(1) The primary purpose of a business conducted under a general licence is the sale of liquor for consumption on the premises, or on and off the premises, together with the provision of meals and accommodation as required under the licence.

(2) The authority under a general licence to sell or supply liquor does not apply unless a business is conducted on the licensed premises with a primary purpose as mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) To remove doubt, it is declared that it is inconsistent with the primary purpose of a business conducted under a general licence to only sell liquor for consumption off the premises.

59 Authority of general licence

(1) A general licence authorises the licensee—

- (a) to sell liquor on the licensed premises, for consumption on or off the premises, during ordinary trading hours or ordinary trading hours extended by an extended hours permit; and
- (b) to sell liquor on the licensed premises, for consumption on or off the premises, at any time to a resident on the premises; and

- (d) to sell liquor on premises approved by the chief executive for sale of liquor under authority of the general licence, for consumption—
 - (i) off the premises; or

(ii) on the premises in the amount and in the circumstances prescribed by regulation.

(2) If the chief executive specifies in the licence, the authority of a general licence extends to the sale of liquor off the licensed premises, for consumption off the premises, while the licensee is catering for a function if—

- (a) the sale is ancillary to the function at the place where the liquor is consumed; and
- (b) the liquor is sold for consumption by persons genuinely attending the function.

(3) The authority under subsection (1) or (2) is subject to this Act and the conditions specified in a particular licence or extended hours permit.

(4) Premises approved by the chief executive for sale of liquor under the authority of a general licence are part of the licensed premises to which the licence relates.

(c) if the chief executive so specifies in the licence—during ordinary trading hours to an owner or operator of a boat making use of facilities of a marina adjacent to the licensed premises, for consumption on or off the premises as specified in the licence.

(2) Despite subsection (1)(b), a residential licence does not authorise the licensee to sell liquor, from the part of the premises stated in the residential licence as ordinarily set aside for dining, for consumption off the premises.

(3) If the chief executive specifies in the licence, the authority of a residential licence extends to the sale of liquor on premises, other than the licensed premises, for consumption on the other premises.

(4) The authority conferred by a residential licence to sell liquor for consumption off the licensed premises to a person other than a resident on the licensed premises is restricted to the sale of liquor—

- (a) as ancillary to a function that—
 - (i) happens at a place at which the liquor is consumed; and
 - (ii) includes the licensee providing food for the function of sufficient substance as to be ordinarily accepted as a meal for consumption by persons genuinely attending the function, even though the food may be eaten while standing and without cutlery; and
- (b) for consumption by persons genuinely attending the function.

(5) In deciding whether the holder of, or an applicant for, a residential licence sells or proposes to sell liquor under the licence as if the licence were an on-premises (meals) licence, the chief executive must consider the indicators mentioned in section 73(3)¹⁷ together with any other relevant matters.

(6) The authority under subsection (1) or (3) is subject to this Act and the conditions specified in a particular licence or extended hours permit.

- (a) for a one-off permit—whether the frequency, location, size or timing of the adult entertainment may cause some community concern; and
 - (b) for a subsequent permit—whether a previous adult entertainment permit exists or has lapsed or whether there are specific problems relating to the locality of the licensed premises, including, for example, the use of the premises for adult entertainment, or the behaviour of persons entering or leaving the premises, may cause

(2) An objection may be made individually or by petition.

(3) The grounds on which an objection about an application, other than an application for an adult entertainment permit, may be made are that—

(1A) Also, the chief executive may invite the following to attend the conference—

(3) However, the chief executive is not required to hold a conference if the persons mentioned in subsection (1)(b) tell the chief executive they will not be attending or they do not attend at the time and place stated in the notice.

(3A) The chief executive may take part in the conference.

(4) If—

- (a) at the conference, agreement is reached between the applicant and other conferring persons on issues about the application; and

- (c) comments from the local government for the area to which the application relates; and
- (d) for an extended hours permit or adult entertainment permit or an application relating to a restricted area—comments from the assistant commissioner for the locality to which the application relates; and
- (e) if the application relates to a community area—comments from the community justice group for the area; and
- (f) the impact on the amenity of the community concerned; and
- (g) for an extended hours permit for extension of hours beyond 2 a.m.—
 - (i) the previous conduct of the applicant in discharging any duties under this Act previously placed on the applicant, especially for the premises for which the extension is sought; and
 - (ii) the applicant's ability to control the noise and behaviour of the number of persons that could reasonably be expected to be on and in the vicinity of the premises if the extension were granted; and
 - (iii) the suitability of the premises and its facilities for the purpose for which the extension is sought.

(6) If the chief executive grants an extended hours permit for extension of hours beyond 3 a.m., the permit remains in force for a maximum period of 6 months and may be renewed only on application to the chief executive.

(2) The local government or assistant commissioner may comment on, or object to, the application by giving written comments or objections to the chief executive within 14 days of receiving the chief executive's advice about the application.

(3) A conference that is to be held under section 121 because of objections received must be held as soon as practicable after the chief executive has given notice of the objections to the applicant.

123 Chief executive may grant provisional licence

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the chief executive assesses an application for a licence, including, for example, the primary purpose of a business to be conducted under the proposed licence and the requirements of section 107³⁴ in relation to the application; and
- (b) a development approval has been given under the Integrated Planning Act 1997 for the use of the land on which the proposed premises will be situated for licensed premises; and

34 Section 107 (Restrictions on grant of licence or permit)

 - (i) were completed under the law relating to carrying out building work; or
 - (ii) were approved or certified as required by law for use as licensed premises and, if the case requires it, for conduct in the premises of a business for which the licence was sought.

(2) The chief executive may grant the application provisionally and issue a provisional licence subject to a condition that the applicant produces evidence of the completion of the building work or approval or certification as required by law, as mentioned in subsection (1)(c).

(3) The provisional licence must state—

- (a) the evidence the applicant is required to produce; and
- (b) that if the applicant produces the stated evidence to the satisfaction of the chief executive within a stated reasonable time, not more than 1 year, the applicant is entitled to a stated licence; and
- (c) that if the applicant does not produce the stated evidence within the stated time, the applicant's provisional licence will be cancelled.

123A Chief executive may grant authority to trade for staged development

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the chief executive assesses an application for a licence, including, for example, the primary purpose of a business to be conducted under the proposed licence and the requirements of section 107 in relation to the application; and
- (b) the construction or alteration of the proposed premises is to be completed in stages and 1 or more of the stages has been completed; and
- (c) the business to be conducted in a completed stage meets the primary purpose under the proposed licence and has been approved or certified as required by law for use as licensed premises and, if the case requires it, for conduct in the premises of a business for which the licence was sought; and

- (d) the chief executive would grant the application if all the stages of the construction or alteration of the premises were completed.

(2) The chief executive may grant the application provisionally and issue an approval (a “staged development approval”) subject to a condition that the applicant produces evidence of the completion of the remaining stages of the construction or alteration of the premises.

(3) The staged development approval must state—

- (a) the evidence the applicant is required to produce before the application for the licence will be granted; and
- (b) the part of the premises in which the applicant is authorised to operate the business the subject of the application until the licence is granted; and
- (c) that if the applicant produces the stated evidence within a stated reasonable time, not more than 1 year, the applicant is entitled to a stated licence.

123B Provisional licence or staged development approval

(1) A provisional licence or staged development approval remains in force for—

- (a) the stated reasonable time from the day on which it is granted; or
- (b) if no time is stated in the approval, 1 year from the day on which it is granted.

(2) The chief executive may renew a provisional licence, for a period of not more than 1 year, if the chief executive reasonably considers there are special circumstances for the applicant not producing the evidence stated in the licence within the stated time, including, for example, delays in completing the proposed premises because of adverse weather conditions.

(3) A provisional licence can not be renewed more than once.

(4) The chief executive may, after considering a matter to which the chief executive may have regard in making a decision to grant a licence of the type the subject of a staged development approval, renew the approval for a period of not more than 1 year.

(5) A staged development approval may be renewed more than once.

123C Effect of provisional licence

(1) A provisional licence in relation to an application for a licence does not give the applicant authority to operate the business the subject of the application until the licence is granted.

(2) If, while a provisional licence is in force, the holder of the licence produces the evidence stated in the licence to the satisfaction of the chief executive, the chief executive must grant the appropriate licence.

(3) If the holder of a provisional licence does not produce the evidence stated in the licence within the time stated in the licence, the chief executive must cancel the provisional licence.

(4) The cancellation of a provisional licence takes effect despite another provision of this Act.

124 Effect of staged development approval

(1) A staged development approval in relation to an application for a licence authorises the applicant to sell and supply liquor as if—

- (a) the approval were the licence the subject of the application; and
- (b) the part of the premises stated in the approval in which the applicant is authorised to operate the business the subject of the application were licensed premises; and
- (c) the applicant were the licensee.

- (a) the licensee must discontinue business under authority of the licence until a temporary authority is granted under paragraph (b); and
- (b) the chief executive may, on application made by the licensee, grant to the licensee a temporary authority to conduct business under authority of the licence.

(2) A temporary authority may be granted in respect of—

- (a) any part or parts of the licensed premises; or
- (b) any neighbouring premises;

for the period the chief executive considers reasonable, although such part or parts, or neighbouring premises, do not satisfy the requirements of this Act or of the chief executive.

(3) If the licence for the licensed premises is a general licence, the chief executive may grant temporary authority even though part of the business that is the primary purpose under the licence can not be conducted in the premises that are the subject of the authority.

Example of subsection (3)—

If a hotel is destroyed by fire but there is a detached bottle shop covered by the licence, the temporary authority may be given for the detached bottle shop even though the hotel is not able to operate or can not be rebuilt for a period of time.

(4) A temporary authority may be—

- (a) granted for 1 term stated in the authority, but not longer than 2 years; and
- (b) extended for a term or terms, each of which is not longer than 2 years, if the chief executive is satisfied there are special circumstances for not restoring the premises within the original term or the most recent extension of the term, including, for example—
 - (i) continuing investigations about the destruction of the premises; or
 - (ii) difficulties in obtaining development approval for rebuilding the premises.

(5) While a temporary authority is in force, the part or parts of licensed premises, or neighbouring premises, to which it relates are, for the purposes of this Act, the licensed premises to which the existing licence relates.

 - (i) an unreasonable noise; or
 - (ii) in contravention of an order under section 46;⁴⁷ or
- (b) because of activity in or near the licensed premises, there is a danger to persons or property that is likely to be aggravated by the continued supply of liquor in the locality.

(2) The investigator may give written notice to the licensee, permittee, or person who appears to be in charge of the premises, requiring that—

- (a) the noise stop or be reduced to, and kept at, a level so that it is no longer an unreasonable noise; or
- (b) the premises be closed immediately.

47 Section 46 (Orders for licensed premises etc.)

(2A) In deciding whether to give a written notice under subsection (2), the investigator must have regard to the following—

- (a) the order of occupancy between the licensee or permittee and any complainant;
- (b) any changes in the licensed premises and the premises occupied by any complainant, including, for example, structural changes to the premises;
- (c) any changes in the activities conducted on the licensed premises over a period of time.

(3) If the notice is contravened, the investigator may take all steps necessary and reasonable to ensure compliance, or continued compliance, with the notice.

(4) A person who contravenes a requisition under subsection (2) commits an offence.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

(5) In this section—

“licensed premises” includes premises to which a restricted club permit relates.

Division 2—Provisions relating to seizure

187A Application

(1) Sections 187B to 187G apply if an investigator who is not a police officer seizes property under this part.

(2) If an investigator who is a police officer seizes property under this part—

- (a) the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, other than chapter 11, part 3, division 7,⁴⁸ applies as if the property were seized as evidence under that Act; and
- (b) sections 187F and 187G of this Act apply to the property.

187B Receipts for seized property

(1) As soon as practicable after the investigator seizes the property, the investigator must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized.

(2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the investigator must leave the receipt at the place of seizure in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.

(3) The receipt must describe generally each thing seized and its condition.

(4) This section does not apply to property if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the receipt, given its nature, condition and value.

187C Return of seized property

(1) This section applies to the seized property if it is not forfeited under section 187E, 187EA, 187EB or 187F.

(2) The investigator must return the property to the person from whom it was seized not later than the following times—

- (a) if a proceeding for an offence involving the property is started within 6 months after the seizure—at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding;
- (b) otherwise—6 months after the seizure.

(3) Despite subsection (2), if the property was seized only as evidence, the investigator must immediately return the property if the investigator stops being satisfied its continued retention as evidence is necessary.

48 Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 11 (Administration), part 3 (Dealing with things in the possession of police service), division 7 (Dealing with forfeited things)

187D Access to seized property

(1) Until the seized property is forfeited or returned, the investigator must allow its owner to inspect it and, if it is a document, to copy it.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.

187E Forfeiture of unreturned property

(1) The seized property is forfeited to the State if—

- (a) the investigator can not find the person from whom it was seized, after making reasonable inquiries; or
- (b) the investigator can not find the person from whom it was seized and it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find the person; or
- (c) the investigator can not return it, after making reasonable efforts; or
- (d) it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the property.

Examples for paragraph (d)—

- 1. The person from whom the property was seized has migrated to another country.
- 2. The seized property consists a small amount of liquor that does not have a high value.

(2) Regard must be had to the nature, condition and value of property in deciding—

- (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and
- (b) if making inquiries or efforts—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

187EA Forfeiture of seized property to prevent commission of particular offences—investigator

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the seized property was seized in relation to the contravention of a prescribed provision or section 168B, 169 or 171; and
- (b) the investigator believes on reasonable grounds the property is liquor having a value of less than $50; and

- (c) the investigator is satisfied it is necessary to retain the property to prevent it being used in the commission of another contravention of a prescribed provision or section 168B, 169 or 171.

(2) The investigator may exercise the following powers—

- (a) decide to forfeit the property;
- (b) destroy or dispose of the property in the way the investigator considers reasonably appropriate.

Examples for subsection (2)(b)—

1. The investigator may empty an opened can of beer found by the investigator being consumed by a person in contravention of section 168B.
2. The investigator may retain a carton of beer found in a person's possession in contravention of section 171.

(3) If the investigator exercises the power under subsection (2)(a)—

- (a) the investigator must immediately tell the person who owned the property immediately before its seizure of the forfeiture; and
- (b) the property is forfeited to, and becomes the property of, the State immediately after the investigator exercises the power; and
- (c) compensation is not recoverable against any person for the forfeiture.

(4) However, subsection (3)(a) does not apply if—

- (a) the investigator can not find the person, after making reasonable inquiries; or
- (b) it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to comply with the paragraph.

187EB Forfeiture of seized property to prevent commission of particular offences—chief executive

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the seized property was seized in relation to the contravention of a prescribed provision or section 168B, 169 or 171; and
- (b) the chief executive is satisfied it is necessary to retain the property to prevent it being used in the commission of another contravention of a prescribed provision or section 168B, 169 or 171.

(2) However, this section does not apply if the property is forfeited under section 187EA.

(3) The chief executive may, under this section, order the forfeiture of the property to the State.

(4) The chief executive may make the order only if the chief executive gives written notice to—

- (a) the person who owned the property immediately before its seizure; and
- (b) if another person appeared to have possession of it before its seizure—the other person.

(5) However, if the person mentioned in subsection (4)(a) is not known—

- (a) the notice may be given by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the locality where the property was seized; or
- (b) if the property was seized in a community area—the notice may be given by displaying a notice in a conspicuous place in the Council's office for the area.

(6) Subsection (5)(a) does not apply if the cost of giving the notice is more than the value of the property.

(7) The notice must—

- (a) sufficiently describe the property; and
- (b) state the following—
 - (i) the date and place the property was seized;
 - (ii) the property may be forfeited to the State;
 - (iii) an application may be made to a Magistrates Court under section 187EC for an order for the return of the property;
 - (iv) if an application is not made to a Magistrates Court within 14 days after the notice is given—the chief executive may order that the property be forfeited to the State.

(8) If a person applies under section 187EC to a Magistrates Court, the chief executive may not order the forfeiture of the property, unless the court refuses to order the delivery of the property to the applicant or the application is withdrawn, whichever happens first.

187EC Application for return of seized property

(1) This section applies to seized property described in a notice given under section 187EB(4) or (5).

(2) A person who claims to have a legal or equitable interest in the property may apply to a Magistrates Court for an order that the property be delivered to the person.

(3) The application must—

- (a) be in the approved form; and
- (b) if the applicant reasonably believes another person has a legal or equitable interest in the property—state the name and address of the person; and
- (c) be filed in the court.

(4) Within 7 days after the application is filed, the registrar of the court must give a copy of the application to—

- (a) the chief executive; and
- (b) the persons mentioned in subsection (3)(b).

(5) The registrar of the court must give 7 days written notice of the hearing of the application to the applicant and the persons given a copy of the application under subsection (4).

(6) Each of the persons given notice of the hearing under subsection (4) is entitled to be heard at the hearing of the application.

(7) The court may order that the property be delivered to a person on the conditions, if any, the court considers appropriate if satisfied—

- (a) the person may lawfully possess the property; and
- (b) it is appropriate that the property be delivered to the person.

(8) However, the court must not order the delivery of the property to the person if the court is reasonably satisfied the property may be evidence in a proceeding started in relation to the property.

187F Forfeiture on conviction

(1) On the conviction of a person for an offence against this Act involving the seized property, the court may order the forfeiture to the State of the property.

(2) The court may make the order whether or not the property has been returned to the person from whom it was seized.

(3) The court may make any order to enforce the forfeiture it considers appropriate.

(4) This section does not limit the court's powers under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 or another law.

187G Dealing with forfeited property

(1) On the forfeiture of property to the State, the property becomes the State's property and may be dealt with by the chief executive as the chief executive considers appropriate.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the chief executive may destroy or dispose of the property.

(2A) Subsection (1) does not affect an investigator's powers under section 187EA.

(3) If the property is sold, the proceeds of sale are to be paid—

- (a) first, in meeting expenses of the sale; and
- (b) second, in meeting the expenses of, or relating to, the seizure and storage of the seized property; and
- (c) third, to the consolidated fund.

PART 8—PROVISIONS AFFECTING COMMUNITIES OF ABORIGINES OR ISLANDERS

197 Continuance of authority to sell liquor

(1) A Council that, at the commencement of this section, is authorised—

- (a) to establish and maintain in its community area premises for the sale of liquor; and
- (b) to conduct in its community area the business of selling and supplying liquor; continues to be so authorised after the commencement of this section until a licence or permit is granted in respect of the premises in the community area or 30 September 2003, whichever is the earlier.

(2) The authority continued by subsection (1) is subject to such conditions as affect the authorisation at the commencement of this section or as varied for the time being by the chief executive.

(3) For a variation of the authority, part 5 applies as if a reference in the part—

- (a) to a licence were a reference to an authority continued by subsection (1); and
- (b) to a licensee were a reference to the holder of the authority.

198 Cancellation or suspension of liquor facility on complaint

(1) If, on complaint of any person, the chief executive is satisfied that—

- (a) the sale of liquor on or from premises in a community area under authority of a licence or an authorisation mentioned in section 197 is the direct or indirect cause of regularly occurring disorder or breaches of the peace in the community area; or
- (b) liquor is regularly taken away from such premises contrary to the conditions of a licence or an authorisation mentioned in section 197; or
- (c) the sale of liquor on or from such premises under authority of a licence or permit or an authorisation mentioned in section 197 is proving—
 - (i) a detriment to the health or wellbeing of—
 - (A) the members generally of the community; or
 - (B) persons resident in the community area; or
 - (ii) a source of danger to—
 - (A) life or safety of members generally of the community; or
 - (B) persons resident in the community area; or
 - (C) property generally in the community area;

the chief executive may, without other procedures—

- (d) immediately cancel or suspend the licence or authorisation; or
- (e) immediately exercise in respect of the matter such other disciplinary powers as are conferred on the chief executive by this Act.

(2) If a licence or authorisation is cancelled or suspended under subsection (1), the chief executive may—

- (a) take all steps necessary and reasonable to ensure—
 - (i) termination of the conduct of business under authority of the licence or authorisation; or
 - (ii) closure of the premises on or from which the business was conducted; and
- (b) to that end may give such orders to such persons as the chief executive considers necessary and reasonable.

(3) A person to whom an order is given under subsection (2) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the order in all respects.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—25 penalty units.

198A Expiry of pt 8

This part expires on 30 September 2003.

PART 9—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Division 1—Assessment and payment of fees

199 Elements of gross amount paid or payable for liquor

(1) In this part—

“gross amount paid or payable for liquor” means—

- (a) the price, worked out under subsection (2), for liquor paid or payable by or to a person who is required by this Act to pay a licence fee assessed by reference to the gross amount; or

- (b) if the chief executive suspects on reasonable grounds that a greater amount should have been disclosed than the amount that was disclosed as the gross amount by a person required to pay a licence fee—an amount decided by the chief executive having regard to all relevant circumstances.

(2) In working out the gross amount paid or payable for liquor, regard must be had to—

- (a) the amount attributable to the liquor purchased, or otherwise obtained, or supplied; and
- (b) the amount attributable to bottles or other containers and items of packaging in which the liquor is delivered to or from the person required to pay the licence fee; and
- (c) the amount attributable to expenses for any of the following incurred in relation to the liquor at any stage of its movement to or from the person required by this Act to pay the licence fee—
 - (i) importation, handling and storage;
 - (ii) delivery other than for freight charges;
 - (iii) packaging, labelling and advertising;
 - (iv) credit charges and penalties;
 - (v) imposts under law, other than a licence fee payable under this Act recovered by a supplier of liquor from the purchaser of the liquor.

200 Licence and assessment periods

(1) The licence period for a licence is a financial year.

(2) The assessment period for a licence is the financial year before the licence period.

Example—

The fee to be paid for the licence period from 1 July 1994 until 30 June 1995 is worked out on the assessment period from 1 July 1993 until 30 June 1994.

201 Duration of licence

(1) Although each licence has a licence period, a licence continues in force until—

- (a) its surrender is accepted by the chief executive; or
- (b) its cancellation takes effect.

(2) A licence does not have effect during a period for which it is suspended.

202 Fees payable for licences and permits

(1) Fees payable in respect of a licence are as assessed by the chief executive under this part.

(2) Fees payable in respect of a permit are as prescribed by regulation.

203 Assessment of fees

(1) Subject to this subsection, the fee payable in respect of a licence for each licence period of the licence is—

- (a) for a licence other than—
 - (i) a producer/wholesaler licence; or
 - (ii) a limited licence relating to premises used for the conduct of a business by a person who holds a licence under the Wine Industry Act 1994;

an amount that is 10% of the gross amount paid or payable for liquor purchased or otherwise obtained for the business conducted on the licensed premises during the assessment period; and

- (b) for a producer/wholesaler licence—$600 and, in addition—
 - (i) an amount that is 10% of the gross amount paid or payable to the licensee for liquor sold or supplied under authority of the licence to persons exempted under section 12 from application of this Act or to holders of restricted club permits or general purpose permits during the assessment period; and
 - (ii) an amount that is 14% of the gross amount paid or payable to the licensee for liquor sold or supplied under authority of the licence to unlicensed persons (other than exempted persons specified in subparagraph (i)) during the assessment period; and

- (c) for a limited licence relating to premises used for conduct of a business of selling wines by a person who holds a licence under the Wine Industry Act 1994—$60 and, in addition—
- (i) an amount that is 10% of the gross amount paid or payable to the licensee for all Australian wines (other than wines made in Queensland); and
 - (ii) an amount that is 2% of the gross amount paid or payable to the licensee for all wines, other than the licensee's wine, made in Queensland; being wines sold or supplied under authority of the licence to unlicensed persons during the assessment period.

(2) If premises are used for only part of a licence period, the fee payable on any of the following is to be assessed under subsection (1) and, subject to subsection (4), using an estimate made by the chief executive of what the relevant gross amount would have been if the licensee had been able to trade on the licensed premises during the entire assessment period, proportionately reduced for the period that has expired since the start of the licence period—

- (a) grant of a licence;
- (b) provisional grant of a licence under section 123;
- (c) resumption of trading under a licence removed from another place.

(3) If, in any licence period—

- (a) a return is not lodged under section 205 in respect of a licence; or
- (b) a return lodged in respect of a licence is incomplete or insufficient to enable the relevant gross amount paid or payable for liquor to be determined; or
- (c) a return covering the whole of the assessment period cannot be lodged in respect of a licence;

the chief executive, subject to subsection (4), is to assess the fee payable in respect of the licence in such amount as the chief executive considers reasonable, by reference to the whole of the assessment period.

(4) If—

- (a) a fee assessed under subsection (1) in respect of a licence is less than a minimum fee prescribed by regulation in relation to licences of that class of licence; or

- (b) a licensee, authorised by the licence to sell liquor during the whole of the assessment period immediately before a licence period for which a fee is to be assessed in respect of the licence, has not traded during the assessment period;

the fee payable in respect of the licence for the licence period in question is the minimum fee prescribed by regulation in relation to licences of the class of licence.

(5) A fee assessed under this section is to be calculated to the nearest whole dollar (rounding 50c upwards).

(6) In this section—

“licensee’s wine” has the meaning given in the Wine Industry Act 1994.

205 Filing of returns

(1) For the purpose of assessing fees in respect of a licence for a licence period, returns must be filed with the chief executive under this section.

(2) In each licence period the holder of a licence other than—

- (a) a producer/wholesaler licence; or
 (b) a limited licence relating to premises used for the conduct of a business selling wines by a person who holds a licence under the Wine Industry Act 1994; must, within 21 days after the end of the assessment period, file with the chief executive a return in respect of all liquor purchased or otherwise obtained for the licensed premises during the assessment period.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

(3) In each licence period the holder of—

- (a) a producer/wholesaler licence; or
 (b) a limited licence relating to premises used for the conduct of a business selling wine by a person who holds a licence under the Wine Industry Act 1994; must, within 21 days after the end of each assessment period, file with the chief executive a return in respect of all liquor sold or supplied under authority of the licence or certificate during the assessment period.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

(4) A return under subsection (2) must contain the particulars, and be accompanied by the material, prescribed by regulation.

(5) If the chief executive is not satisfied a return filed under subsection (2) is accurate, the chief executive may, by written notice given to the holder of the licence or certificate, require the holder to file with the chief executive a further return of the same type, certified to be accurate by the person responsible for auditing the accounting records of the business to which the licence or certificate relates.

(6) A person given a notice under subsection (5) must comply with the notice within the period stated in the notice.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

206 Factors affecting assessment of fees

(1) In assessing a fee payable in respect of a licence under section 203, an amount paid or payable for liquor of any of the following descriptions is to be disregarded—

- (a) liquor that is sold—
 - (i) for export, and is exported, from Australia for consumption outside Australia; or
 - (ii) to duty free shops; or
 - (iii) for consumption on ships or aircraft on international journeys; or
 - (iv) to a foreign embassy or consulate or to Government House; or
 - (v) to religious organisations for sacramental purposes;
- (b) liquor purchased or otherwise obtained from the holder of a general licence for premises to which a licence or permit relates;
- (c) liquor purchased or otherwise obtained from a transferor of a licence by a transferee of the licence in the course of transfer of the business conducted under authority of the licence;
- (d) liquor of any other description prescribed by regulation.

(2) In assessing the fee payable for a licence under section 203, the chief executive may also allow for theft, loss or damage of liquor.

207 Notification of assessment

(1) As soon as practicable after a fee payable in respect of a licence has been assessed, notification of the assessment must be given to the licensee.

(2) A notification of assessment must specify the due date for payment of the amount of the assessment.

208 Payment of fees

(1) The fee in respect of a permit is due and payable to the department on the day application for the permit is made.

(2) A fee payable in relation to a licence is payable to the department on the day stated as the date for payment in the notice of assessment of the fee given to the licensee.

209 Suspension and cancellation for failure to pay fee

(1) If a fee in respect of a licence or permit is not paid when it is due and payable, the licence or permit is immediately suspended and, subject to subsection (2) and section 210, is cancelled at the end of 14 days.

(2) If, within the 14 days, the fee is paid to the department in cash or by bank cheque or electronic funds transfer, the suspension is lifted and the cancellation does not take effect.

210 Appeal concerning failure to pay fee

(1) A person aggrieved by the suspension and impending cancellation of a licence or permit because of a failure to pay a fee may appeal to the Tribunal on the ground that the failure was due to—

- (a) the business conducted under authority of the licence or permit having been adversely affected by a natural disaster; or
- (b) the licensee ceasing to conduct business on the premises under authority of the licence; or
- (c) the owner, lessee or mortgagee of the premises to which the licence relates starting a proceeding for possession of the premises; or
- (d) a personal hardship for the licensee.

(2) Financial hardship is not a personal hardship for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) An appeal is started by—

- (a) filing a notice of appeal with the registrar of the Tribunal within 14 days after the day on which the licence or permit is suspended; and
- (b) giving a copy of the notice to the chief executive within 7 days after the notice is filed with the registrar.

(4) If a notice of appeal has been filed with the registrar, the licence or permit will not be cancelled at the end of 14 days mentioned in section 209, but continues suspended until it is restored or cancelled as provided by section 211.

(5) In this section—

“person aggrieved” includes any of the persons who gave the chief executive particulars of their interest under section 44A.

211 Powers of Tribunal on appeal

(1) The Tribunal must decide an appeal under section 210(1) within 30 days after notice of appeal is filed with the registrar.

(2) If it appears to the Tribunal that an appellant is not prosecuting an appeal diligently, it may strike out the appeal.

(3) In deciding an appeal, the Tribunal may—

- (a) allow the appeal on condition that the fee is paid to the department within a period stated by the Tribunal (the “time allowed”); or
- (b) dismiss the appeal.

(4) The time allowed must be at least 7 days, and not more than 28 days, after the day on which the appeal is allowed.

(5) If an appeal is allowed and the fee is paid to the department within the time allowed, the suspension of the licence or permit ceases on payment of the fee.

(6) The licence or permit is immediately cancelled if an appeal is—

- (a) dismissed or struck out; or
- (b) allowed but the fee payable is not paid within the time allowed.

(7) If a licence or permit is cancelled under subsection (6), the part of the fee assessed or payable for the entire licence period in which it was suspended that is proportionate to the part of the licence period that had ended before the suspension happened is a debt payable to the State.

212 Reassessment of fee

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the licence fee has been paid; or
- (b) the licence fee has been assessed and no fee is payable; or
- (c) the licence has been cancelled.

(2) The chief executive may on the chief executive's own initiative, and must on application made by the licensee, review an assessment for the fee payable in relation to the licence if—

- (a) an error or miscalculation in the assessment is suspected; or
- (b) the assessment was based on incorrect or incomplete information; or
- (c) for an assessment under section 203(2)—the assessment was based on an incorrect assumption about the nature, scale or duration of the business to be conducted under authority of the licence.

(3) A review may be made under subsection (2) only within 5 years after the date of the assessment.

(4) If on review under subsection (2) an assessment is changed, an adjustment is to be made and—

- (a) any amount overpaid must be—
 - (i) refunded to, or as directed by, the licensee; or
 - (ii) credited against future fees that may become payable by the licensee in relation to the licence;as the chief executive, by written notice given to the licensee, elects; and
- (b) any amount underpaid must, subject to section 213, be paid to the department by the licensee within 14 days after the licensee is given notice of the reassessment.

(5) Despite subsection (4)(a), if the chief executive is satisfied the amount overpaid was paid by a person for the licensee, the chief executive may refund the amount to, or as directed by, the person.

(6) If a reassessment is made of the fee payable for a licence period in which 2 or more persons held the licence, the chief executive may apportion an entitlement to refund, or a liability to pay, among the persons as the chief executive considers just, and the persons are entitled to refund, or are liable to make payment, as apportioned.

(7) If a licence is surrendered or cancelled, any amount credited under subsection (4)(a) in relation to the licence must be refunded to, or as directed by, the former licensee.

(8) The chief executive may impose on the licensee a supplementary fee in relation to the licence if—

- (a) a fee as reassessed is more than the fee as previously assessed; and
- (b) the chief executive is satisfied that the fee was previously assessed on the basis of information disclosed by the licensee that was known, or ought to have been known, by the licensee to be incorrect.

(9) The supplementary fee must be—

- (a) at least the amount by which the fee as reassessed is more than the fee previously assessed; and
- (b) not more than 3 times the amount.

(10) The licensee must pay the supplementary fee to the department within 14 days after the licensee is given notice of the imposition of the supplementary fee.

(11) Sections 210 to 212 apply to payment of a fee as reassessed or a supplementary fee imposed.

213 Liability for reassessed fee in certain cases

(1) If, at the time notification of the reassessment is to be given to a person—

- (a) the premises to which the licence related are no longer licensed premises; or

- (b) the licensee at that time is not the licensee at the time of payment of the fee previously assessed;

responsibility for payment to the department of the difference between the amount of fee paid and the fee as reassessed may be allotted or apportioned as the chief executive considers just to, between or among—

- (c) the licensee at the time the fee was previously assessed; and
- (d) the persons who, at the time of payment of the fee previously assessed, were directly or indirectly interested in the business, or the profits of the business, conducted under authority of the licence; and
- (e) the person (if any) who gave incorrect information, or failed to give information, because of which the fee has been reassessed; or any of them.

(2) A person to whom responsibility is allotted or apportioned under subsection (1) is liable to pay to the department the amount so allotted or apportioned.

214 Discontinuance fee

(1) If—

- (a) a licensee surrenders the licence; or
- (b) a licence is cancelled;

the chief executive may, on such surrender or cancellation, assess a discontinuance fee.

(2) A discontinuance fee is the amount of fee that, in the chief executive's opinion, would have been payable in respect of the licence had it continued in force for the next licence period of the licence, less the fee last paid in respect of the licence.

215 Refund of fee

If the chief executive—

- (a) accepts a surrender of a licence or permit; or
- (b) cancels a licence or permit;

in respect of which a fee, other than a discontinuance fee, has been paid for any period subsequent to the date of surrender or cancellation, a refund must be made to, or as directed by, the former licensee or permittee of the portion of the fee that is proportionate to the unexpired period for which the fee has been paid.

215A Refund of fees—general

(1) The chief executive may refund a fee paid by a person only if the chief executive is satisfied—

- (a) that the person has not received, and will not receive, an amount from someone else for any part of the fee; or
- (b) if the person has received an amount from someone else for any part of the fee—the person will reimburse, or will take reasonable steps to reimburse, the other person for the amount received.

(2) If subsection (1)(b) applies to the person—
