

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

(2.) All such regulations shall be laid before Parliament forthwith, if then sitting; and, if not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

If the Legislative Assembly, within the next fourteen sitting days after any regulations have been so laid before such House, resolves that such regulations or any of them ought to be annulled, the same shall after the date of such resolution be of no effect, without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime under such regulations or to the making of any new regulations.

For the purpose of this section the term "sitting days" shall mean days on which the House actually sits for the despatch of business.

AIR NAVIGATION.

1 Geo. VI.
No. 8.
THE AIR
NAVIGATION
ACT, 1937.

An Act to Provide for the Application of the Commonwealth Air Navigation Regulations to and in relation to Air Navigation within the State of Queensland.

[ASSENTED TO 23RD SEPTEMBER, 1937.]

Preamble

WHEREAS at a conference of representatives of the Governments of the Commonwealth and of the States held in April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, it was resolved that there should be uniform rules throughout the Commonwealth applying to air navigation and aircraft and in particular to the airworthiness of aircraft, the licensing and competence of pilots, air traffic rules, and the regulation of aerodromes, and it was agreed that legislation should be introduced in the Parliament of each State to make provision for the application of the Commonwealth Air Navigation Regulations, as in force from time to time, to air navigation and aircraft within the jurisdiction of the State—

Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—
