ART UNIONS REGULATION 1992

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 27 January 1998]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This regulation may be cited as the Art Unions Regulation 1992.

Commencement

2. This regulation commences on 24 July 1992.

Definitions

3. In this regulation—

"accountant" means a person who is—

- (a) a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia or the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants; or
- (b) a registered company auditor within the meaning of the ASC Law; or
- (c) approved in writing by the chief executive as an accountant for the purposes of this regulation.
- "allowable expenses", in relation to an art union, means the percentage of the estimated gross proceeds of a proposed art union that may be allocated or paid towards the costs of conducting the particular type of art union mentioned in schedule 3, clauses 11 (Value of prizes, expenses and net proceeds—minor art unions), 12 (Value of prizes, expenses and net proceeds—major art unions), 13 (Value of prizes, expenses and net proceeds—minor bingo and major bingo) and 15 (Value of prizes and expenses—calcutta sweeps).

- "approved form" means a form approved by the chief executive under section 4 (Forms).
- "estimated gross proceeds" of an art union means the estimate made by the applicant for, or the holder of, an authority to conduct a non-exempt art union of the gross proceeds of the art union.
- "estimated net proceeds" of an art union means the estimate made by the applicant for, or the holder of, an authority to conduct a non-exempt art union of the net proceeds of the art union.
- "immediate family", in relation to a person, means the person's spouse and family members residing at the same premises as the person.
- "liable person", in relation to an art union, means a person who must discharge the duties mentioned in section 75 of the Act in relation to the art union.
- "net proceeds" of an art union means the gross proceeds of the art union after deducting allowable expenses including costs of prizes in the art union.
- "organiser", in relation to a calcutta sweep, means the individual appointed—
 - (a) under section 12 (Organiser of calcutta sweep) as the organiser of the calcutta sweep; or
 - (b) under section 14 (Vacancy in appointment to be filled) to fill a vacancy in an appointment as organiser.
- "register" means the Art Unions Register maintained under section 105 of the Act.¹
- "repealed Act" means the Art Unions and Amusements Act 1976.
- "rules", in relation to an eligible association that is the holder of an authority under part 3 of the Act, means the rules (whatever called) of the association.
- "spouse" means either one of a man and a woman—
 - (a) who are married to each other; or

¹ Section 105 (Register to be maintained)

(b) who, although not married to each other, are residing together as husband and wife.

"winner" means a person who wins a prize in an art union.

Forms

4. The forms to be used for the purpose of this regulation are the forms approved by the chief executive.

Fees etc.

5. The fees, costs, charges and taxes payable for the purposes of the Act are the fees, costs, charges and taxes set out in schedule 1.

Refund of fees etc.

6. If an application for an authority is refused, the chief executive must refund the fees, costs, charges and taxes that accompanied the application after deducting from them such amount as the chief executive considers reasonable to cover the administration costs of dealing with the application.

Categorisation of eligible associations

- 7. For the purposes of determining the amount of the fees, costs, charges and taxes payable under section 5 (Fees etc.) in relation to a minor art union, a major art union and minor bingo, eligible associations are categorised as follows—
 - (a) an eligible association is in category A if it is—
 - (i) formed, and is operated, principally for—
 - (A) a charitable purpose; or
 - (B) a religious purpose; or
 - (C) an educational purpose; or
 - (D) a patriotic purpose; or
 - (E) a community purpose; or

- (ii) a parents and citizens association formed under the Education (General Provisions) Act 1989; and
- (b) an eligible association is in category B if it is—
 - (i) an eligible association that is formed, and is operated, principally for a sporting purpose; or
 - (ii) a registered political party within the meaning of the Electoral Act 1992.

PART 2—EXEMPT ART UNIONS

Conduct of exempt art unions

8. A person who conducts an exempt art union must ensure that the conditions in schedule 2 relating to the conduct of the art union are observed.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Trade promotion art unions—notices or advertisements

8A. A person who conducts a trade promotion art union must ensure that every notice or advertisement issued in relation to the trade promotion art union states the day on which, and the name of the newspaper in which, the names and addresses of the prize winners will be published.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Trade promotion art unions—delivery of prizes

9.(1) A person who conducts a trade promotion art union must ensure that a prize in the art union is delivered to the winner of the prize within 1 month of the drawing of the art union.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the winner of the prize—

- (a) agrees in writing that the prize be delivered in a time longer than 1 month; or
- (b) can not be located after making a reasonable effort to do so.

Trade promotion art unions—unclaimed prizes

- 10.(1) If despite reasonable effort to find a winner of a prize in a trade promotion art union, the winner cannot be found and the prize is unclaimed, the person who conducts the art union must ensure that the prize is retained for 3 months from the drawing.
- (2) After 3 months the person conducting the art union must notify the chief executive that the prize is unclaimed and of the steps taken to find the prize winner.
 - (3) The chief executive may give a written direction to the person that—
 - (a) if the value of the prize is $1 000 or less and the prize is able to be redrawn—the prize be redrawn; or
 - (b) the prize be sold or otherwise disposed of in a way that will bring a reasonable price for the prize and the proceeds, after deducting the reasonable costs of the sale or disposal, be paid to the public trustee.
- (4) A person to whom a written direction is given under subsection (3) must comply with the direction.
- (5) Despite subsection (1), if the prize is perishable and it is not claimed by the winner on the day that the art union is drawn, the person who conducts the art union may sell or otherwise dispose of the prize in a way that the person considers will bring a reasonable amount.
- (6) The moneys realised after the prize has been sold or disposed of, after deducting the reasonable costs of sale or disposal, must be held in trust by the person who conducts the art union for the winner of the prize.
- (7) If the moneys remain unclaimed after 3 months, the person who conducts the art union must ensure that they are paid to the public trustee within 14 days of the end of the 3 months.
- (8) Moneys paid to the public trustee under subsection (3)(b) or (7) must be kept in trust for the winner of the prize that was sold, or disposed of, and if they are unclaimed for 6 years they become unclaimed moneys and must be dealt with under part 8 of the Public Trustee Act 1978.

Maximum penalty other than for subsection (8)—10 penalty units.

PART 3—NON-EXEMPT ART UNIONS

Chief executive to be notified of certain events

- 11.(1) The management committee of an eligible association that holds an authority to conduct a non-exempt art union must ensure that the chief executive is notified in writing of any of the following within 14 days of their happening—
 - (a) the association changes its address or postal address; or
 - (b) an amendment relating to the objects of the association is made to the rules of the association; or
 - (c) a vote is passed under the rules of the association that it be wound up or dissolved or a court orders that the association be wound up; or
 - (d) the association ceases to carry out its objects.
- (2) In the case of an amendment mentioned in subsection (1)(b), the management committee must also lodge with the chief executive, within 14 days of the amendment, a copy of the amended rules.
- (3) A person who holds an authority, other than a permit or licence to conduct a non-exempt art union, must notify the chief executive in writing of a change of address or postal address of the person within 14 days of the change.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Chief executive to be notified of loss or theft of lucky envelopes etc.

11A. If the management committee of an eligible association that holds a licence to sell lucky envelopes finds out that the association's lucky envelopes, or the proceeds arising from the sale of those lucky envelopes, have been—

- (a) lost or misplaced by the association or by one of its employees or agents; or
- (b) stolen from the association or from one of its employees or agents;

the management committee must ensure that the chief executive is notified in writing of the relevant event within 7 days after it finds out about it.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Organiser of calcutta sweep

12. Before applying for a permit to conduct a calcutta sweep, the management committee of an eligible association must appoint at least 1 individual as the organiser of the sweep.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Function of organiser

- 13.(1) The function of the organiser is to conduct the calcutta sweep.
- (2) In conducting the sweep, the organiser is subject to a lawful direction relating to the conduct of the sweep given by the management committee of the eligible association that holds the permit to conduct the sweep.

Vacancy in appointment to be filled

14. The management committee of an eligible association that has applied for, or holds, a permit to conduct a calcutta sweep must ensure that a vacancy in an appointment as organiser of the sweep, is filled within 7 days of the appointment becoming vacant.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Application of net proceeds of non-exempt art union

15. The management committee of an eligible association that holds an authority to conduct a non-exempt art union must not use or apply the net proceeds of the art union for a purpose other than in promoting the objects set out in the rules of the association.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Conduct of non-exempt art unions

16. A liable person in relation to the conduct of a non-exempt art union must ensure that the conditions set out in schedule 3 are observed.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Records, documents and accounts to be kept

- 17.(1) A liable person for the conduct of a non-exempt art union must keep in a safe place the records, documents and accounts of the art union, including—
 - (a) records and forms of account correctly recording and explaining financial operations and enabling the conduct of the art union to be properly and conveniently audited, including—
 - (i) a cash book; and
 - (ii) a record of receipt books and receipts used; and
 - (iii) a bank book and bank deposit records; and
 - (iv) a postage and petty cash book; and
 - (v) a master register of art unions in the approved form; and
 - (b) if the art union is a major art union or a calcutta sweep—
 - (i) a record of the total amount of money received from persons who wished to take part in the art union but did not do so because tickets were not issued to them, or if tickets were issued, because the tickets were not included in the drawing, the amount received in each case and the names and addresses of the persons by whom the money was paid; and
 - (ii) a description of the prizes, numbers of prize winning tickets and the full names and addresses of prize winners; and
 - (c) if the art union is bingo—an accurate record, in the approved form, of each game of bingo conducted during a bingo session.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) The liable person must also keep—
 - (a) copies of advertisements and notices, including transcripts of electronic advertisements and telemarketing scripts; and
 - (b) correspondence, contracts and agreements; and
 - (c) other books and forms of accounts that the chief executive has, in writing, directed the association to keep.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Keeping of accounts

- 18.(1) A liable person for the conduct of a non-exempt art union must ensure—
 - (a) the proceeds of ticket sales in the art union are banked into a bank account, opened by the management committee in the eligible association's name, after deducting—
 - (i) for a major art union (if authorised on the permit)—commission payments to authorised agents; and
 - (ii) for minor and major bingo—cash prize payouts; and
 - (b) the proceeds mentioned in paragraph (a) are banked, in the nature in which they were received, as soon as practicable but within 2 business days after receipt; and
 - (c) an acknowledgment from the bank of all deposits made and a record of the nature of the deposit are kept; and
 - (d) particulars of collections are entered daily in the cash book; and
 - (e) all payments of $100 or more, other than for prizes, are made by cheque; and
 - (f) all cheques are crossed, marked 'not negotiable' and signed by at least 2 persons authorised in writing by the management committee; and
 - (g) all payments are supported by vouchers or other source transaction records; and

- (h) if the art union is a major art union—
 - (i) receipts are obtained from agents and ticket sellers for tickets allotted to them; and
 - (ii) the receipts are filed in order of ticket book numbers; and
 - (iii) when ticket books are returned, they are examined for correctness.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) The liable person must also ensure—
 - (a) all transactions are properly recorded and accounted for; and
 - (b) if the chief executive has given the eligible association written directions about keeping accounts—the directions are complied with

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (3) If unsold tickets in a major art union are returned, the tickets may be reissued.
- (4) The liable person for the conduct of the major art union must ensure subsection (1)(h) is complied with for the reissued tickets.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Exemption from s 17 (Records and accounts to be kept) and s 18 (Keeping of accounts)

- 19.(1) Subject to subsection (2), on a written application from an eligible association that holds an authority to conduct an art union the chief executive may, if satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist, by writing exempt the eligible association from the requirements of section 17 (Records and accounts to be kept) or section 18 (Keeping of accounts) or both sections in relation to the eligible association, subject to the conditions (if any) specified in the writing.
- (2) The chief executive must not vary requirements or exempt an association under subsection (1) unless the chief executive is satisfied that the association's system of management and accounts ensure full disclosure of financial transactions relating to the art union and that the association is accountable for its actions relating to the art union.

Retention of records and accounts

20.(1) The management committee of an eligible association that holds, or has held, an authority to conduct an art union must retain the records and accounts mentioned in section 17 (Records and accounts to be kept) and section 18 (Keeping of accounts) for 2 years, or such further term as the chief executive notifies the association in writing, from the day mentioned in subsection (2).

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) The term for which the records and accounts specified in subsection (1) are to be retained begins on the day of lodgment with the chief executive of the matters required to be lodged with the chief executive relating to the art union under section 21 (Audits—major art unions, major bingo and certain calcutta sweeps), section 22 (Statements etc. to be lodged—minor art union and minor bingo) and section 23 (Statements and returns—association holding licence to conduct minor art unions).

Audits—major art unions, major bingo and certain calcutta sweeps

21.(1) The—

- (a) management committee of an eligible association that holds a permit to conduct a major art union, major bingo or a calcutta sweep; and
- (b) special committee and promoter; and
- (c) organiser;

must, within 2 months after the permit is cancelled or expires, whichever occurs first, ensure that—

- (d) the accounts; and
- (e) the moneys; and
- (f) the statement of receipts and payments and application of the proceeds in the approved form; relating to the major art union, major bingo, or calcutta sweep are audited by an accountant.

- (2) The management committee, special committee, promoter and organiser must ensure that—
 - (a) the audited statement of receipts and payments and application of proceeds; and
 - (b) a statutory declaration in the approved form; and
 - (c) such other information as may be required by the chief executive in writing to the eligible association; are lodged with the chief executive within 14 days of the completion of the audit.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Statements etc. to be lodged—minor art union and minor bingo

- 22. The management committee of an eligible association that holds a permit to conduct a minor art union or minor bingo must ensure that—
 - (a) a statement of receipts and payments and application of the proceeds; and
 - (b) a statutory declaration in the approved form; and
 - (c) a statement containing such other information as may be required by the chief executive in writing; is prepared and lodged with the chief executive within 1 month after the permit is cancelled or expires, whichever occurs first.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Statements and returns—association holding licence to conduct minor art unions

- 23. The management committee of an eligible association that holds a licence to conduct minor art unions must—
 - (a) within 3 months of the end of the association's financial year, prepare or cause to be prepared, a statement in the approved form

- of all art unions conducted under the licence in the previous financial year; and
- (b) present the statement to the next annual general meeting of the association for adoption; and
- (c) submit a financial return to the chief executive in the approved form—
 - (i) if an application is made to renew the licence—with the application; or
 - (ii) if the licence expires or is cancelled—within 7 days of the expiry or cancellation of the licence, whichever occurs first.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Returns—association holding licence to sell lucky envelopes

23A. The management committee of an eligible association that holds a licence to sell lucky envelopes must, within 1 month of each 30 June and 31 December that happens during the term of the licence, submit a return relating to the sale of lucky envelopes to the chief executive in the approved form.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Delivery of prizes—all non-exempt art unions other than minor bingo or major bingo

24.(1) A liable person in relation to the conduct of a non-exempt art union must ensure that a prize in the art union is delivered to the winner of the prize within 1 month of the drawing of the art union.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the winner of the prize—
 - (a) agrees in writing that the prize be delivered in a time longer than 1 month; or
 - (b) cannot be located after making a reasonable effort to do so.

Delivery of prizes—minor bingo and major bingo

- 25.(1) An eligible association that holds an authority to conduct minor bingo or major bingo must deliver the prize to the winner immediately after the game in which the prize was won.
 - (2) A money prize of more than $500 must be paid by cheque.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Unclaimed prizes to be retained for 3 months—all non-exempt art unions

- 26.(1) If an eligible association that conducts a non-exempt art union cannot, despite reasonable effort to do so, find a winner of a prize in the art union or a winner does not claim the prize, the eligible association that conducts the art union must ensure that the prize is retained for 3 months after the drawing.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), if a prize in a minor art union is perishable, the association may sell or otherwise dispose of the prize in a way that the association considers will bring a reasonable price.
- (3) The money realised after the prize has been sold or otherwise disposed of under subsection (2) (after deducting the reasonable costs of sale or disposal) must be held in trust by the association for the winner of the prize.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Disposal of unclaimed prizes—minor art unions

27. If an eligible association that conducts a minor art union cannot find a winner of a prize in the art union or a winner does not claim a prize within 3 months of the drawing of the art union, the winner's right to the prize (or if the prize was perishable and has been sold or disposed of—the right to the money held by the association under section 26(3) (Unclaimed prizes to be retained for 3 months—all non-exempt art unions) ceases and the association must apply the prize or the money (in the way it considers best) towards furthering its objects.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Disposal of unclaimed prizes—major art unions and calcutta sweeps

28.(1) If an eligible association that conducts a major art union or a calcutta sweep cannot find a winner of a prize in the art union or sweep or a winner does not claim the prize within 3 months of the drawing of the art union or sweep, the eligible association must notify the chief executive in writing that the prize is unclaimed and of the steps taken to find the winner.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) The chief executive may, by writing to the association, direct—
 - (a) that further reasonable steps (that may be specified in the writing) be taken to locate the winner; or
 - (b) the prize be sold or otherwise disposed of in a way (that may be specified in the writing) that will bring a reasonable amount.
- (3) The association must comply with a direction given under subsection (2) within a reasonable time.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(4) The association must ensure that the moneys realised after the sale or disposal of the prize (after deducting the reasonable costs of the sale or disposal) are paid to the public trustee within 1 month, or such further time as may be approved in writing by the chief executive, of the sale or disposal.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(5) Moneys paid to the public trustee under subsection (4) must be kept in trust for the winner of the prize that was sold or disposed of and if they are unclaimed for 6 years, they become unclaimed moneys and must be dealt with under part 8 of the Public Trustee Act 1978.

Safe custody of lucky envelopes

- 28A. The management committee of an eligible association that holds a licence to sell lucky envelopes must ensure that—
 - (a) all stocks of lucky envelopes held by the association are kept in a secure, locked place; and
 - (b) adequate security arrangements exist to prevent access to the place by persons who are not authorised by the management committee to have access to the place.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Requirements for approval of lucky envelope vending machine

28B. The requirements for the purposes of section 66(2)(b) (Approval of lucky envelope vending machines) of the Act in relation to a lucky envelope vending machine, or a make and model of a lucky envelope vending machine, are that the machine must—

- (a) incorporate—
 - (i) a coin rejection and return facility if the machine fails to operate; and
 - (ii) a lockable money box accessible only to a person authorised by the eligible association that sells lucky envelopes through the machine; and
 - (iii) an adequate system of accounting and audit controls to enable all sales of lucky envelopes through the machine to be reconciled and accounted for; and
 - (iv) adequate locking devices to prevent vandalism, and the theft of lucky envelopes and money in the machine; and
- (b) not be capable of accruing playing credits.

Certain persons not eligible to win a prize in a non-exempt art union

- 29. The following persons and associations are not eligible to win a prize in an art union—
