- (b) a former member who has died and to whom section 18(11) would have applied had the member not died but had ceased to be a person referred to in that section.

(3A) Subject to this Act, the legal personal representative of a member or former member in relation to whom this subsection applies or other person approved by the trustees shall be entitled to be paid—

- (a) in the case of a member—a sum in accordance with the formula for A being the formula—

 - (ii) in section 20(b), where the member had served for an aggregate period of 8 years; or
- (b) in the case of a former member—a sum in accordance with the formula in section 20(c) except that, for the purposes of this paragraph, the factor E represents a factor determined by an actuary and approved by the trustees having regard to the average age, at nearest birthday, of widows (be they female or male, as the case requires) of persons whose age, at nearest birthday, was or would have been that, at nearest birthday, of the former member at the date of the member's death.

(4) If—

- (a) a payment has been made to a person under subsection (2); and

(5) In this section—

“relevant deductions” means the amount of deductions made under this Act from the person’s salary in respect of the person’s continuous service to the day the person ceased to be a member.

(2) A lump sum payment under subsection (1) shall be—

- (a) in the case of a person under the age of 71 years on the date on which the person became entitled to a pension under section 17—the amount of the annual pension entitlement in respect of which the election is made, multiplied by 10;
- (b) in the case of a person who is 71 years or over on the date on which the person became entitled to a pension under section 17—the amount of the annual pension entitlement in respect of which the election is made multiplied by 10 less half of the difference between the number of years of the person’s age on the said date and 70.

(3) A former member who makes an election under subsection (1) shall be entitled to receive a lump sum payment calculated under subsection (2) less the amount of pension that the former member has been paid or, where the election has been made in respect of part only of the pension entitlement, less an amount that bears to that amount of pension the proportion that the part of the pension entitlement in respect of which the election was made bears to the whole of the pension entitlement and from the date of payment of that lump sum the annual pension entitlement of that former member shall be reduced by the amount of annual pension entitlement in respect of which the election was made.

*Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply to a person who is entitled to a pension under section 19.

(5) Where section 23 applies to a former member the part of the former member's pension entitlement which the former member may elect to convert under this section shall be reduced by the amount that the former member's annual pension is reduced pursuant to section 23.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where the trustees are of opinion that, but for an election under subsection (1), a member would become, or but for the provisions of section 24(2) would become, a person to whom section 24(1)(a), (b) or (c) relates within a period of 12 months after the commencement of the member's entitlement to a pension under section 17, such an election by that member shall be deferred for such period not exceeding 12 months as the trustees may determine.

(7) The trustees may at any time reduce the period of deferment of an election under subsection (6).

(8) During the period of deferment of an election under subsection (6), the former member is entitled to payment of the former member's annual pension entitlement under section 17.

(9) If during the period of deferment of his or her election, a former member who made the election becomes a person to whom section 24(1)(a), (b) or (c) relates, the former member shall be deemed not to have made the election under this section and the former member shall not be entitled to payment of any lump sum thereunder except where being a person to whom section 24(1)(c) relates the appointment to the office or place of profit in question was made after the former member last ceased to be a member.

(10) Where during the period of deferment of an election under this section the former member by whom the election was made does not become a person to whom section 24(1)(a), (b) or (c) relates or having become such a person section 24(1) is deemed not to apply to or in relation to the former member, the lump sum that would have been payable under subsection (2) but for the deferment less in the case of an election to convert the whole of the former member's pension entitlement the amount paid to the former member pursuant to subsection (8) or, in the case of an election to convert part only of the pension entitlement, the amount that bears to the amount paid to the former member pursuant to subsection (8) the same proportion as the part in respect of which the election is made bears to the whole of the pension entitlement, shall become payable to the former member.

(11) Where under subsection (9) an election made by a former member under subsection (1) has been deemed not to have been made or a former member not having made such an election becomes within a period of 3 months after ceasing to be a member a person in relation to whom the consequences referred to in section 24(1) are applicable, the former member may, on ceasing to be a person in relation to whom the consequences referred to in section 24(1) are applicable, elect to convert the whole or any part of the pension entitlement under section 17 to a lump sum payment and the provisions of subsections (1) to (10) as modified in accordance with subsection (12) apply with respect to the election and the payment of a lump sum thereunder.

(12) With respect to an election under subsection (11) and payment of a lump sum thereunder subsections (1) to (10) shall apply subject to the following modifications—

- (a) in subsection (1)—

Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1970

would but for the election have been increased, under sections 25 and 25A at the date on which the election is made, less in the case of an election to convert the whole of the person's pension entitlement, the amount of pension paid to the former member pursuant to this Act or, in the case of an election to convert part only of the pension entitlement, the amount that bears to the amount of pension paid to the former member the same proportion as the part in respect of which the election is made bears to the whole of the pension entitlement';

- (c) in subsections (2), (3) and (6) for the words 'subsection (1)' substitute the words 'subsection (11)';
- (d) in subsection (6)—
 - (i) for the word 'member' (wherever occurring) substitute the words 'former member'; and
 - (ii) for the words 'the commencement of the member's entitlement to a pension under section 17' substitute the words 'last ceasing to be a person in relation to whom the consequences referred to in section 24(1) are applicable';
- (e) in subsection (8), add, after the words 'section 17', the words 'and section 25';
- (f) in subsection (10) for the words 'subsection (2)' substitute the words 'subsection (11)'.

*Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act

(10) Where each of the percentages specified in a notice under subsection (3) in respect of any 2 or more successive years is less than 1 but those percentages are in the aggregate, equal to, or greater than, 1 (whether by way of increase or decrease), pensions shall be adjusted in respect of the latest of those years as if the percentage declared in respect of that year were a percentage equal to that aggregate.

(11) Nothing in this section requires the rate of a pension to be decreased below the basic rate and if, by reason of the making of an adjustment under this section, the rate of a pension would be so decreased, that pension shall, until it is next increased, to a rate exceeding the basic rate by reason of the making of such an adjustment, be deemed to be payable at the basic rate.

(12) Where—

- (a) by reason solely of the operation of subsection (11) a pension is being paid at the basic rate; and
- (b) an adjustment, by way of increase, is required to be made to the rate of that pension in respect of any year;

that adjustment shall be made as if, immediately before the making of the adjustment, the pension were payable at the rate at which, but for the operation of that subsection, it would have been payable.

Minimum benefit payable

“minimum benefit” means the amount of payment, pension or preserved benefit entitlement that is determined to avoid payment of the superannuation guarantee charge.

“superannuation guarantee charge” means the charge imposed by the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cwlth).

² Section 25E (Election to surrender married widow’s entitlement)

³ Section 18 (Right to convert entitlement to lump sum entitlement)

1970*

- (c) who, before the commencement of this section, had not again become entitled to an annual pension under section 20C(1).⁴

“married widow's entitlement”, for a married widow, means the annual pension the widow would be entitled to under section 20C(1) if that subsection were to apply to the widow on the election day.

“potential widow's entitlement”, for a former member's potential widow, means the member's lump sum percentage of the annual pension the potential widow would be entitled to under this Act if the member were to die on the election day.

Election to surrender potential widow's entitlement

25D.(1) A former member may elect to surrender the potential widow's entitlement of the member's potential widow.

(2) To remove doubt, it is declared that the election may be made only if the former member and the member's potential widow are alive on the member's election day.

Election to surrender married widow's entitlement

25E. A married widow may elect to surrender the widow's married widow's entitlement.

- (b) be accompanied by the documents (including documents verified by statutory declaration) the trustees reasonably require; and
- (c) if it is an election to surrender a potential widow's entitlement—be accompanied by the potential widow's written agreement to the surrender.

(2) The trustees may extend the period mentioned in subsection (1)(a) if the trustees are satisfied—

- (a) an election was not made within the period because—
 - (i) the former member or married widow was unaware of the entitlement to make an election to surrender; or
 - (ii) of circumstances beyond the control of the former member or married widow; and
- (b) it is just and equitable to allow the member or widow to make an election to surrender.

(3) An election to surrender is made when the documents mentioned in subsection (1) are received by the trustees.

Effect of surrender

25G.(1) On the making of an election to surrender a potential widow's entitlement—

- (a) the former member making the election is entitled to be paid an amount equal to 3 times the potential widow's entitlement that would have been payable to the member's potential widow had

*Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act

the member's potential widow made an election under section 20A(1)⁵ for the whole of the potential widow's entitlement; and

- (b) sections 20⁶ and 20A cease to apply to the member's potential widow for the potential widow's entitlement that is surrendered.

(2) On the making of an election to surrender a married widow's entitlement, the widow—

- (a) is entitled to be paid an amount equal to 3 times the married widow's entitlement for the widow; and
- (b) is not entitled to be paid any other amount under this Act.

Increase in rates of annuities etc.

30.(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, a person who is entitled to receive annuity (whether or not that entitlement was preserved and continued under this part or arose under this part after the commencement of this Act) is entitled to an increase in the rate of the annuity in accordance with this section.

(2) The increased rate of annuity payable to the person in question from time to time shall be the rate ascertained in accordance with the formula—

“T” means the number of periods each of 12 months that have elapsed between—

(a) the commencement of this Act; and

(b) the date at which the increased rate of pension is to be ascertained;

(3) In relation to payments in respect of a child or children under this part, the Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Fund Act 1948, section 14A(3) shall be read as if a reference to ‘the rate of annuity under this Act’ were a reference to a rate of annuity increased in accordance with the provisions of this section.

*Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act

(4) This section shall not apply in relation to annuity entitlement which arises on or after 1 July 1974 or so as to increase in respect of any period, or part of a period, occurring on or after 1 July 1974, the rate of any pension payable under this Act.

(2) Subject to this section, an annuity preserved and continued under this part or arising thereunder shall be adjusted by the trustees in each year in accordance with this section.

(3) The Government statistician shall, as soon as practicable after 30 June 1974, and in each year thereafter, give to the Treasurer a notice specifying the percentage (expressed to a degree of accuracy of not more than 1 decimal place) by which the index for the quarter ended on that day is greater or less than the index for the same quarter in the immediately preceding year.

(4) On receipt of a notice under subsection (3), the Treasurer shall, by order—

- (a) declare the percentage by which annuities shall be adjusted (whether by way of increase or decrease) in the year commencing on 1 August next after the quarter firstmentioned in that subsection; or
- (b) if, by reason of the operation of subsection (9), no adjustment is to be made in respect of that year—declare that annuities shall not be adjusted in respect of that year.

*Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act

(5) A percentage declared under subsection (4)(a) in respect of any year shall be the same as the percentage specified in the notice given to the Treasurer under subsection (3).

(6) An adjustment of an annuity in respect of any year made under this section shall be made—

- (a) by increasing, or as the case may require by decreasing, the rate at which immediately before the making of the adjustment, the annuity was payable by the percentage declared in respect of that year under subsection (4); and
- (b) so as to operate from and including the commencement of the first pay-period occurring wholly in the month of August in that year.

(7) The following provisions apply to and in relation to the first adjustment of an annuity pursuant to this section if at the time when the adjustment is to be made the annuity has been in force for less than 12 months—

- (a) in the case of an annuity that comes into force after 1 July in any year—the first adjustment of that annuity shall be made so as to operate from and including the commencement of the first pay-period occurring wholly in the month of August in the second year after the year in which the pension comes into force;
- (b) in the case of an annuity that comes into force on or before 1 July in any year—the first adjustment of that annuity shall be made so as to operate from and including the commencement of the first pay-period occurring wholly in the month of August immediately following that day;
- (c) the annual amount by which an annuity to which paragraph (b) applies is to be increased or decreased shall be calculated in accordance with the prescribed formula.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (7)(c), the prescribed formula is the formula—

$$V = A \times \frac{M}{12}.$$

Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1970

(8A) In subsection (8)—

“A” means the amount by which, but for the operation of subsection (7), the annuity would have been increased or decreased.

“M” means the number of whole months from the day on which the annuity came into force until the following 31 July (both days inclusive).

“V” means the annual amount referred to in subsection (7)(c).

(9) Except as provided in subsection (10), where the percentage specified in a notice under subsection (3) in respect of any year is less than 1 no adjustment of annuities shall be made in respect of that year.

(10) Where each of the percentages specified in a notice under subsection (3) in respect of any 2 or more successive years is less than 1 but those percentages are in the aggregate, equal to, or greater than, 1 (whether by way of increase or decrease), annuities shall be adjusted in respect of the latest of those years as if the percentage declared in respect of that year were a percentage equal to that aggregate.

(11) Nothing in this section requires the rate of an annuity to be decreased below the basic rate and if, by reason of the making of an adjustment under this section, the rate of an annuity would be so decreased, that annuity shall, until it is next increased, to a rate exceeding the basic rate by reason of the making of such an adjustment, be deemed to be payable at the basic rate.

(12) Where—

- (a) by reason solely of the operation of subsection (11) an annuity is being paid at the basic rate; and
- (b) an adjustment, by way of increase, is required to be made to the rate of that annuity in respect of any year;

that adjustment shall be made as if, immediately before the making of the adjustment, the annuity were payable at the rate at which, but for the operation of subsection (11), it would have been payable.
