the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel
Warning—This reprint is not an authorised copy

^{*} Minor differences in presentation between this reprint and another reprint with the same number are due to the conversion to new styles. The content has not changed.

Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 25 June 2004. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 mentioned in the following list have also been made to—

- use standard punctuation consistent with current drafting practice (s 27)
- use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35)
- omit the words of notification (s 42A).

This page is specific to this reprint. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about when provisions commenced.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’).

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Police Service Administration (Review of Decisions) Regulation 1990

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 25 June 2004]

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Police Service Administration (Review of Decisions) Regulation 1990.

3 Object

The object of this regulation is to—

- provide for the access of officers to an independent review of decisions for the redress of certain grievances;
- ensure that decisions made in relation to officers are fair, just and compassionate, and are made in accordance with sound personnel management practices;

and with due regard being had to the efficiency, effectiveness and professionalism of the police service.

4 Definitions

In this regulation—

party to a review means—

- (a) the officer who applied for the review; or
- (b) if the review is about the appointment of an officer to a police officer position (whether on promotion or transfer)—the officer appointed to the position; or
- (c) if the review is about disciplinary action—the officer who took the action; or
- (d) if the review is about another kind of decision—the officer who made the decision; or

[s 5]

- (e) the officer nominated by the commissioner to assist a Review Commissioner.

Review Commissioner means a commissioner for police service reviews.

5 Appointment etc. of secretary

- (1) The chairperson of the Crime and Misconduct Commission may appoint a person as secretary to the Review Commissioners.
- (2) The secretary must, on receiving an application for review of a decision—
 - (a) take the action necessary to have a Review Commissioner review the decision; and
 - (b) give the parties to the review written notice of the application.

6 Further decisions open to review

For the purposes of section 9.3(1)(e) of the Act, a decision to appoint an officer as a staff member under section 8.3 of the Act is a decision open to review under part 9 of the Act.

6A Application for review

- (1) An officer may start a review of a decision open to review by making written application to the secretary for a review of the decision.
- (2) The application must be made within 14 days after the officer receives written notice of the decision.
- (3) An officer who is an unsuccessful applicant for appointment to a police officer position is taken to have received written notice of the decision on the day the selection of an officer for appointment to the position is notified in the Queensland Police Gazette.

6B Commissioner to stay certain decisions

If—

- (a) the commissioner decides to transfer an officer to a position; and
- (b) because of the transfer, the officer has to change the officer's place of residence; and
- (c) an officer applies for a review of the decision;

the commissioner must stay the decision until the commissioner decides under section 9.5 of the Act to proceed with the transfer or revoke the decision.

6C Representation of officer who made decision

In a review, an officer may appear as the representative of the officer who took the action or made the decision under review.

7 Review Commissioner ceasing to be member of Crime and Misconduct Commission

Where a Review Commissioner has commenced to consider an application for a review and that Review Commissioner ceases to be a member of the Crime and Misconduct Commission, or for any other reason is incapable of completing the review, any other Review Commissioner may review the application de novo.

8 Functions of Review Commissioner

The functions of a Review Commissioner are to—

- conduct a review of all material provided by the parties to the review and relevant to the case at the time the case was decided, whether or not it was submitted for the consideration of the person making the decision under review;
- hear such submissions at such places as the Review Commissioner considers necessary;

[s 10]

- make such recommendation to the commissioner as the Review Commissioner thinks fit in respect of the case.

10 Practice and procedure

A Review Commissioner is not bound by the rules or practice as to evidence and may be informed on any matter that the Review Commissioner considers is relevant to a review in such manner as the Review Commissioner thinks fit.

11 Withdrawal of application for review

- (1) A police officer who has applied for a review under this regulation may at any time withdraw his or her application in which case any Review Commissioner convened under this regulation shall be dissolved.
- (2) Where a Review Commissioner has commenced to consider an application but, before the review has been finally determined by the Review Commissioner, the officer seeking the review ceases to be an officer due to voluntary resignation from the service, the review shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

12 Frivolous or vexatious reviews

- (1) A Review Commissioner may refuse to further consider any application if the Review Commissioner is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the application is frivolous or vexatious.
- (2) If, under subsection (1), a Review Commissioner refuses to further consider an application, the review shall thereupon be deemed to have been completed.

13 Completion of review

- (1) A Review Commissioner, upon the completion of a review, shall give written advice to all parties to the review—
 - (a) affirming the decision under review;

- (b) making a recommendation to the commissioner in relation to the decision under review or in relation to any matter arising therefrom; or
- (c) informing them that, under section 12, the review was considered to be frivolous or vexatious;

and shall give a brief summary of the reasons for the decision.

- (2) If, under subsection (1)(b), a Review Commissioner makes a recommendation in relation to the decision under review, the commissioner shall, having regard to that recommendation, consider or reconsider the matter in relation to which the decision under review was made.
- (3) If, under subsection (1)(b), a Review Commissioner recommends that—
 - (a) the decision under review be varied; or
 - (b) the decision under review be set aside and—
 - (i) a specified decision be made in substitution for the decision so set aside; or
 - (ii) a decision be made, in accordance with specified directions, in substitution for the decision so set aside;

the person who made the decision under review may take any necessary action to give effect to the recommendation of the Review Commissioner.

- (4) If, under subsection (1)(b), a Review Commissioner makes a recommendation to the commissioner, the commissioner is to, as soon as practicable—
 - make a final decision on the case; and
 - inform the Review Commissioner and parties to the review of the final decision, and, if the commissioner has not complied with the recommendation of the Review Commissioner, give a brief summary of the reasons for the decision.

14 Review Commissioner not to act in certain cases

A Review Commissioner shall not hear an application under this regulation if the Review Commissioner was concerned in any way in the making of the decision the subject of the application in the first instance.

15 Remuneration and allowances of Review Commissioner

A Review Commissioner shall be paid, from moneys appropriated by Parliament to the purposes of the Crime and Misconduct Commission, such remuneration and allowances as may be determined by the Minister either generally or in respect to a specific case.

16 Review Commissioner, etc., not to be sued

- (1) A Review Commissioner, delegate, person presenting material or making submissions to a Review Commissioner or a person acting at the direction of a Review Commissioner is not liable to an action, suit or proceeding for or in relation to an act done or omitted to be done in good faith and without negligence in exercise or purported exercise of any power or authority conferred by this regulation.
- (2) Civil proceedings do not lie against a person in respect of loss, damage or injury of any kind suffered by another person by reason of—
 - the making of an application to a Review Commissioner under this regulation; or
 - the making of a statement to, or the furnishing of a document or information to, a Review Commissioner or a person acting at the direction of a Review Commissioner for the purposes of this regulation;

if the making of the application or statement, or the furnishing of the document or information, as the case may be, is done in good faith.

17 Prohibition of publication of material before Review Commissioner

A Review Commissioner may, by order, prohibit the publication of material and submissions presented to the Review Commissioner, if, in the opinion of the Review Commissioner, publication thereof would be unfair to any person or contrary to the public interest.
