Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.

- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.

- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Note—
See also the modifying provision for this Act stated in the Fair Trading Inspectors Act 2014, section 6.

Example—

Facts—S is the owner of a place of residence that S appoints R to sell. B buys the place of residence.

Assume for the example that in the following circumstances the following persons are the effective cause of the sale—

- case 1—R
- case 2—X (another property agent)
- case 3—M (S’s mother)
- case 4—S.

If the selling agent is appointed under an exclusive agency, R is entitled to an agreed commission or other reward in accordance with the terms of R’s agreement with S in cases 1, 2, 3 and 4. If the selling agent is appointed under a sole agency, R is entitled to an agreed commission or other reward in accordance with the terms of R’s agreement with S only in cases 1, 2 and 3.

(b) the seller otherwise requires the buyer to pay for a valuation of the property that is not required to be given or to have been given to the buyer before the relevant contract is entered into.

(2) Despite the term or requirement, the seller commits an offence if the seller fails to give the buyer a copy of the valuation before the relevant contract is entered into.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.
(3) The term or requirement is effective only if, before the relevant contract was entered into by the buyer, the buyer received the valuation and, in writing, acknowledged the receipt.

(4) Subsection (3) does not affect subsection (2).

(5) A contravention of subsection (2) does not affect the validity of the relevant contract.

Division 5 Matters to be included in proposed relevant contract

165 Proposed relevant contract to include particular matters when given to buyer for signing

(1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply—

(a) to a seller who gives a proposed relevant contract for the first time to a proposed buyer for signing; and

(b) whether or not the proposed relevant contract has been signed by the seller.

(2) The seller must ensure the proposed relevant contract includes the following conspicuously written words or words to like effect—

‘The contract may be subject to a 5 business day statutory cooling-off period. A termination penalty of 0.25% of the purchase price applies if the buyer terminates the contract during the statutory cooling-off period. It is recommended the buyer obtain an independent property valuation and independent legal advice about the contract and his or her cooling-off rights, before signing.’.

(3) The seller must ensure the words are written in the contract once, immediately above, and on the same page as the place in the contract where the buyer signs to indicate the buyer’s intention to be bound by the contract.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a counteroffer by a seller to a relevant contract proposed by the buyer, unless the property the subject of the proposed relevant contract changes or the buyer changes, if—

(a) the seller amends the proposed relevant contract (whether by amending the text or preparing a new proposed relevant contract) other than by changing the residential property concerned or a party to the contract; and

(b) the seller gives the amended proposed relevant contract to the buyer as a counteroffer.

(5) If subsection (2) or (3) is contravened—

(a) the seller commits an offence if the seller personally gave the proposed relevant contract to the proposed buyer; or

(b) the seller’s agent commits an offence if the seller’s agent gave the proposed relevant contract to the proposed buyer on behalf of the seller.

Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—200 penalty units.

(b) ending at 5p.m. on the fifth business day.
Example—

Assume the buyer receives a copy of the relevant contract from the seller at any time on a Monday. Assume also that the cooling-off period is not affected by a day that is not a business day. The cooling-off period ends at 5 p.m. on the following Friday.

(2) For subsection (1), if the buyer signs the relevant contract after the seller signed it, the buyer is taken to have received a copy of the relevant contract from the seller when the buyer has both signed the relevant contract and communicated the buyer’s acceptance of the seller’s offer to the seller.

167 Waiving or shortening cooling-off period

(1) A person who proposes to enter into a relevant contract as a buyer may waive the cooling-off period for the relevant contract by giving written notice to the seller of the waiver.

(2) A buyer under a relevant contract may shorten the cooling-off period for the relevant contract by giving written notice to the seller of the shortening.

Division 7 Terminating relevant contracts

168 Terminating relevant contract during cooling-off period

(1) A buyer who has not waived the cooling-off period for a relevant contract under section 167 may terminate the contract at any time during the cooling-off period or, if that period has been shortened under section 167(2), the shortened period, by giving a signed notice of termination to the seller.

(2) The seller may deduct from any deposit paid under the relevant contract an amount not greater than the termination penalty.

(3) The seller must, within 14 days after the relevant contract is terminated, refund to the buyer—

(a) any deposit paid under the relevant contract; or

The reference committee’s function is to decide whether conduct of a marketeer that is being investigated under this Act should be the subject of an application to QCAT for a public examination.

181  Reference committee may authorise application for public examination

(1) If the chief executive considers that a public examination may help the chief executive decide whether or not to start a marketeer proceeding against a marketeer, the chief executive may refer the conduct to the reference committee.
(2) After considering all relevant issues, the reference committee may authorise the chief executive to make an application to QCAT for a public examination under subdivision 2.

(3) The reference committee must not authorise the chief executive to make the application unless satisfied—

(a) it is unlikely further investigation of the conduct by an inspector will be effective for deciding whether to start a marketeer proceeding; and

(b) a public examination may help find out whether a marketeer has contravened section 207, 208 or 209; and

(c) it is in the public interest to make the application.

Subdivision 2 Public examinations

182 QCAT may conduct public examination

(1) QCAT may, on the chief executive’s application, conduct a public examination that investigates the conduct of a marketeer to find out whether the marketeer has contravened section 207, 208 or 209.

   attendance notice means an attendance notice issued under this Act.

184 Person must answer particular questions

(1) This section applies if a person being examined at a public examination refuses to answer a question put to the person.

(2) If QCAT requires the person to answer the question, QCAT must advise the person of the following—
   (a) that if the answer might incriminate the person, the person may claim, before giving the answer, that giving the answer might incriminate the person;
   (b) the effect that making the claim will have on the admissibility of the answer in any proceeding against the person.

(3) The person must answer the question, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

(a) has contravened or is contravening section 207, 208 or 209; or
(b) is likely or proposing to engage in conduct that would contravene section 207, 208 or 209.

(2) QCAT may, by order, prohibit the marketeer from engaging in conduct that, alone or together with other conduct, is a contravention of section 207, 208 or 209, until the end of the marketeer proceeding.

(3) QCAT may make an order under this section on the chief executive’s application made without notice to the marketeer but, in that case, QCAT must allow the marketeer a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the order should not be confirmed.
(4) If QCAT, after considering the marketeer’s evidence and representations, if any, and any further evidence or representations of the chief executive, is not satisfied the order should continue in force, QCAT must cancel the order.

(5) A person must not contravene an order under this section.

Maximum penalty—540 penalty units.

(6) In a proceeding against a person under this Act, the making of an order under this section is evidence of the facts or circumstances giving rise to the making of the order.

(4) QCAT may not make an order under this section disqualifying the person from holding a licence or registration certificate if QCAT is satisfied a court has, for the grounds giving rise to the disciplinary proceeding—

(a) been asked to make an order under section 227(3) disqualifying the person from holding a licence or registration certificate; and

(b) declined to do so.

(6) A person must not contravene an order under this section.

   Maximum penalty—540 penalty units.

(7) An order under this section has effect on the giving of a copy of the order to the prohibited person.

188 Orders QCAT may make in a marketeer proceeding

(1) This section applies if, in a marketeer proceeding, QCAT is satisfied a marketeer has contravened section 207, 208 or 209.

(2) QCAT may make 1 or more of the following orders—

(4) However, QCAT may make an order under subsection (2)(a) or (f) against a marketeer who is not licensed or a real estate salesperson only on the basis of evidence, submissions and other information received in accordance with the evidentiary law and practice applicable to a civil proceeding in a Magistrates Court.

3 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3003 9601 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
