Division 4

Court and Civil Legislation Amendment Act 2017

83 Definition for division

In this division—

repealed, if followed by a provision number, means the provision of that number as in force from time to time before the commencement.

84 Classification of computer games under repealed s 5

- (1) This section applies in relation to a computer game that, immediately before the commencement, had a classification (the earlier classification) given under repealed section 5.
- (2) From the commencement, the following are taken to have been given under the Commonwealth Act—
 - (a) the earlier classification of the computer game;
 - (b) any consumer advice (the earlier consumer advice) for the computer game determined under the Commonwealth Act, section 20, as applied under repealed section 5(3).
- (3) However, if the computer game is later classified, the earlier classification and the earlier consumer advice stop having effect from when the later classification takes effect.

85 Application of particular modifications of computer games for ss 10A and 21A

To remove any doubt, it is declared that, for sections 10A(3) and 21A(3), an alteration or addition of a computer game may consist of a modification mentioned in the Commonwealth Act, section 20A(2)(a), (d) or (e) or 21(2)(ba) or (3) only if the computer game is classified on or after 1 January 2013.

Note—

See the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment (Classification Tools and Other Measures) Act 2014 (Cwlth), schedule 4, part 2.

86 Ending of exemptions given under repealed s 58 or 59

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, an exemption given under either of the following provisions was in force for an entity—
 - (a) repealed section 58;
 - (b) repealed section 59.
- (2) On the commencement, the exemption ends.

51 Amendment of sch 2 (Dictionary)

- (1) Schedule 2, definitions advertisement, classified, computer games classification officer, exempt computer game and review board—

omit.
- (2) Schedule 2—

insert—

insert—

of an administrative action of an agency

180 Replacement of s 50 (Report and recommendation)

Section 50—

omit, insert—

50 Report and recommendations

- (1) This section applies if the ombudsman considers—
 - (a) the administrative action should be referred to the agency for further consideration; or
 - (b) action can be, and should be, taken to rectify, mitigate or change the effects of, the administrative action; or
 - (c) a practice under which the administrative action was taken should be changed; or
 - (d) any law under which, or on the basis of which, the administrative action was taken should be reconsidered; or
 - (e) reasons, or further reasons, should be given for the administrative action; or
 - (f) any other steps should be taken.
- (2) The ombudsman may—
 - (a) give the principal officer of the agency a report that—
 - (i) states the action the ombudsman considers should be taken; and
 - (ii) makes recommendations the ombudsman considers appropriate; and
 - (b) if the agency is a local government—direct the principal officer to table the report at a meeting of the local government; and
 - (c) if subsection (3) does not apply—give a copy of the report to the responsible Minister for the agency.
- (3) If, during or after the investigation, the ombudsman considers there is evidence of a breach of duty or misconduct on the part of an officer of the agency, the ombudsman—

- (a) must give the principal officer of the agency a report that—
 - (i) states the nature of the breach of duty or misconduct; and
 - (ii) makes recommendations the ombudsman considers appropriate; and
- (b) if the agency is a local government—may direct the principal officer to table the report at a meeting of the local government; and
- (c) may, if the ombudsman considers it appropriate in the circumstances, give a copy of the report to—
 - (i) the responsible Minister for the agency; and
 - (ii) if the agency is a local government—the local government’s mayor.

Note—

The ombudsman must also, under the Crime and Corruption Act 2001, section 38, notify the Crime and Corruption Commission of any matters involving, or possibly involving, corrupt conduct under that Act.

- (4) If the principal officer of a local government is given a report under subsection (2)(a) or (3)(a), the principal officer must—
 - (a) give a copy of the report to all the members, however named, of the local government; and
 - (b) if the principal officer is given a direction under subsection (2)(b) or (3)(b) to table a copy of the report at a meeting of the local government—table the report as directed.

[s 181]

181 Amendment of s 51 (Action after report making recommendations)

(1) Section 51(1), ‘to’—

omit.

(2) Section 51(2) and (3)—

omit, insert—

(2) The ombudsman may ask the principal officer of the agency to give the ombudsman, within a stated time, comments about—

(a) the steps taken or proposed to be taken to give effect to the recommendations; or

(b) if no steps, or only some steps, have been or are proposed to be taken to give effect to the recommendations—the reasons for not taking steps, or all the steps, necessary to give effect to the recommendations.

(3) The ombudsman may give the Premier a copy of the report and a copy of any comments made by or for the principal officer of the agency if—

(a) it appears to the ombudsman that no steps the ombudsman considers appropriate have been taken within a reasonable time after giving the principal officer the report; and

(b) within that time, the ombudsman has considered any comments made by or for the principal officer; and

(c) the ombudsman considers it appropriate.

182 Insertion of new ss 78A–78C

Part 8, division 2—

insert—

78A Restriction on employment or secondment of person

A person may not be employed under section 76 or 78, or seconded under section 77, unless the person has given the ombudsman written consent to obtain the information mentioned in section 78B(1)(a) and (b) in relation to the person's criminal history.

78B Criminal history report

- (1) To decide if a person is suitable to be employed under section 76 or 78, or seconded under section 77, the ombudsman may ask the commissioner of the police service for—
 - (a) a written report about the criminal history of the person; and
 - (b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.
- (2) However, the ombudsman may make the request only if the person has given the ombudsman written consent for the request.
- (3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with the request.
- (4) However, the duty to comply applies only to information in the commissioner's possession or to which the commissioner has access.
- (5) Before using information obtained under subsection (1) to decide if the person should be employed or seconded, the ombudsman must—
 - (a) disclose the information to the person; and
 - (b) allow the person a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the ombudsman about the information.

78C Confidentiality of criminal history information

- (1) This section applies to a person who possesses criminal history information because the person is or was the ombudsman or an officer of the ombudsman.
- (2) The person must not, directly or indirectly, disclose the criminal history information to another person unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (3) The person may disclose the criminal history information to another person—
 - (a) to the extent necessary to perform the person's functions under this Act; or
 - (b) if the disclosure is authorised under an Act; or
 - (c) if the disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law; or
 - (d) if the person to whom the information relates consents to the disclosure; or
 - (e) if the disclosure is in a form that does not identify the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (f) if the information is, or has been, lawfully accessible to the public.
- (4) The ombudsman must ensure the criminal history information is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

- (5) In this section—

criminal history information means a report or information given to the ombudsman under section 78B.

183 Amendment of s 83 (Strategic review of ombudsman office)
