Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 26 August 2009. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 26 August 2009]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the adoption of children

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Adoption of Children Act 1964.

2 Commencement

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Governor in Council by proclamation published in the gazette.
- (2) Sections 1 to 4 and 6, division 2 of part 3, part 5 and sections 64 to 66 shall come into operation on the date of publication in the gazette of the proclamation for the purposes of subsection (1).

5A Objective of Act

The objective of this Act is to facilitate securing for children who are available for adoption the best possible placements, having regard to the welfare and interests of the children, and to protect the rights and to provide for servicing the needs of all parties to the adoption process.

5B Inherent jurisdiction of Supreme Court preserved

No provision of this Act shall be construed to restrict or prejudice the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in relation to persons who have not attained the age of 18 years.

6 Definitions

adopted child see section 7(2).

Adopted Children Register means the Adopted Children Register made and kept by the registrar general under the repealed Acts and continued by and kept under this Act.

adopter or adopters see section 7(2).

adoption compliance certificate means a certificate under article 23 of the Hague convention.

adoption entry, of an adopted person, means the particulars about the adopted person that are—

- (a) stated in a schedule to an adoption order for, or a schedule to a memorandum or copy of an adoption order for, the adopted person, and entered in the Adopted Children Register; or
- (b) if there is no schedule to an adoption order for, or no schedule to a memorandum or copy of an adoption order for, the adopted person—
 - (i) stated in the adoption order, memorandum or copy; and
 - (ii) entered in the Adopted Children Register; or
- (c) stated in the register kept by the registrar general titled ‘Record of Children whose Births have been registered in the State of Queensland and who have been transferred under Deed of Adoption’.

6A Convention countries

- (1) Each of the following is a convention country for this Act—
 - (a) a country prescribed under a regulation to be a convention country;
 - (b) another country for which the Hague convention has entered into force, under article 46 of the Hague convention, other than—
 - (i) Australia; or
 - (ii) New Zealand; or
 - (iii) a country to whose accession Australia has raised an objection under article 44 of the Hague convention.
- (2) However, subsection (1) applies to a country subject to a declaration under article 45 of the Hague convention.

Part 3 Adoptions under this Act

Division 1 General

10 Welfare and interests of child to be paramount

For all purposes of this part and of part 2, the welfare and interests of the child concerned shall be regarded as the paramount consideration.

11 Who may be adopted

- (1) Subject to this Act, the chief executive may make an order for the adoption of a child who has not attained the age of 18 years on the date when the order is made.
- (2) The chief executive shall not make an order for the adoption of a person who is, or has been, married.
- (3) An order may be made under this Act for the adoption of a child notwithstanding that the child has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether in Queensland or elsewhere, previously been adopted.

12 Persons in whose favour adoption orders may be made

- (1) Subject to this section, an adoption order shall not be made except in favour of a husband and wife jointly.
- (2) An adoption order may be made in favour of a husband and wife jointly notwithstanding that 1 of them is the natural or adoptive parent of the child concerned.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an adoption order may be made in favour of 1 person if—
 - (a) that person is the spouse of the natural or adoptive parent of the child concerned; or
 - (b) in the case of the child concerned being a special needs child—the chief executive is of the opinion that the making of the order would be for the welfare and in the interests of the child; or

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (c) in any case—the chief executive is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify making the order.
- (4) Except in the case referred to in subsection (3)(a), an adoption order shall not be made in favour of 1 person if that person is married and is not living separately and apart from his or her spouse.
- (5) An adoption order shall not be made in favour of a prospective adopter or of prospective adopters either of whom is a relative of the child concerned unless the chief executive is satisfied that, in the circumstances of the case, the welfare and interests of the child would be better served by such an order than by an order for guardianship or custody made by a court of competent jurisdiction in relation to the child.

13 Age of adopters

The chief executive shall not make an adoption order in favour of a prospective adopter who or in favour of prospective adopters either of whom—

- (a) has not attained the age of 21 years; or
- (b) being male, is less than 18 years older than the child concerned or, being female, is less than 16 years older than the child concerned; or unless—

- (c) in the case of a sole prospective adopter—the prospective adopter is the spouse of a parent of the child concerned, whether natural or adoptive; or
- (d) in the case of a married couple—1 of them is a parent of the child concerned, whether natural or adoptive; or
- (e) in the case of the child concerned being a special needs child—the chief executive is of the opinion that the making of the order would be for the welfare and in the interests of the child; or
- (f) in any case—the chief executive is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify making the order.

Division 1A Purpose of division, applications, invitations, expressions of interest, assessment after expression of interest and related matters

13A Purposes of division

- (1) This division's purposes include making provision for—
 - (a) a process for persons to apply to adopt children if an adoption list must be kept for the persons under section 17(1)(a); and
 - (b) a process for persons to express an interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters of children if a register must be kept for the persons under section 17(1)(b); and
 - (c) processes for assessing the suitability of persons to become prospective adopters if the persons names are in an adoption list, the expression of interest register or assessment register; and
 - (d) processes for deciding about adoptive placements for children.
- (2) The processes mentioned in subsection (1)(b), (c) and (d) include—
 - (a) keeping a register of persons who express an interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters, and a register of persons who are prospective adopters; and
 - (b) moderating the entry of the names of persons in the registers; and
 - (c) giving precedence to the needs of children requiring adoptive placements; and
 - (d) enabling the chief executive, as the chief executive considers necessary for meeting the placement needs of a particular child when making a decision about the adoption of the child, to consider the suitability of persons named in the assessment register or the expression of interest register.

13AA Application for adoption of a special needs child or a child who is a relative

- (1) A person who wishes to adopt a special needs child, or a child of whom the person is a relative, may apply to the chief executive to become an adoptive parent and to have the person's name entered in the adoption list relevant to the application.
- (2) The application must be in the form approved by the chief executive.
- (3) The applicant is entitled to have the applicant's name entered in the adoption list relevant to the application.
- (4) However, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the adoption list if—
 - (a) the person is, as prescribed under a regulation, ineligible to have the person's name entered in the adoption list; or
 - (b) the person does not comply with a requirement prescribed under a regulation.
- (5) A married couple may make a single application but both of their names must be removed from the adoption list if 1 of their names must be removed from the list under subsection (4).
- (6) Within 14 days after the removal of a person's name from the adoption list, the chief executive must give written notice to the person of the removal.
- (7) The notice must state—
 - (a) the reasons for the decision to remove the person's name; and
 - (b) that the person may apply to the tribunal to have the decision reviewed; and
 - (c) how the person may apply to the tribunal for the review, including the time by which the person must make the application.

13AB Chief executive must publicly invite persons to express interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive considers it necessary to ensure the placement needs of children are met by increasing the number of persons whose names are entered in the expression of interest register.
- (2) The chief executive must invite persons to express interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters.
- (3) The invitation must be made by notice in a newspaper circulating throughout the State and also may be made in other ways the chief executive considers appropriate.
- (4) The invitation must state—
 - (a) how a person must express the person's interest; and
 - (b) the day by which expressions of interest must be received by the chief executive for the invitation (the closure day).
- (5) The chief executive must not include a person's name in an expression of interest register unless—
 - (a) the person, under this Act, expressed an interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in response to an invitation under this section; and
 - (b) the person's expression of interest was received by the closure day for the invitation.
- (6) Subsection (5) is subject to sections 17(6) and 71.

13AC Inclusion of person's name in expression of interest register

- (1) A person whose expression of interest is received by the chief executive by the closure day for the relevant invitation is entitled to have the person's name entered in the expression of interest register.
- (2) However, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the register if—
 - (a) the person is, as prescribed under a regulation, ineligible to have the person's name entered in the register; or

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (b) the person does not comply with a requirement prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) Within 14 days after the removal of a person's name from the register, the chief executive must give written notice to the person of the removal.
- (4) The notice must state—
 - (a) the reasons for the decision to remove the person's name; and
 - (b) that the person may apply to the tribunal to have the decision reviewed; and
 - (c) how the person may apply to the tribunal for the review, including the time by which the person must make the application.

13AD Information to be given to each person who expresses interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter

- (1) This section applies to each person—
 - (a) who, under an invitation, expresses interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter; and
 - (b) whose name has not been removed from the expression of interest register as mentioned in section 13AC(2).
- (2) The chief executive must give to the person a document—
 - (a) stating the estimated number and characteristics of children needing adoptive placements; and
 - (b) explaining the assessment and selection processes relating to adopters; and
 - (c) stating the fees associated with the assessment process.

13AE Assessments after person's name entered in adoption list

- (1) As soon as practicable after an applicant's name is entered in an adoption list, the chief executive must make an assessment under section 13B about the applicant.

- (2) If the applicant has made application to become an adoptive parent of a child of whom the applicant is a relative, the chief executive need not make the assessment until all consents necessary to the making of an adoption order for the child have been obtained or dispensed with or the chief executive has been notified as mentioned in section 25(2A).
- (3) If an applicant has applied to become an adoptive parent of a special needs child, or a special needs child of a particular description, the chief executive need not make the assessment until a special needs child, or a special needs child of that particular description, requires an adoption placement.

13AF Assessments required to meet anticipated placement needs of children

- (1) At least once in each financial year, the chief executive must decide the number of persons that, in the chief executive's opinion, is reasonable to assess in the year (the reasonable number) to meet the anticipated placement needs of children to which the expression of interest register relates.
- (2) As the chief executive considers necessary during a financial year, the chief executive may decide another number that is reasonable to assess in the year (also the reasonable number).
- (3) In deciding the reasonable number under subsection (1) or (2), the chief executive must have regard to—
 - (a) placement needs of children in previous years; and
 - (b) information received from other jurisdictions; and
 - (c) resources required to ensure the welfare and interests of children are protected; and
 - (d) the number of prospective adopters and the diversity of their characteristics; and
 - (e) another matter the chief executive considers relevant.
- (4) For each financial year, the chief executive must, from the persons whose names are entered in the expression of interest register, assess a sufficient number of persons to ensure there is, at least, the reasonable number of persons for whom there is a favourable assessment.

13B Chief executive's assessments

- (1) This section applies to an assessment required under section 13AE or 13AF.
- (2) The assessment must decide whether—
 - (a) for a person whose name is in an adoption list—the welfare and interests of a child to be adopted will be promoted by making an adoption order in favour of the person; or
 - (b) for a person whose name is in the expression of interest register—the person is of good repute and is a fit and proper person to become an adoptive parent.
- (3) If a married couple has done either of the following, the chief executive may make 1 assessment of both persons—
 - (a) made a joint application;
 - (b) jointly expressed an interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters.
- (4) The chief executive shall give written notification of an assessment under this section to the person in respect of whom it was made or in the case of an assessment made in respect of a married couple, to that couple and in the case of an assessment unfavourable to the person or married couple, shall specify in the notification the grounds on which the assessment is based.
- (5) However, if the chief executive has been requested not to specify any particular ground or grounds in a notification by—
 - (a) in the case of a notification to a married couple—1 of the couple; or
 - (b) in the case of a notification to a person who is a spouse—the person or the other spouse;the chief executive is not required by subsection (4) to specify that ground or those grounds in the notification.
- (6) Every notification required by subsection (4) shall be given within 14 days after the assessment is made.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (7) Where the chief executive has made an assessment under this section that is unfavourable to a person, the chief executive shall—
- (a) subject to a review of the assessment by the tribunal; and
 - (b) unless the chief executive decides to defer the matter of the application or expression of interest in question; cause the name of the person or, if the assessment relates to a married couple, the names of both of them, to be removed from the adoption list or the expression of interest register in which the name is or the names are included.
- (8) In respect of persons whose names are entered in the Relative Children's Adoption List, the chief executive must try to make the assessment under this section in the order in which those names are included in the adoption list, except where the chief executive is of the opinion that the welfare and interests of a child require that that order be departed from or where the person due to be assessed so approves or, in the case of a married couple that is due to be assessed, both of them so approve.
- (9) If a person named in the Special Needs Children's Adoption List is not assessed under this section within a time prescribed by the regulations the chief executive shall cause the name of that person to be removed from the adoption list.

13C Matters to be regarded for assessment

Subject to section 14B(2), in making an assessment under section 13B the chief executive shall have regard to—

- (a) all matters mentioned in sections 12 and 13; and
- (b) all matters prescribed under a regulation as matters to have regard to in making an assessment of a person named in the relevant adoption list or the expression of interest register; and
- (c) in the case of an assessment in respect of an applicant whose name is included in an adoption list, any wishes expressed by a parent or guardian of the child sought to be adopted in an instrument of consent to the adoption of the child with respect to the religious upbringing of the child.

13D What happens after favourable assessment

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive has made a favourable assessment under section 13B about—
 - (i) an applicant under section 13AA; or
 - (ii) a person who expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in response to an invitation; or
 - (b) on a review of a decision of the chief executive about a person, the tribunal has, under the Children Services Tribunal Act 2000, section 38(1)(b), set aside the decision and substituted its own decision making a favourable assessment about the person.
- (2) The person about whom the favourable assessment is made is a prospective adopter.
- (3) For each prospective adopter, the chief executive must—
 - (a) make an appropriate notation in the adoption list in which the person is named that states the person is a prospective adopter; or
 - (b) enter the person's name in the assessment register as a prospective adopter.
- (4) If the chief executive enters a person's name in the assessment register as a prospective adopter, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the expression of interest register.

13E Ineligibility after person's name entered in assessment register

- (1) This section applies to a person at any time after the person's name is entered in the assessment register as a prospective adopter and before an adoption order is made relating to the person.

- (2) The chief executive must remove the person's name from the assessment register if—
 - (a) the person is, as prescribed under a regulation, ineligible to have the person's name remain in the register; or
 - (b) the person does not comply with a requirement prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) Within 14 days after the removal of a person's name from the register, the chief executive must give written notice to the person of the removal.
- (4) The notice must state—
 - (a) the reasons for the decision to remove the person's name; and
 - (b) that the person may apply to the tribunal to have the decision reviewed; and
 - (c) how the person may apply to the tribunal for the review, including the time by which the person must make the application.

14 Further assessment of prospective adopters

- (1) Where, before the chief executive makes an adoption order in favour of any prospective adopter or prospective adopters whose name or names is or are included in the assessment register, in the chief executive's opinion such time has elapsed since the making of an assessment in respect of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters pursuant to section 13B or since the making of an interim order in favour of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters that it is desirable that an assessment should be made pursuant to this subsection, the chief executive shall make an assessment of whether—
 - (a) the prospective adopter or each of the prospective adopters is, at the time the assessment is made, of good repute and a fit and proper person to become an adoptive parent; and
 - (b) where there is a child available at the material time for placement—the welfare and interests of the child will be promoted by making an adoption order in favour of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters; and the chief executive shall not make the adoption order unless the assessment last made is favourable in all respects.

- (1A) Where the prospective adopters are a married couple, the chief executive may make 1 assessment in relation to both of them.
- (2) When the chief executive is about to make an adoption order in favour of any prospective adopter or prospective adopters whose name or names is or are included in an adoption list and in the chief executive's opinion such time has elapsed since the making of an assessment pursuant to section 13B or since the making of an interim order in favour of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters that, in the chief executive's opinion, it is desirable that an assessment should be made pursuant to this subsection, the chief executive shall first make an assessment of whether the welfare and interests of the child will be promoted by making the adoption order in favour of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters, and the chief executive shall not make the adoption order unless the assessment is favourable in all respects.
- (3) For the purposes of an assessment to be made in respect of a prospective adopter the chief executive shall, subject to section 14B(2), have regard to all matters prescribed by section 13C as if the assessment to be made were an assessment under section 13B.

14B Criminal histories to be disclosed

- (1) This section applies to each of the following persons—
 - (a) a person who has applied, under section 13AA, to become an adoptive parent and to have the person's name entered in an adoption list but who has not been assessed as a prospective adopter;
 - (b) a person who expressed an interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter;
 - (c) a person who is a prospective adopter and whose name is in an adoption list or the assessment register.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (1A) A person to whom this section applies must, if asked by the chief executive, disclose to the chief executive the person's criminal history to the extent the chief executive considers is necessary to enable a proper assessment to be made of the person as a prospective adopter or under section 14.
- (2) For the purpose of making an assessment in respect of any person the chief executive may have regard to the criminal history (if any) of the person.
- (3) If the chief executive is of opinion that the criminal history of a person in respect of whom an assessment is being made shows—
- (a) in the case of a person whose name is in the expression of interest register—that the person is not a fit and proper person to become an adoptive parent; or
 - (b) in the case of a person whose name is in an adoption list—that the welfare and interests of the child will not be promoted by making an adoption order in favour of that person;
- the chief executive may make the assessment on the basis of the criminal history alone.
- (4) The chief executive shall not be precluded from making an assessment in respect of any person on the basis of the person's criminal history alone or on bases that include that of the person's criminal history by reason that—
- (a) there has previously been made an assessment in respect of that person on the basis of the person's criminal history alone; or
 - (b) an assessment of the person made on the basis of the person's criminal history alone has been set aside by the tribunal on a review of the assessment.
- (5) The chief executive must destroy a person's criminal history if the chief executive considers it is no longer necessary for this Act.

14C Procedure upon assessments under s 14

- (1) The chief executive shall give written notification of an assessment made under section 14 to the person in respect of whom it was made or, in the case of an assessment made in respect of a married couple, to that couple and in the case of an assessment unfavourable to the person or married couple shall specify in the notification the grounds on which the assessment is based.

- (1A) However, if the chief executive has been requested not to specify any particular ground or grounds in a notification by—
- (a) in the case of a notification to a married couple—1 of them; or
 - (b) in the case of a notification to 1 person only who is a spouse—that person or the other spouse; the chief executive is not required by this subsection to specify that ground or those grounds in the notification.

- (2) Every notification required by this section shall be given within 14 days after the assessment is made.
- (3) Where the chief executive has made an assessment pursuant to section 14 that is unfavourable to a person, the chief executive must—
- (a) subject to a review of the assessment by the tribunal; and
 - (b) unless the chief executive decides to defer the making of the adoption order;

cause the person's name or, in the case of a married couple, both their names to be removed from the adoption list or assessment register in which the person's name or persons' names were entered.

14D Reviews by tribunal about adoption lists, expression of interest register, assessment register and assessments

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive—
- (a) makes a decision that is the ground for the removal of a person's name from an adoption list, the expression of interest register or the assessment register, other than the removal of a person's name from the expression of interest register under section 13D(4);² or

- (b) makes an assessment that—
 - (i) a person is not of good repute or a fit and proper person to become an adoptive parent; or
 - (ii) the interests and welfare of a child to be adopted will not be promoted by making an adoption order in favour of a person.
- (2) The person may apply to the tribunal to have the decision or assessment reviewed.

15 Notice of intention to make adoption order

The chief executive, before making an order for the adoption of a child, may give notice of the chief executive's intention to make the order—

- (a) to any person (not being a person whose consent to the adoption of the child is required under section 19) with whom the child resides or who has the care or custody of the child; and
- (b) where it appears to the chief executive to be desirable so to do—to any other person.

16 Discharge of adoption orders

- (1) The chief executive may apply to the Supreme Court for an order discharging an order for the adoption of a child made under this Act or under the repealed Acts, and the court may make such an order if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the child has not attained the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) the adoption order, or any consent for the purposes of the adoption order, was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means, or that there is some other

² Section 13D(4) states—

- (4) If the chief executive enters a person's name in the assessment register as a prospective adopter, the chief executive must remove the person's name from the expression of interest register.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

exceptional reason why, subject to the welfare and interests of the child, the adoption order should be discharged.

- (2) The court shall not make an order under this section if it appears to the court that the making of the order would be prejudicial to the welfare and interests of the child.
- (3) Where the court makes an order discharging an adoption order that was made in reliance upon a general consent given under this Act or under the repealed Acts, then, unless the court otherwise orders, the general consent remains in operation for the purposes of a further adoption of the child.
- (4) Where the court makes an order under this section, it may, at the same time or subsequently, make such consequential or ancillary orders as it thinks necessary in the interests of justice or the welfare and interests of the child, including orders relating to—
 - (a) the name of the child; or
 - (b) the ownership of property; or
 - (c) the custody or guardianship of the child; or
 - (d) the domicile of the child.
- (5) Upon the making of an order under this section discharging an order for the adoption of a child, but subject to any order made under subsection (4) of this section and section 28(2), the rights, privileges, duties, liabilities and relationships of the child and of all other persons shall be the same as if the adoption order had not been made, but without prejudice to—
 - (a) anything lawfully done; or
 - (b) the consequences of anything unlawfully done; or
 - (c) any right or interest that became vested in any person; whilst the adoption order was in force.

Division 2 Adoption lists, expression of interest register and assessment register

17 Keeping of adoption lists, expression of interest register and assessment register

- (1) The chief executive must, under this section, keep—
 - (a) lists of the names of persons who are entitled, as prescribed, to have their names entered in an adoption list; and
 - (b) registers of the names of persons who are entitled, as prescribed, to have their names entered in the expression of interest register or the assessment register.
- (2) An adoption list shall be kept in respect of each of the following classes—
 - (a) applicants to become adoptive parents of special needs children;
 - (b) applicants to become adoptive parents of children in respect of whom they are relatives.
- (3) For children other than children mentioned in subsection (2)(a) and (b)—
 - (a) a register must be kept of persons who, under this Act, have expressed an interest in being assessed as suitable to be prospective adopters; and
 - (b) a register must be kept of persons for whom there have been favourable assessments by the chief executive, under section 13B or 14, or by the tribunal on reviews, that the persons are of good repute and fit and proper persons to become adoptive parents.
- (4) The chief executive shall—
 - (a) keep each adoption list in a form that indicates the order in which the applications by virtue of which names are to be included in the list were lodged with the chief executive; and

- (b) keep, for each adoption list and register, the particulars the chief executive considers necessary about each person whose name is entered in the list or register and a description of children that the person's application or expression of interest relates to.

(5) If—

- (a) a person makes an application under section 13AA; and
- (b) the person's name is or, within 1 month before the date of the application, was included in a similar list (the interstate list) kept by a person approved for the purposes of the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth;

the application is taken to be an application made to the chief executive on the day certified, in writing, by the person having custody of the interstate list to be the day on which the person's application to be included in the interstate list was received or was treated, under the interstate law, as having been received.

(6) If—

- (a) a person expresses interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter even though the person's expression of interest is not in response to an invitation; and
- (b) the person's name is or, within 1 month before the date of the expression of interest, was included in a similar register, kept by a person approved for the purposes of the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth;

the expression of interest is taken to be an expression of interest received by the chief executive in response to an invitation with a closure day that is the day after the day on which the chief executive received the expression of interest.

(7) In this Act—

- (a) the list of applicants mentioned in subsection (2)(a) is the Special Needs Children's Adoption List; and
- (b) the list of applicants mentioned in subsection (2)(b) is the Relative Children's Adoption List; and

- (c) the register of persons mentioned in subsection (3)(a) is the expression of interest register; and
- (d) the register of persons mentioned in subsection (3)(b) is the assessment register.

18 Matters to be considered if general consent given, or dispensed with, for adoption of child other than a special needs child

- (1) In making arrangements with a view to the adoption of a child in respect of whom a general consent has been given or dispensed with and who is not a special needs child and, in particular, in determining which prospective adopter or prospective adopters the chief executive will approve in the case of such a child the chief executive shall have regard to—
 - (a) the needs of the child that are known to the chief executive at the time of making the arrangements; and
 - (b) the characteristics of the prospective adopters; and
 - (c) expressed preferences of the child’s parent or guardian; and
 - (d) other matters the chief executive considers, on reasonable grounds, relevant.
- (2) In having regard to the child’s needs, the chief executive must consider—
 - (a) the child’s age and gender; and
 - (b) the child’s indigenous or cultural background; and
 - (c) the child’s medical needs, including, for example, known medical conditions, disabilities or potential future health conditions or disabilities; and
 - (d) the educational needs of the child; and
 - (e) the principle that the child should ordinarily be the youngest child in the adoptive family at the time of the adoption order.
- (3) In having regard to the characteristics of the prospective adopters, the chief executive must consider—

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (a) the age and gender of a child the prospective adopters have been assessed as having the capacity to parent; and
 - (b) whether the prospective adopters have been assessed as having the capacity to parent children who are siblings; and
 - (c) the prospective adopters' religion, if any; and
 - (d) the prospective adopters' indigenous or cultural background; and
 - (e) whether the prospective adopters are willing and have been assessed as having the capacity—
 - (i) to parent a child with known medical conditions, disabilities or potential future health conditions or disabilities; and
 - (ii) to parent a child from a particular social background; and
 - (iii) to participate in exchanging non-identifying correspondence, through the department, with the child's birth family after an adoption order has been made; and
 - (f) the age of other children in the prospective adopters' family.
- (4) In having regard to the expressed preferences of a parent or guardian, particularly preferences stated in the instrument of consent to the adoption of the child, the chief executive must consider—
- (a) the child's religious upbringing; and
 - (b) characteristics of prospective adopters and adoptive family composition; and
 - (c) the parent's or guardian's wishes to participate in the voluntary exchange of non-identifying correspondence through the department; and
 - (d) specific preferences the chief executive considers, on reasonable grounds, promote the child's welfare and best interests.

(5) In this section—

prospective adopters includes a sole prospective adopter.

18A Placement of children with indigenous or ethnic backgrounds

In making arrangements with a view to the adoption of a child in respect of whom a general consent has been given or dispensed with and, in particular, in determining which prospective adopter or prospective adopters the chief executive will approve in the case of such a child the chief executive shall have regard to the indigenous or ethnic background and cultural background of the child and shall approve a prospective adopter who, or prospective adopters 1 of whom, has a similar indigenous or ethnic background and cultural background, unless—

- (a) it appears to the chief executive that such a prospective adopter or prospective adopters is not or are not available and can not reasonably be expected to become available promptly; or
- (b) in the chief executive's opinion, the welfare and interests of the child would not be best served by so doing.

Division 2A Intercountry adoptions

18AA Definition of application for div 2A

In this division—

application includes an expression of interest to be assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter in response to an invitation.

18B Operation of pt 3 not limited

To remove doubt, it is declared that this division does not limit the operation of another provision in this part, including, in particular, section 10.

18C Adoption of a child from Queensland by a person habitually resident in a convention country

- (1) This section applies to an application under this Act, by a person who is habitually resident in a convention country, to adopt a child who is habitually resident in Queensland.
- (2) The chief executive may make an order for the adoption of the child by the applicant only if, at the time of the order—
 - (a) the child is not prevented from leaving Australia—
 - (i) under a law of the Commonwealth or a State; or
 - (ii) by an order of a court of the Commonwealth or a State; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied that—
 - (i) arrangements for the adoption have been made under the Hague convention and the law of the convention country; and
 - (ii) the central authority of the convention country has agreed to the adoption; and
 - (iii) the child is not prevented by a law of the convention country from residing permanently in that country.

18D Adoption of a child from a convention country by a person habitually resident in Queensland

- (1) This section applies to an application under this Act, by a person who is habitually resident in Queensland, to adopt a child who is habitually resident in a convention country.
- (2) The chief executive may make an order for the adoption of the child by the applicant only if, at the time of the order—
 - (a) the child is not prevented from residing permanently in Australia—
 - (i) under a law of the Commonwealth or a State; or
 - (ii) by an order of a court of the Commonwealth or a State; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied that—

- (i) arrangements for the adoption have been made under the Hague convention and the law of the convention country; and
- (ii) the central authority of the convention country has agreed to the adoption.

Division 3 Consents to adoptions

19 Consents of parents and guardians required to adoptions

- (1) Subject to this division, the chief executive shall not make an order for the adoption of a child unless consent (not being a consent that has been revoked) to the adoption has been given by the appropriate person or persons ascertained in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this section, or the chief executive is satisfied that there is no such appropriate person.
- (2) In the case of a child who has not previously been adopted, the appropriate persons are every person who is a parent or guardian of the child.
- (4) In the case of a child who has previously been adopted, the appropriate persons are every person who is an adoptive parent or guardian of the child.
- (5) The consent of a person under this section is not required if that person is the applicant, or 1 of the applicants, for the adoption order.
- (6) In the case of a child who is a non-citizen child, the appropriate person is the person who, under the Immigration (Guardianship of Children) Act 1946 (Cwlth), is the guardian of the child or, where the guardian has under that Act delegated the guardian's powers and functions as guardian to another person, that other person.
- (7) Despite section 23, if, under the Child Protection Act 1999, the chief executive for child protection has custody or guardianship of a child, it is not necessary for that chief executive's consent to the child's adoption to be evidenced by an instrument of consent.

20 Giving of consents

- (1) Subject to this section, a consent for the purposes of section 19 shall be expressed as a consent to the adoption of the child by any prospective adopter.
- (2) Where an applicant to become an adoptive parent or, in the case of applicants who are a married couple, at least 1 of them is a relative of the child, a consent for the purposes of section 19 may be a consent to the adoption of the child by the applicant or applicants only.
- (3) If the chief executive for child protection has custody or guardianship of the child under a child protection order under the Child Protection Act 1999, a consent for the purposes of section 19 may be a consent to the adoption of the child by a particular person or particular persons (being a married couple) only.

21 Consents given under law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth

Where—

- (a) a person whose consent to the adoption of a child is required by section 19 has, in accordance with the law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth, duly signed an instrument of consent to the adoption of the child by any person approved by or on behalf of the officer empowered in that other State or in that Territory to approve persons as fit and proper persons to adopt children; and
- (b) that officer, or a person acting on the officer's behalf, has, by writing under his or her hand, authorised the chief executive to make arrangements for the adoption of the child in Queensland; and
- (c) the consent evidenced by the instrument of consent has not been revoked in accordance with the law of that other State or of that Territory; that instrument of consent shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be an instrument executed in accordance with this division evidencing a subsisting consent, in accordance with section 19(1), to the adoption of the child.

22 Revocation of consents

- (1) A consent to the adoption of a child given for the purposes of this Act or the repealed Acts by a person other than the child may be revoked by notice in writing served on the chief executive before—
 - (a) the expiration of 30 days from the date on which the instrument of consent was signed; or
 - (b) the day on which an order for the adoption of the child is made;whichever is the earlier, but may not otherwise be revoked.
- (2) Service of a notice on the chief executive under subsection (1) shall be effected by delivering it to the chief executive personally or by sending it to the chief executive by registered post at such address as is prescribed.

23 Form of consents

- (1) Subject to this section, a consent for the purposes of the preceding provisions of this division shall be evidenced by an instrument of consent substantially in accordance with the prescribed form signed by the person giving the consent and attested as prescribed.
- (2) A consent referred to in section 20(2) or (3) has no force or effect unless it is attested by the chief executive or a person authorised in writing by the chief executive to attest that consent or generally to attest such consents.

24 Defective consents

- (1) The chief executive shall not make an adoption order in reliance on a consent given or purporting to have been given by a person (other than the child) if it appears to the chief executive that—
 - (a) the consent was not given in accordance with this Act, or (where applicable) the repealed Acts; or
 - (b) the consent was obtained by fraud, duress, or other improper means; or

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (c) the consent was revoked at a time when it had not become irrevocable; or
 - (d) the instrument of consent has been altered in a material particular without authority; or
 - (e) the person giving or purporting to give the consent was not, on the date of the instrument of consent, in a fit condition to give the consent or did not understand the nature of the consent; or
 - (f) in the case of the consent of a mother to the adoption of her child—the instrument of consent was signed before the birth of the child.
- (2) The chief executive shall not make an adoption order in reliance on an instrument of consent signed by the mother of the child within 5 days after the birth of the child unless the chief executive is satisfied, on the certificate of a medical practitioner or on other adequate evidence, that, at the time the instrument was signed, the mother was in a fit condition to give the consent.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the chief executive, if satisfied that no medical practitioner was readily available to certify as aforesaid, may be satisfied as to the fit condition of the mother to give the consent as required by that subsection upon the production to the chief executive of a certificate of a person registered as a nurse under the Nursing Act 1992, certifying that, at the time when the instrument of consent was signed by the mother of the child, the mother was in a fit condition to give the consent.

25 Court may dispense with consents

- (1) The Supreme Court or the Childrens Court may on the application of—
- (a) the chief executive; or
 - (b) a married couple that has duly made and lodged with the chief executive an application to become adoptive parents of a child of whom each of them is either a parent or a relative; or

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (c) a person who has duly made and lodged with the chief executive an application to become an adoptive parent of a child of whom the person is a relative;

by order, dispense with the consent of any person, other than the child where the child's consent is necessary, to the adoption of a child where the court is satisfied—

- (d) that the person can not, after reasonable inquiry, be found; or
- (e) that the person is in such a physical or mental condition as not to be capable of properly considering the question whether the person should give his or her consent; or
- (f) that the person has abandoned, deserted or persistently neglected or ill-treated the child; or
- (g) that the person has, for a period of not less than 1 year, failed, without reasonable cause, to discharge the obligations of a parent or guardian, as the case may be, of the child; or
- (h) that the person has failed to reasonably plan for resumption of care of the child whereby integration of the child in the child's family is unlikely in the foreseeable future; or
- (i) that there are any other special circumstances that in the court's opinion make it desirable that an order be made;

and is satisfied that the welfare and interests of the child will be promoted if the order is made.

- (1A) Where an application is made to the court under subsection (1) by any person or persons other than the chief executive a copy of the application shall be served 21 days at the least before the date fixed for the hearing of the application on the chief executive who shall be entitled to intervene in and become a party to the proceedings.
- (2) In order to facilitate the making of arrangements by the chief executive with a view to the adoption of a child, the court may, on the application of the chief executive, make an order under this section dispensing with the consent of a person whose consent is required to the adoption of the child, and any such order under this section has effect for the purposes of any adoption order that may subsequently be made under this Act.

(2A) Where an order is sought under this section before the chief executive has made an assessment of a person under section 13B that the chief executive considers necessary, the court may cause the chief executive to be notified that it is prepared to make the order sought subject to—

(a) the chief executive or tribunal making an assessment under section 13B of any person or persons to become an adoptive parent or adoptive parents of the child in question; and

(b) that assessment being favourable to the person or persons;

and refrain from making the order sought until such an assessment is made.

(3) An order made under subsection (2) may, on the application of the chief executive or the person whose consent was dispensed with, be revoked—

(a) in the case of an order made by the Supreme Court—by that court; or

(b) in the case of an order made by the Childrens Court—by that court or the Supreme Court; at any time before the making of an adoption order in respect of the child to whom the court order relates.

25A Consent not required in certain circumstances

Subject to section 26, where—

(a) the chief executive proposes to make an adoption order and is satisfied that the child in respect of whom the order is to be made—

(i) has not attained the age of 18 years; and

(ii) entered Australia as a non-citizen child; and

(b) the child has been in the care of the persons in whose favour the adoption order is proposed to be made for at least 12 months; and

- (c) the chief executive considers that the making of the adoption order in favour of those persons would be in the best interests of the child;

no consent to the adoption is required.

26 Consent of child

- (1) Subject to this division, an order for the adoption of a child who has attained the age of 12 years shall not be made unless the child has consented to the adoption.
- (2) However, the Supreme Court or the Childrens Court may, on the application of the chief executive, where the court is satisfied that there are special reasons, related to the welfare and interests of the child, why an order of adoption of the child should be made, notwithstanding that the child has refused to consent to the adoption or that the child's consent has not been sought, by order, dispense with the consent of the child.

26A Provisions concerning court's jurisdiction—appeals

- (1) When a proceeding for the purposes of section 25 or 26 has been commenced in the Childrens Court, any party to the proceeding or any person likely to be affected by any order made in the proceeding may make application to the Supreme Court for an order that the proceeding be removed into the Supreme Court and, if the order is made, the proceeding shall be thereupon removed from the jurisdiction of the Childrens Court accordingly.
- (1A) Upon such an application the Supreme Court may make or refuse to make the order sought and may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.
- (2) If the magistrate constituting the Childrens Court to which an application is made pursuant to section 25 or 26 considers that the application should more properly or could more conveniently be determined by the Supreme Court, the magistrate shall refrain from dealing with the application.
- (2A) An appeal shall not lie from such a decision.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (3) Any person who feels aggrieved by an order of the Childrens Court made under section 25 or 26 or a refusal by the Childrens Court to make an order under section 25 or 26 (otherwise than pursuant to subsection (2)) may, notwithstanding the provisions of the District Court of Queensland Act 1967, appeal to a judge of the Supreme Court.
- (4) Every such appeal shall be by way of rehearing.
- (5) In respect of every such appeal and every order made therein the provisions of the Justices Act 1886, part 9, division 1, other than the provisions of section 222(1), (1A) and (3), apply with all necessary adaptations.

27 Guardianship of child awaiting adoption

- (1) Upon the chief executive, himself or herself or by the chief executive's duly authorised officer, signifying that the chief executive accepts guardianship of a child in respect of whom the consents required by section 19 to the child's adoption have been given or dispensed with or upon the expiration of 30 days from the date the chief executive or, as the case may be, the duly authorised officer receives such consents or notification that such consents have been dispensed with, whichever event first occurs, the chief executive shall be the guardian of the child for all purposes, other than the purposes of section 19, to the exclusion of all other persons until—
 - (a) an adoption order is made in respect of the child; or
 - (b) where such consents are given, any such consent is lawfully revoked; or
 - (c) another person becomes guardian pursuant to section 27A; or
 - (d) a court of competent jurisdiction, by order, makes other provision for the guardianship of the child.
- (2) The chief executive, himself or herself or by the chief executive's duly authorised officer, may in writing release to a child's natural parents or 1 of them a child awaiting adoption.
- (2A) Upon a release to a child's natural parents or 1 of them of a child awaiting adoption all consents given by the natural parents to the adoption of the child shall be deemed to be thereby lawfully revoked and the guardianship of the child, if it theretofore was in the chief executive, shall thereby pass to the persons or person to whom the child is released.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply—
 - (a) to a child in the custody or under the guardianship of the chief executive for child protection under a child protection order under the Child Protection Act 1999; or
 - (b) to a child in respect of whom the chief executive has, within the period of 30 days referred to in that subsection, declined in writing to accept guardianship.
- (4) Where the chief executive becomes guardian of a child pursuant to this section the chief executive may extend to and in respect of the child such benefits as the chief executive might have extended to or in respect of the child if the child were in the custody or under the guardianship of the chief executive for child protection under a child protection order under the Child Protection Act 1999.

27A Register of children for adoption

- (1) Where the chief executive has become guardian of a child pursuant to section 27 or is guardian of a child in respect of whom all consents (other than the chief executive's) necessary to the child's adoption have been given or dispensed with, except a child in respect of whom the consents necessary to the child's adoption have been given or dispensed with in relation to the child's adoption by a person who is a relative of the child, the chief executive shall forthwith cause the child's name to be entered in a register, and shall keep, either in or in connection with the register, such particulars of the child as the chief executive thinks fit.
- (2) The register shall be kept in a form that indicates the order in which each child named therein became a child whose name is required to be entered in the register.
- (3) If an adoption order has not been made in respect of a child named in the register within 3 months after the child became a child whose name is required to be entered in the register the chief executive shall as soon as is practicable notify that fact to each person who gave consent to the adoption of the child, unless—

- (a) that person has advised the chief executive that he or she does not desire, or that he or she no longer desires, as the case may be, such notification; or
 - (b) the whereabouts of that person is unknown to the chief executive after reasonable inquiries have been made.
- (4) The chief executive may, in writing, declare a child named in the register to be a special needs child where—
- (a) an adoption order has not been made in respect of that child within 4 months after the child becomes a child whose name is required to be entered in the register; or
 - (b) at any time, the chief executive is of the opinion that because of the special needs of that child there is little prospect of the child being adopted without considering as a prospective adopter or prospective adopters either a person or persons whose name or names is or are in the adoption list referred to in section 17(2)(a) or a person or persons who may wish to apply to adopt the child.
- (5) The chief executive shall regularly review the circumstances of each special needs child with a view to securing for the child a permanent placement within a family environment and promoting the welfare and interests of the child.
- (6) When the chief executive is no longer guardian of a child named in the register the name and any other particulars of the child in the register shall be deleted.
- (7) This section applies in respect of children within the application of subsection (1) who have come into the guardianship of the chief executive before the commencement of section 21 of the *Adoption of Children Act Amendment Act 1983*³ as well as in respect of children who come into the chief executive's guardianship after the commencement of that section but in respect of such of the first mentioned children who have been in the chief executive's guardianship for longer than 3 months at the commencement of that section it

27B Renunciation of guardianship of child to be adopted in another State or Territory

- (1) Where the chief executive, being guardian of a child pursuant to section 27(1), receives from an officer in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth whose powers, functions and duties correspond to those of the chief executive under this Act a notice that application has been or is to be made in that other State or Territory for the adoption of the child and a request that the chief executive renounce the chief executive's guardianship of the child, the chief executive may, if all consents to the adoption of the child obtained to comply with this Act have become irrevocable and if the chief executive thinks it to be in the best interests of the child so to do, by instrument in writing signed by the chief executive renounce the chief executive's guardianship of the child.
- (2) Forthwith after signing an instrument of renunciation under subsection (1) the chief executive shall send the instrument by registered post to such officer in the other State or Territory concerned together with all consents to the adoption of the child obtained to comply with this Act and held by the chief executive, and upon receipt thereof by such officer the chief executive shall cease to be guardian of the child.
- (3) If the chief executive wishes to make an adoption order relating to a child of whom the guardian is an officer in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth pursuant to a law of that State or Territory that corresponds to section 27, whose powers, functions and duties correspond to those of the chief executive under this Act, the chief executive may notify such officer thereof and request such officer in writing to renounce the officer's guardianship of the child and to send to the chief executive for use in connection with the adoption all consents to the adoption of the child obtained to comply with a law of that State or Territory that corresponds to this Act and held by such officer.
- (4) Upon receiving from such officer an instrument of renunciation of guardianship of the child referred to in subsection (3) together with all consents to the adoption of the child obtained to comply with a law of the State or Territory concerned that corresponds to this Act and held by such officer, the chief executive shall become and be the guardian of the child in all respects (other than as respects the date of commencement of the guardianship) as if such consents had been obtained to comply with this Act and had been duly executed in Queensland on the dates on which they respectively purport to have been signed and attested in that other State or Territory.

27C Chief executive may enter into arrangements

When so requested under the Immigration (Guardianship of Children) Act 1946 (Cwlth) the chief executive may enter into arrangements with the appropriate Commonwealth Minister whereby the guardianship of a non-citizen child who arrives in Australia for the purpose of adoption is transferred to the chief executive.

Division 4 Effect of adoption orders

28 General effect of adoption orders

- (1) For the purposes of the laws of Queensland but subject to this Act and to the provisions of any other Act that expressly distinguishes in any way between adopted children and children other than adopted children, upon the making of an adoption order—
 - (a) the adopted child becomes a child of the adopter or adopters, and the adopter or adopters become the parent or parents of the child, as if the child had been born to the adopter or adopters in lawful wedlock; and
 - (b) the adopted child ceases to be a child of any person who was a parent (whether natural or adoptive) of the child before the making of the adoption order, and any such person ceases to be a parent of the child; and
 - (c) the relationship to one another of all persons (including the adopted child and an adoptive parent or former parent of the adopted child) shall be determined on the

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- basis of the foregoing provisions of this subsection so far as they are relevant; and
- (d) any guardianship of the adopted child ceases to have effect; and
 - (e) any previous adoption of the child (whether effected under the law of Queensland or otherwise) ceases to have effect.
- (1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a child is adopted by a person who is the spouse of a parent (whether natural or adoptive) of the child whether adopted by that person or jointly by that person and that parent—
- (a) the child does not cease to be a child of that parent and that parent does not cease to be a parent of the child; and
 - (b) the relationship between the child and that parent is not determined; and
 - (c) if that parent was the guardian of the child—the adoption order does not have the effect of terminating such guardianship; and
 - (d) if the child was the adopted child of that parent—the adoption order does not have the effect of terminating such adoption.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for the purposes of any law relating to a sexual offence, being a law for the purposes of which the relationship between persons is relevant, an adoption order, or the discharge of an adoption order, does not cause the cessation of any relationship that would have existed if the adoption order, or the discharging order, as the case may be, had not been made, and any such relationship shall be deemed to exist in addition to any relationship that exists by virtue of the application of that subsection in relation to that adoption order or by virtue of the discharge of that adoption order.

29 Effect of orders as regards dispositions of property etc.

- (1) The provisions of section 28(1) have effect in relation to dispositions of property whether by will or otherwise, and whether made before or after the commencement of this Act,

Adoption of Children Act 1964

and to devolutions of property in respect of which a person dies intestate after the commencement of this Act, except that—

- (a) those provisions do not affect a disposition of property by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act; and
 - (b) those provisions do not affect a disposition of property that has taken effect in possession before the commencement of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of section 28(1) do not apply in relation to an agreement or instrument (not being a disposition of property) made or executed before the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Where—
- (a) before the commencement of this Act, a person made, by an instrument other than a will, a disposition of property; and
 - (b) the disposition had not taken effect in possession before the commencement of this Act; and
 - (c) it did not appear from the instrument that it was the intention of that person to include adopted children as objects of the disposition; that person may, notwithstanding that the instrument could not, apart from this subsection, be revoked or varied, by a like instrument vary the first mentioned instrument to exclude adopted children (whether adopted under this Act or otherwise) from participation in any right, benefit or privilege under the instrument.

- (4) In relation to a disposition of property by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act, and to a devolution of property arising upon the death of a person who in respect of that property died intestate before such commencement, an adoption order made under this Act has effect as if the repealed Acts had not been repealed and the adoption order had been made under the repealed Acts.
- (5) Nothing in section 28 or in this section affects the operation of any provision in a will or other instrument (whether made or coming into operation before or after the commencement of this Act) distinguishing between adopted children and children other than adopted children.

29A Bequest by will to unascertained adopted persons

- (1) Where, under a will made after the commencement of this section—
 - (a) a disposition of property is expressed to be made by the testator to a person who is described as child of the testator or of a spouse, parent, child, brother or sister of the testator; and
 - (b) the child was described in the will as having been adopted by another person; and
 - (c) the personal representative of the testator is unable to ascertain the name and address of the adopted person;

the personal representative shall give to the public trustee a copy of the will and a statement that the personal representative is unable to ascertain the name and address of the adopted person.

- (2) Where the public trustee is given a copy of a will under subsection (1), the public trustee shall, by notice in writing given to the chief executive, request the chief executive to make arrangements for ascertaining, and giving to the public trustee, the name, and address of the adopted person.
- (3) Where the chief executive receives a request under subsection (2), the chief executive shall cause such reasonable inquiries to be made of records in the chief executive's possession as will show the name and enable the address or, if the adopted person has died, the date of the death, of the adopted person to be ascertained or, if it appears that the information can not be obtained from inquiries of those records, seek to obtain the information from the registrar general.
- (4) If the chief executive ascertains the name of the adopted person, the chief executive shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ascertain the address or, if the adopted person has died, the date of death of the adopted person and shall inform the public trustee of that name and address or date.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (5) If the chief executive is unable to ascertain the name of the adopted person, the chief executive shall so inform the public trustee.
- (6) After receiving information from the chief executive under this section, the public trustee shall give notice in writing to the personal representative of the testator stating whether or not the name and address of the adopted person has been ascertained or, if the adopted person has died, the date of death of the adopted person.
- (7) Unless the adopted person predeceased the testator or, for any other reason known to the personal representative, is not entitled to an interest under the will, the public trustee is hereby declared to be a trustee for the adopted person on the trusts specified in, or arising under, the will and, if the personal representative transfers the property to the public trustee as trustee for the adopted person, the personal representative shall be deemed to have transferred the property to the adopted person.
- (8) Where the public trustee—
 - (a) is, under subsection (7), a trustee for an adopted person who is a beneficiary under a will; and
 - (b) gives the personal representative of the testator under that will a statement in writing to the effect that the adopted person has disclaimed the property to which the adopted person was entitled under that will;

that statement is, for the purposes of the administration of the estate by the personal representative, conclusive evidence that the adopted person has disclaimed the property.

30 Names of adopted child

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), upon the making of an adoption order, the adopted child shall have as the adopted child's surname the surname of the adopter or adopters and shall have as the adopted child's first name or christian name or names such name or names as the chief executive, in the adoption order, approves on the application of the adopter or adopters.
- (2) Where, before the making of the adoption order, the adopted child has been generally known by a particular surname, the chief executive may, in the adoption order, order that the child shall have that name as the adopted child's surname.

- (3) Nothing in this section prevents the changing of any name of an adopted child, after the making of the adoption order, in accordance with any other Act or law.

32 Adoption order not to affect the distribution of property by trustees or personal representatives unless notice given

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, trustees or personal representatives may, subject to this section, convey, transfer or distribute real or personal property to or among the persons appearing to be entitled to the property without having ascertained whether or not an adoption has been effected by virtue of which a person is or is not entitled to an interest in the property.
- (2) A trustee or personal representative conveying, transferring or distributing real or personal property in the manner referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall not be liable to a person claiming directly or indirectly by virtue of an adoption unless the trustee or personal representative has notice of the claim before the time of the conveyance, transfer or distribution.
- (3) Nothing in this section prejudices the right of a person to follow property into the hands of a person, other than a purchaser for value, who has received it.

Division 5 Interim orders

33 Making of interim orders

- (1) Notwithstanding that the chief executive or the tribunal has made assessments under this Act that are favourable to any prospective adopter or prospective adopters the chief executive or tribunal may, instead of making an adoption order, make an interim order for the custody of the child in favour of the prospective adopter or prospective adopters.

- (2) An interim order may be subject to such terms and conditions relating to the maintenance, education and welfare of the child as the chief executive thinks fit.
- (3) The chief executive shall not make an interim order in respect of a child in favour of any person or persons unless the chief executive could lawfully make an order for the adoption of that child by that person or those persons.
- (4) While an interim order remains in force in respect of a child, the person or persons in whose favour the order is made is or are entitled to the care and custody of the child.

34 Duration of interim orders

- (1) Subject to this division, an interim order remains in force for such period, not exceeding 1 year, as the chief executive specifies in the order and for such further periods (if any) as the chief executive may from time to time order.
- (2) An interim order shall not be in force for periods exceeding in the aggregate 2 years.

34A Effect of interim orders on child protection orders

- (1) If an interim order is made for a child for whom a child protection order is in force, the child protection order does not have effect while the interim order is in force.

- (2) In this section—

child protection order, for a child, means a child protection order under the Child Protection Act 1999 granting the chief executive for child protection custody or guardianship of the child.

35 Discharge of interim orders

An interim order, whether under this Act or the repealed Acts, ceases to have effect upon the making of an order for the adoption of that child, whether made in Queensland or in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth or in New Zealand.

Part 4 Recognition of adoptions and related matters

Division 1 Recognition of interstate and foreign adoptions

37 Recognition of Australian and New Zealand adoptions

For the purposes of the laws of Queensland, the adoption of a person (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth or in New Zealand, in accordance with the law of that State or Territory or country has, so long as it has not been rescinded under the law in force in that State or Territory or country, the same effect as an adoption order made in Queensland under this Act, and has no other effect.

37A Recognition of adoptions granted in convention countries

- (1) This section applies to an adoption granted in a convention country if—
 - (a) when the adoption is granted—
 - (i) the adopted child is habitually resident in a convention country; and
 - (ii) the adopter is habitually resident in a convention country, Australia or New Zealand; and
 - (b) an adoption compliance certificate, issued in the convention country in which the adoption is granted, is in force for the adoption.
- (2) The adoption has effect as if it were an adoption order made under this Act.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the Supreme Court makes a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption.
- (4) The Supreme Court may make a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption if it is satisfied the adoption is manifestly contrary to public policy, taking into account the child's best interests.

- (5) An interested person may apply to the Supreme Court for a declaration of non-recognition of the adoption.
- (6) Before applying for the declaration, the person must give written notice—
 - (a) if the person is the chief executive—to the Commonwealth central authority; or
 - (b) otherwise—to the chief executive.
- (7) The notice must state that the person proposes to apply for the declaration and the reasons for the proposed application.
- (8) If the chief executive is given a notice under subsection (6)(b), the chief executive must give a copy of the notice to the Commonwealth central authority.
- (9) If the applicant is not the chief executive, the chief executive is entitled to be joined as a party to the proceedings concerning the application.
- (10) This section is subject to division 2.
- (11) In this section—

declaration of non-recognition, of an adoption granted in a convention country, means a declaration that the adoption does not have effect as if it were an adoption order made under this Act.

interested person, for an adoption, means—

- (a) the chief executive; or
- (b) an adopter; or
- (c) the adopted child.

38 Recognition of adoptions granted in non-convention countries

- (1) For the purposes of the laws of Queensland, the adoption of a person in a non-convention country, being an adoption to which this section applies, has, so long as it has not been rescinded under the law of that country, the same effect as an adoption order under this Act.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (2) This section applies to an adoption in a non-convention country if—
 - (a) the adoption was effective according to the law of that country; and
 - (b) at the time at which the legal steps that resulted in the adoption were commenced, the adopter, or each of the adopters, was resident or domiciled in that country and had been so resident or domiciled for not less than 12 months; and
 - (c) in consequence of the adoption, the adopter or adopters had, or would (if the adopted person had been a young child) have had, immediately following the adoption, according to the law of that country, a right superior to that of any natural parent of the adopted person in respect of the custody of the adopted person; and
 - (d) under the law of that country the adopter or adopters were, by the adoption, placed generally in relation to the adopted person in the position of a parent or parents.
- (4) Where in any proceedings before a court (including proceedings under section 39) the question arises whether an adoption is one to which this section applies, it shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that in relation to the adoption the conditions referred to in subsection (2) are satisfied and that the adoption has not been rescinded.
- (5) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a court (including a court dealing with an application under section 39) may refuse to recognise an adoption as being an adoption to which this section applies if it appears to the court that the procedure followed or the law applied in connection with the adoption involved a denial of natural justice or did not comply with the requirements of substantial justice.
- (6) A document purporting to be the original or a certified copy of an order or record of adoption made by a court or a judicial or public authority in a non-convention country shall, upon its production, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be sufficient evidence—

- (a) that the adoption was made in and is effective according to the law of that country; and
 - (b) that the adoption has not been rescinded.
- (7) Except as provided in this section, the adoption of a person in a non-convention country does not have effect for the purposes of the laws of Queensland.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects any right that was acquired by, or became vested in, a person before the commencement of this Act.

Division 2 Simple adoptions

38AA Definitions for div 2

In this division—

conversion, of a simple adoption, means conversion into a full adoption under article 27 of the Hague convention.

declaration of non-recognition, of the conversion of a simple adoption, means a declaration that, despite the conversion, the adoption is taken to remain a simple adoption.

full adoption means an adoption other than a simple adoption.

interested person, for an adoption, means—

- (a) the chief executive; or
- (b) an adopter; or
- (c) the adopted child.

simple adoption means an adoption granted in a convention country that, under the law of that country, does not end the legal relationship between the adopted child and the individuals who were, immediately before the adoption, the child's parents.

38AB Simple adoption does not end parent-child relationship

Despite section 37A(2), a simple adoption does not end the legal relationship between the adopted child and the individuals who were, immediately before the adoption, the child's parents.

38AC Conversion of simple adoption in convention country

- (1) If a simple adoption is converted in a convention country, the adoption is taken to be a full adoption.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the Supreme Court makes a declaration of non-recognition of the conversion.
- (3) The Supreme Court may make a declaration of non-recognition of the conversion if it is satisfied the conversion is manifestly contrary to public policy, taking into account the child's best interests.
- (4) An interested person may apply to the Supreme Court for a declaration of non-recognition of the conversion.
- (5) Before applying for the declaration, the person must give written notice—
 - (a) if the person is the chief executive—to the Commonwealth central authority; or
 - (b) otherwise—to the chief executive.
- (6) The notice must state that the person proposes to apply for the declaration and the reasons for the proposed application.
- (7) If the chief executive is given a notice under subsection (5)(b), the chief executive must give a copy of the notice to the Commonwealth central authority.
- (8) If the applicant is not the chief executive, the chief executive is entitled to be joined as a party to the proceedings concerning the application.

38AD Conversion of simple adoption by chief executive

- (1) On application by an adopter of a child under a simple adoption, the chief executive may, by written order, declare the adoption to have effect as a full adoption.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (2) If the chief executive makes the order, the adoption has effect as a full adoption.
- (3) The chief executive may make the order only if the chief executive is satisfied—
 - (a) an adoption compliance certificate, issued in the convention country in which the adoption was granted, is in force for the adoption; and
 - (b) the adopter is habitually resident in Queensland; and
 - (c) when the adoption was granted, the adopted child was habitually resident in the convention country; and
 - (d) if the adopted child is not in Australia when the chief executive proposes to make the declaration—the child is not prevented from entering Australia—
 - (i) under a law of the Commonwealth or a State; or
 - (ii) by an order of a court of the Commonwealth or a State; and
 - (e) the child is not prevented from residing permanently in Australia—
 - (i) under a law of the Commonwealth or a State; or
 - (ii) by an order of a court of the Commonwealth or a State.

Division 3Other matters concerning foreign adoptions*38A Chief executive to have limited supervision of adopted children

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where—
 - (a) a child is adopted in a country (other than New Zealand) outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth, whether or not the adoption is one that pursuant to this Act has the same effect as an adoption order under this Act; and

- (b) the adoption of that child has been in force for a period not exceeding 12 months; and
- (c) the adopter or 1 of the adopters was not, at the time of making the order of adoption in relation to that child, a national or citizen of the country in which the order was made; and
- (d) that child is present in Queensland;

the chief executive may supervise the welfare and interests of that child for a period of 12 months commencing on the date of arrival of the child in Queensland and any person authorised in writing by the chief executive in that behalf either generally or in any particular case has a right of access to the child at all reasonable times during that period.

- (2) Where a child whose welfare and interests may be supervised by the chief executive pursuant to subsection (1) has, after being adopted but before the child's arrival in Queensland, been resident in any State (other than Queensland) or in a Territory of the Commonwealth or in New Zealand the period during which the child is subject to the chief executive's supervision shall be reduced proportionately to the period of the child's residence in that other State or Territory or in New Zealand.
- (3) The chief executive may exempt any child to whom subsection (1) would otherwise apply from the provisions of that subsection whereupon, for as long as the exemption subsists, that subsection shall not apply in relation to that child.

39 Declarations of validity of foreign adoptions

- (1) A person specified in subsection (2) may apply to the Supreme Court for an order declaring that an adoption of a person was effected (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) under the law of a country outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth, and that the adoption is one to which section 37A or 38 applies, and the court may hear and determine the application and, if it thinks fit, make an order accordingly.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (2) The persons who may make an application under subsection (1) in relation to an adoption are the adopted child, the adoptive parent or either or both of the adoptive parents, or a person tracing a relationship, by virtue of the adoption, through or to the adopted child.
- (3) Where an application is made under this section, a copy of the application shall be served, 21 days at the least before the date fixed for the hearing of the application, on the chief executive who shall be entitled to intervene in and to become a party to the proceedings concerning the application.
- (3A) Where an application is made under this section, the court may—
 - (a) direct that notice of the application be given to such persons (who may include the Attorney-General) as the court thinks fit; or
 - (b) direct that a person be made a party to the application; or
 - (c) permit a person having an interest in the matter to intervene in, and become a party to, the proceedings.
- (4) Where the court makes an order upon the application, it may include in the order such particulars in relation to the adoption, the adopted child and the adoptive parent or parents as the court finds to be established.
- (5) In the case of an application to the court under subsection (1), the court may make such orders as to costs and security for costs, whether by way of interlocutory order or otherwise, as the court thinks just.
- (6) For the purposes of the laws of Queensland, an order under this section binds the Crown in right of the State of Queensland, whether or not notice was given to the Attorney-General, but, except as provided in subsection (7), does not affect—
 - (a) the rights of another person unless that person was—
 - (i) a party to the proceedings for the order or a person claiming through such a party; or

- (ii) a person to whom notice of the application for the order was given or a person claiming through such a person; or
 - (b) an earlier judgment, order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (7) In proceedings in a court in Queensland, being proceedings relating to the rights of a person other than a person referred to in subsection (6)(a)(i) or (ii), the production of a copy of an order made under this section, certified by the registrar of the Supreme Court to be a true copy, shall be evidence that an adoption was effected in accordance with the particulars contained in the order and that the adoption is one to which section 37A or 38 applies.

Part 4A Access to identifying information

39A Interpretation

In this part—

39E Counsellors

- (1) The chief executive may approve of such number of persons as the chief executive thinks necessary who have appropriate qualifications and experience to be counsellors for the purposes of this part.
- (2) Any fees payable to a counsellor for such services are to be arranged between the counsellor and the person concerned.

Part 5 Offences

40 Territorial application of part

This part, unless otherwise expressly provided, applies in respect of acts done in Queensland in relation to the adoption of children in, or children adopted in, another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth, or a country outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth.

41 Communication etc. by natural parent with adopted child

- (1) A person who, by reason of the adoption of a child, has ceased to be and is not the parent or guardian of the child—
- (a) shall not take, lead, entice or decoy the child away, or detain the child, with intent to deprive the adopter or adopters of possession of the child; and
- (b) shall not interfere in or influence the upbringing of the child, or the relationship of the child with the child's adopter or adopters; and

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (c) shall not communicate with the child or with any other person who, to the knowledge of the person, is the adopter or 1 of the adopters of the child, except—
 - (i) with the approval of the chief executive first had and obtained; or
 - (ii) where the adopter or 1 of the adopters is a relative of the child; or
 - (iii) in accordance with part 4A.
- (2) A person shall not attempt to contravene any provision of subsection (1).
- (3) Where application is made to the chief executive for the chief executive's approval of a communication between a person referred to in subsection (1) and a child or an adopter of a child the chief executive shall not so approve unless the adopter or, where there are 2 adopters, both of them consent to the chief executive so approving.
- (4) Where an application for the chief executive's approval of communication is made in relation to a child who immediately before the child's adoption was a special needs child, it is competent to the chief executive, subject to subsection (3)—
 - (a) to give the chief executive's approval to communication generally; or
 - (b) to give the chief executive's approval to communication restricted in such manner as the chief executive thinks fit.
- (5) In this section—

communicate includes to make contact with by any means whatever or to be in the company of and communication shall be construed accordingly.

42 Harboursing child taken from adopters

A person shall not receive or harbour a child on behalf of a person who, to the person's knowledge, has taken, led, enticed or decoyed the child away, or is detaining the child, in contravention of section 41.

43 Payments in consideration of adoptions etc.

- (1) Subject to this section, a person shall not (whether before or after the birth of the child concerned) make, give or receive, or agree to make, give or receive, a payment or reward for or in consideration of—
 - (a) the adoption or proposed adoption of a child; or
 - (b) the giving of consent, or the signing of an instrument of consent, to the adoption of a child; or
 - (c) the transfer of possession or custody of a child with a view to the adoption of the child; or
 - (d) the making of arrangements with a view to the adoption of a child.
- (2) The references in subsection (1) to the adoption or proposed adoption of a child shall be read as including references to the adoption or proposed adoption of a child under the law of any place (whether in or outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to either of the following payments or rewards in connection with an adoption or proposed adoption under this Act—
 - (a) a payment made by the adopter or adopters, with the approval in writing of the chief executive, in respect of the hospital and medical expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the birth of the child or the antenatal or postnatal care and treatment of the mother of the child or of the child;
 - (b) any other payment or reward authorised in writing by the chief executive.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to a payment or reward in connection with an adoption or proposed adoption under the law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth or of a country outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth if the making of the payment or the giving of the reward, or any agreement so to do would have been lawful if it had taken place in that State or Territory or country.

44 Restrictions on advertising

- (1) Subject to this section, a person shall not publish, or cause to be published, in a newspaper or periodical, or by means of broadcasting, television or public exhibition, any advertisement, news item or other matter indicating (whether or not in relation to a particular child, born or unborn) that—
 - (a) a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have the child adopted; or
 - (b) a person wishes to adopt a child; or
 - (c) a person is willing to make arrangements with a view to the adoption of a child.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an advertisement or other matter that has been authorised or approved by the chief executive.

45 Restrictions on publication of identity of parties

- (1) Subject to this section, a person shall not publish, or cause to be published, in a newspaper or periodical, or by means of broadcasting or television, in relation to—
 - (a) an application under this Act (whether to the chief executive or to any court or the tribunal) or an expression of interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter; or
 - (b) an application under a law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth for the adoption of a child or for the discharge of an order for the adoption of a child; or
 - (c) the proceedings relating to an application or an expression of interest mentioned in paragraph (a), or an application mentioned in paragraph (b);

the name of the applicant, the person who expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter, the child, the father or mother or a guardian of the child, or, where applicable, the name of an adopter of the child, or any matter reasonably likely to enable any of those persons to be identified.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the publication of any matter with the authority of the court or tribunal to which the application was made.

46 Penalty for making unauthorised arrangements

- (1) Subject to this section, a person shall not, unless the person is a duly authorised officer, employee, or agent of the chief executive, conduct, or attempt to conduct, any negotiation, or make, or attempt to make, any arrangement with a parent or guardian of a child for or towards or with a view to the adoption of the child.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not be taken to refer to or include the preparation of an application under this Act for the adoption of a child, an expression of interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter, or any arrangements made by or on behalf of a parent, guardian or relative of a child for the adoption of the child by a relative of the child.

47 False statements

A person shall not, whether orally or in writing, wilfully make a false statement for the purposes of or in connection with a proposed adoption or any other matter under this Act.

48 Personation

A person shall not personate or falsely represent himself or herself to be—

- (a) a person whose consent to the adoption of a child is required by this Act or by the law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) a person—
- (i) who is authorised by this Act to do anything for any purpose for which this Act provides; or
 - (ii) whose act is necessary to attain any purpose for which this Act provides.

49 Presenting forged documents

A person shall not present or cause to be presented to the chief executive or to any person acting on behalf of the chief executive or to any court or the tribunal a document purporting to be signed by a particular person, which document—

- (a) is required by this Act in connection with any application, expression of interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter, or other matter under this Act; or
- (b) might affect any application, expression of interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter, or other matter under this Act;

knowing that the signature to the document is forged or was obtained by fraud or duress.

50 Improperly witnessing consent to adoption

A person shall not subscribe the person's name as a witness to the signature of a person to an instrument of consent to the adoption of a child (whether under this Act or under the law of another State or of a Territory of the Commonwealth) unless—

- (a) the person is satisfied that the person signing the instrument is a parent or guardian of the child; and
- (b) the person takes such steps as are prescribed to satisfy himself or herself that the person signing the instrument understands the effect of the consent; and
- (c) the instrument bears the date on which the person subscribes his or her name as a witness.

50A Undue influence

A person who uses or threatens to use any force or restraint or does or threatens to do any injury, or causes or threatens to cause any detriment of any kind to a parent or guardian of a child with a view—

- (a) to inducing that parent or guardian to offer or refrain from offering the child for adoption under this Act; or
- (b) to influencing the parent or guardian in the expression of any wishes contained in an instrument of consent to the adoption of a child; or
- (c) to inducing the parent or guardian to revoke a consent to the adoption of the child given by that parent or guardian; or to any person with a view to inducing that person to make an application under part 4A, commits an offence against this Act.

51 Authority to prosecute

Proceedings for an offence against this Act shall not be commenced except with the written consent of the Minister.

52 Summary proceedings

- (1) All offences against this Act may be prosecuted in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886.
- (2) A prosecution for an offence against this Act may be instituted at any time within 12 months after the commission of the offence or within 6 months after the commission of the offence comes to the knowledge of the complainant, whichever is the later period.

53 General penalty

- (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this Act commits an offence against this Act.
- (2) Any person who commits an offence against this Act is liable, except where another penalty is specifically provided, to a penalty not exceeding 40 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

54 Registration of orders

- (1) The chief executive shall cause a memorandum, in accordance with the prescribed form, of every adoption order made under this Act to be sent to the registrar general.
- (2) The registrar of the Supreme Court shall cause a copy of every order made under this Act for the discharge of an adoption order to be sent to the registrar general.
- (3) Upon receipt of a memorandum or copy of an order sent to the registrar general under the preceding provisions of this section, the registrar general shall—
 - (a) register it, as prescribed, in the Adopted Children Register; and
 - (b) if it relates to a child whose birth is registered in Queensland—make such alterations to, or entries in, the appropriate registers of births as are prescribed.

55 Adopted Children Register

The ‘Adopted Children Register’ made and kept by the registrar general under the repealed Acts shall continue and shall be the Adopted Children Register under this Act.

55A Certified copy or extract

- (1) After the reregistration of the adoption of a person (the relevant person) under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2003, section 14, a certified copy or extract obtained under this Act from the registrar general—
 - (a) must show the relevant person’s sex in accordance with the reregistration; and
 - (b) must not include a statement or other clear indication to the effect that a change of the relevant person’s sex has been entered in the Adopted Children Register.
- (2) However, any of the following persons may, on payment of the appropriate fee prescribed under the Births, Deaths and

Marriages Registration Act 2003, apply to the registrar general for a certified copy from the adoption entry of the relevant person that was closed on the reregistration—

- (a) the relevant person;
- (b) a child of the relevant person;
- (c) a parent of the relevant person, if the relevant person is a child;
- (d) a person prescribed under a regulation.

56 Sending of memoranda of orders to other places

Where under this Act an adoption order or an order for the discharge of an adoption order has been made, and the registrar general has reason to believe that the birth of the child is registered in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth or in New Zealand, the registrar general shall, as soon as practicable, cause a memorandum, in accordance with the prescribed form, of the adoption order, or a copy of the discharging order, as the case may be, certified in writing by the registrar general to be a true memorandum or copy, to be sent to such officer of that State or Territory or country having functions in relation to the registration of births as is prescribed.

57 Particulars of orders received from other States and countries

Where the registrar general receives, in relation to a child whose birth is registered in Queensland—

- (a) a memorandum or copy of an adoption order made under the law in force in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth, or of an order discharging such an order certified in writing to be a true memorandum or copy by a person authorised so to certify under the law of that State or Territory; or
- (b) an original or a copy of an order or record of adoption made in a country outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth that has the same effect as an adoption order under this Act, or of a rescission of such an adoption, certified, in the case of a copy, in writing to be a true copy by a person having custody of the original thereof in that country;

the registrar general shall—

- (c) register it, as prescribed, in the Adopted Children Register; and
- (d) make such alterations to, or entries in, the appropriate registers of births as are prescribed.

57A Assistance to adopters and adopted children

- (1) Where an adoption order has been made and it appears to the chief executive that the welfare or interests of the child to whom the order relates requires that assistance be given to the adopter or adopters (or either of them) in whose favour the order was made or to such child, the chief executive may in the chief executive's discretion give such assistance in such form and for such period as the chief executive considers appropriate.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe in relation to the giving of assistance under subsection (1) and where they do so such assistance shall be given in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) When assistance that may be given under subsection (1) involves the expenditure of money by the chief executive the power conferred by that subsection shall be subject to appropriation by Parliament of moneys for the purpose.

58 Hearings to be in camera

An application made under this Act to any court or the tribunal shall be heard in camera and a person—

- (a) who is neither a party to the proceedings nor a representative of a party to the proceedings; or
- (b) who claims to represent a party to the proceedings in a case where representation is excluded by this Act; shall be excluded from the hearing unless the court or tribunal otherwise permits.

59 Confidentiality

- (1) Every officer of the department engaged in giving effect to this Act and every person engaged by the chief executive in giving effect to this Act shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of section 31 of the *Adoption of Children Act Amendment Act 1983*⁴ or, if the officer or person first becomes a person of that description after the commencement of that section, within 7 days after the officer or person becomes a person of that description, take and subscribe the prescribed oath of confidentiality or make the prescribed affirmation of confidentiality and abide by his or her oath or affirmation.
- (1A) An oath or affirmation referred to in subsection (1) may be administered or, as the case may be, taken by any justice of the peace.
- (2) Except where it is otherwise prescribed by this Act, the records of the chief executive or of the tribunal relating to any matter or proceeding under this Act or under the law of Queensland applicable to adoptions at any time or any proceeding with respect to a child available for adoption shall not be open to inspection by any person other than—
 - (a) an officer of the department, in the ordinary discharge of the officer's duties; or
 - (b) any other person engaged in giving effect to this Act, in the ordinary discharge of the duties of the person's engagement; or
 - (c) any person authorised by the chief executive (in the case of the chief executive's records) or the president of the tribunal (in the case of the tribunal's records) for the purpose of conducting a bona fide research program where that person has given to the chief executive or, as the case may be, the president an undertaking in writing to preserve the identity of and confidentiality in relation to individual persons to whom the records relate; or

- (d) in the case of a record of the tribunal—a party to the proceeding before the tribunal to which the record relates.
- (3) An officer of the department, or other person engaged in giving effect to this Act shall not disclose or be required to disclose to any person, court or tribunal information that—
- (a) is likely to allow identification, by the natural parents of a person who has been adopted, of that person or the person's whereabouts; or
 - (b) is likely to allow identification, by the natural parents of a person who has been adopted, of the adoptive parents of that person or their whereabouts; or
 - (c) is likely to allow identification, by the adoptive parents of a person who has been adopted, of the natural or adoptive parents of that person or their whereabouts; or
 - (d) is likely to allow identification, by a person who has been adopted, of the person's natural parents or their whereabouts;

except where this Act otherwise permits, expressly or impliedly, or where such identification is unavoidably incidental to the adoption of the person who has been adopted.

- (3A) In subsection (3)— adoptive parents has the meaning assigned to it in part 4A.

- (4) An officer of the department or any other person engaged in giving effect to this Act shall not disclose to any person—
- (a) information that to the officer's knowledge is contained in the records of the chief executive or the tribunal; or
 - (b) information that has come to the officer's knowledge in connection with the officer giving effect to this Act; except—

- (c) where the disclosure is to facilitate giving effect to this Act and does not constitute a contravention of subsection (3); or
- (d) where the chief executive is satisfied that the disclosure is for a reasonable purpose in the circumstances and does not constitute a contravention of subsection (3); or

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (e) where the disclosure is made under the authority of an order of the Supreme Court made in exercise of jurisdiction, which is hereby conferred upon the court, to make such an order upon the application of the chief executive if the court is satisfied that the disclosure proposed is necessary in the interests of the health of any person or in furtherance of medical research; or
 - (f) where the disclosure is to the Supreme Court for the purposes of a proceeding under section 16.
- (4A) Subsection (4) applies to a person referred to in subsection (2)(c) as if the person were an officer of the department.
- (5) Subsections (3) to (4) do not operate so as to prejudice the entitlement of any person referred to in subsection (2) to access to records of the chief executive or the tribunal.
- (6) A person who—
- (a) permits access to the records of the chief executive or the tribunal to any person except one authorised by this Act to have such access; or
 - (b) not being authorised by this Act to have access to the records of the chief executive or the tribunal or to a particular part thereof, inspects any part of those records or, as the case may be, that part or attempts so to do; or
 - (c) makes a disclosure that is in contravention of this section;
- commits an offence against this Act.
- (7) A court shall not convict a person of an offence defined in subsection (6)(c) if it is satisfied that the disclosure consists in a publication to which section 45(1) is expressed by section 45(2) not to apply.

59A Protection of persons

- (1) A person who for any purpose of this Act inserts or publishes in or by way of the records of the chief executive or the tribunal, or makes or gives any allegation, comment, or opinion in respect of any matter that concerns the history or family background of any child or the child's parent, or of any person who made an application under section 13AA or expressed interest in being assessed as suitable to be a prospective adopter, or that concerns the welfare of any child shall not thereby incur any liability for injury to any person if the person has therein acted in good faith and without malice and with reasonable care.

- (2) In any proceeding taken against any such person on account of such an insertion, publication, making or giving, the burden of proof that such person has acted otherwise than in good faith or with malice or without reasonable care shall be on the plaintiff.

59B Disclosure of information authorised in certain cases

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 59 or any other provision of this Act, where the chief executive has entered into working arrangements with—

- (a) the government of a country outside the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) any authority or person in such a country being an authority or person recognised by the chief executive as having a proper concern with the adoption of children in or from that country;

for the purpose of facilitating the adoption in Queensland of children from that country, the chief executive or any officer of the department authorised by the chief executive in that behalf either generally or in any particular case may give, supply or transmit to such government or a person or authority acting under the authority of such government or, as the case may be, to such authority or person with whom the working arrangements subsist any information, report or document that is to be given, supplied or transmitted by the chief executive to that government, authority or person under the terms of such working arrangements.

59C Disclosure of criminal histories

- (1) Upon a request signed by the chief executive or an officer of the department authorised in writing by the chief executive in that behalf, the commissioner of the police service or a person delegated by the commissioner for the purpose shall disclose in writing to the chief executive the criminal history (as shown in the commissioner's records) of any person specified in the request to be an applicant to become an adoptive parent or a prospective adopter.

- (2) The Crown, a police officer or any other person shall not incur liability, on account of a disclosure of the whole or any part of the criminal history of any person pursuant to the obligation imposed by subsection (1).

59D Chief executive may obtain or disclose non-identifying medical information

- (1) The chief executive may contact a natural parent of an adopted person for the purpose of obtaining information about the medical history of the natural parent or another natural relative of the adopted person.
- (2) The chief executive may disclose, to an adopted person, information about the medical history of a natural relative of the adopted person.
- (3) The chief executive may disclose, to a natural relative of an adopted person, information about the adopted person's medical history that relates to a condition that may have been inherited from a natural relative.
- (4) The chief executive must not disclose information about a natural relative or adopted person under subsection (2) or (3) if—
 - (a) the information is likely to identify an adopted person or natural relative of an adopted person; or
 - (b) the natural relative or adopted person asks the chief executive not to disclose the information.
- (5) It does not matter for this section whether a person who is contacted, or to whom information is given, or to whom information relates, is a person who has made an objection under part 4A.
- (6) At the request of a person who is an adopted person or natural relative of an adopted person, the chief executive may, instead of giving the information to the person, give the information to a medical practitioner nominated by the person.

- (7) A person is not required to give or receive information under this section.
- (8) In this section—
 - natural relative*, of an adopted person, means—
 - (a) a natural parent of the person; or
 - (b) another person related to the adopted person other than a person related only because of a marriage.

60 Proof of adoptions

- (1) In any proceedings in any court in Queensland—
 - (a) a document purporting to be either the original or a certified copy of or certified extract from an order effecting an adoption (whether in Queensland or elsewhere); or
 - (b) a certified copy of an entry in any public official record of the adoption of children (whether kept in Queensland or elsewhere) or a certificate or extract giving particulars of such an entry and purporting to be signed by the person having the custody of such record; or
 - (c) a document purporting to be an order made under section 38AD or a certified copy of an order made under section 38AD;shall be prima facie evidence of the making of the order and of the facts stated therein.
- (2) An adoption compliance certificate is evidence that the adoption to which it relates—
 - (a) was agreed to by the central authorities of the countries stated in it; and
 - (b) was carried out under the Hague convention and the laws of the countries stated in it.

61 Judicial notice of signatures

In proceedings under this Act, or affecting any matter under this Act, judicial notice shall be taken of the signature of a person who holds or has held or is acting or has acted in any of the following offices, that is to say—

- (a) the director of the Department of Children's Services;
- (b) the deputy director of the Department of Children's Services;
- (c) the permanent head for the purposes of the Family Services Act 1987;
- (d) the chief executive;

and of any corresponding officer in another State or in a Territory of the Commonwealth, and of any delegate of such a person, appearing on a document and of the fact that, at the time the document was signed by him or her, he or she held, or was acting in, that office.

62A Engagement of agents

- (1) The chief executive may enter into contracts for services with such persons having qualifications and experience appropriate to the proper discharge of the contracts as the chief executive thinks fit with a view to those persons acting as the chief executive's agents in preparing reports in connection with the making of assessments.
- (2) Every person with whom the chief executive enters into a contract under subsection (1) shall be entitled to fees upon a scale from time to time approved by the Minister.

63 Parties to applications under Act

- (1) Where an application is made to the court under section 16, 25, or 26 the court may permit such persons as it thinks fit to be joined as parties to the proceedings for the purpose of opposing the application.
- (2) Where the court, pursuant to subsection (1), permits a person to be joined as a party to proceedings, the court may, subject to subsection (3), make such order as to costs and security for costs, by way of interlocutory order or otherwise, as it thinks fit which costs and security, when ordered by the Childrens Court, shall be upon a scale applicable to costs awarded by Magistrates Courts constituted under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921.

- (3) Where a person permitted to be joined as a party to proceedings upon an application made under section 25(1) or 26 is the person in respect of whom or of whose consent the order is sought, the court concerned shall not make an order as to costs against that person irrespective of the outcome of the application.

64 Practice and procedure upon applications

- (1) In the absence of a rule of court or a sufficient rule of court that regulates in any particular the practice and procedure of the Supreme Court upon applications that may be made to the court under any provision of this Act, the Supreme Court may give directions for the purpose of giving full effect to the provisions of this Act in relation to an application made to the court.
- (2) All steps taken in accordance with the directions so given shall be deemed to be regular and sufficient.

65 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
- (1A) A regulation may be made for or about the following matters—
- (a) matters of practice, procedure or evidence in or in connection with proceedings under this Act;
 - (b) matters of practice or procedure in or in connection with consents to be used for the purposes of this Act;
 - (ba) matters to be regarded in making assessments under this Act;
 - (c) forms to be used under this Act and the respective purposes for which such forms or forms to the like effect shall be used and the verification of such forms by means of a statutory declaration under and in accordance with the Oaths Act 1867;

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (d) fees payable for the purposes of this Act and waiver of the payment of such fees, wholly or partly;
- (e) the keeping of the adoption lists and the eligibility of persons to have their names entered or remain in those lists, notification to the chief executive of changes in circumstances that might affect such eligibility and removal of names from those lists as prescribed in the event of—
 - (i) the withdrawal or lapsing of an application to become an adoptive parent; or
 - (ii) the chief executive's having reasonable cause to believe that any applicant or applicants does not or do not intend to proceed with an application made under this Act;
- (ea) the keeping of the expression of interest register and the assessment register, the eligibility of persons to have their names entered in or remain in the registers, notice to the chief executive of changes in circumstances that might affect a person's eligibility and removal of names from the registers;
- (f) the prohibition or regulation of access to the Adopted Children Register or to the register kept by the registrar general intitled 'RECORD OF CHILDREN whose Births have been registered in the State of Queensland and who have been transferred under Deed of Adoption' or to entries relating to adopted persons in the registers of births kept under the law of Queensland;
- (g) the inspection of the records of any proceedings under this Act;
- (h) the furnishing of copies or certificates of, or extracts from, matters included in either of the first 2 registers referred to in paragraph (f);
- (i) the making, correction or cancellation of entries relating to persons who have been adopted in the registers of births kept under the law of Queensland;
- (j) penalties, not exceeding 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, for offences against the regulations.

- (2) A regulation may prescribe a country, other than Australia or New Zealand, to be a convention country for this Act, but only if the country is a convention country for the Commonwealth regulation.

67 Service of documents

- (1) A notification required by this Act to be given to any person shall be taken to have been duly given if—
- (a) it is served personally on the person to whom it is directed or, in the case of a notification directed to a married couple, it is served personally on 1 of them or, in either case, on a person authorised by a person to be served, either generally or in a particular case to accept service of documents on the person's behalf;
 - (b) it is left at the place of residence or business of the person to whom it is directed last known to the person who gives it;
 - (c) it is sent by post to the place of residence or business of the person to whom it is directed last known to the person who gives it.
- (2) A notification shall be deemed to have been received by the person to whom it is directed—
- (a) where it has been given in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(a), on the day it is served in accordance with that paragraph;
 - (b) where it has been given in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(b), on the day next following the day it is left at the place specified therein;
 - (c) where it has been given in the manner referred to in subsection (1)(c), unless the contrary is proved, at the time when it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

67A Meaning of spouse

- (1) The Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 32DA(6) does not apply to a reference to a spouse in this Act.

- (2) Also, the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36, definition spouse does not apply for this Act.

Part 7 Savings

Division 1 Provision for Adoption of Children Act 1964, Act No. 54 of 1964

68 Savings

- (1A) Without limiting the operation of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954—
- (a) all books, registers and records kept and maintained under the repealed Acts shall be deemed to be so kept and maintained under this Act, and all entries therein shall be deemed to have been made under this Act;
 - (b) all certificates and certified copies of and certified extracts from entries in any register kept and maintained under the repealed Acts and issued under the repealed Acts shall be valid and effectual as if issued under this Act;
 - (c) every adoption order made under the repealed Acts and in force immediately prior to the commencement of this Act shall continue in force and shall, subject to this Act, be valid and effectual as if made under this Act and may be discharged in accordance with this Act;
 - (d) every interim order of adoption made under the repealed Acts and in force immediately prior to the commencement of this Act shall continue in force and shall, subject to this Act, be valid and effectual as if made under this Act until it expires by effluxion of time or is discharged or otherwise determined under this Act;
 - (e) every application for an order for the adoption of a child under the repealed Acts that was pending immediately prior to the commencement of this Act may be continued and dealt with, and proceedings incidental to such an application may be instituted, continued and dealt with, under the provisions of the repealed Acts as if this Act had not come into operation, but an adoption order made pursuant to this paragraph shall have effect as if made under this Act.

- (2) A consent in writing to the adoption of a child by a person or persons given by a person before the commencement of this Act in accordance with the repealed Acts shall, for the purposes of proceedings under this Act for the adoption of the child by the person or persons specified in the consent, be deemed to be a sufficient consent of the person giving the consent.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), sections 28 and 29 (other than subsection (4)) apply in relation to an adoption order made under the repealed Acts as if this Act had been in force when the order was made and the order had been made under this Act.
- (4) In relation to a disposition of property by will or otherwise by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act, or to a devolution of property arising upon the death of a person who in respect of that property died intestate before such commencement, an adoption order referred to in subsection (3) has the same effect as if the repealed Acts had not been repealed.

Division 2 Provision for Adoption of Children (Hague Convention on Intercountry Adoption) Amendment Act 1999

69 Savings—recognition of foreign adoptions under s 38

- (1) This section applies to an adoption to which section 38 applied immediately before the commencement of the Adoption of Children (Hague Convention on Intercountry Adoption) Amendment Act 1999, section 17.
- (2) Section 38, as in force before that commencement, continues to apply to the adoption.

Division 3 Provisions for Adoption of Children Amendment Act 2002

70 Definitions for div 3

In this division—

adoption list means an adoption list existing immediately before the commencement.

commencement means commencement of this section.

deferred means a decision of the chief executive to defer the matter of an application as mentioned in pre-amended section 13B(6)(b).

favourable assessment means a favourable assessment under pre-amended section 13B or by the tribunal on a review of a decision made under that section.

Foreign Children's Adoption List means the Foreign Children's Adoption List as it existed immediately before the commencement.

General Children's Adoption List means the General Children's Adoption List as it existed immediately before the commencement.

pre-amended, in relation to a section, means the section as in force immediately before the commencement.

71 Transfer of names from the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List

- (1) This section's purpose is to provide for persons—
 - (a) who, under section 13A as in force before the commencement, applied for their names to be entered in an adoption list but whose names were not entered in the adoption list before the commencement; or
 - (b) whose names were, before the commencement, entered in an adoption list.
- (2) If, before the commencement, a person applied to become an adoptive parent and to have the person's name entered in the appropriate adoption list but the person's name has not been entered in the appropriate list before the commencement, the person's application is to be dealt with only as follows—

- (a) if the application related to a special needs child or a child of whom the person is a relative—the application is an application under section 13AA;
 - (b) otherwise—the application is an expression of interest in response to an invitation that is received by the chief executive before the closure day for the invitation.
- (3) If, immediately before the commencement, a person is named in the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List and an assessment of the person has not begun, or was begun but was deferred, the chief executive must transfer all information about the person to the expression of interest register.
 - (4) If, immediately before the commencement, a person is named in the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List and an assessment of the person has begun and has not been deferred or completed, the chief executive must—
 - (a) transfer all information about the person to the expression of interest register; and
 - (b) continue with the assessment.
 - (5) If, immediately before the commencement, a person is named in the General Children's Adoption List or Foreign Children's Adoption List and a favourable assessment has been made about the person, the chief executive must transfer all information about the person to the assessment register.
 - (6) If, immediately before the commencement, a person is named in the Special Needs Children's Adoption List or Relative Children's Adoption List, the person's name continues to be entered in the relevant adoption list together with a notation about the person made in the list.

72 Persons on the Foreign Children's Adoption List

- (1) This section applies to assessing persons, as mentioned in section 13AF(4), as suitable to be prospective adopters for children who are resident in another country.

Adoption of Children Act 1964

- (2) The chief executive must—
- (a) assess only prior applicants until each prior applicant has been removed from the expression of interest register; and
 - (b) assess the prior applicants in the order in which their names were included in the Foreign Children's Adoption List.
- (3) However, despite subsection (2)(a), for responding to the placement needs of children resident in another country, the chief executive may assess other persons if the chief executive considers it is necessary to assess those other persons because of the overseas criteria of the other country.
- (4) Also, despite subsection (2)(b), the chief executive may assess prior applicants other than in the order in which their names were included in the Foreign Children's Adoption List if—
- (a) each prior applicant due to be assessed before the prior applicant or prior applicants that the chief executive proposes to assess agrees to the postponement of the assessment; or
 - (b) the chief executive considers it is necessary to depart from the order to respond to the placement needs of children resident in another country because of—
 - (i) the welfare and interests of children resident in the other country; or
 - (ii) the overseas criteria of the other country.

Example of paragraph (b)(i)—

A prior applicant previously adopted a child from Hong Kong and applied to adopt a second child from Hong Kong. Hong Kong advises that the previously adopted child has a sibling who also requires an adoptive family. It would be for the welfare and in the interests of the child in Hong Kong (and the previously adopted child in Australia) to assess the prior applicant before other prior applicants.

- (5) In this section—

another country means a country outside of the Commonwealth and the Territories of the Commonwealth.

other persons means persons whose names are entered in the expression of interest register but who are not prior applicants.

overseas criteria means criteria, preferences or requirements given to the chief executive by an entity with functions about adoption in another country, relating to adopting a child from that other country, including—

- (a) the number of prospective adopters about which the chief executive may send information to the entity at any one time; or
- (b) the characteristics that the other country or entity requires of prospective adopters in relation to the placement needs of children resident in that other country.

prior applicants means persons about whom information is, under section 71(3), transferred to the expression of interest register because, immediately before the commencement, the persons' names are entered in the Foreign Children's Adoption List.

73 Right to apply for review, and reviews not completed, before commencement

- (1) If a person was, immediately before the commencement, entitled to apply for a review of a reviewable matter, the person's right to apply for a review continues as if the amendment Act had not commenced.
- (2) If a person had, before the commencement, applied to the tribunal for a review of a reviewable matter, the tribunal must continue to deal with the application for the review as if the amendment Act had not commenced.
- (3) If, as a result of an application to the tribunal for a review of a reviewable matter as mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) or an application or appeal to a court relating to the reviewable matter, the person's name is not to be removed from an adoption list or a favourable assessment of the person is made, section 71 applies in relation to the entry of the person's name in the adoption list as if that entry existed immediately before the commencement of section 71.
- (4) In this section—amendment Act means the Adoption of Children Amendment Act 2002.

reviewable matter means a decision or assessment that may be the subject of an application for a review of the decision or assessment under pre-amended section 14D.

74 Expectations not otherwise dealt with under ss 71, 72 and 73

- (1) If, immediately before the commencement, a person has—
 - (a) an expectation in relation to the chief executive assessing persons under the pre-amended section 13B(1); or
 - (b) an expectation in relation to the chief executive assessing persons, as mentioned in pre-amended section 13B(7), in the order in which names are included in the Foreign Children’s Adoption List or the General Children’s Adoption List;
 the expectations are extinguished.
- (2) If, immediately before the commencement, a person has an expectation in relation to the chief executive having regard to the order of names in the General Children’s Adoption List as mentioned in pre-amended section 18, the expectation is extinguished.
- (3) In this section—

expectation includes right, privilege, entitlement and eligibility.

75 Chief executive may ask for criminal histories in limited cases

- (1) This section applies to a person if—
 - (a) the chief executive was entitled, before the commencement of this section, to request a person to disclose the person’s criminal history and the chief executive has not done so; and
 - (b) the person’s name is, under section 71(3), (4) and (5), entered in the expression of interest register or assessment register or continues to be entered in an adoption list.

- (2) The person is a person to whom section 14B applies and the chief executive may, under that section, ask the person to disclose the person's criminal history.

Division 4 Provision for Adoption Act 2009

76 Who is a birth parent for pt 4A

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before the commencement of this section, an order was made under this Act for the adoption of a child; and
 - (b) the father's consent to the adoption was purportedly given or dispensed with by an order of a court under this Act; and
 - (c) the child's parents were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception and, at the time of the purported consent or dispensation mentioned in paragraph (b), had not since married each other; and
 - (d) the child had not previously been adopted.
- (2) For the purpose of section 39A, definition birth parent, the giving of, or dispensation with, the consent is taken to be as valid as if the father were an appropriate person for giving the consent under section 19.

Schedule Hague convention

section 6, definition Hague convention

CONVENTION ON PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND COOPERATION IN RESPECT OF INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION

The States signatory to the present Convention,

Recognising that the child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding,

Recalling that each State should take, as a matter of priority, appropriate measures to enable the child to remain in the care of his or her family of origin,

Recognising that intercountry adoption may offer the advantage of a permanent family to a child for whom a suitable family cannot be found in his or her State of origin,

Convinced of the necessity to take measures to ensure that intercountry adoptions are made in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights, and to prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children,

Desiring to establish common provisions to this effect, taking into account the principles set forth in international instruments, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, of 20 November 1989, and the United Nations Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally (General Assembly Resolution 41/85, of 3 December 1986),

Have agreed upon the following provisions—

Schedule (continued)

CHAPTER I—SCOPE OF THE CONVENTION*Article 1*

The objects of the present Convention are—

- a* to establish safeguards to ensure that intercountry adoptions take place in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights as recognised in international law;
- b* to establish a system of cooperation amongst Contracting States to ensure that those safeguards are respected and thereby prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children;
- c* to secure the recognition in Contracting States of adoptions made in accordance with the Convention.

Article 2

1 The Convention shall apply where a child habitually resident in one Contracting State ('the State of origin') has been, is being, or is to be moved to another Contracting State ('the receiving State') either after his or her adoption in the State of origin by spouses or a person habitually resident in the receiving State, or for the purposes of such an adoption in the receiving State or in the State of origin.

2 The Convention covers only adoptions which create a permanent parent-child relationship.

Article 3

The Convention ceases to apply if the agreements mentioned in Article 17, sub-paragraph c, have not been given before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

Schedule (continued)

CHAPTER II—REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONSArticle 4*

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the State of origin—

- a* have established that the child is adoptable;
- b* have determined, after possibilities for placement of the child within the State of origin have been given due consideration, that an intercountry adoption is in the child's best interests;
- c* have ensured that
 - (1) the persons, institutions and authorities whose consent is necessary for adoption, have been counselled as may be necessary and duly informed of the effects of their consent, in particular whether or not an adoption will result in the termination of the legal relationship between the child and his or her family of origin,
 - (2) such persons, institutions and authorities have given their consent freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing,
 - (3) the consents have not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind and have not been withdrawn, and
 - (4) the consent of the mother, where required, has been given only after the birth of the child; and
- d* have ensured, having regard to the age and degree of maturity of the child, that
 - (1) he or she has been counselled and duly informed of the effects of the adoption and of his or her consent to the adoption, where such consent is required,
 - (2) consideration has been given to the child's wishes and opinions,

Schedule (continued)

- (3) the child's consent to the adoption, where such consent is required, has been given freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing, and
- (4) such consent has not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind.

Article 5

An adoption within the scope of the convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the receiving State—

- a* have determined that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt;
- b* have ensured that the prospective adoptive parents have been counselled as may be necessary; and
- c* have determined that the child is or will be authorised to enter and reside permanently in that State.

CHAPTER III—CENTRAL AUTHORITIES AND ACCREDITED BODIESArticle 6

1 A Contracting State shall designate a Central Authority to discharge the duties which are imposed by the Convention upon such authorities.

2 Federal States, States with more than one system of law or States having autonomous territorial units shall be free to appoint more than one Central Authority and to specify the territorial or personal extent of their functions. Where a State has appointed more than one Central Authority, it shall designate the Central Authority to which any communication may be addressed for transmission to the appropriate Central Authority within that State.

Schedule (continued)

Article 7

1 Central Authorities shall cooperate with each other and promote cooperation amongst the competent authorities in their States to protect children and to achieve the other objects of the Convention.

2 They shall take directly all appropriate measures to—

- a* provide information as to the laws of their States concerning adoption and other general information, such as statistics and standard forms;
- b* keep one another informed about the operation of the Convention and, as far as possible, eliminate any obstacles to its application.

Article 8

Central Authorities shall take, directly or through public authorities, all appropriate measures to prevent improper financial or other gain in connection with an adoption and to deter all practices contrary to the objects of the Convention.

Article 9

Central Authorities shall take, directly or through public authorities or other bodies duly accredited in their State, all appropriate measures, in particular to—

- a* collect, preserve and exchange information about the situation of the child and the prospective adoptive parents, so far as is necessary to complete the adoption;
- b* facilitate, follow and expedite proceedings with a view to obtaining the adoption;
- c* promote the development of adoption counselling and post-adoption services in their States;
- d* provide each other with general evaluation reports about experience with intercountry adoption;

Schedule (continued)

- e* reply, in so far as is permitted by the law of their State, to justified requests from other Central Authorities or public authorities for information about a particular adoption situation.

Article 10

Accreditation shall only be granted to and maintained by bodies demonstrating their competence to carry out properly the tasks with which they may be entrusted.

Article 11

An accredited body shall—

- a* pursue only non-profit objectives according to such conditions and within such limits as may be established by the competent authorities of the State of accreditation;
- b* be directed and staffed by persons qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption; and
- c* be subject to supervision by competent authorities of that State as to its composition, operation and financial situation.

Article 12

A body accredited in one Contracting State may act in another Contracting State only if the competent authorities of both States have authorised it to do so.

Article 13

The designation of the Central Authorities and where appropriate, the extent of their functions, as well as the names and addresses of the accredited bodies shall be communicated by each Contracting State to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

CHAPTER IV—PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS
IN INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONArticle 14

Persons habitually resident in a Contracting State, who wish to adopt a child habitually resident in another Contracting State, shall apply to the Central Authority in the State of their habitual residence.

Article 15

1 If the Central Authority of the receiving State is satisfied that the applicants are eligible and suited to adopt, it shall prepare a report including information about their identity, eligibility and suitability to adopt, background, family and medical history, social environment, reasons for adoption, ability to undertake an intercountry adoption, as well as the characteristics of the children for whom they would be qualified to care.

2 It shall transmit the report to the Central Authority of the State of origin.

Article 16

1 If the Central Authority of the State of origin is satisfied that the child is adoptable, it shall—

- a* prepare a report including information about his or her identity, adoptability, background, social environment, family history, medical history including that of the child's family, and any special needs of the child;

Schedule (continued)

- b* give due consideration to the child's upbringing and to his or her ethnic, religious and cultural background;
- c* ensure that consents have been obtained in accordance with Article 4; and
- d* determine, on the basis in particular of the reports relating to the child and the prospective adoptive parents, whether the envisaged placement is in the best interests of the child.

2 It shall transmit to the Central Authority of the receiving State its report on the child, proof that the necessary consents have been obtained and the reasons for its determination on the placement, taking care not to reveal the identity of the mother and the father if, in the State of origin, these identities may not be disclosed.

Article 17

Any decision in the State of origin that a child should be entrusted to prospective adoptive parents may only be made if—

- a* the Central Authority of that State has ensured that the prospective adoptive parents agree;
- b* the Central Authority of the receiving State has approved such decision, where such approval is required by the law of that State or by the Central Authority of the State of origin;
- c* the Central Authorities of both States have agreed that the adoption may proceed; and
- d* it has been determined, in accordance with Article 5, that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt and that the child is or will be authorised to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 18

The Central Authorities of both States shall take all necessary steps to obtain permission for the child to leave the State of origin and to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Schedule (continued)

Article 19

1 The transfer of the child to the receiving State may only be carried out if the requirements of Article 17 have been satisfied.

2 The Central Authorities of both States shall ensure that this transfer takes place in secure and appropriate circumstances and, if possible, in the company of the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents.

3 If the transfer of the child does not take place, the reports referred to in Articles 15 and 16 are to be sent back to the authorities who forwarded them.

Article 20

The Central Authorities shall keep each other informed about the adoption process and the measures taken to complete it, as well as about the progress of the placement if a probationary period is required.

Article 21

1 Where the adoption is to take place after the transfer of the child to the receiving State and it appears to the Central Authority of that State that the continued placement of the child with the prospective adoptive parents is not in the child's best interests, such Central Authority shall take the measures necessary to protect the child, in particular—

- a* to cause the child to be withdrawn from the prospective adoptive parents and to arrange temporary care;
- b* in consultation with the Central Authority of the State of origin, to arrange without delay a new placement of the child with a view to adoption or, if this is not appropriate, to arrange alternative long-term care; an adoption shall not take place until the Central Authority of the State of origin has been duly informed concerning the new prospective adoptive parents;
- c* as a last resort, to arrange the return of the child, if his or her interests so require.

Schedule (continued)

2 Having regard in particular to the age and degree of maturity of the child, he or she shall be consulted and, where appropriate, his or her consent obtained in relation to measures to be taken under this Article.

Article 22

1 The functions of a Central Authority under this Chapter may be performed by public authorities or by bodies accredited under Chapter III, to the extent permitted by the law of its State.

2 Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that the functions of the Central Authority under Articles 15 to 21 may be performed in that State, to the extent permitted by the law and subject to the supervision of the competent authorities of that State, also by bodies or person who—

- a* meet the requirements of integrity, professional competence, experience and accountability of that State; and
- b* are qualified by their ethical standards and by training or experience to work in the field of intercountry adoption.

3 A Contracting State which makes the declaration provided for in paragraph 2 shall keep the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law informed of the names and addresses of these bodies and persons.

4 Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that adoptions of children habitually resident in its territory may only take place if the functions of the Central Authorities are performed in accordance with paragraph 1.

5 Notwithstanding any declaration made under paragraph 2, the reports provide for in Articles 15 and 16 shall, in every case, be prepared under the responsibility of the Central Authority or other authorities or bodies in accordance with paragraph 1.

Schedule (continued)

CHAPTER V—RECOGNITION AND EFFECTS OF
THE ADOPTIONArticle 23*

1 An adoption certified by the competent authority of the State of the adoption as having been made in accordance with the Convention shall be recognised by operation of law in the other Contracting States. The certificate shall specify when and by whom the agreements under Article 17, sub-paragraph c, were given.

2 Each Contracting State shall, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, notify the depositary of the Convention of the identity and the functions of the authority or the authorities which, in that State, are competent to make the certification. It shall also notify the depositary of any modification in the designation of these authorities.

Article 24

The recognition of an adoption may be refused in a Contracting State only if the adoption is manifestly contrary to its public policy, taking into account the best interests of the child.

Article 25

Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that it will not be bound under this Convention to recognise adoptions made in accordance with an agreement concluded by application of Article 39, paragraph 2.

Article 26

1 The recognition of an adoption includes recognition of—

Schedule (continued)

- a* the legal parent-child relationship between the child and his or her adoptive parents;
- b* parental responsibility of the adoptive parents for the child;
- c* the termination of a pre-existing legal relationship between the child and his or her mother and father, if the adoption has this effect in the Contracting State where it was made.

2 In the case of an adoption having the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, the child shall enjoy in the receiving State, and in any other Contracting State where the adoption is recognised, rights equivalent to those resulting from adoptions having this effect in each such State.

3 The preceding paragraphs shall not prejudice the application of any provision more favourable for the child, in force in the Contracting State which recognises the adoption.

Article 27

1 Where an adoption granted in the State of origin does not have the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, it may, in the receiving State which recognises the adoption under the Convention, be converted into an adoption having such an effect—

- a* if the law of the receiving State so permits; and
- b* if the consent referred to in Article 4, sub-paragraphs c and d, have been or are given for the purpose of such an adoption.

2 Article 23 applies to the decision converting the adoption.

Schedule (continued)

CHAPTER VI—GENERAL PROVISIONS*Article 28*

The Convention does not affect any law of a State of origin which requires that the adoption of a child habitually resident within that State take place in that State or which prohibits the child's placement in, or transfer to, the receiving State prior to adoption.

Article 29

There shall be no contact between the prospective adoptive parents and the child's parents or any other person who has care of the child until the requirements of Article 4, sub-paragraphs a to c, and Article 5, sub-paragraph a, have been met, unless the adoption takes place within a family or unless the contact is in compliance with the conditions established by the competent authority of the State of origin.

Article 30

1 The competent Authorities of a Contracting State shall ensure that information held by them concerning the child's origin, in particular information concerning the identity of his or her parents, as well as the medical history, is preserved.

2 They shall ensure that the child or his or her representative has access to such information, under appropriate guidance, in so far as is permitted by the law of that State.

Article 31

Without prejudice to Article 30, personal data gathered or transmitted under the Convention, especially data referred to in Articles 15 and 16, shall be used only for the purposes for which they were gathered or transmitted.

Article 32

1 No one shall derive improper financial or other gain from an activity related to an intercountry adoption.

2 Only costs and expenses, including reasonable professional fees of person involved in the adoption, may be charged or paid.

3 The directors, administrators and employees of bodies involved in an adoption shall not receive remuneration which is unreasonably high in relation to services rendered.

Article 33

A competent authority which finds that any provision of the Convention has not been respected or that there is a serious risk that it may not be respected, shall immediately inform the Central Authority of its State. This Central Authority shall be responsible for ensuring that appropriate measures are taken.

Article 34

If the competent authority of the State of destination of a document so requests, a translation certified as being in conformity with the original must be furnished. Unless otherwise provided, the costs of such translation are to be borne by the prospective adoptive parents.

Article 35

The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall act expeditiously in the process of adoption.

Schedule (continued)

Article 36

In relation to a State which has two or more systems of law with regard to adoption applicable in different territorial units—

- a* any reference to habitual residence in that State shall be construed as referring to habitual residence in a territorial unit of that State;
- b* any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the law in force in the relevant territorial unit;
- c* any reference to the competent authorities or to be public authorities of that State shall be construed as referring to those authorised to act in the relevant territorial unit;
- d* any reference to the accredited bodies of that State shall be construed as referring to bodies accredited in the relevant territorial unit.

Article 37

In relation to a State which with regard to adoption has two or more systems of law applicable to different categories of person, any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the legal system specified by the law of that State.

Article 38

A State within which different territorial units have their own rules of law in respect of adoption shall not be bound to apply the Convention where a State with a unified system of law would not be bound to do so.

Schedule (continued)

1 The Convention does not affect any international instrument to which Contracting States are Parties and which contains provisions on matters governed by the Convention, unless a contrary declaration is made by the States Parties to such instrument.

2 Any Contracting State may enter into agreements with one or more other Contracting States, with a view to improving the application of the Convention in their mutual relations. These agreements may derogate only from the provisions of Articles 14 to 16 and 18 to 21. The States which have concluded such an agreement shall transmit a copy to the depositary of the Convention.

Article 40

No reservation to the Convention shall be permitted.

Article 41

The Convention shall apply in every case where an application pursuant to Article 14 has been received after the Convention has entered into force in the receiving State and the State of origin.

Article 42

The Secretary General of the Hague Conference on Private International Law shall at regular intervals convene a Special Commission in order to review the practical operation of the Convention.

CHAPTER VII—FINAL CLAUSES*Article 43*

1 The Convention shall be open for signature by the States which were Members of the Hague Conference on Private International Law at the time of its Seventeenth Session and by the other States which participated in that Session.

2 It shall be ratified, accepted or approved and the instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, depositary of the Convention.

Article 44

1 Any other State may accede to the Convention after it has entered into force in accordance with Article 46, paragraph 1.

2 The instrument of accession shall be deposited with the depositary.

3 Such accession shall have effect only as regards the relations between the acceding State and those Contracting States which have not raised an objection to its accession in the six months after the receipt of the notification referred to in sub-paragraph b of Article 48. Such an objection may also be raised by States at the time when they ratify, accept or approve the Convention after an accession. Any such objection shall be notified to the depositary.

Article 45

1 If a State has two or more territorial units in which different systems of law are applicable in relation to matter dealt with in the Convention, it may at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession declare that this Convention shall extend to all its territorial units or only to one or more of them and may modify this declaration by submitting another declaration at any time.

Schedule (continued)

2 Any such declaration shall be notified to the depositary and shall state expressly the territorial units to which the Convention applies.

3 If a State makes no declaration under this Article, the Convention is to extend to all territorial units of that State.

Article 46

1 The Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of three months after the deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval referred to in Article 43.

2 Thereafter the Convention shall enter into force—

- a* for each State ratifying, accepting or approving it subsequently, or acceding to it, on the first day of the month following the expiration of three months after the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession;
- b* for a territorial unit to which the Convention has been extended in conformity with Article 45, on the first day of the month following the expiration of three months after the notification referred to in that Article.

Article 47

1 A State Party to the Convention may denounce it by a notification in writing addressed to the depositary.

2 The denunciation takes effect on the first day of the month following the expirations of twelve months after the notification is received by the depositary. Where a longer period for the denunciation to take effect is specified in the notification, the denunciation takes effect upon the expiration of such longer period after the notification is received by the depositary.

Schedule (continued)

Article 48

The depositary shall notify the States Members of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, the other States which participated in the Seventeenth Session and the States which have acceded in accordance with Article 44, of the following—

- a* the signatures, ratifications, acceptances and approvals referred to in Article 43;
- b* the accessions and objections raised to accessions referred to in Article 44;
- c* the date on which the Convention enters into force in accordance with Article 46;
- d* the declarations and designations referred to in Articles 22, 23, 25 and 45;
- e* the agreements referred to in Article 39;
- f* the denunciations referred to in Article 47.

In whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Convention.

Done at The Hague, on the twenty-ninth day of May 1993, in the English and French languages, both texts being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and of which a certified copy shall be sent, through diplomatic channels, to each of the States Members of the Hague Conference on Private International Law at the date of its Seventeenth Session and to each of the other States which participated in that Session.
