Division 2 Unsuitable meeting conduct

150H What is unsuitable meeting conduct

The conduct of a councillor is unsuitable meeting conduct if the conduct—

(a) happens during a local government meeting;
and

(b) contravenes a behavioural standard.

150I Chairperson may deal with unsuitable meeting
conduct

(1) This section applies if, at a local government meeting, the chairperson of the meeting reasonably believes the conduct of a councillor during the meeting is unsuitable meeting conduct.

(2) The chairperson may make 1 or more of the following orders—

(a) an order reprimanding the councillor for the
conduct;
(b) an order requiring the councillor to leave the place at which the meeting is being held, including any area set aside for the public, and stay away from the place for the rest of the meeting;

(c) if the councillor fails to comply with an order to leave and stay away from the place—an order that the councillor be removed from the place.

(3) If the chairperson makes an order under subsection (2), the chairperson must ensure details of the order are recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Note—

See also sections 150DX and 150DY about recording orders made by the chairperson of a local government meeting under this section in the councillor conduct register.

150J Unsuitable meeting conduct that becomes inappropriate conduct

If the conduct of a councillor at a local government meeting is inappropriate conduct under section 150K(2), the local government—

(a) is not required to notify the assessor about the conduct; and

(b) may deal with the conduct under section 150AG.

Part 3 Dealing with inappropriate conduct, misconduct and corrupt conduct
Division 1 Preliminary

150K What is inappropriate conduct

(1) The conduct of a councillor is inappropriate conduct if the conduct contravenes—
   (a) a behavioural standard; or
   (b) a policy, procedure or resolution of the local government.

(2) Also, the conduct of a councillor is inappropriate conduct if—
   (a) the conduct contravenes an order of the chairperson of a local government meeting for the councillor to leave and stay away from the place at which the meeting is being held; or
   (b) it is part of a course of conduct at local government meetings leading to orders for the councillor’s unsuitable meeting conduct being made on 3 occasions within a period of 1 year.

(3) For subsection (2)(b), the conduct that led to the orders being made, taken together, is the inappropriate conduct.

(4) However, inappropriate conduct does not include conduct that is—
   (a) unsuitable meeting conduct, to the extent the conduct is not conduct mentioned in subsection (2); or
   (b) misconduct; or
   (c) corrupt conduct.
150L What is misconduct

(1) The conduct of a councillor is misconduct if the conduct—

(a) adversely affects, directly or indirectly, the honest and impartial performance of the councillor’s functions, or the exercise of the councillor’s powers; or

(b) is or involves—

(i) a breach of the trust placed in the councillor, either knowingly or recklessly; or

(ii) a misuse of information or material acquired in, or in connection with, the performance of the councillor’s functions, whether the misuse is for the benefit of the councillor or for the benefit, or to the detriment, of another person; or

(c) contravenes any of the following—

(i) an order of the local government or the conduct tribunal;

(ii) the acceptable requests guidelines of the local government under section 170A;

(iii) a policy of the local government about the reimbursement of expenses;

(iv) section 150R, 170(2), 171(3) or 173(4) or (5).

(2) Also, the conduct of a councillor is misconduct if the conduct—

(a) is part of a course of conduct leading to the local government deciding to take action under section 150AG to discipline the councillor for inappropriate conduct on 3 occasions within a period of 1 year; or

(b) is of the same type stated in an order of the local government that if the councillor engages in the same type of conduct again, it will be dealt with as misconduct.

(3) For subsection (2)(a), the conduct that led to the 3 occasions of disciplinary action, taken together, is the misconduct.

(4) It does not matter if the conduct happened outside the State.

150M Application to former councillors

(1) This chapter applies in relation to a person who was, but is no longer, a councillor if the person was a councillor when conduct the subject of a complaint or investigation is alleged to have happened.

(2) For subsection (1), a reference in this chapter to a councillor includes a reference to the person.

150N Duty to notify Crime and Corruption Commission about suspected corrupt conduct not affected

150O Complaints about councillor conduct

(1) A person may make a complaint to the assessor about the conduct of a councillor.

A person may complain to the Crime and Corruption Commission or the department’s chief executive about a councillor’s conduct.

150P Complaints about councillor conduct must be referred to assessor

(2) The government entity must—

(a) refer the complaint to the assessor; and

(b) give the assessor all information held by the entity that relates to the complaint.

(3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if—

(a) the government entity has a duty to notify the Crime and Corruption Commission of the complaint under section 38 of the Crime and Corruption Act 2001; or

Note—

Sections 38 to 40 of the Crime and Corruption Act 2001 state the duties of a public official to notify the Crime and Corruption Commission about corrupt conduct, subject to a direction by the Crime and Corruption Commission.

(b) the government entity has the power to investigate the complaint or the councillor’s conduct under another law and decides to carry out the investigation under that law.

Example—

The police service receives and investigates a complaint alleging a councillor engaged in fraud.

(4) As soon as practicable after receiving the complaint, the assessor must, if the assessor has the contact details of the person who made the complaint, give the person a notice that states—

(a) the assessor has received the complaint from the government entity; and

(b) the assessor will deal with the complaint under this chapter.

(5) In this section—

government entity includes the following—

(a) a local government;

(b) a councillor;

(2) The assessor may give a notice to the person who made the complaint asking the person to give the assessor further information about the complaint within a stated reasonable period.

(3) The assessor may decide not to investigate the conduct if—

(a) the person does not comply with the notice; or

(b) the person complies with the notice but, in the assessor’s opinion, there is still insufficient information to investigate the conduct.

(4) If the assessor decides not to investigate the conduct under subsection (3), the assessor must give the person who made the complaint a notice that states the assessor has decided not to investigate the conduct because there is insufficient information to do so.

Division 3  Local government duties to notify assessor about particular conduct

150R Local government official must notify assessor about particular conduct

(1) This section applies if a local government official becomes aware of information indicating a councillor may have engaged in conduct that would be inappropriate conduct or misconduct other than—

(1) This section applies if—

(a) the assessor is aware of information indicating a councillor may have engaged in conduct that would be inappropriate conduct or misconduct; and

(a) the conduct was not the subject of a complaint made or referred to the assessor under division 2; and

Subdivision 2  Identity cards

150BD Issue of identity card

(1) The assessor must issue an identity card to each investigator.

(2) This section does not prevent the issue of a single identity card to a person for this chapter and other purposes.

150BE Production or display of identity card

(1) In exercising a power in relation to a person in the person’s presence, an investigator must—
(a) produce the investigator’s identity card for the person’s inspection before exercising the power; or

(2) However, if it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the investigator must produce the identity card for the person’s inspection at the first reasonable opportunity.
(3) For subsection (1), an investigator does not exercise a power in relation to a person only because the investigator has entered a place as mentioned in section 150BI(1)(b).

150BF Return of identity card

If the office of a person as an investigator ends, the person must return the person’s identity card to the assessor within 21 days after the office ends, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Subdivision 3 Miscellaneous provisions

150BG References to exercise of powers

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a provision of this chapter refers to the exercise of a power by an investigator; and

Division 2  Entry of places by investigators

Subdivision 1  Power to enter

150BI General power to enter places

(1) An investigator may enter a place if—

(a) an occupier at the place consents under subdivision 2 to the entry and section 150BL has been complied with for the occupier; or

(b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or

(c) the entry is authorised under a warrant and, if there is an occupier of the place, section 150BS has been complied with for the occupier.

(2) If the power to enter arose only because an occupier of the place consented to the entry, the power is subject to any conditions of the consent and ceases if the consent is withdrawn.

(3) If the power to enter is under a warrant, the power is subject to the terms of the warrant.

(4) In this section—

public place means a place, or part of a place—

Examples of a place that may be a public place under paragraph (b)—

- a saleyard, a showground

Subdivision 2 Entry by consent

150BJ Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if an investigator intends to ask an occupier of a place to consent to the investigator or another investigator entering the place under section 150BI(1)(a).

150BK Incidental entry to ask for access

For the purpose of asking the occupier for the consent, an investigator may, without the occupier’s consent or a warrant—

(a) enter land around premises at the place to an extent that is reasonable to contact the occupier; or

(b) enter part of the place the investigator reasonably considers members of the public ordinarily are allowed to enter when they wish to contact an occupier of the place.

150BL Matters investigator must tell occupier

Before asking for the consent, the investigator must—

(a) explain to the occupier the purpose of the entry, including the powers intended to be exercised; and

(d) that the occupier gives the investigator or another investigator consent to enter the place and exercise the powers; and

(e) the day and time the consent was given; and

(f) any conditions of the consent.

(3) If the occupier signs the acknowledgement, the investigator must immediately give a copy to the occupier.

(4) If—
(a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether the occupier consented to the entry; and

(b) a signed acknowledgement complying with subsection (2) for the entry is not produced in evidence;

the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry to prove the occupier consented.

Subdivision 3  Entry under warrant

150BN Application for warrant

(1) An investigator may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place.

(2) The investigator must prepare a written application that states the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(3) The written application must be sworn.

(4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the investigator gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the written application to be given by statutory declaration.

150BO Issue of warrant

(1) The magistrate may issue the warrant for the place only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a particular thing or activity that may provide evidence of an offence against a conduct provision—
(a) is at the place; or
(b) will be at the place within the next 7 days.

(2) The warrant must state—
(a) the place to which the warrant applies; and
(b) that a stated investigator may with necessary and reasonable help and force—
(i) enter the place and any other place necessary for entry to the place; and
(ii) exercise the investigator’s powers; and

150BP Electronic application
(1) An application under section 150BN may be made by phone, fax, email, radio, videoconferencing or another form of electronic communication if the investigator reasonably considers it necessary because of—
(a) urgent circumstances; or
(b) other special circumstances, including, for example, the investigator’s remote location.

(2) The application—
(a) may not be made before the investigator prepares the written application under section 150BN(2); but
(b) may be made before the written application is sworn.

150BQ Additional procedure if electronic application

(1) For an application made under section 150BP, the magistrate may issue the warrant (the original warrant) only if the magistrate is satisfied—
(a) it was necessary to make the application under section 150BP; and
(b) the way the application was made under section 150BP was appropriate.

(2) After the magistrate issues the original warrant—
(a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the warrant to the investigator, including, for example, by sending a copy by fax or email, the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the warrant to the investigator; or
(b) otherwise—
(i) the magistrate must tell the investigator the information mentioned in section 150BO(2); and
(ii) the investigator must complete a form of warrant, including by writing on it the information mentioned in section 150BO(2) provided by the magistrate.
(3) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection (2)(a), or the form of warrant completed under subsection (2)(b) (in either case the duplicate warrant), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant.

(4) The investigator must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—

(a) the written application complying with section 150BN(2) and (3); and

(b) if the investigator completed a form of warrant under subsection (2)(b), the completed form of warrant.

(5) Despite subsection (3), if—

(a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and

(b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence;

the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power.

(6) This section does not limit section 150BN.

150BR Defect in relation to a warrant

(1) A warrant is not invalidated by a defect in—

(a) the warrant; or

(b) compliance with this subdivision;

unless the defect affects the substance of the warrant in a material particular.

(2) In this section—

warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 150BQ(3).
150BS Entry procedure

(1) This section applies if an investigator named in a warrant issued under this subdivision for a place is intending to enter the place under the warrant.

(2) Before entering the place, the investigator must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—

(a) identify himself or herself to a person who is an occupier of the place and is present by producing the investigator’s identity card or another document evidencing the investigator’s appointment;

(b) give the person a copy of the warrant;

(c) tell the person the investigator is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;

(d) give the person an opportunity to allow the investigator immediate entry to the place without using force.

(3) However, the investigator need not comply with subsection (2) if the investigator reasonably believes that entry to the place without compliance is required to ensure the execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(4) In this section—

warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 150BQ(3).

Division 3 General powers of investigators after entering places

150BT Application of division

(1) The powers under this division may be exercised if an investigator enters a place under section 150BI(1).

(2) However, if the investigator enters under section 150BI(1)(a) or (c), the powers under this division are subject to any conditions of the consent or terms of the warrant.

150BU General powers

(1) The investigator may do any of the following (each a general power)—

(a) search any part of the place;

(b) inspect, examine or film any part of the place or anything at the place;

(c) take for examination a thing, or a sample of or from a thing, at the place;

(d) place an identifying mark in or on anything at the place;

(e) take an extract from, or copy, a document at the place, or take the document to another place to copy;

(f) produce an image or writing at the place from an electronic document or, to the extent it is not practicable, take a thing containing an electronic document to another place to produce an image or writing;

(g) take to, into or onto the place and use any person, equipment and materials the investigator reasonably requires for exercising the investigator’s powers under this chapter;

(h) remain at the place for the time necessary to achieve the purpose of the entry.

(2) The investigator may take a necessary step to allow the exercise of a general power.

(3) If the investigator takes a document from the place to copy it, the investigator must copy the document and return it to the place as soon as practicable.

(4) If the investigator takes from the place an article or device reasonably capable of producing a document from an electronic document to produce the document, the investigator must produce the document and return the article or device to the place as soon as practicable.

(5) In this section—

(2) When making the help requirement, the investigator must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

150BW Offence to contravene help requirement

(1) A person of whom a help requirement has been made must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with a help requirement if complying might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.

Division 4 Seizure by investigators

Subdivision 1 Power to seize

150BX Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered only with consent or warrant

(1) This section applies if—

(a) an investigator is authorised to enter a place only with the consent of an occupier of the place or a warrant; and

(b) the investigator enters the place after obtaining the consent or under a warrant.

(2) If the investigator enters the place with the occupier’s consent, the investigator may seize a thing at the place only if—

(a) the investigator reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against a conduct provision; and

(b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as explained to the occupier when asking for the occupier’s consent.

(3) If the investigator enters the place under a warrant, the investigator may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.

(4) The investigator may also seize anything else at the place if the investigator reasonably believes—
(a) the thing is evidence of an offence against a conduct provision; and
(b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being hidden, lost or destroyed.

150BY Seizure of property subject to security
(1) An investigator may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.
(2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person’s claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the investigator or a person acting under the direction or authority of the investigator.

Subdivision 2 Powers to support seizure
150BZ Power to secure seized thing
(1) Having seized a thing under this division, an investigator may—
(a) leave it at the place it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or
(b) move it from the place of seizure.
(2) For subsection (1)(a), the investigator may, for example—
(a) seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of seizure, and mark the thing or place to show access to the thing or place is restricted; or
(b) for equipment—make it inoperable; or
Example—
make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a component without which the equipment can not be used

(c) require a person the investigator reasonably believes is in control of the place or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or anything else an investigator could do under subsection (1)(a).

(3) When making a requirement of a person under subsection (2)(c), the investigator must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

150CA Offence to contravene seizure requirement
A person must comply with a requirement made of the person under section 150BZ(2)(c), unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

150CB Offence to interfere

(b) a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) If access to a place is restricted under section 150BZ, a person must not enter the place in contravention of the restriction or tamper with anything used to restrict access to the place without—

(a) an investigator’s approval; or

(b) a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

Subdivision 3 Safeguards for seized things

150CC Receipt and information notice for seized thing

(1) This section applies if an investigator seizes anything under this division, unless—

(a) the investigator reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or

(b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the investigator to comply with this section.

(2) The investigator must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—

(a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and

(b) an information notice about the decision to seize it.

(3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.

(4) The receipt and information notice may—

(a) be given in the same document; and

(b) relate to more than 1 seized thing.

(5) The investigator may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the investigator reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the investigator under this chapter.

(6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the investigator continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was seized to keep the place under observation.

150CD Access to seized thing

(1) Until a seized thing is returned, the investigator who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—

(a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and

(b) if it is a document—to copy it.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.

(3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.

150CE Return of seized thing

(1) This section applies if a seized thing is not forfeited under subdivision 4.

(2) As soon as the assessor stops being satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing, the assessor must return it to its owner.

(3) If the thing is not returned to its owner within 3 months after it was seized, the owner may apply to the assessor for its return.

(4) Within 30 days after receiving the application, the assessor must—
(a) if the assessor is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing and decides to retain it—give the owner a notice about the decision, including the grounds for retaining the thing; or

(b) otherwise—return the thing to the owner.

(5) For this section, there are reasonable grounds for retaining a seized thing if—

(a) the thing is being, or is likely to be, examined; or

(b) the thing is needed, or may be needed, for the purposes of—

(i) a proceeding for an offence against a conduct provision that is likely to be started or that has been started but not completed; or

(ii) an appeal from a decision in a proceeding for an offence against a conduct provision; or

(c) it is not lawful for the owner to possess the thing.

(6) Subsection (5) does not limit the grounds that may be reasonable grounds for retaining the seized thing.

(7) Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing.

(8) In this section—

examine includes analyse, test, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify.

Subdivision 4  Forfeiture
150CF Forfeiture by assessor decision

(1) The assessor may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an investigator—

(a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or

(b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner.

(2) However, the investigator is not required to—

(a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or

(b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner.

Example—

The owner of the thing has migrated to another country.

(3) Regard must be had to the thing’s condition, nature and value in deciding—

(a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and

(b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable.

150CG Dealing with property forfeited to State

(1) A thing becomes the property of the State if the thing is forfeited to the State under section 150CF(1).

(2) The assessor may deal with the thing as the assessor considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.
Division 5 Other information-obtaining powers of investigators

150CH Power to require information

(1) This section applies if an investigator reasonably believes—

(a) an offence against a conduct provision has been committed and a person may be able to give the investigator information about the commission of the offence; or

(b) a person has information reasonably necessary for the investigator to investigate the conduct of a councillor.

(2) The investigator may, by notice given to the person, require the person to give the investigator the information by a stated reasonable time.

(3) When making a requirement of a person under subsection (2), the investigator must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

(4) For information that is an electronic document, compliance with the requirement requires the giving of a clear image or written version of the electronic document.

(5) In this section—

information includes a document.

150CI Offence to contravene information requirement

(1) A person of whom a requirement is made under section 150CH(2) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to give the information if giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.

150CJ Power to require attendance

(1) The investigator may require a person to—

(a) attend a meeting with the investigator at a stated reasonable time and place; and

(b) answer questions, related to the investigation of the conduct of a councillor or an offence against a conduct provision, asked by the investigator.

(2) When making a requirement of a person under subsection (1), the investigator must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.

(3) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (1) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(4) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual to fail to answer a question if answering the question might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.

150CK Notice about confidentiality

(1) This section applies if an investigator intends to, or does, exercise a power—

(a) under section 150CH requiring a person to give information to the investigator; or

(b) under section 150CJ requiring a person to attend a place and answer questions.
(2) The assessor may give a notice to the person stating that the fact of the person’s attendance, or information given by the person, is confidential information.

(3) However, the assessor may give the notice to the person only if the assessor reasonably believes the notice is necessary—

(a) to prevent the commission of an offence; or

(b) to ensure the investigation of a councillor’s conduct is kept confidential.

(4) The person must not disclose the confidential information to another person, unless the disclosure is permitted under subsection (5) or the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—85 penalty units.

(5) The person may disclose the confidential information if—

(a) the disclosure was made before the person received the notice; or

(b) the disclosure is made to—

(i) obtain legal advice; or

(ii) obtain information to comply with the investigator’s requirement; or

(iii) comply with another lawful obligation to disclose the information.

(6) However, disclosure by a person (the discloser) under subsection (5)(b)(ii) is permitted only if the discloser informs another person to whom the disclosure is made that the information is confidential information under this section.

Division 6 Miscellaneous provisions relating to investigators
150CL Duty to avoid inconvenience and minimise damage

In exercising a power, an investigator must take all reasonable steps to cause as little inconvenience, and do as little damage, as possible.

Note—
See also section 150CN.

150CM Notice about damage

(1) This section applies if—

(a) an investigator damages something when exercising, or purporting to exercise, a power; or

(b) a person (the assistant) acting under the direction or authority of an investigator damages something.

(2) However, this section does not apply to damage the investigator reasonably considers is trivial or if the investigator reasonably believes—

(a) there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing; or

(b) the thing has been abandoned.

(3) The investigator must give a notice about the damage to a person who appears to the investigator to be an owner, or person in control, of the thing.

(4) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (3), the investigator must—

(a) leave the notice at the place at which the damage happened; and

(b) ensure it is left in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
(5) The investigator may delay complying with subsection (3) or (4) if the investigator reasonably suspects complying with the subsection may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the investigator.

(6) The delay may be only for so long as the investigator continues to have the reasonable suspicion and remains in the vicinity of the place at which the damage happened.

(7) If the investigator believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the thing or other circumstances beyond the control of the investigator or the assistant, the investigator may state the belief in the notice.

(8) The notice must state—
   (a) particulars of the damage; and
   (b) that the person who suffered the damage may claim compensation under section 150CN.

150CN Compensation

(1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs loss because of the exercise, or purported exercise, of a power by or for an investigator, including a loss arising from compliance with a requirement made of the person under division 3, 4 or 5.

(2) The compensation may be claimed and ordered in a proceeding—
   (a) brought in a court with jurisdiction for the recovery of the amount of compensation claimed; or
   (b) for an offence against a conduct provision, or another offence relating to the conduct of a councillor, the investigation of which gave rise to the claim for compensation.

(3) A court may order the payment of compensation only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case.

(4) In considering whether it is just to order compensation, the court must have regard to—

(a) any relevant offence committed by the claimant; and

(b) whether the loss arose from a lawful seizure or lawful forfeiture.

(5) A regulation may prescribe other matters that may, or must, be taken into account by the court when considering whether it is just to order compensation.

(6) Section 150CL does not provide for a statutory right of compensation other than as provided by this section.

(7) In this section—

 loss includes costs and damage.

internal review) of the decision.

150CP Application for review

(1) The application must be—

(a) made within 30 days after—

(i) if the person is given an information notice about the decision—the person is given the information notice; or

(ii) otherwise—the person otherwise becomes aware of the decision; and

(b) in writing; and

(c) supported by enough information to enable the assessor to decide the application.

(2) The assessor may extend the time for making the application if, within the 30-day period applying under subsection (1), the person asks the assessor to extend the time.

150CQ Review decision

(1) Unless the assessor made the original decision personally, the assessor must ensure the application is not dealt with by—

(a) the person who made the original decision; or

(b) a person in a less senior office in the Office of the Independent Assessor than the person who made the original decision.

(2) Within 90 days after the application is made, the assessor must review the original decision and make a decision (the review decision)—
