Commonwealth Places (Mirror Taxes Administration) Act 1999

Act No. 25 of 1999

An Act to provide for the administration and operation of State taxing laws that are applied as Commonwealth laws in relation to Commonwealth places, and for other purposes

[Assented to 16 June 1999]

The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Commonwealth Places (Mirror Taxes Administration) Act 1999.

Definitions

2. The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

Act binds the Crown

3. This Act binds the State and, in so far as the legislative power of the State permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.

PART 2—ADMINISTRATION AND OPERATION OF STATE TAXING LAWS AS APPLIED LAWS IN RELATION TO COMMONWEALTH PLACES

Arrangements with Commonwealth

4.(1) The Governor may make an arrangement with the Governor-General in relation to the exercise or performance of a power, duty or function (not being a power, duty or function involving the exercise of judicial power) by a State authority under an applied law.

(2) The Governor may arrange with the Governor-General for the variation or revocation of an arrangement made under this section.

Exercise of powers etc. by State authorities

5. Despite any State law, a State authority has any power, duty or function that the Commonwealth Act authorises or requires the authority to exercise or perform.

PART 3—PROCEEDINGSContinuation of proceedings if place found not to be a Commonwealth place*6. If—

- (a) proceedings have been commenced in a court under a law as an applied law; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the State taxing law that corresponds to that law is not excluded by section 52(i) of the Commonwealth Constitution;

then the proceedings must be continued as though they had been commenced under the State taxing law.

Objection not allowable on ground of duplicate proceedings

7. In any proceedings under a State taxing law, an objection must not be allowed merely on the ground that proceedings have been commenced, or are pending, under a corresponding applied law.

Proceedings on certain appeals

8.(1) This section applies to an appeal from a judgment, decree, order or sentence of a court in proceedings under a law as an applied law.

(2) If the court is satisfied that the State taxing law that corresponds to that law is not excluded by section 52(i) of the Commonwealth Constitution, then the court must deal with the appeal as though—

- (a) the proceedings in relation to which the appeal was brought had been brought under the State taxing law; and
- (b) the judgment, decree, order or sentence had been given or made in proceedings brought under the State taxing law.

Certificates about ownership of land

9.(1) In proceedings under a State taxing law (or purporting to be under a State taxing law) in which any question arises as to whether a place is a Commonwealth place, a certificate in writing given by an authorised person about any of the following matters relating to land is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate—

- (a) the ownership of the land, or of an estate or interest in the land, on a date or during a period specified in the certificate;
- (b) the existence and ownership of a right in respect of the land, on a date or during a period specified in the certificate.

(2) A document that purports to be a certificate referred to in subsection (1) must be regarded as being such a certificate, and to have been duly given, unless the contrary is proved.

(3) In this section—

“authorised person” means a person who is a delegate, in respect of any power or function, under section 139 of the Lands Acquisition Act 1989 (Cwlth).

PART 4—VALIDATION AND SAVING

Validation of things purportedly done under an applied law

10. If—

- (a) something purports to have been done under a law as an applied law; and
- (b) the State taxing law that corresponds to that law is not excluded

by section 52(i) of the Commonwealth Constitution;
then that thing must be regarded as having been done under the State taxing law.

Provisions as to operation of applied law and State taxing law if a place ceases to be a Commonwealth place

11.(1) This section applies if an applied law ceases, or ceased, to have effect in relation to a place at a particular time because the place ceases, or ceased, to be a Commonwealth place at that time.

(2) The State taxing law to which the applied law corresponded immediately before that time—

- (a) applies, or must be regarded as having applied, in relation to that place from that time; and
- (b) must be read and construed as though it provided expressly that it was intended to apply in relation to that place from that time.

(3) The following things are not affected—

- (a) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the applied law;
- (b) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of an offence against the applied law;
- (c) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

(4) Any penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in subsection (3)(b) may be imposed as if the applied law had not ceased to have effect.

(5) An investigation, legal proceeding or remedy referred to in subsection (3)(c) may be instituted, continued or enforced as if the applied law had not ceased to have effect.

Provisions as to operation of State taxing law if a place becomes a Commonwealth place

12.(1) This section applies if a State taxing law ceases, or ceased, to have effect in relation to a place at a particular time because the place becomes, or became, a Commonwealth place at that time.

(2) The following things are not affected—

- (a) the previous operation of the State taxing law before that time;
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the State taxing law;
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of an offence against the State taxing law;
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in paragraph (b) or (c).

(3) Any penalty, forfeiture or punishment referred to in subsection (2)(c) may be imposed as if the State taxing law had not ceased to have effect.

(4) An investigation, legal proceeding or remedy referred to in subsection (2)(d) may be instituted, continued or enforced as if the State taxing law had not ceased to have effect.

PART 5—MISCELLANEOUSInstruments referring to applied law

13.(1) This section applies to an instrument or other writing that relates to an act, matter or thing that has a connection with a Commonwealth place.

(2) In so far as—

- (a) the instrument or writing contains a reference to a law as an applied law; and
- (b) the State taxing law that corresponds to that law is not excluded

by section 52(i) of the Commonwealth Constitution;
the reference has effect as if it were a reference to the State taxing law.

Regulation-making power

14. The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

PART 6—AMENDMENT OF LAND TAX ACT 1915Act amended in pt 6

15. This part amends the Land Tax Act 1915.

Amendment of s 9AA (General rebate)

16. Section 9AA, ‘5%’—

omit, insert—

‘15%’.

Amendment of s 62 (Application of certain amendments)

17. Section 62

insert—

‘(2) This Act, as amended by the Commonwealth Places (Mirror Taxes Administration) Act 1999, part 6, applies to land tax levied for the financial year beginning on 1 July 1999 and each subsequent financial year.’.
