Summary Offences Act 2005

Act No. 4 of 2005

An Act to define particular offences that may be dealt with in a summary way, and for other purposes

[Assented to 3 March 2005]

The Parliament of Queensland enacts—

Part 1                      Preliminary

1            Short title

This Act may be cited as the Summary Offences Act 2005.

2            Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3            Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this Act.

4            Notes

A note in the text of this Act is part of this Act.

Part 2                      Offences

Division 1                      Offences about quality of community use of public places

5            Object of div 1

This division has, as its object, ensuring, as far as practicable, members of the public may lawfully use and pass through public places without interference from acts of nuisance committed by others.

6 Public nuisance

- (1) A person must not commit a public nuisance offence.
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.
- (2) A person commits a public nuisance offence if—
  - (a) the person behaves in—
    - (i) a disorderly way; or
    - (ii) an offensive way; or
    - (iii) a threatening way; or
    - (iv) a violent way; and
  - (b) the person's behaviour interferes, or is likely to interfere, with the peaceful passage through, or enjoyment of, a public place by a member of the public.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)—
  - (a) a person behaves in an offensive way if the person uses offensive, obscene, indecent or abusive language; and
  - (b) a person behaves in a threatening way if the person uses threatening language.
- (4) It is not necessary for a person to make a complaint about the behaviour of another person before a police officer may start a proceeding against the person for a public nuisance offence.
- (5) Also, in a proceeding for a public nuisance offence, more than 1 matter mentioned in subsection (2)(a) may be relied on to prove a single public nuisance offence.

7 Review

- (1) As soon as practicable after 1 October 2005, the Crime and Misconduct Commission must review the use of the public nuisance provisions and prepare a report on the review.
- (2) The conduct of the review and the preparation of the report is a function of the Crime and Misconduct Commission for the Crime and Misconduct Commission Act 2001.
- (3) In the course of preparing the report, the Crime and Misconduct Commission must consult with the Minister.

- (4) The Crime and Misconduct Commission must give a copy of the report to the Speaker for tabling in the Legislative Assembly.
- (5) In this section—
public nuisance provisions means the following—
- (a) section 6;
  - (b) the repealed Vagrants, Gaming and Other Offences Act 1931, section 7AA.<sup>1</sup>

8 Begging in a public place

- (1) A person must not—
- (a) beg for money or goods in a public place; or
  - (b) cause, procure or encourage a child to beg for money or goods in a public place; or
  - (c) solicit donations of money or goods in a public place.
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.
- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply to a person who—
- (a) is an individual authorised by a charity registered under the Collections Act 1966 to solicit donations for the charity; or
  - (b) is authorised by a local government to busk in a public place.
- (3) In this section—
procure includes—
- (a) enable; and
  - (b) facilitate.

<sup>1</sup> Vagrants, Gaming and Other Offences Act 1931, section 7AA (Public nuisance)

9 Wilful exposure

- (1) A person in a public place must not wilfully expose his or her genitals, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 2 penalty units; or
- (b) if the offence involves circumstances of aggravation—40 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.
- (2) A person who is so near a public place that the person may be seen from the public place must not wilfully expose his or her genitals so that the person's genitals may be seen from the public place, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 2 penalty units; or
- (b) if the offence involves circumstances of aggravation—40 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.
- (3) It is a circumstance of aggravation for this section for a person to wilfully expose his or her genitals so as to offend or embarrass another person.

10 Being drunk in a public place

A person must not be drunk in a public place.

Maximum penalty—2 penalty units.

Division 2 Offences involving presence on property*11 Trespass

- (1) A person must not unlawfully enter, or remain in, a dwelling or the yard for a dwelling.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (2) A person must not unlawfully enter, or remain in, a place used as a yard for, or a place used for, a business purpose.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

Note—

See the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 391A for safeguards applying to starting proceedings for particular offences in this division.

- (3) This section does not prevent an authorised industrial officer entering a workplace in accordance with the terms of the person's appointment as an authorised industrial officer.<sup>2</sup>

12 Persons unlawfully gathering in or on a building or structure

- (1) Two or more persons must not, together—
- (a) unlawfully enter—
    - (i) any part of a public building or structure or a building or structure used for a business purpose; or
    - (ii) any land occupied by or used in connection with any public building or structure or a building or structure used for a business purpose; or place, do an act or use language that, if done or used by a person in a public place, would be an offence.

Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—10 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (4) This section does not prevent an authorised industrial officer entering a workplace in accordance with the terms of the person's appointment as an authorised industrial officer.

13 Unlawfully entering farming land, etc.

- (1) A person must not unlawfully enter, or remain on, land used for—

- (a) agricultural or horticultural purposes; or
- (b) grazing; or
- (c) animal husbandry.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (2) A person must not unlawfully open, and leave open, any gate, fence or other barrier that encloses all or part of enclosed land used for agricultural or horticultural purposes or for grazing or animal husbandry.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (3) This section does not prevent an authorised industrial officer entering a workplace in accordance with the terms of the person's appointment as an authorised industrial officer.

14 Unregulated high-risk activities

- (1) A person must not unlawfully do any of the following—

- (a) parachute or hang-glide onto a building or structure;
- (b) BASE-jump or hang-glide from a building or structure;
- (c) climb up or down the outside of a building or a structure;
- (d) abseil from a building or structure.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (2) It is not an offence against subsection (1) for a person—
- (a) to do an act mentioned in that subsection involving a building or structure that has been built for use, or is designated for use, for a purpose mentioned in that subsection; or
  - (b) to do an act mentioned in that subsection involving a building or structure for a stunt performed with the permission of the owner of the building or structure and as part of the person's engagement or employment for the production of a cinematographic film or for television; or
  - (c) to climb up or down a building or structure for cleaning, maintaining or repairing the building or structure.
- (3) In addition to any penalty that may be imposed on a person who is found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty to, a charge of an offence against subsection (1), a court hearing the charge of the offence may order the person to pay to a stated person the costs the court decides are the other person's costs of rescuing or attempting to rescue the person.

Division 3                      Possession offences

15            Possession of implement in relation to particular offences

- (1) A person must not possess an implement that is being, or is to be, used—
- (a) for burglary of a dwelling; or
  - (b) for unlawfully entering a place; or
  - (c) for entering a vehicle with intent to commit an indictable offence; or
  - (d) to steal or unlawfully use a vehicle; or
  - (e) to unlawfully injure a person; or
  - (f) to unlawfully damage property.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (2) A person must not possess an implement that has been used—

Schedule 1 (continued)

‘Part 3                      Gaming*‘15      Provisions relocated from the Vagrants, Gaming and Other Offences Act 1931

- ‘(1) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the relocated provisions were not re-enacted by the Summary Offences Act 2005 but merely moved (without re-enactment) from the Vagrants, Gaming and Other Offences Act 1931 to this Act.
- ‘(2) Without limiting subsection (1) and to further remove any doubt, it is also declared that the relocation to this Act of the relocated provisions did not impliedly repeal or amend, or otherwise affect the operation of the relocated provisions or the provisions of any other law and, in particular, did not affect the meaning or effect that the relocated provisions, or the provisions of the other law, had because of the respective times when they were enacted.
- ‘(3) In an Act or document, a reference to a relocated provision may, if the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the provision in this Act.
- ‘(4) In this section—
relocated provisions means the provisions relocated to this Act by the Summary Offences Act 2005, schedule 1, amendment of the Vagrants, Gaming and Other Offences Act 1931.’.
