Public Sector Ethics Act 1994

Current as at 1 July 2014
Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.

- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.

- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Public Sector Ethics Act 1994

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2014]

An Act about public sector ethics and conduct

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title
   This Act may be cited as the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994.

2 Definitions
   The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

3 Act binds all persons
   This Act binds all persons, including the State.

Part 2 Ethics principles

4 Declaration of ethics principles
   (1) The ethics principles mentioned in subsection (2) are declared to be fundamental to good public administration.
   (2) The ethics principles are—
        • integrity and impartiality
Part 3  Ethics values

Division 1  Nature, purpose and application of ethics values

5  Nature, purpose and application of values

  (1) In recognition of the ethics principles, ethics values are to apply to public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials.

  (2) The values mentioned in division 2 are the ethics values for public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials.

  (3) The ethics values are intended to provide the basis for codes of conduct for public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials and are not of themselves legally enforceable.

Division 2  The ethics values

6  Integrity and impartiality

  In recognition that public office involves a public trust, public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials seek to promote public confidence in the integrity of the public sector and—

  (a) are committed to the highest ethical standards; and

  • promoting the public good
  • commitment to the system of government
  • accountability and transparency.
7 Promoting the public good

In recognition that the public sector is the mechanism through which the elected representatives deliver programs and services for the benefit of the people of Queensland, public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials—

(a) accept and value their duty to be responsive to both the requirements of government and to the public interest; and

(b) accept and value their duty to engage the community in developing and effecting official public sector priorities, policies and decisions; and

(c) accept and value their duty to manage public resources effectively, efficiently and economically; and

(d) value and seek to achieve excellence in service delivery; and

(e) value and seek to achieve enhanced integration of services to better service clients.

8 Commitment to the system of government

(1) In recognition that the public sector has a duty to uphold the system of government and the laws of the State, Commonwealth and local government, public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials—
(a) accept and value their duty to uphold the system of government and the laws of the State, the Commonwealth and local government; and

(b) are committed to effecting official public sector priorities, policies and decisions professionally and impartially; and

(c) accept and value their duty to operate within the framework of Ministerial responsibility to government, the Parliament and the community.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the responsibility of a public service agency, public sector entity or public official to act independently of government if the independence of the agency, entity or official is required by legislation or government policy, or is a customary feature of the work of the agency, entity or official.

9 Accountability and transparency

In recognition that public trust in public office requires high standards of public administration, public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials—

(a) are committed to exercising proper diligence, care and attention; and

(b) are committed to using public resources in an effective and accountable way; and

(c) are committed to managing information as openly as practicable within the legal framework; and

(d) value and seek to achieve high standards of public administration; and

(e) value and seek to innovate and continuously improve performance; and

(f) value and seek to operate within a framework of mutual obligation and shared responsibility between public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials.
Part 4

Codes of conduct for public officials

Division 1

Codes of conduct generally

10 Nature and purpose of codes

(1) In recognition of the ethics principles and values for public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials, codes of conduct are to apply to those agencies, entities and officials in performing their official functions.

(2) The purpose of a code is to provide standards of conduct for public service agencies, public sector entities and public officials consistent with the ethics principles and values.

Division 2

Public service agencies

Subdivision 1

Code of conduct for public service agencies

11 Application of code

(1) The code of conduct for public service agencies—

(a) must relate to all public service agencies; and

(b) applies to all public officials of a public service agency; and

(c) may apply to other persons who are not public officials of a public service agency who have a contract or other agreement with the public service agency.

Examples for paragraph (c)—

• contractors with the agency and their employees
• volunteers with the agency
12 Contents of code

(1) The code of conduct for public service agencies may contain anything the commission chief executive considers necessary or useful for achieving the purpose of a code of conduct.

(2) In particular, the code may provide conduct obligations public officials must comply with.

(3) The code also may contain—

(a) information explaining the purpose of—
   (i) the ethics principles and values generally or a particular ethics principle or value; or
   (ii) standards of conduct generally or a particular standard of conduct; and

(b) information explaining the object intended to be achieved by the application of—
   (i) the ethics principles and values generally or a particular ethics principle or value; or
   (ii) standards of conduct generally or a particular standard of conduct; and

(c) guidelines about the application of an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(d) examples of the operation of an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(e) explanatory notes about an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(f) references to Acts applying to public officials in performing their official functions.

• students on work experience with the agency

(2) The code may make different provision, consistent with the ethics values, for different types of—

(a) public officials; or

(b) persons mentioned in subsection (1)(c).
12A Preparation of code

(1) The commission chief executive must ensure that a code of conduct is prepared for public service agencies.

(2) The commission chief executive must ensure that reasonable steps are taken to consult about the code with—
   (a) public service agencies; and
   (b) public officials to whom the code is to apply; and
   (c) industrial organisations representing the interests of a public official mentioned in paragraph (b); and
   (d) other appropriate entities representing the interests of a public official mentioned in paragraph (b).

12B Approval of code

(1) The Premier may approve a code of conduct for public service agencies prepared under section 12A.

(2) The Premier may approve the code only if it is accompanied by a written statement by the commission chief executive outlining—
   (a) the nature and extent of the consultations that took place during the preparation of the code; and
   (b) the outcome of the consultations.

(3) In deciding whether to approve the code, the Premier must have regard to the statement mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) The code can not apply to a public service agency or a public official of the agency until it is approved by the Premier.

12C Review of code

(1) The commission chief executive must review the code of conduct for public service agencies within 1 year after it is approved under section 12B.

(2) The commission chief executive must subsequently review the code no later than 2 years after the previous review.
Subdivision 2  Standards of practice for public service agencies

12D  Nature and application of a standard of practice

(1) A standard of practice applies additional standards of conduct and behaviour to public officials of a particular public service agency.

(2) A standard of practice must—
(a) have regard to the ethics principles and values; and
(b) support the standards of conduct in the code of conduct for public service agencies.

(3) A standard of practice—
(a) applies to all public officials of the public service agency; and
(b) may apply to other persons who are not public officials of the agency who have a contract or other agreement with the agency.

Examples for paragraph (b)—
- contractors with the agency and their employees
- volunteers with the agency
- students on work experience with the agency

(4) A standard of practice for a public service agency may make different provision, consistent with the ethics values, for different types of—
(a) public officials of the agency; or
(b) persons mentioned in subsection (3)(b).

12E  Preparation of standard

(1) A public service agency may prepare its own standard of practice.
(2) The commission chief executive may issue guidelines for the preparation of a standard of practice by a public service agency.

(3) If a public service agency prepares a standard of practice, the chief executive officer of the agency must ensure that reasonable steps are taken to consult about the standard of practice with—
   (a) public officials to whom the standard is to apply; and
   (b) industrial organisations representing the interests of a public official mentioned in paragraph (a); and
   (c) other appropriate entities representing the interests of a public official mentioned in paragraph (a).

12F Approval of standard

(1) The commission chief executive may approve a standard of practice for a public service agency.

(2) The commission chief executive may approve the standard of practice only if it is accompanied by a written statement by the chief executive officer of the public service agency outlining—
   (a) the nature and extent of the consultations that took place during the preparation of the standard of practice; and
   (b) the outcome of the consultations.

(3) In deciding whether to approve the standard of practice, the commission chief executive must have regard to the statement mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) A standard of practice can not apply to a public service agency or to a public official of an agency until it is approved by the commission chief executive.
12G Review of standard

(1) The chief executive of the public service agency must review a standard of practice for an agency within 1 year after it is approved.

(2) The chief executive of the public service agency must subsequently review the standard of practice no later than 2 years after the previous review.

Subdivision 3 Public officials to comply with code of conduct and standard of practice

12H Compliance with code and standard of practice

A public official of a public service agency must comply with the code of conduct for public service agencies and any standard of practice that applies to the official.

Subdivision 4 Additional responsibilities of chief executive officers

12I Access to ethics principles and values, and code of conduct

The chief executive officer of a public service agency must ensure that each public official of the agency and each person mentioned in section 11(1)(c) has reasonable access to a copy of the following—

(a) the ethics principles and values;

(b) the standards of conduct stated in the code of conduct for public service agencies that apply to the official or person;

(c) any standard of practice that applies to the official or person.

(a) this Act and, in particular, the ethics principles and values; and

(b) the approved code of conduct for public service agencies; and

(c) any standard of practice applying to the agency.

12M Reporting

(1) The commission chief executive must ensure that each report of the commission under the Public Service Act 2008, section 46(1)(fa) includes a statement about the following—

(a) the implementation during the reporting period of the code of conduct for public service agencies;

(b) details of the action taken during the reporting period to comply with section 12A.

(2) The chief executive officer of a public service agency must ensure that each annual report of the agency includes a statement about the following—

(a) the implementation during the reporting period of the code of conduct for public service agencies and any standard of practice applying to the agency;

(b) details of the action taken during the reporting period to comply with sections 12K and 12L.
Division 3
Public sector entities

Subdivision 1
Codes of conduct for public sector entities

13
Application of codes

(1) A code of conduct for a public sector entity—
   (a) must relate to the particular public sector entity; and
   (b) applies to all public officials of the entity; and
   (c) may apply to other persons who are not public officials of the entity who have a contract or other agreement with the entity.

   Examples for paragraph (c)—
   • contractors with the entity and their employees
   • volunteers with the entity
   • students on work experience with the entity

(2) A code of conduct for a public sector entity may make different provision, consistent with the ethics values, for different types of—
   (a) public officials; or
   (b) persons mentioned in subsection (1)(c).

Contents of codes

(1) A code of conduct for a public sector entity may contain anything the responsible authority for the entity considers necessary or useful for achieving the purpose of a code of conduct.

(2) In particular, a code may provide conduct obligations public officials must comply with.

(3) A code also may contain—
   (a) information explaining the purpose of—
(i) the ethics values generally or a particular ethics value; or
(ii) standards of conduct generally or a particular standard of conduct; and

(b) information explaining the object intended to be achieved by the application of—
(i) the ethics values generally or a particular ethics value; or
(ii) standards of conduct generally or a particular standard of conduct; and

(c) guidelines about the application of an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(d) examples of the operation of an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(e) explanatory notes about an ethics principle, value or standard of conduct; and

(f) references to Acts applying to public officials in performing their official functions.

15 Preparation of codes of conduct

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that a code of conduct is prepared for the entity.

16 Consultations in preparation of codes

(1) This section applies to the preparation of a code of conduct for a public sector entity.

(2) The public sector entity’s chief executive officer must ensure that reasonable steps are taken to consult about the code with—

(a) the public officials to whom the code is to apply; and

(b) industrial organisations representing the interests of any of the officials; and
(c) other appropriate entities representing the interests of any of the officials.

17 Approval of codes

(1) The responsible authority for a public sector entity may approve a code of conduct prepared under section 15.

(2) The responsible authority may approve the code of conduct only if it is accompanied by a written statement by the chief executive officer outlining—

(a) the nature and extent of the consultations that took place during the preparation of the code; and

(b) the outcome of the consultations.

(3) In deciding whether to approve the code of conduct, the responsible authority must have regard to the statement mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) The code of conduct can not apply to the public sector entity or to a public official of the entity until it is approved by the responsible authority for the entity.

Subdivision 2 Public officials to comply with codes

18 Compliance with codes

A public official of a public sector entity must comply with the standards of conduct stated in the entity’s code of conduct that apply to the official.
Subdivision 3  Additional responsibilities of chief executive officers

19  Access to ethics values and codes of conduct
    The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that each public official of the entity and each person mentioned in section 13(1)(c) has reasonable access to a copy of the following—
    (a)  the ethics principles and values;
    (b)  the standards of conduct stated in the entity’s code of conduct that apply to the official or person.

20  Publication of codes of conduct
    (1)  The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must publish and keep available for inspection by any person an appropriate number of copies of the entity’s approved code of conduct.
    (2)  To remove any doubt, it is declared that a reference in this section to a person includes a reference to a member of the public.

21  Education and training
    (1)  The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that public officials of the entity are given access to appropriate education and training about public sector ethics.
    (2)  In particular, the education and training must relate to—
        (a)  the operation of this Act; and
        (b)  the application of ethics principles and obligations to the public officials; and
        (c)  the contents of the entity’s approved code of conduct; and
(d) the rights and obligations of the officials in relation to contraventions of the approved code of conduct.

22 Procedures and practices of public sector entities

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that the administrative procedures and management practices of the entity have proper regard to—

(a) this Act and, in particular, the ethics principles and values; and

(b) the entity’s approved code of conduct.

23 Reporting

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that each annual report of the entity includes an implementation statement giving details of the action taken during the reporting period to comply with the following sections—

- section 15 (Preparation of codes of conduct)

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory... requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3003 9601 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
