OMBUDSMAN ACT 2001

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 11 January 2002]

An Act to establish an office of ombudsman for investigating administrative actions taken by, in or for certain agencies, and recommending to agencies ways of improving administrative processes, and for other purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Division 1—General

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Ombudsman Act 2001.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 3 defines terms used in this Act.

4 Notes

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

5 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to give people a timely, effective, independent and just way of having administrative actions of agencies investigated; and

- (b) to improve the quality of decision-making and administrative practice in agencies.

6 How objects are to be achieved

The objects of this Act are to be achieved by—

- (a) requiring an ombudsman to be appointed; and
- (b) authorising the ombudsman—
 - (i) to investigate administrative actions of agencies; and
 - (ii) to make recommendations to agencies, generally or in particular cases, about ways of improving the quality of decision-making and administrative practices.

Division 2—Key concepts

7 Meaning of “administrative action”

(1) An “administrative action” is any action about a matter of administration, and includes—

- (a) a decision and an act; and
- (b) a failure to make a decision or do an act, including a failure to provide a written statement of reasons for a decision; and
- (c) the formulation of a proposal or intention; and
- (d) the making of a recommendation, including a recommendation made to a Minister; and
- (e) an action taken because of a recommendation made to a Minister.

(2) However, an operational action of a police officer, an officer of the criminal justice commission or an officer of the crime commission is not an “administrative action”.

8 Meaning of “agency”

(1) An “agency” is any of the following entities—

- (a) a department;
- (b) a local government;

(c) a public authority.

(2) An agency is taken to include an entity, other than an incorporated entity or an individual, established under an Act as a board, council, committee, subcommittee or other similar entity for helping, or for performing functions connected with, the agency.

(3) An individual is not an agency under this Act only because the individual holds—

- (a) an office the duties of which are performed as duties of employment as an officer of an agency; or
- (b) an office of member of an agency; or
- (c) an office established under an Act for the purposes of an agency.

9 Meaning of “public authority”

(1) A “public authority” is any of the following entities—

- (a) an entity, other than an individual, that is—
 - (i) established for a public purpose under an Act; or
 - (ii) established by government for a public purpose under an Act;
- (b) an entity created by the Governor in Council or a Minister;
- (c) an entity, other than an individual, declared under a regulation to be a public authority and—
 - (i) supported directly or indirectly by government funds or other help over which government is in a position to exercise control; or
 - (ii) established under an Act;
- (d) an individual holding an office established under an Act;
- (e) an individual holding an appointment—
 - (i) made by the Governor in Council or a Minister, other than under an Act; and
 - (ii) declared under a regulation to be a public authority.

(2) However, none of the following is a “public authority”—

- (a) a department or part of a department;

- (b) a local government or part of a local government;
- (c) a court, or the holder of a judicial office connected with a court, when acting judicially or when performing a function the court or office holder is authorised under an Act to perform;
- (d) a registry or other office of a court, or the staff of a registry or other office of a court in their official capacity, to the extent its or their functions relate to the court's judicial functions.

Note—

The entities mentioned in subsection (2)(a) and (b) are agencies under section 8(1).

10 What is included in meaning of administrative action of agency

An administrative action of an agency includes—

- (a) an administrative action taken by, in or for the agency; and
- (b) an administrative action taken by or for an officer of the agency; and
- (c) an administrative action taken for, or in the performance of functions conferred on, an agency, by an entity that is not an agency.

- (b) to consider the administrative practices and procedures of an agency whose actions are being investigated and to make recommendations to the agency—
 - (i) about appropriate ways of addressing the effects of inappropriate administrative actions; or
 - (ii) for the improvement of the practices and procedures; and
- (c) to consider the administrative practices and procedures of agencies generally and to make recommendations or provide information or other help to the agencies for the improvement of the practices and procedures; and
- (d) the other functions conferred on the ombudsman under this or any other Act.

13 Ombudsman not subject to direction

- (b) the priority given to investigations.

PART 3—INVESTIGATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS OF AGENCIES

Division 1—Extent of jurisdiction

14 What ombudsman may investigate

- (1) The ombudsman may investigate administrative actions of agencies.
- (2) The ombudsman may investigate an administrative action despite a provision in any Act to the effect that the action is final or can not be appealed against, challenged, reviewed, quashed or called in question.

15 Liaison with complaints entity

The ombudsman may—

- (a) liaise with a complaints entity about the exercise by the ombudsman and the complaints entity of their respective functions for investigating administrative actions; and
- (b) enter into an arrangement with the complaints entity aimed at avoiding inappropriate duplication of investigative activity.

16 What ombudsman may not investigate

(1) The ombudsman must not question the merits of—

- (a) a decision, including a policy decision, made by a Minister or Cabinet; or
- (b) a decision that the ombudsman is satisfied has been taken for implementing a decision made by Cabinet.

(2) Also, the ombudsman must not investigate administrative action taken by—

- (b) a person acting as legal adviser to the State or as counsel for the State in any legal proceedings; or
- (c) a member of the police service, if the action may be, or has been, investigated under the Criminal Justice Act 1989; or

(2) The ombudsman may apply to the Supreme Court to decide the question.

(3) The application must be heard in closed court.

Note—

This section does not stop applications being made under the Judicial Review Act 1991 by entities whose actions are being investigated or by complainants.

Division 2—When administrative actions may be investigated

18 When ombudsman may investigate administrative action

(1) The ombudsman may investigate administrative action of an agency if—

(2) The ombudsman must investigate a parliamentary reference of an administrative action of an agency.

19 Assembly may refer administrative action for investigation

(1) The Assembly or a statutory committee of the Assembly may refer to the ombudsman, for investigation and report, any administrative action of an agency the ombudsman may investigate that the Assembly or committee considers should be investigated by the ombudsman.

2 Also, the Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 182 (Application of Ombudsman Act 2001) stops this Act from applying to a number of stated matters in relation to statutory GOCs, and the Local Government Act 1993, section 728 (Application of Ombudsman Act 2001) contains a similar provision for corporatised corporations under that Act. The Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 184 (Application of Ombudsman Act 2001) totally excludes this Act from application to company GOCs.

(2) The ombudsman must ensure the investigation is started as soon as possible after the reference is made.

Division 3—Complaints

20 Complaints

(1) Unless this section otherwise provides, a complaint about an administrative action of an agency—

- (a) may be made orally or in written form; and
- (b) may be made by any person, or by any body of persons, whether incorporated or not (“complainant”), apparently directly affected by the action; and
- (c) must be made within 1 year after the day the complainant first had notice of the action.

(2) For subsection (1)(c), a complainant is taken to have had notice of the action at the time the complainant might reasonably be expected to have had notice of the action.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the ombudsman may—

- (a) decline to investigate an oral complaint until the complaint is put in writing; or
- (b) accept a complaint made for a complainant by a person apparently representing the complainant; or
- (c) accept a complaint after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (1)(c) if the ombudsman considers it is proper to accept the complaint because special circumstances exist; or
- (d) accept a complaint even though the complaint may not on its face be against an administrative action or agency if the ombudsman considers there is a likelihood that the cause for complaint arose from an administrative action.

(4) The ombudsman may, if the ombudsman considers it necessary for achieving the objects of this Act for a particular complaint, give a person the help necessary to put the complaint in writing.

(5) However, if the person who could have made a complaint under this Act has died or the ombudsman considers the person can not, for any reason, act for himself or herself, the complaint may be made by an individual who is, in the ombudsman's opinion, suitable to represent the person (also a “complainant”).

(6) Also, if a person making the complaint is in custody or detention, the person in charge of the place of custody or detention must ensure all necessary steps are taken to facilitate the making of the complaint.

Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—100 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

(2) The principal officer of the agency must give the ombudsman reasonable help in the conduct of a preliminary inquiry.

- (a) the complaint is trivial; or
- (b) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith; or
- (c) the complainant does not have a sufficient direct interest in the action complained of; or
- (d) both of the following apply—

Ombudsman Act 2001

- (i) the complainant has a right of appeal, reference or review, or another remedy, that the person has not exhausted;
 - (ii) it would be reasonable in the circumstances to require the person to exhaust the right or remedy before the ombudsman investigates, or continues to investigate, the complaint; or
- (e) both of the following apply—
- (i) the complainant had a right of appeal, reference or review, or another remedy that is exhausted;
 - (ii) in the circumstances, the investigation, or the continuance of the investigation, of the action complained of is unnecessary or unjustifiable; or
- (f) in the circumstances, the investigation, or the continuance of the investigation, of the action complained of is unnecessary or unjustifiable.

(2) Also, the ombudsman need not investigate a complaint to the extent that the ombudsman is satisfied a complaints entity has investigated, or will investigate, the action complained of at a level at least substantially equivalent to the level at which the ombudsman would otherwise investigate the complaint.

(3) A right or remedy mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(i) or (e)(i) does not include a right under the Judicial Review Act 1991 to make application to the Supreme Court.

(4) If the ombudsman—

- (a) can not investigate a complaint; or
- (b) refuses to investigate a complaint; or
