Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 October 2010. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Revised edition indicates further material has affected existing material. For example—

- a correction
- a retrospective provision
- other relevant information.

- (b) the adult is not the subject of a containment or seclusion approval.

Notes—

- 1 Under the GAA, chapter 5B, a relevant service provider other than the department must apply for a containment or seclusion approval jointly with the chief executive.
- 2 If the adult is the subject of an existing containment or seclusion approval, see subdivision 3 for changing the adult's positive behaviour support plan.

123Q    Chief executive to decide whether multidisciplinary assessment of adult will be conducted

- (1) The chief executive must decide whether a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted.

- (2) The chief executive may decide a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted if the chief executive considers it may be necessary for the relevant service provider to contain or seclude the adult to safeguard the adult or others from harm.
- (3) In deciding whether a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will be conducted, the chief executive must consult with, and consider the views of, the following persons—
- (a) the adult;
  - (b) if the adult has a guardian or informal decision-maker—the guardian or informal decision-maker;
  - (c) each relevant service provider providing disability services to the adult;
  - (d) if the chief executive is aware the adult is subject to a forensic order or involuntary treatment order under the Mental Health Act 2000—the authorised psychiatrist responsible for treatment of the adult under that Act;

- (a) the chief executive is not, and could not reasonably be expected to be, aware the person is an informal decision-maker for the adult; or
  - (b) after taking all reasonable steps, the chief executive can not locate the person.

123R Notice of decision not to conduct assessment

If the chief executive decides a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult will not be conducted, the chief executive must give the following persons a decision notice about the decision—

- (a) the relevant service provider;
- (b) the adult;
- (c) a guardian or informal decision-maker for the adult who was consulted by the chief executive under section 123Q(3).

123S Development of positive behaviour support plan following assessment

- (1) This section applies if a multidisciplinary assessment of the adult is conducted.
- (2) The chief executive must develop a positive behaviour support plan for the adult if, having regard to the findings, theories and recommendations of the persons who assessed the adult, the chief executive is satisfied—
  - (a) the adult's behaviour has previously resulted in harm to the adult or others; and
  - (b) it is necessary for the relevant service provider to contain or seclude the adult to safeguard the adult or others from harm; and
  - (c) containing or secluding the adult is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others.
- (3) The positive behaviour support plan must provide for the use of any restrictive practice, including chemical, mechanical or physical restraint or restricting access, that is—
  - (a) when the plan is developed, proposed to be used in relation to the adult by any relevant service provider; and
  - (b) based on the recommendations of the persons who assessed the adult.

- (4) In developing the positive behaviour support plan, the chief executive must consult with, and consider the views of, each person who was consulted under section 123Q(3).
  - (5) If the positive behaviour support plan provides for the use of chemical restraint, the chief executive must—
    - (a) consult the adult’s treating doctor; and
    - (b) inform the adult’s treating doctor about—
      - (i) the findings and theories of the persons who conducted the multidisciplinary assessment about the adult’s behaviour that causes harm to the adult or others, including the factors contributing to the behaviour; and
      - (ii) the strategies, including other restrictive practices, proposed to be used for—
        - (A) meeting the adult’s needs and improving the adult’s capabilities and quality of life; and
        - (B) reducing the intensity, frequency and duration of the adult’s behaviour that causes harm to the adult or others.
  - (6) If the chief executive is not required to develop a positive behaviour support plan for the adult under subsection (2), the chief executive must give the following persons a decision notice about the decision not to develop the plan—
    - (a) the relevant service provider;
    - (b) the adult;
    - (c) a guardian or informal decision-maker for the adult who was consulted under section 123Q(3).

123T Participation of psychiatrist in development of plan—adult subject to forensic order or involuntary treatment order

- (1) This section applies if—

- (a) the chief executive is aware the adult is subject to a forensic order or involuntary treatment order under the Mental Health Act 2000; and
  - (b) the chief executive develops a positive behaviour support plan for the adult under this division.
- (2) The chief executive must ensure the authorised psychiatrist responsible for treatment of the adult under the Mental Health Act 2000 is given the opportunity to participate in the development of the positive behaviour support plan.

Subdivision 3      Changing a positive behaviour support plan

123U    Application of sdiv 3

This subdivision applies if an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval.

123V    Who may change positive behaviour support plan

The positive behaviour support plan for the adult may be changed only by the chief executive.

123W    When chief executive must decide whether positive behaviour support plan should be changed

The chief executive must decide whether a change to the adult's positive behaviour support plan should be made if—

- (a) a relevant service provider asks the chief executive, in writing, to make a change to the plan; or
- (b) the chief executive becomes aware the adult is subject to a forensic order or involuntary treatment order under the Mental Health Act 2000.

Examples of when a relevant service provider might ask for a change—

- A new relevant service provider wants to use a restrictive practice in relation to the adult, including chemical, mechanical or physical restraint or restricting access.
- The relevant service provider to which the containment or seclusion approval applies wants to change a detail stated in the positive behaviour support plan for the adult.
- The containment or seclusion approval is about to expire and the relevant service provider to which the approval applies wishes to apply for a new approval.

123X Requirements for chief executive's decision about whether change should be made

- (1) The chief executive may decide a change should be made to the adult's positive behaviour support plan only if satisfied the change would not—
  - (a) increase the risk of the adult's behaviour causing harm to the adult or others; or
  - (b) decrease the extent to which the adult's needs are met or the adult's capabilities and quality of life are improved.
- (2) For deciding whether a change should be made, the chief executive may arrange for all or part of a multidisciplinary assessment to be conducted, or consult any of the persons listed in section 123Q(3), as the chief executive considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) However, if the chief executive is deciding whether a change should be made because the adult is subject to a forensic order or involuntary treatment order under the Mental Health Act 2000, the chief executive must consult the authorised psychiatrist responsible for treatment of the adult under that Act.
- (4) Subsection (2) applies subject to any order or direction of the tribunal.

123Y Action of chief executive after deciding whether change should be made

- (1) If the chief executive decides a change to the adult's positive behaviour support plan should be made, the chief executive must decide whether the change requires a GAA application to be made.
- (2) The change requires the making of a GAA application if it—
  - (a) is inconsistent with the terms of an existing containment or seclusion approval; or

Examples—

- The existing containment or seclusion approval approves seclusion for periods of not more than 15 minutes. The change is to increase the maximum period to 30 minutes.
  - The existing containment or seclusion approval applies to relevant service provider A. The change is for relevant service provider B to use a restrictive practice in relation to the adult.
  - The existing containment or seclusion approval is for seclusion. The change is for the additional use of mechanical restraint.
- (b) is requested because an existing containment or seclusion approval is about to expire and the relevant service provider proposes to apply for a further approval.
- (3) If the change does not require the making of a GAA application, the chief executive must make the change and give a copy of the amended plan to the following—
  - (a) the tribunal;
  - (b) the adult;
  - (c) if the adult has a guardian or informal decision-maker—the guardian or informal decision-maker;
  - (d) the relevant service provider to which an existing containment or seclusion approval applies.

- (4) However, the chief executive is not required to give a copy of the amended plan to a person who is an informal decision-maker for the adult if—
- (a) the chief executive is not, and could not reasonably be expected to be, aware the person is an informal decision-maker for the adult; or
  - (b) after taking all reasonable steps, the chief executive can not locate the person.
- (5) As soon as practicable after making the decision mentioned in subsection (1), the chief executive must give a prescribed notice to—

- (a) if the chief executive was required to decide whether a change should be made because of a request made by a relevant service provider—the relevant service provider; or

Note—

If the chief executive decides the change should not be made and the relevant service provider is dissatisfied with the decision, the relevant service provider could apply to the tribunal under the GAA, section 80ZA for review of the existing containment or seclusion approval.

- (b) if the chief executive was required to decide whether a change should be made because the adult is subject to a forensic order or involuntary treatment order under the Mental Health Act 2000—
  - (i) the director of mental health; and
  - (ii) the relevant service provider to which an existing containment or seclusion approval applies.

- (6) In this section—

GAA application means an application to the tribunal for—

- (a) the giving of a new containment or seclusion approval; or
- (b) review of an existing containment or seclusion approval.

prescribed notice means a notice stating the chief executive's decisions about—

- (a) whether a change should be made to the positive behaviour support plan for the adult; and
- (b) if the chief executive decides a change should be made—whether the change requires the making of a GAA application.

Subdivision 4      General requirements for containment or seclusion

123ZA Using chemical, mechanical or physical restraint, or restricting access, with consent of guardian etc.

- (1) A relevant service provider may use chemical, mechanical or physical restraint on, or restrict access of, an adult with an intellectual or cognitive disability if—
- (a) use of the restrictive practice is necessary to prevent the adult’s behaviour causing harm to the adult or others; and
  - (b) use of the restrictive practice is the least restrictive way of ensuring the safety of the adult or others; and
  - (c) either—
    - (i) if the adult is the subject of a containment or seclusion approval—use of the restrictive practice complies with—
      - (A) the approval; and
      - (B) if the containment or seclusion approval is not given as an interim order under the GAA, section 80ZR—a positive behaviour support plan for the adult developed by the chief executive under division 3; or
    - (ii) otherwise—use of the restrictive practice complies with—
      - (A) a positive behaviour support plan for the adult developed by the relevant service provider under this division; and
