- (k) details of the executive officers who will manage the applicant's RHQ activities in Queensland including information on whether any officer has been declared bankrupt or has been convicted of an indictable offence.

9 Land tax concessions

(1) For the purposes of section 18(1) of the Act, the extent to which tax is payable for a year is—

- (a) if no concessional land is owned—100%; and
- (b) if concessional land is owned—calculated by reducing the tax that would be payable by the QOBU or QRHQ, if section 18 of the Act had not been enacted, by the amount calculated, for each parcel of concessional land, using the formula—

$$\frac{\text{NAT} \times \text{PEI} \times \text{TAE0}}{\text{GFA.}}$$

(2) In subsection (1)—

“GFA” (gross floor area) is the number of square metres of the gross floor area of—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the concessional land; or

*Offshore Banking Units and Regional Headquarters
Regulation 1994*

- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the building accommodating the QOBU or QRHQ’s place of business on the parcel.

“NAT” (notional attributable tax) is the tax that would be attributable to the parcel of concessional land if section 18 of the Act had not been enacted.

“PEI” (percentage of employee involvement) is—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the percentage of time all QOBU or QRHQ employees were performing OBU or RHQ activities on the concessional land for the previous year or the part of the previous year in which the concessional land was used for performing OBU or RHQ activities; or
- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the percentage of time all QOBU or QRHQ employees were performing OBU or RHQ activities in the building for the previous year or the part of the previous year in which the building was used for carrying out OBU or RHQ activities.

“TAE” (total area employees occupy) is the total number of square metres of the area occupied by all QOBU or QRHQ employees (to a maximum of 25 m² for each employee) in—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the concessional land; or
- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the building.

10 Pay-roll tax concessions

(1) For the purposes of section 19 of the Act, the extent to which tax is payable for a period is calculated by reducing the tax that would be payable, if section 19 of the Act had not been enacted, by the amount calculated using the formula—

$$\text{NAT} \times \text{PEI}.$$

(2) In subsection (1)—

“NAT” (notional attributable tax) is the tax that would be attributable to the concessional wages, if section 19 of the Act had not been enacted.

“PEI” (percentage of employee involvement) is the percentage of time all QOBU or QRHQ employees were performing their Queensland-based OBU or RHQ activities for the period.

11 Stamp duty concessions

(1) For the purposes of section 20(1) of the Act, the extent to which a transaction, by which a QOBU or QRHQ obtains an interest in concessional land, is liable for duty is calculated by reducing the tax that would be payable for the transaction, if section 20 of the Act had not been enacted, by the amount calculated for the transaction using the formula—

$$\frac{NT \times PEI \times TAEO}{GFA}.$$

(2) In subsection (1)—

“GFA” (gross floor area) is the number of square metres of gross floor area of—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the concessional land; or
- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the building accommodating the QOBU or QRHQ’s place of business on the concessional land.

“NT” (normal tax) is the tax that would be payable on the transaction if section 20 of the Act had not been enacted.

“PEI” (percentage of employee involvement) is—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the estimated percentage of time all QOBU or QRHQ employees were or will be performing OBU or RHQ activities in the concessional land; or
- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the estimated percentage of time all QOBU or QRHQ employees were or will be performing OBU or RHQ activities in the building.

“TAEO” (total area employees occupy) is the total number of square metres of the area occupied by all QOBU or QRHQ employees (to a maximum of 25 m² for each employee) in—

- (a) if the parcel of concessional land is strata concessional land—the concessional land; or
- (b) if the parcel of concessional land is non-strata concessional land—the building.

12 Conditions precedent and subsequent—stamp duty

(1) For the purposes of section 20(1) of the Act, the condition precedent for a transaction mentioned in section 11(1) is that the QOBU or QRHQ must give to the Commissioner of Stamp Duties a statutory declaration stating that the concessional land will be used for the QOBU or QRHQ's place of business for a minimum of 3 years.

(2) For the purposes of section 20(1) of the Act, the condition subsequent for a transaction mentioned in section 11(1) is that the QOBU or QRHQ must use the concessional land for the QOBU or QRHQ's place of business for a minimum of 3 years.

(3) If the QOBU or QRHQ does not comply with subsection (2), the QOBU or QRHQ must, on ceasing to use the land, immediately notify the Commissioner of Stamp Duties of that fact.

13 Prescribed transactions

(1) The following transactions are prescribed for the purposes of section 20(2)(d) of the Act—

- (a) a transfer transaction, other than a transfer transaction to the extent that it relates to property that is—
 - (i) bullion or currency; or
 - (ii) a debt of a QRHQ or QOBU incurred in its operation for RHQ or OBU activities if the transfer transaction is entered into at the instigation of the QOBU or QRHQ that would normally bear the stamp duty cost of the transaction;
- (b) a hiring transaction, other than a hiring transaction under which the property hired is to be used in qualifying circumstances;
- (c) a lending transaction, other than—

*Offshore Banking Units and Regional Headquarters
Regulation 1994*

- (i) a lending transaction under which money borrowed is not secured on property and the money is to be used in qualifying circumstances; or
- (ii) a lending transaction under which money borrowed is secured on property and both the property and the money are to be used in qualifying circumstances; or
- (iii) an associated lending transaction;
- (d) an insurance transaction for—
 - (i) a risk in Queensland, other than a risk for the property of a QOBU or QRHQ in Queensland used for OBU or RHQ activities; or
 - (ii) the life of a person resident in Queensland; or
 - (iii) property in Queensland.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a transaction that would not be taxable if it were executed or effected outside Queensland.

(3) In this section—

“associated lending transaction” means—

- (a) a lending transaction under which money borrowed or agreed to be lent under one transaction is secured by property under another lending transaction and both the money and the property are to be used in qualifying circumstances; and
- (b) the other lending transaction.

“hiring transaction” means a transaction that attracts duty at a rate prescribed under the heading “INSTALMENT PURCHASE AGREEMENT” or “HIRING AGREEMENT” in Schedule 1 to the Stamp Act 1894.

“insurance transaction” means a transaction that attracts duty at a rate prescribed under the heading “POLICIES OF LIFE INSURANCE”, “POLICIES OF INSURANCE” OR “POLICIES OF ACCIDENT INSURANCE” in Schedule 1 to the Stamp Act 1894.

“lending transaction” means a transaction that attracts duty at a rate prescribed under the heading “MORTGAGE, BOND, DEBENTURE AND COVENANT”, in Schedule 1 to the Stamp Act 1894.

*Offshore Banking Units and Regional Headquarters
Regulation 1994*

“qualifying circumstances” means used—

- (a) for carrying on OBU or RHQ activities; or
- (b) offshore by offshore entities serviced by a QOBU; or
- (c) offshore by offshore parts of the multinational corporate group serviced by a QRHQ.

“risk in Queensland” has the meaning given under section 2 of the Stamp Act 1894.

“transaction” does not include a transaction mentioned in section 20(2)(a), (b) or (c) of the Act.

“transaction that attracts duty” includes a transaction that gives rise to an obligation to make up a statement or prohibits the recording of the transaction unless duty is paid on an instrument for the transaction.

“transfer transaction” means a transaction that attracts duty at a rate prescribed under the heading “CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER” in Schedule 1 to the Stamp Act 1894.

14 Records to be kept

(1) A QOBU or QRHQ must keep records that—

- (a) correctly explain the nature of all concessions claimed under the Act and the basis on which each concession is claimed; and
- (b) enable each concession to be accurately calculated; and
- (c) allow its affairs to be properly and conveniently audited.

(2) The QOBU or QRHQ must—

- (a) keep the records in the English language; and
- (b) keep the records for 5 years after the last entry is made in the records or the end of the transactions to which they relate, whichever is the later; and
- (c) safely store the records in a way that allows ready access for inspection by the Commissioner; and
- (d) make the records available to the Commissioner on request.

Maximum penalty for subsections (1) and (2)—100 penalty units.

*Offshore Banking Units and Regional Headquarters
Regulation 1994*

(3) In this section—

“Commissioner” means—

- (a) if the records are for a concession for land tax—the Commissioner of Land Tax; or
- (b) if the records are for a concession for pay-roll tax—the Commissioner of Pay-roll Tax; or
- (c) if the records are for a concession for stamp duty—the Commissioner of Stamp Duties.

15 Who can sign a statutory declaration

If a provision of this regulation requires a QOBU or QRHQ to give a statutory declaration, the declaration is taken to have been given if it is signed by an executive officer of the QOBU or QRHQ.

16 Regulation does not affect other regulations

This regulation does not remove a requirement under a revenue law to file a return or other document.
