal of office or certificate of registration is or was issued under this Act or the repealed Act ceases to hold the office for which the seal or certificate is or was issued, the registrar may give a notice to any person in possession of the seal or certificate requiring the person to deliver it up in accordance with reasonable directions specified in the notice.
- (4) A person to whom a notice under subsection (3) is given is to comply with the notice.
- Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

28 Justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations hold office throughout State

Justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations acting within the scope of their respective capacities are justices of the peace or, as the case may be, commissioners for declarations for the whole of the State.

29 Powers of justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations

- (1) A justice of the peace—
- (a) subject to subsections (3) to (5), has and may exercise all the powers conferred on the justice of the peace or on a commissioner for declarations by the Justices Act 1886 or any other Act; and
 - (b) may take any affidavit or attest any instrument or document that may be taken or attested under any Act or law.
- (2) The powers of a justice of the peace mentioned in section 19(1) include, but are not limited to, all the powers specifically conferred under any Act or law on a justice of the peace (qualified) or justice of the peace (magistrates court).
- (3) A justice of the peace (qualified), in the exercise of any power to constitute a court for the purpose of a proceeding is limited to taking or making a procedural action or order.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (4) A justice of the peace (magistrates court), in the exercise of any power to constitute a court for the purpose of a proceeding is limited to—
 - (a) the hearing and determination of a charge of a simple offence or a regulatory offence pursuant to proceedings taken under the Justices Act 1886 in a case where the defendant pleads guilty; and
 - (b) conducting an examination of witnesses in relation to an indictable offence under the Justices Act 1886; and
 - (c) taking or making a procedural action or order.
- (5) A justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations) is limited to the exercise of the powers of a commissioner for declarations.
- (6) To allay any doubts, it is declared that subsections (3) to (5) do not limit the powers of—
 - (a) a magistrate exercising jurisdiction conferred on justices of the peace; or
 - (b) a justice of the peace whose office is preserved by section 41(a); or
 - (c) a justice of the peace mentioned in section 19(1).
- (7) A limitation imposed by subsection (3), (4) or (5) on the powers exercisable by a justice of the peace of a specified category applies despite the provisions of any Act conferring powers on a justice of the peace unless the Act expressly excludes the operation of the subsection.
- (8) A commissioner for declarations—
 - (a) has and may exercise all the powers conferred on a commissioner for declarations by any Act or law; and
 - (b) may take any affidavit or attest any instrument or document that may be taken or attested under any Act or law.
- (9) If justices of the peace generally are authorised under an Act or law to do an act mentioned in subsection (8)(b)—
 - (a) a commissioner for declarations may also do the act; and

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (b) the Act or law applies to the commissioner for declarations as if the commissioner for declarations were a justice of the peace;

unless the operation of this subsection is expressly excluded.

30 Act done beyond State

An act done outside Queensland by a justice of the peace or a commissioner for declarations for the purpose of taking any affidavit or attesting any instrument or document intended to take effect in Queensland is as valid and effectual as if the act were done in Queensland unless the act is required by law to be done in Queensland.

31 Proof of acts done in the performance of office

- (1) A person placing his or her signature on an instrument or document as the holder of the office of justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations is to insert immediately beneath, beside or close to the signature—
- (a) the imprint of a seal of office issued to the person under this Act with the person's registered number of office inserted in the space provided; or
- (b) subject to subsection (2), the prescribed mark of office.
- (2) If a seal of office has been issued under this Act to a justice of the peace, the justice of the peace when placing his or her signature upon an instrument or document in the exercise of a power—
- (a) to constitute a court for the purpose of any proceedings; or
- (b) to issue a summons or warrant of any description;
- is to insert, as prescribed by subsection (1), the imprint of the seal complete with registered number of office.
- (3) In any proceedings evidence that—
- (a) an imprint in the form of an imprint of a seal of office of a kind issued under this Act with a number inserted in the space provided; or

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (b) a mark in the form of a prescribed mark of office; has been inserted beneath, beside or close to a signature placed on an instrument or document is evidence that the person whose signature it purports to be duly signed the instrument or document in the performance of the functions of the office indicated by the mark or imprint.
- (4) The prescribed mark of office of each office specified in the first column of the following table is the mark specified in the second column opposite the office.

Table

the office of justice of the peace preserved by section 41 or held under section 19(1)	“Justice of the Peace” or “J.P.”

- (5) Variations of no significance between an imprint or mark appearing on a document or instrument and an imprint or mark prescribed by this section are to be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

32 Approved training courses

The Minister may approve, in relation to an office provided for by this Act, a training course that is to be completed by a person or class of person—

- (a) before appointment to the office; or
- (b) while holding the office.

33 Inquiries about person's appropriateness to hold office

- (1) The chief executive may make inquiries about a person to assist in deciding whether the person is an appropriate person to hold office under this Act.
- (2) If requested by the chief executive, the commissioner of the police service must give the chief executive a written report about the person's criminal history.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to the criminal history—
 - (a) that is in the commissioner's possession; or
 - (b) to which the commissioner ordinarily has access through arrangements with the police service of the Commonwealth, another State or Territory.
- (4) The report may only be used for the purposes of this Act.

34 Wrongfully acting as justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations

- (1) A person who assumes to act in the office of justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations that the person does not hold commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

- (2) In any proceedings evidence that a person caused to appear or allowed to remain immediately beneath, beside or close to the person's signature on an instrument or document an imprint or

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

a mark that under section 31 is evidence that the person duly signed the instrument or document in the performance of the functions of the office indicated by the imprint or mark, is evidence, if the person did not hold the office, that the person assumed to act in the office.

35 Prohibition on reward

- (1) A justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations is not to seek or receive, directly or indirectly, any reward in connection with the performance of the functions of office.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

- (2) In this section—

in connection with includes under colour or pretext of.

receive includes take or accept.

reward includes charge, fee, gratuity or any consideration but, for a justice of the peace (magistrates court), does not include a daily sitting fee paid to the person for constituting a court at a place at which a Magistrates Court may be constituted, if the place is within a community area under the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Communities (Justice, Land and Other Matters) Act 1984.

seek includes request, require, extort or demand.

- (3) A court that finds a person guilty of an offence under this section may make an order—
- (a) requiring the offender to return the reward to its rightful owner; or
 - (b) confiscating the reward to the Crown.
- (4) A court may make any further order necessary to enforce an order made under subsection (3).
- (5) An order for the payment of an amount of money to a person under subsection (3)(a)—
- (a) may be enforced as prescribed by the Justices Act 1886;
or

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (b) upon the order being filed in any court with jurisdiction in actions for debt of that amount, as an order of that court.

36 Action against justices

(1) A person injured—

- (a) by an act done by a justice of the peace or a commissioner for declarations purportedly in the performance of the functions of office but which the justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations knows is not authorised by law; or
- (b) by an act done by a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations in the discharge of the functions of office but done maliciously and without reasonable cause; may recover damages or loss sustained by the person by action against the justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations in any court of competent jurisdiction.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), action is not to be brought against a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in, or purportedly in, the performance of the functions of office.

37 Proceedings generally

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act are to be taken in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886 within 12 months after the offence is committed or within 6 months after the commission of the offence comes to the knowledge of the registrar, whichever period is later to expire, upon the complaint of the registrar or a person authorised for the purpose by the registrar.
- (2) Without derogating from the provisions of section 139 of the Justices Act 1886, a complaint for an offence against this Act may be heard at a place within the district appointed for the purposes of Magistrates Courts under the Justices Act 1886 in which the defendant resides.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (3) In proceedings referred to in this section the authority of the complainant to make the complaint is to be presumed unless the contrary is proved.

38 Publication of office holders

- (1) The registrar, whenever directed to do so by the Minister, is to cause to be published in such manner as the Minister directs, a list of names of persons registered under this Act as justices of the peace or commissioners for declarations.
- (2) A list of persons referred to in subsection (1)—
- (a) may contain such particulars shown on the register concerning those persons as the Minister directs; and
 - (b) may be a list of all persons or such class of person registered under this Act as justices of the peace or commissioners for declarations as the Minister directs.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for the purpose of ensuring that as many justices of the peace as may be practicable perform functions of office, the registrar is to compile and deliver to the commissioner of the police service from time to time lists of the names and addresses of justices of the peace residing in particular areas of the State.
- (4) The lists referred to in subsection (3) may include such information as may be necessary to identify functions of office the justices of the peace included in the lists are authorised to perform.
- (5) A police officer, in selecting a justice of the peace to perform a function of office, is to have regard, if practicable, to the list provided under subsection (3) for the area in which the function is to be performed.

39 Evidentiary provisions

- (1) In any proceedings, a certificate purporting to be signed by the registrar stating that a person named in the certificate—
- (a) was, or was not, on a date or during a specified period—

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (i) registered under this Act or under the repealed Act as holding a specified office; or
 - (ii) issued with a specified seal or specified registered number; or
 - (iii) prohibited under this Act or the repealed Act from acting in a specified office; or
 - (iv) being a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations, a person in respect of whom a specified event defined in section 17(a) to (d) had occurred; or
- (b) had failed, on or before a date or during a specified period, to notify the registrar of a specified matter; is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.
- (2) In any proceedings, a document purporting to be a list published under section 38 is evidence of the matters contained in the document.
- (3) Judicial notice is to be taken of a notification published in the gazette under this Act.

40 Regulations

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) A regulation may be made about—
- (a) preventing or suppressing improper or undesirable practices relating to the performance of functions by justices of the peace or commissioners for declarations; or
 - (b) imposing requirements upon justices of the peace or commissioners for declarations; or
 - (c) prescribing qualifications and disqualifications for holding office as a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations; or
 - (d) prescribing fees payable in connection with the administration of this Act.

- (3) The regulations may provide for offences punishable by penalties not exceeding 20 penalty units.

Part 5 Transitional and savings provisions

Division 1 Transitional provisions for Act No. 50 of 1991

41 Transitional office holders and register

On and from the commencement of this Act—

- (a) subject to section 42, a person who immediately before the commencement holds office as a justice of the peace—
- (i) pursuant to an appointment made under section 8 of the repealed Act; or
 - (ii) pursuant to an appointment deemed to have been made under the repealed Act because of section 4 of that Act;
- continues to hold office as a justice of the peace under this Act; and
- (b) the Register of Justices kept pursuant to section 7 of the repealed Act continues in existence as the register of justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations required to be kept under section 13 of this Act; and
- (c) the person holding office immediately before the commencement as registrar of justices appointed under section 6 of the repealed Act is taken to be appointed registrar of justices of the peace and commissioners for declarations under section 12 of this Act.

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

42 Justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations)

- (1) If at 30 June 2000, a person remains in office as a justice of the peace under section 41(a), the person then ceases to hold that office and instead holds office as a justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations).
- (2) The registrar is to remove the person's name from the register as a justice of the peace and insert an entry that the person is a justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a lawyer.

43 Power to appoint and revoke in case of transitional office holder

The power of the Governor in Council under sections 15 and 24 to appoint, or to revoke the appointment of, a person as a justice of the peace includes the power—

- (a) to revoke an appointment preserved by section 41(a) or conferred by section 42(1); and
- (b) to revoke an appointment preserved by section 41(a) or conferred by section 42(1) and appoint the person whose appointment is so revoked afresh as a justice of the peace to 1 of the categories mentioned in section 15(2).

44 Transitional office holder entitled to become commissioner for declarations

- (1) A person who holds office as—
 - (a) a justice of the peace under section 41(a); or
 - (b) a justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations) under section 42(1);may apply to the registrar to be registered as a commissioner for declarations.
- (2) The application is to be made in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) Upon receipt of the application, the registrar is to—

*Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for
Declarations Act 1991*

- (a) remove the person's name from the register as a justice of the peace or justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations) and insert an entry that the person is a commissioner for declarations; and
 - (b) issue the person with the seal of office and registered number of office prescribed by section 21(3).
- (4) The person then ceases to be a justice of the peace or, as the case may be, a justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations) and is taken to be appointed as a commissioner for declarations under section 15(3).
- (5) The registrar is to cause notification of the cessation of office of the person under this section and of the person's commencement in office as a commissioner for declarations to be published in the gazette.

45 Transitional applications

- (1) An application under section 8(5) of the repealed Act for appointment as a justice of the peace pending immediately before the commencement of this section, on and from the commencement of this section is taken to be an application under section 15(5) for appointment as a commissioner for declarations.
- (2) An application is pending if, before the commencement of this section—
- (a) the application has been received by the registrar; and
 - (b) the person by or on whose behalf the application was made has not been appointed a justice of the peace; and
 - (c) the application has not been refused.

Division 2 Validation provision for approved application forms

46 Validation of approved application forms

- (1) An approved application form is taken to have been valid during the relevant period.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a requirement in an approved application form for the application to be endorsed by a nominator, in a way stated by the form, is taken to have been valid during the relevant period.
- (3) In this section—

approved application form means a form—

- (a) made available by the department for use, under the regulation, for applying for appointment as a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations; and
- (b) published in the gazette on 22 April 2005 at page 1301.

regulation means the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for Declarations Regulation 1991.

relevant period means the period—

- (a) starting on 22 April 2005; and
- (b) ending on 10 August 2006.
