

ANNO OCTODECIMO

ELIZABETHAE SECUNDAE REGINAE

No. 29 of 1969

An Act to Amend The Queensland Institute of Medical Research Acts 1945 to 1963 in certain particulars

[ASSENTED TO 19TH DECEMBER, 1969]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Short title and citation. (1) This Act may be cited as the Queensland Institute of Medical Research Act Amendment Act 1969.

(2) The Queensland Institute of Medical Research Act of 1945 as subsequently amended is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act as amended by this Act may be cited as the Queensland Institute of Medical Research Act 1945-1969.

2. Amendment of s. 11. Section 11 of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting subsection (1) and inserting in its stead the following subsections:—

“(1) The Governor in Council may appoint a secretary to the Institute and such other professional, technical and clerical officers as he deems necessary to carry out the work of the Institute and for the effectual administration of this Act.

(2) Officers may be appointed without reference to a period of appointment or may be appointed for such period as is approved by the Governor in Council.

(3) Officers appointed without reference to a period of appointment shall be appointed and hold their respective offices under, subject to and in accordance with the Public Service Act 1922-1968.

(4) Officers appointed for a period shall, subject to any applicable award of any industrial court, commission, tribunal or authority, be appointed on such salary and on such terms and conditions as are approved by the Governor in Council and may be reappointed for a further period or further periods by the Governor in Council in his discretion.

(5) An officer of the Public Service who is appointed an officer for a period pursuant to this Act shall—

(a) subject to this Act, and where not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of his appointment as an officer for a period, continue to be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act 1922-1968 and retain his rights, existing and accruing, thereunder whilst he continues to be an officer for a period pursuant to this Act;

(b) where he is at the time of appointment an officer within the meaning of the Public Service Superannuation Act 1958-1968 contributing to the Public Service Superannuation Fund and whilst he continues to be an officer for a period pursuant to this Act, be deemed to continue to be employed as, and to be, an officer within the meaning of the Public Service Superannuation Act 1958-1968.

(6) An officer appointed for a period pursuant to this Act who is not an officer of the Public Service at the time of appointment shall, unless the Governor in Council otherwise determines, be deemed to be an “officer” within the meaning of and for the purposes of the Public Service Superannuation Act 1958-1968.

(7) An officer appointed for a period pursuant to this Act may apply at any time to the Governor in Council to be exempted from any provisions of the Public Service Act 1922-1968 or the Public Service Superannuation Act 1958-1968 that apply to him, and the Governor in Council, on consideration of such application—

(a) may order that the officer be exempt from all or any of such provisions, whereupon he shall be so exempted to the extent ordered; or

(b) may refuse the application.

(8) The Governor in Council, in appointing a secretary to the Institute pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, may appoint as secretary an officer of the Department of Health who may hold such office in conjunction with and in addition to the office for the time being held by him in that Department, and nothing in this Act shall prejudice or in any way affect the application of the provisions of the Public Service Act 1922-1968 to such officer.”;

(b) by renumbering subsection (2) as subsection (9);

(c) by, in subsection (9) as so renumbered—

(i) omitting the words “under subsection (1) of” and inserting in their stead the words “pursuant to”;

(ii) omitting the word “Commissioner” and inserting in its stead the word “Board”.
