PART 8—FIRE EMERGENCY

Division 1—Local fire bans

Imposing local fire ban

- 86A.(1) If the chief commissioner considers a fire emergency exists in a local government's area, the chief commissioner may impose a fire ban (a "local fire ban") in the area.
 - (2) A local fire ban may—
 - (a) be imposed for an entire local government area or part of a local government area; and
 - (b) prohibit the lighting of all, or only certain, types of fires.
- (3) The area to which a local fire ban applies is called the "fire ban area".

Publicising local fire ban

- 86B.(1) A local fire ban may be imposed—
 - (a) by notice (a "newspaper notice") published in a newspaper circulating in the fire ban area; or
 - (b) by notice (a "broadcast notice") transmitted by a broadcasting service generally able to be received by persons in the fire ban area.
- (2) However, a local fire ban may be imposed by a broadcast notice only if the chief commissioner considers—
 - (a) it is necessary because of urgent circumstances relating to the fire emergency; and

- (b) imposing the ban by a newspaper notice would result in a delay that was undesirable, having regard to the urgent circumstances.
- (3) The newspaper or broadcast notice must—
 - (a) state the local government area to which the ban applies and, if appropriate, describe the part of the local government area to which it applies; and
 - (b) state the fires the lighting of which is prohibited; and
 - (c) state the period of the ban (not longer than 14 days).
- (4) As well as using a newspaper or broadcast notice to impose a local fire ban, the chief commissioner may cause the ban to be publicised in any other way the chief commissioner considers appropriate.

Cancelling local fire ban

- 86C.(1) If, while a local fire ban is in force, the chief commissioner considers the fire emergency for which the ban was imposed has ceased to exist, the chief commissioner must cancel the ban.
 - (2) The cancellation may be made—
 - (a) by notice (a "newspaper notice") published in a newspaper circulating in the fire ban area; or
 - (b) by notice (a "broadcast notice") transmitted by a broadcasting service generally able to be received by persons in the fire ban area.
- (3) However, a local fire ban may be cancelled by a broadcast notice only if the chief commissioner considers a newspaper notice would unnecessarily delay the cancellation of the ban.
- (4) As well as using a newspaper or broadcast notice to cancel a local fire ban, the chief commissioner may cause the cancellation of the ban to be publicised in any other way the chief commissioner considers appropriate.

Period of local fire ban

86D.(1) A local fire ban imposed by a notice published in a newspaper takes effect from the day the notice is published.

- (2) A local fire ban imposed by a notice transmitted by a broadcasting service takes effect from the day and time stated in the notice.
- (3) For subsection (2), the day and time must not be before the notice is transmitted.
- (4) A local fire ban remains in force until 1 of the following events happens—
 - (a) the period of the ban stated in the notice imposing the ban ends;
 - (b) the ban is cancelled.

Effect of local fire ban on other authorisations to light fires

86E. While a local fire ban remains in force, any authority given under this or another Act to light a fire in the fire ban area ceases to have effect, to the extent to which the authority applies to fires the lighting of which is prohibited under the ban.

Contravening local fire ban

86F. While a local fire ban is in force, a person must not light a fire in the fire ban area if the lighting of the fire is prohibited under the ban.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Evidentiary aid about local fire ban

- 86G. In a proceeding for an offence against section 86F, a certificate purporting to be signed by the chief commissioner stating the following matters is evidence of the matters—
 - (a) on a stated day, or during a stated period, a local fire ban was in force at a stated place;
 - (b) the types of fire the lighting of which was prohibited under the ban.

Division 2—Declarations of state of fire emergency

Declaration of state of fire emergency

- 87.(1) The chief commissioner may, with the approval of the Minister, declare that a state of fire emergency exists within Queensland.
 - (2) A declaration of a state of fire emergency—
 - (a) may have effect throughout the State or in part of the State, as specified in the declaration;
 - (b) may apply differently according to factors specified in the declaration:
 - (c) may, if it does not prohibit the lighting of all types of fires, prescribe conditions to be observed in lighting fires of any type not prohibited;
 - (d) may order that the lighting of any fire of a type not prohibited be subject to the granting of a permit under section 65 by the chief commissioner or by a person belonging to a class of person specified in the declaration;
 - (e) may order that any person finding a fire burning in the open air take all possible steps to extinguish it and, as soon as is practicable, report the existence and locality of the fire to any person belonging to a class of person specified in the declaration;
 - (f) may prohibit the use of any appliance, material or substance specified in the declaration that, in the opinion of the chief commissioner, is or is likely to cause a fire risk;
 - (g) may order the suspension of such operations as may be specified for the period specified;
 - (h) may, with the approval of the Minister, be amended or revoked at any time.

Publication of declaration

88.(1) Every declaration of a fire emergency or amendment or revocation of a declaration must be notified in the gazette.

- (2) A declaration of a fire emergency or an amendment or revocation of a declaration takes effect from—
 - (a) the date on which it is notified in the gazette; or
 - (b) where it is notified throughout the area to which it applies by newspaper, radio or television, the date on which it is so notified;

whichever date occurs sooner.

(3) For the purpose of ensuring public knowledge of the declaration of a state of fire emergency in the area to which it applies, the chief commissioner must take measures to give widespread publicity to the declaration but any alleged failure to do so is not an excuse for failure to comply with the declaration.

Period of state of fire emergency

- 89. A state of fire emergency declared by the chief commissioner remains in force—
 - (a) where a period for which it is to remain in force is specified in the declaration, until that period expires unless the declaration is sooner amended by extending that period or revoked; or
 - (b) where no period is specified, until the declaration is revoked.

Effect of emergency on existing authorities to light fires

- 90.(1) Upon the declaration of a state of fire emergency, any authority given under this or any other Act to light a fire, whether given before or during the state of emergency, ceases to have effect while the state of emergency remains in force.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies subject to any authority to light a fire specified in the declaration or any permit granted after the commencement of the state of emergency in accordance with the declaration.

Chief commissioner's power during fire emergency

91.(1) While a state of fire emergency remains in force, the chief commissioner may take any reasonable measure to abate the fire emergency.

(2) Without limiting those measures, they include requisitioning any premises, plant, equipment, materials or substance for fire fighting or fire prevention.

Failure to comply with declaration

92. Any person who fails to comply with a declaration of a state of fire emergency or with any requisition made pursuant to section 91(2) commits an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty—250 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

Certificate re declaration

- 93. In any proceeding for—
 - (a) an offence defined in section 92; or
 - (b) any other offence against this Act where it is alleged as a circumstance of aggravation that the offence was committed during a state of fire emergency at a place to which the declaration of the emergency applied;

any certificate signed by the chief commissioner stating that a state of fire emergency declared under section 87 existed at a specified place and during a specified period and specifying any of the provisions of the declaration is evidence of the matters contained in the certificate.

- (3) A person who is given a notice pursuant to subsection (1) must comply with the notice.

- (9) A notice under subsection (7) or (8) to the extent that it specifies that an alteration is to be made to the structure of a building before an application will be granted is not valid unless the authorised fire officer who issues the notice first consults the local government in whose area the building is situated.

(10) If an authorised officer—

- (a) fails to issue a certificate of compliance or any notice under this section before a date 30 days after the receipt by the chief commissioner of an application; or
- (b) in a case where a notice under subsection (7) has been given to the applicant—fails to issue a certificate of compliance or a notice of refusal before a date 30 days after the expiration of the time allowed by the notice to take steps specified in the notice;

the provisions of division 4 apply as if the authorised officer had given to the applicant on that date a notice of refusal.

Form of certificate of compliance

104J. A certificate of compliance—

- (a) subject to this Act, may be issued in any convenient form and if convenient be in respect of more than 1 building or building use;
- (b) must state specifically or by reference the fire safety installations the maintenance of which were required for the issue of the certificate.

Certificate of compliance—limitations on requirements

104K. An authorised fire officer who inspects a building for the purposes of section 104I must not impose—

- (a) more onerous requirements for the maintenance of fire safety installations than the occupier was required to maintain pursuant to section 104D immediately before the inspection; or
- (b) in relation to any particular matter provided for by the regulations—more onerous requirements than those imposed in relation to the matter by the regulations;

as a prerequisite to the officer being satisfied that adequate fire safety measures and fire prevention measures generally have been taken or are being maintained by the occupier.

 - (3) The referee nominated pursuant to subsection (1)(b)—

- (a) if the local government is not the person objecting—is to be a person appointed to be a building certifier by the local government; and
- (b) if the local government is the person objecting—is to be a person appointed to be a building certifier by a local government other than the objector.
- (5) In the event of a failure of a local government or the chief executive of the department administering the Building Act 1975 for any reason to nominate a person to be a referee for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) or (c), in the stead of that person the convenor of the panel may appoint any person to be a referee.
- (6) Referees are entitled to such fees and expenses for attendance at meetings of a panel as may be approved by the Governor in Council, with the exception that an officer of the public service of the State is not to receive fees for attendance as a referee during ordinary hours of duty.

Determination of objection

 - (b) such further amount as the Treasurer may authorise.
- (3) If, for any financial year, the Treasurer believes that any anticipated reduction by the Commonwealth in financial assistance payments to the State (not including any grant related to the provision of fire services to properties owned by the Commonwealth) will be attributable to the amount payable under this part by Commonwealth public trading enterprises as owners of prescribed properties, the Treasurer may make a corresponding reduction in the amount payable under subsection (2)(a).

- (4) In this section—
- "Commonwealth public trading enterprises" means instrumentalities of the Commonwealth liable to pay the taxes and other charges of the State.

- (3) If a pensioner entitled to a discount in respect of prescribed property is not the sole owner, the discount is an amount that bears to the amount of the discount to which the pensioner would have been entitled as the sole owner, the same proportion as the pensioner's interest in the property bears to the total of the interests of all owners of the property.
 - (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
