Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 December 2009. The reprint—
- shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c))
- incorporates all necessary consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(d)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have also been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—
- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’).

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Classification of Publications Act 1991

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 December 2009]

An Act relating to the classification of publications, certain photographs, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Classification of Publications Act 1991.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

In this Act—

advertisement, for a publication, means any form of advertising for the publication and includes—

(a) advertising, whether visual or audible, whether in the form of written or spoken words or other sounds and whether in a book, paper, magazine, poster, photograph, sketch, program, film or slide or in any other form; and

(b) advertising on a container or wrapping enclosing the publication; and

(c) advertising on the internet;

but does not include—
(d) advertising for an exempt publication; or

(e) advertising, in an imported publication, for a publication that has not been published in Australia; or

(f) advertising by way of a product that—
   (i) refers to, or is derived from, the publication; and
   (ii) is primarily intended to be sold or distributed to the general public or to a section of the general public; and
   (iii) a reasonable person would not consider to be a primary source of classification information for consumers about the publication.

approved wholesaler means a wholesaler of publications who is an approved distributor.

board means the Classification Board established under the Commonwealth Act.

category 1 restricted publication means a publication that is classified as a category 1 restricted publication.

category 2 restricted publication means a publication that is classified as a category 2 restricted publication.

child abuse photograph means a photograph or any other image or material (however produced or reproduced) that—
   (a) depicts or describes in pictorial or other form a person who is, or who looks like, a child under 16 years (whether the person is engaged in sexual activity or not) in a way that is likely to cause offence to a reasonable adult person; and
   (b) is not part of a publication.

child abuse publication means an RC publication that depicts or describes in pictorial or other form a person who is, or who looks like, a child under 16 years (whether the person is engaged in sexual activity or not) in a way that is likely to cause offence to a reasonable adult person.
classification guidelines means the guidelines published under the Commonwealth Act, to the extent they relate to publications.

classified means classified under this Act or the Commonwealth Act.

Code means the National Classification Code under the Commonwealth Act.

code of conduct means a code of conduct that is approved under section 7.

computer game see the Classification of Computer Games and Images Act 1995, schedule 2.

determined markings, for a publication, means the markings for the publication determined under the Commonwealth Act.

director means the director of the board.

film see the Classification of Films Act 1991, section 3.

interim prohibited publication means a publication that is classified as an interim prohibited publication under section 9.

occupier, in relation to a place, includes a person in charge of the place.

place includes—

(a) vacant land or premises; and

(b) a vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

possession, in relation to a publication, includes—

(a) custody or control of the publication; and

(b) an ability or right to obtain custody or control of the publication.

premises includes—

(a) a building or structure, or a part of a building or structure, of any kind; and
(b) the land on which a building or structure is situated; and
(c) a vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

prohibited publication means a publication that—
(a) is a restricted publication; or
(b) is an RC publication; or
(c) is an interim prohibited publication.

publication means any written or pictorial matter, but does not include—
(a) a film; or
(b) a computer game; or
(c) an advertisement for a publication, a film or a computer game.

public place means any place that—
(a) the public is entitled to use; or
(b) is open to, or used by, the public (whether or not on payment of money).

publish includes sell, exhibit, display, demonstrate and distribute.

QCAT information notice means a notice complying with the QCAT Act, section 157(2).

RC publication means a publication that is, or, if classified, would be, classified as RC.

restricted publication means a publication that is, or, if classified, would be classified as category 1 restricted or category 2 restricted.

retail seller means a person who sells, in the ordinary course of business, publications supplied by an approved wholesaler.

sell means sell, exchange or let on hire, and includes—
(a) offer, invite to treat or expose for sale or hire; and
(b) agree to sell or hire; and
(c) cause or permit to be sold or hired.

submittable publication see section 5 of the Commonwealth Act.

unrestricted publication means a publication that is, or, if classified, would be, classified as unrestricted.

4 Classification under Commonwealth Act

(1) If a classification of a publication has not been made under this Act and a classification of that publication is made under the Commonwealth Act, the classification of the publication made under the Commonwealth Act has effect for the purposes of this Act.

(2) If—

(a) a classification of a publication made under this Act is in force; and

(b) a different classification of the publication is subsequently made under the Commonwealth Act;

the latter classification does not have effect for the purposes of this Act.

5 Inspectors

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the chief executive may appoint any of the following persons to be an inspector—

(a) a public service officer;

(b) a police officer.

Note—

A proposed appointment of a police officer must have the approval of the commissioner of the police service under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 13.

(2) The chief executive may appoint a person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to be an inspector only if the chief executive believes the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an inspector.

(3) The chief executive may issue an identity card to an inspector who is not a police officer.

(4) The identity card must—
   (a) contain a recent photograph of the inspector; and
   (b) be in a form approved by the chief executive.

(5) A person who ceases to be an inspector must, as soon as practicable, return his or her identity card to the chief executive.

Maximum penalty for contravention of this subsection—5 penalty units.

6 Publications classification officer

(1) There is to be a publications classification officer.

(2) The publications classification officer is to be an officer of the department.

6A Delegation by publications classification officer

The publications classification officer may, with the written approval of the chief executive, delegate the officer’s powers under this Act to another officer of the department.

7 Approval of codes of conduct

Codes of conduct developed between the publications classification officer and distributors, sellers or other persons involved in the business of selling (whether by wholesale or retail) or distributing publications may be approved by regulation.
8 Approved distributors

(1) The publications classification officer must approve a distributor if—
   (a) the distributor undertakes to comply with all relevant codes of conduct; and
   (b) the publications classification officer is satisfied that the distributor is a genuine distributor, is a fit and proper person and is capable of complying with the codes.

(2) The publications classification officer must publish particulars of an approval under subsection (1) by gazette notice and any other prescribed means of publication.

(3) If the publications classification officer refuses to approve a person as distributor, the publications classification officer must give written notice of the refusal to the person within 14 days of the refusal and must state in the notice the reasons for the refusal.

(4) The approval of an approved distributor may be revoked by written notice given to the distributor if the publications classification officer is satisfied that the distributor—
   (a) is not complying, or is not able to comply, with all relevant codes of conduct; or
   (b) has ceased to be a distributor; or
   (c) has ceased to be a fit and proper person.

(5) The publications classification officer must publish particulars of a revocation of approval under subsection (4) by gazette notice and any other prescribed means of publication.

(6) A person to whom notice is given under subsection (3) or (4) may, within 28 days after receipt of the notice, appeal to the Magistrates Court exercising jurisdiction at or nearest to the place where the person carries on, or proposes to carry on, business as a distributor.

(7) The appeal must be instituted by—
   (a) lodging written notice of appeal with the clerk of the relevant Magistrates Court; and
(b) serving a copy of the notice on the publications classification officer.

(8) The notice of appeal must specify the grounds of appeal and the facts relied on.

(9) Rules of court made under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921 apply, with all necessary modifications, with respect to the institution, conduct and determination of the appeal.

(10) The publications classification officer is a party to the appeal.

(11) If—

(a) the publications classification officer has revoked the approval of a distributor; and

(b) the distributor has appealed under this section to a Magistrates Court;

a magistrate may, on application made by the distributor, suspend the revocation for such period as the magistrate determines.

(12) A suspension of revocation lapses on the withdrawal or final determination of the appeal.

Part 2 Classification of publications

9 Classification of publications

(1) If a classification of a publication is not in force under this Act, the publications classification officer may, on his or her own initiative or on the complaint of a person, classify a publication as—

(a) unrestricted; or

(b) category 1 restricted; or

(c) category 2 restricted; or

(d) RC.
(2) The publications classification officer is to make a classification under subsection (1) applying the relevant provisions of the Commonwealth Act as if they were provisions of this Act.

(3) The publications classification officer may, without making a classification under subsection (1), classify a publication as an interim prohibited publication.

(4) The publications classification officer must not classify a publication as an interim prohibited publication unless the publications classification officer is of the opinion that the publication is either a restricted publication or an RC publication.

(5) A classification under this section is effective immediately.

9A Power to require publisher to submit application for classification of a publication

(1) If—

(a) the director or the publications classification officer reasonably believes a publication is a submittable publication; and

(b) it is being published in the State, or the director or the publications classification officer reasonably believes it will be published in the State;

the director or the publications classification officer may, by written notice given to its publisher, require the publisher to submit an application for classification of the publication, or its subsequent issues, by the board.

(2) For the requirement under subsection (1) to have effect—

(a) if the director makes the requirement—the director must cause notice of the requirement to be published in the Commonwealth gazette; or

(b) if the publications classification officer makes the requirement—the officer must cause notice of the requirement to be gazetted.
(3) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must comply with the notice within 3 business days after receiving it.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

9B Power to require certain advertisements to be submitted for approval

(1) The director or the publications classification officer may, by written notice given to the publisher of a publication that—

(a) the director or the publications classification officer reasonably believes is a submittable publication; and

(b) is being published in Queensland, or the director or the publications classification officer reasonably believes will be published in Queensland; require the publisher to submit to the board for approval a copy of each advertisement used or intended to be used in connection with the publication.

(2) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must comply with the notice within 3 business days after receiving it.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

9C Defence to prosecution under section 9A or 9B

In relation to a publication the director or the publications classification officer reasonably believes is a submittable publication that will be published in Queensland, it is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under section 9A or 9B for the defendant to prove that the defendant did not intend to publish, or authorise or cause someone else to publish, the publication in Queensland.

10 Reclassification of publications

If the publications classification officer is satisfied that a publication that has been classified under this Act should have 11 Review by QCAT of classification decision by publications classification officer

(1) If the publications classification officer makes a decision classifying a publication, a person whose interests are adversely affected by the decision may apply, as provided under the QCAT Act, to QCAT for a review of the decision.

(2) The QCAT Act, section 157 does not apply to the decision.

Note—
However, the person may obtain a written statement of the reasons for the decision under the QCAT Act, section 158 or 159.

Part 2A Protection of children and families by conditions for displaying certain unrestricted publications

11A Definitions for pt 2A

In this part—

cover, of a publication, includes a box, label, covering or other packaging for the publication.

depiction includes description, expression or other dealing with.

inappropriate matter means a matter of sex (including sexuality of the body), drug misuse or addiction, crime, cruelty, violence or revolting or abhorrent phenomena.

officer means the publications classification officer.
Protection of children and families by order prohibiting display of unrestricted publication unless certain parts of its cover are concealed

(1) The officer may, by gazette notice, make an order (a display order) prohibiting the display of a specified unrestricted publication for sale at any public place to which children have access unless—

(a) the rack or other thing that may be holding the publication is at least 1.5m above the floor or ground, as the case may be; or

(b) the pictures, drawings and other images on the publication’s cover are concealed by the rack or other thing that may be holding the publication; or

(c) the pictures, drawings and other images on the publication’s cover are concealed by a cover; or

(d) the pictures, drawings and other images on the publication’s cover can not be seen without being handled.

(2) A display order may only be made if the officer is satisfied the order is necessary to protect children or families.

(3) In deciding whether to make a display order, the officer must assume that, generally, it is not in the best interests of children and families to display a publication’s cover to children without proper adult supervision if the cover contains—

(a) a gratuitous depiction of inappropriate matter; or

(b) inappropriate matter on which there is an undue emphasis or undue focus.

(4) Also, in deciding whether to make a display order, the officer must take into account any submission received under subsection (5).

(5) If the officer proposes to make a display order, the officer must, if practicable, notify the publication’s publisher—

(a) that the officer proposes to make a display order; and
(b) which issue of the publication it is proposed to specify in the order; and
(c) that the publisher may make a submission about the proposal in writing, but not by mail; and
(d) a number to which a submission may be faxed; and
(e) an address at which a submission may be lodged; and
(f) the closing time for receiving a submission.

(6) A display order may be made on the complaint of a person or on the officer’s own initiative.

(7) A display order is not subordinate legislation.

11C Publications for which display order may be made

(1) A display order may be made for an existing or future publication.

(2) However, a display order may only be made for a future publication if the officer is also satisfied that, at some time within the previous 2 years, another publication has been available for sale, as a new publication, at a public place and—

(a) the other publication—

(i) had the same name as the future publication; or
(ii) traded on the goodwill attaching to the name of the future publication (whether or not it had a similar name); and

(b) a display order is being made, or could be made if necessary, for the other publication as an existing publication.

(3) A display order may specify the following publications—

(a) a particular issue or issues of a named publication;
(b) all existing issues of a named publication;
(c) all future issues of a named publication;
(d) all future issues of a publication whose name is a derivative of a named publication;
(e) all future publications—
   (i) whose cover indicates that the publication is a continuation or modification of, or a replacement for, the named publication; or
   (ii) that, to the knowledge of the person displaying the publication, trades on the goodwill attaching to the name of the named publication (whether or not the publications have similar names).

(4) A display order must state the following—
   (a) the date the order commences;
   (b) that it is an offence to contravene the order;
   (c) the maximum penalty for a contravention of the order;
   (d) the general effect of the defences provided under section 20C(2) and (3);
   (e) a person whose interests are adversely affected by the order may—
      (i) apply, as provided under the QCAT Act, to QCAT for a review of the decision to make the order; or
      (ii) apply, under section 11D, to have the order lifted.

(5) Also, a display order—
   (a) must be published by the officer in a newspaper circulating throughout Queensland; and
   (b) commences on the date specified in the order being a date not less than 2 days after the day of publication in the newspaper.

(6) If a display order is made and the officer knows the identity of, and a way of communicating with, the distributor involved, the officer must promptly notify the distributor of the order.
11D   Lifting of display order, and review rights and procedure

(1) A person whose interests are adversely affected by a display order may apply, in writing, to the chief executive to have the display order lifted.

(2) The application must—

(a) state the applicant’s name and address; and

(b) show why the applicant is a person whose interests are adversely affected by the order; and

(c) state the reasons why the order should be lifted; and

(d) contain a statement of the intentions of the publisher of the publications affected by the order about the content of the covers of future publications affected by the order; and

(e) contain a copy of each publication, issued in the previous year, that was affected by the display order.

(3) A display order may be lifted if the chief executive is satisfied, from the material in the application, that the order is no longer necessary to protect children or families.

(4) If the chief executive decides to lift a display order, the chief executive must promptly—

(a) give the applicant written notice that the order has been lifted; and

(b) publish notice in the gazette that the order has been lifted.

(5) If the application is refused, the chief executive must give the applicant a QCAT information notice for the decision to refuse the application.

(6) A person whose interests are adversely affected by a display order, or a refusal to lift a display order, has the same right of review as is available under section 11 against a decision to classify a publication, and that section applies to the review with any changes necessary.
(7) The QCAT Act, section 157 does not apply to the decision of the officer to make a display order.

Note—

However, a person may obtain a written statement of the reasons for the decision under the QCAT Act, section 158 or 159.

11E Register of display orders

(1) The chief executive must keep a computerised or other register of all current display orders including the terms of each order.

(2) A person may, on payment of the fee fixed under subsection (3)—

(a) inspect the register during ordinary business hours; or

(b) obtain a copy of part or all of the register.

(3) The fee must be an amount that—

(a) the chief executive considers is reasonable; and

(b) is not more than the reasonable cost of providing the inspection or copy.

Part 3 Offences

12 Sale etc. of prohibited publication or child abuse photograph

A person must not advertise, sell or distribute, or attempt to advertise, sell or distribute, a prohibited publication or child abuse photograph.

Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or 13 Possession of prohibited publication

A person must not have possession of a prohibited publication for the purpose of publishing it.

Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or
(b) in the case of an RC publication (other than a child abuse publication)—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year; or
(c) in the case of a child abuse publication or child abuse photograph—600 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

14 Possession of child abuse publication or child abuse photograph

A person must not knowingly have possession of a child abuse publication or child abuse photograph.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

15 Exhibition or display of prohibited publication or child abuse photograph

A person must not exhibit or display, or attempt to exhibit or display, a prohibited publication or child abuse photograph—

(a) in a public place; or
(b) in such a way that it is visible to persons in or on a public place.
16 Leaving prohibited publication or child abuse photograph in or on public place

A person must not leave, or attempt to leave, a prohibited publication or child abuse photograph in or on a public place with intent to cause offence to another person or with reckless disregard to the offence that could be caused to another person.

Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or

(b) in the case of an RC publication (other than a child abuse publication)—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year; or

(c) in the case of a child abuse publication or child abuse photograph—600 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

17 Producing prohibited publication

(1) A person must not print or otherwise make or produce, or attempt to print or otherwise make or produce, a prohibited publication for the purpose of publishing it.
Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or

(b) in the case of an RC publication (other than a child abuse publication)—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year; or

(c) in the case of a child abuse publication—800 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years.

(2) A person must not copy, or attempt to copy, a prohibited publication for the purpose of publishing it.

Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months; or

(b) in the case of an RC publication (other than a child abuse publication)—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year; or

(c) in the case of a child abuse publication—800 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years.

(3) A person must not print or otherwise make or produce, or attempt to print or otherwise make or produce, a child abuse publication.

Maximum penalty—800 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years.

(4) A person must not copy, or attempt to copy, a child abuse publication.

Maximum penalty—800 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years.

18  Procurement of minor for RC publication or child abuse photograph

A person must not procure, or attempt to procure, a minor to be in any way concerned in the making or production of an RC publication or child abuse photograph.
Maximum penalty—
(a) in the case of a child abuse publication—1000 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years; or
(b) in any other case—800 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years.

19 Distributors, retail sellers and advertisers not liable in certain circumstances

(1) A retail seller is not guilty of an offence against section 12, 13 or 15 in relation to a prohibited publication that was supplied by an approved wholesaler, or by a person whom the retail seller believed on reasonable grounds was an approved wholesaler, if—
(a) at the time of the alleged offence, the publication is not classified; or
(b) at the time of the alleged offence—
   (i) the publication is classified; and
   (ii) the retail seller does not know that the publication is a prohibited publication.

(2) An approved wholesaler is not guilty of an offence against section 12 or 13 in relation to a prohibited publication if—
(a) at the time of the alleged offence, the publication is not classified; or
(b) at the time of the alleged offence—
   (i) the publication is classified; and
   (ii) the distributor does not know that the publication is a prohibited publication.

(3) A person who advertises a publication is not guilty of an offence against section 12 if the person does not know, and has no reason to suspect, that the publication is a prohibited publication.
20 Leaving prohibited publication or child abuse photograph in or on private premises

A person must not knowingly or recklessly leave, or attempt to leave, a prohibited publication or child abuse photograph in or on private premises without the occupier’s permission.

Maximum penalty—

(a) in the case of a restricted publication—25 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 month; or

(b) in the case of an RC publication (other than a child abuse publication)—150 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months; or

(c) in the case of a child abuse publication or child abuse photograph—300 penalty units or imprisonment for 1 year.

20A Offence to publish a publication classified unrestricted without its determined markings

A person must not publish, or attempt to publish, a publication classified unrestricted unless it bears its determined markings.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

20B Offence to publish a publication with a misleading or deceptive marking

A person must not publish an unclassified publication with a marking indicating the publication is classified.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

20C Offence to contravene a display order for an unrestricted publication

(1) A person must not contravene a display order made under section 11B.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

(2) It is a defence for the person to prove that—
(a) either—

(i) the prohibited display was caused by a customer, or someone else, not under the person’s control; or

(ii) if the display was caused by a person under the person’s control—the person took reasonable steps to ensure the other person’s compliance with the order; and

(b) the person followed a system for periodically taking action, throughout the trading day, to rectify prohibited displays at the place to which the charge relates.

(3) It is also a defence for the person to prove that the person relied on the omission of an order from, or other defect in, the register kept under section 11E not knowing, and not having reason to know, of the defect.

20D  Sale or delivery of publications contrary to conditions

If a publication is classified unrestricted subject to a condition imposed under section 13A of the Commonwealth Act, a person must not sell or deliver the publication except in accordance with the condition.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.

20E  Consumer advice for unrestricted publications

A person must not sell a publication classified unrestricted for which the board has determined consumer advice under section 20(2) of the Commonwealth Act unless the consumer advice is displayed on the publication or the packaging of the publication.

Maximum penalty—25 penalty units.
Part 4  Investigation and enforcement

21 Inspector to produce identity card
An inspector who is not a police officer is not entitled to exercise powers under this part in relation to another person unless the inspector first produces the inspector’s identity card for inspection by the person.

22 Entry and search—monitoring compliance
(1) Subject to subsection (2), an inspector may, for the purpose of finding out whether the requirements of this Act are being complied with—
   (a) enter or board any place; and
   (b) exercise the powers set out in section 24.

(2) An inspector must not enter or board a place, or exercise a power under subsection (1), unless—
   (a) the occupier of the place (if any) consents to the entry or boarding or exercise of the power; or
   (b) a warrant under section 25 authorises the entry or exercise of the power; or
   (c) the place is premises, or that part of premises, to which the public are admitted (whether or not for consideration) and the entry is made when members of the public attend or the premises are open for admission by the public.

(3) An inspector who is permitted by this section to enter or board a vehicle, vessel or aircraft may, for the purpose of effecting the entry or boarding and for the purpose of exercising any powers that the inspector is permitted to exercise, stop and detain the vehicle, vessel or aircraft.
23 Entry and search—evidence of offences

(1) Subject to subsection (3), if an inspector has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is in or on a place a particular thing (the evidence) that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act, the inspector may—

(a) enter or board the place; and

(b) exercise the powers set out in section 24.

(2) If an inspector enters or boards the place and finds the evidence, the following provisions have effect—

(a) the inspector may seize the evidence;

(b) subject to section 35, the inspector may keep the evidence for 1 year or, if a prosecution for an offence against this Act in the commission of which the evidence may have been used or otherwise involved is instituted within that period, until the completion of the proceedings for the offence and of any appeal from the decision in relation to the proceedings;

(c) if the evidence is a document—while the inspector has possession of the document, the inspector may take extracts from and make copies of the document but must allow the document to be inspected at any reasonable time by a person who would be entitled to inspect it if it were not in the inspector’s possession.

(3) An inspector must not enter or board the place or exercise a power under subsection (1) unless—

(a) the occupier (if any) of the place consents to the entry or boarding or exercise of the power; or

(b) a warrant under section 26 that was issued in relation to the evidence authorises the entry or boarding or exercise of the power.

(4) If in the course of searching the place under subsection (1) under a warrant under section 26, an inspector—
(a) finds a thing that the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds to be—
  (i) a thing (other than the evidence) that will afford evidence of the commission of the offence mentioned in subsection (1); or
  (ii) a thing that will afford evidence of the commission of another offence against this Act; and
(b) the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to seize the thing to prevent—
  (i) its concealment, loss or destruction; or
  (ii) its use in committing, continuing or repeating the offence mentioned in subsection (1), or the other offence, as the case may be;

subsection (2) applies to the thing as if it were the evidence.

24 General powers of inspector in relation to places

(1) The powers an inspector may exercise under section 22(1)(b) or 23(1)(b) in relation to a place are as follows—
(a) to search any part of the place;
(b) to inspect or examine anything in or on the place;
(c) to take extracts from, and make copies of, any documents in or on the place;
(d) to take into or onto the place such equipment and materials as the inspector requires for the purpose of exercising any powers in relation to the place;
(e) to require the occupier or any person in or on the place to give to the inspector reasonable assistance in relation to the exercise of the inspector’s powers mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d).

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement made under subsection (1)(e).

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
(3) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to answer a question or produce a document if answering the question, or producing the document, might tend to incriminate the person.

25 Monitoring warrants

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to a particular place (other than a dwelling or that part of premises used as a dwelling).

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath, that it is reasonably necessary that the inspector should have access to the place for the purpose of finding out whether the requirements of this Act are being complied with.

(3) If the magistrate requires further information concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought, the magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the inspector or some other person has given the information to the magistrate in the form (either orally or by affidavit) that the magistrate requires.

(4) The warrant must—

(a) authorise the inspector, with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable—

(i) to enter the place; and

(ii) to exercise the powers set out in section 24; and

(b) state whether the entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and

(c) specify the day (not more than 6 months after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and

(d) state the purpose for which the warrant is issued.
26 Offence related warrants

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to a particular place.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or there may be within the next 72 hours, in or on the place a particular thing (the evidence) that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act.

(3) If the magistrate requires further information concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought, the magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the inspector or some other person has given the information to the magistrate in the form (either orally or by affidavit) that the magistrate requires.

(4) The warrant must—

(a) authorise the inspector, with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable—

(i) to enter the place; and

(ii) to exercise the powers set out in section 24; and

(iii) to seize the evidence; and

(b) state whether the entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and

(c) specify the day (not more than 7 days after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and

(d) state the purposes for which the warrant is issued.

27 Offence related warrant may be granted by telephone

(1) If, because of circumstances of urgency, an inspector considers it necessary to do so, the inspector may, under this section, apply by telephone for a warrant under section 26.
(2) Before applying for the warrant, the inspector must prepare an information of the kind mentioned in section 26(2) that sets out the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is sought.

(3) If it is necessary to do so, an inspector may apply for the warrant before the information has been sworn.

(4) If the magistrate is satisfied—

(a) after having considered the terms of the information; and

(b) after having received such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought;

that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant, the magistrate may, under section 26, complete and sign such warrant as the magistrate would issue under that section if the application had been made under that section.

(5) If the magistrate completes and signs the warrant—

(a) the magistrate must—

(i) tell the inspector what the terms of the warrant are; and

(ii) tell the inspector the day on which and the time at which the warrant was signed; and

(iii) record on the warrant the reasons for granting the warrant; and

(b) the inspector must—

(i) complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the magistrate; and

(ii) write on the form of warrant the name of the magistrate and the day on which and the time at which the magistrate signed the warrant.

(6) The inspector must also, not later than the day after the day of expiry or execution of the warrant (whichever is the earlier), send to the magistrate—
(a) the form of warrant completed by the inspector; and

(b) the information mentioned in subsection (2), which must have been duly sworn.

(7) When the magistrate receives the documents mentioned in subsection (6), the magistrate must—

(a) attach them to the warrant that the magistrate completed and signed; and

(b) deal with them in the way in which the magistrate would have dealt with the information if the application for the warrant had been made under section 26.

(8) A form of warrant duly completed by the inspector under subsection (5) is authority for any entry, search, seizure or other exercise of a power that the warrant signed by the magistrate authorises.

(9) If—

(a) it is material, in a proceeding, for a court to be satisfied that an entry, search, seizure or other exercise of power was authorised by this section; and

(b) the warrant completed and signed by the magistrate authorising the exercise of power is not produced in evidence;

the court must assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the exercise of power was not authorised by such a warrant.

28 Additional power of inspector to seize publications

(1) If—

(a) a complaint is made to the publications classification officer about a publication; and

(b) the publications classification officer reasonably believes that the publication is a prohibited publication;

the publications classification officer may direct an inspector to seize the publication from any place that the inspector may lawfully enter or board.
(2) The inspector may seize the publication from any such place.

(3) An inspector who seizes a publication under subsection (2) must, as soon as practicable, submit the publication to the publications classification officer for classification.

(4) If a publication seized under subsection (2) is classified as an unrestricted publication, the inspector must immediately return the publication.

29 Inspector may require name and address

(1) An inspector who—

(a) finds a person committing, or finds a person that the inspector reasonably suspects of having committed, an offence against this Act; or

(b) is making inquiries or investigations with a view to establishing whether or not an offence against this Act has been committed by a person; or

(c) is reasonably of the opinion that the name and address of a person is required for the purpose of—

(i) giving effect to a provision of this Act; or

(ii) enabling the inspector to carry out the inspector’s functions under this Act;

may require the person to state the person’s name and address and, if the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that the name or address given is false, may require evidence of its correctness.

(2) A person who is required under subsection (1) to state the person’s name or address must not—

(a) fail to comply with the requirement; or

(b) state a false name or address.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
Classification of Publications Act 1991
Part 4 Investigation and enforcement

(3) A person who is required under subsection (1) to give evidence of the correctness of a name or address must not fail to give the evidence or give false evidence.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

30 Obstruction etc. of inspectors

A person must not, without reasonable excuse, obstruct, hinder or resist an inspector in the exercise of a power under this Act.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

31 False or misleading statements

A person must not—

(a) make a statement to an inspector that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or

(b) omit from a statement made to an inspector any matter or thing without which the statement is, to the knowledge of the person, misleading in a material particular; or

(c) give to an inspector a document containing information that the person knows is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular without—

(i) indicating to the inspector that the document is false, misleading or incomplete and the respect in which the document is false, misleading or incomplete; and

(ii) providing correct information to the inspector if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
32 Evidentiary provisions

(1) In a proceeding for an offence against this Act, a certificate signed or purporting to be signed by the publications classification officer stating that—

(a) a specified publication has been classified (and specifying the classification); or

(b) a specified publication has not been classified; or

(c) a specified publication would, if classified, on a relevant date or during a period of time, have been classified (and specifying the classification); or

(d) a specified publication is a prohibited publication;

is on its production in the proceeding evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(2) In a proceeding for an offence against this Act, it is not necessary to prove the authority of the complainant to institute the proceeding.

33 Indictable offences and summary offences

(1) An offence—

(a) against section 18; or

(b) against another provision of this Act involving a child abuse publication or child abuse photograph; is punishable on indictment.

(2) Any other offence against this Act is punishable summarily.

(3) An indictable offence against this Act may, at the election of the defendant, be heard and determined summarily.

(4) A complaint under the Justices Act 1886 for a summary offence against this Act may be made only by—
(a) the publications classification officer; or
(b) a person authorised in writing by the Minister.

34 Forfeiture

(1) If a person is convicted of an offence against this Act that relates to a prohibited publication or child abuse photograph, the court by or before which the person is convicted may, in addition to imposing any penalty, order that the publication, photograph or anything used in connection with the commission of the offence be forfeited.

(2) A publication, photograph or thing that is forfeited under subsection (1) may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with as directed by the Minister.

35 Return of seized publications or photographs

(1) An inspector who seizes a publication must, unless otherwise ordered by a court, return the publication to the person who is entitled to possession of it if—

(a) it is not required as evidence in a proceeding for an offence against this or any other Act; and

(b) all proceedings (if any) instituted for an offence in relation to the publication are finally determined (whether or not on appeal) and no person has been convicted of an offence against this or any other Act in relation to the publication.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a child abuse publication.

(3) An inspector who seizes a child abuse photograph must not return it to the person who is entitled to possession of it.

36 Unrestricted publication not indecent or obscene

An unrestricted publication is not an indecent or obscene publication for the purposes of the Criminal Code.
37 Exemptions

(1) The publications classification officer may, in writing, on the written application of a person or body, exempt the person or body from this Act, or specified provisions of this Act, in relation to specified publications or child abuse photographs, subject to specified conditions (if any).

(2) An exemption may only be given for publications or photographs that are—

(a) of a medical, educational or scientific character; or

(b) intended to be used by the person or body for a medical, educational or scientific purpose.

(3) For so long as an exemption under subsection (1) remains in force and all conditions (if any) specified in it are complied with—

(a) this Act, or the provisions of this Act specified in the exemption, do not apply to the person or body, and the publications or photographs, in relation to which the exemption was given; and

(b) the publications or photographs are not indecent or obscene publications or photographs for the purposes of the Criminal Code.

(4) The publications classification officer may revoke an exemption given under subsection (1) if the person or body to whom it is given fails to comply with a condition to which the exemption is subject.

(5) If an application made by a person or body under subsection (1) is not accepted (in whole or part) or an exemption is revoked under subsection (4)—

(a) the publications classification officer must give the person or body a QCAT information notice for the decision; and

(b) the person or body may apply, as provided under the QCAT Act, to QCAT for a review of the decision.
38 Regulation-making power

(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

(2) A regulation may prescribe maximum penalties of fines of not more than 20 penalty units for offences against a regulation.

Part 6 Savings and transitional provisions

Division 1 Act No. 78 of 1991

40 Savings and transitional

(1) Literature forfeited or retained under the Objectionable Literature Act 1954, and not destroyed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with that Act at the commencement of this section, is to be retained, destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Minister directs.

(2) The destruction, retention or disposal of literature under subsection (1) does not confer a right to compensation.

Division 2 Consumer Law and Other Justice Legislation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1996

41 Existing classifications

A publication refused classification under this Act or the Commonwealth Act before the commencement of this section is taken to be a publication classified as RC under this Act or the Commonwealth Act, respectively, immediately after the commencement.
Division 3
Justice Legislation Amendment Act 2008

42 Definitions for div 3

In this division—

commencement means the commencement of this section.

43 Existing appeals

(1) This section applies to an appeal started under previous section 11(1) or previous section 37(5)(b) but not ended before the commencement of this section.

(2) The appeal may continue and be decided as if the amending Act had not been enacted.

(3) In this section—

previous, followed by a provision number, means the provision as in force immediately before the commencement.

44 Existing entitlements to appeal

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—

(a) a person was entitled to appeal against a decision mentioned in section 11(1) or 37(5)(b) (the relevant provision) and had not started the appeal; and

(b) the period mentioned in the relevant provision for starting the appeal had not ended.

(2) This Act as amended by the amending Act applies to the appeal.
