In this division—

controlled purchase officer means a person authorised to be a controlled purchase officer under section 208A.

controlled purchase operation see section 208B(1).

prescribed offence means an offence against section 65, 161 or 161A.

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice in writing, authorise either of the following persons to be a controlled purchase officer if the person is an adult—
 - (a) a public service employee;
 - (b) a health service employee.
- (2) However, the chief executive may not authorise the person to be a controlled purchase officer unless the chief executive is satisfied the person is appropriately qualified.
- (3) A controlled purchase officer may, for the purposes of a controlled purchase operation, make or attempt to make the purchases authorised under section 208D(2)(e) for the operation.

208B Authorisation of controlled purchase operation

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice in writing, authorise an operation (a controlled purchase operation) the intended purpose of which is to provide a person with an opportunity to commit or to attempt to commit a prescribed offence.

- (2) However, the chief executive may not authorise a controlled purchase operation unless the chief executive is satisfied—
- (a) a prescribed offence has been, is being, or is likely to be committed; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of the prescribed offence mentioned in paragraph (a) justifies the operation; and
 - (c) the operation will not be conducted in a way that makes it likely for a person to be induced to commit a prescribed offence, or any other offence, that the person would not otherwise have intended to commit; and
 - (d) any conduct involved in the operation will not seriously endanger the health or safety of any person; and
 - (e) the operation will be conducted in a way that will ensure the chief executive is immediately notified if a controlled purchase officer engages in—
 - (i) conduct that may seriously endanger the health or safety of any person; or
 - (ii) conduct that may not be authorised under the authority to conduct the operation; and
 - (f) each controlled purchase officer proposed to participate in the operation has received appropriate training for the purpose.

208C Supervision by authorised person

- (1) The controlled purchase operation must be supervised by an authorised person chosen by the chief executive to supervise the operation.
- (2) The authorised person supervising the operation is not authorised to make or attempt to make the purchases authorised under section 208D(2)(e) for the operation.

208D Form of authority

- (1) An authority to conduct a controlled purchase operation must be in writing.
- (2) The authority must state—
 - (a) an identifying name or number for the operation; and
 - (b) the identity of the authorised person responsible for supervising the operation; and
 - (c) the identity of each controlled purchase officer who may make or attempt to make purchases for the operation; and
 - (d) the prescribed offences in relation to which the operation is to be conducted; and
 - (e) a description of the type of purchases the controlled purchase officers may make or attempt to make for the operation; and
 - (f) the places, if any, the controlled purchase officers may enter for the operation; and
 - (g) the websites, online shops or other online accounts or platforms, if any, the controlled purchase officers may access or engage with for the operation; and
 - (h) the period, of not more than 3 months, for which the authority is in effect; and

- (i) the conditions, if any, to which the conduct of the operation is subject; and
 - (j) the date and time when the authority is granted.
- (3) A controlled purchase officer is sufficiently identified for subsection (2)(c) if the person is identified by either of the following that can be matched to the person's identity by the chief executive—
 - (a) an assumed name;
 - (b) a code name or code number.
- (4) A place may be stated under subsection (2)(f) only if the place is a place mentioned in section 181(2).

- (1) The chief executive may vary or cancel an authority to conduct a controlled purchase operation during the period, stated under section 208D(2)(h), for which the authority is in effect.

 - (a) the authorised person responsible for supervising the operation;
 - (b) each controlled purchase officer authorised to make or attempt to make purchases for the operation.

208F Effect of authority

- (1) An authority to conduct a controlled purchase operation, while the authority is in effect, authorises each controlled purchase officer stated in the authority under section 208D(2)(c) to make or attempt to make the purchases authorised under section 208D(2)(e) for the operation.

- (2) The authority given to a controlled purchase officer to engage in conduct mentioned in subsection (1) can not be delegated to any other person.

208G Protection from criminal responsibility

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, a person (the participant) who engages in conduct in a controlled purchase operation in the course of, and for the purposes of, the operation, is not, if engaging in that conduct is an offence, criminally responsible for the offence, if—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) the conduct is authorised by, and is engaged in, in accordance with, the authority for the operation; or
 - (ii) the conduct is ancillary to conduct mentioned in subparagraph (i), including, for example, aiding or enabling the conduct mentioned in subparagraph (i); and
 - (b) the conduct does not involve the participant intentionally inducing a person to commit an offence that the person would not otherwise have intended to commit.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) does not apply if the participant engages in conduct that seriously endangers the health or safety of any person.

208H Effect of being unaware of variation or cancellation of authority

- (1) If an authority to conduct a controlled purchase operation is varied in a way that limits its scope, this division continues to apply to a person authorised to engage in conduct for the purposes of the operation as if the authority had not been varied in that way, for as long as the person—
 - (a) is unaware of the variation; and
 - (b) is not reckless about the existence of the variation.
- (2) If an authority to conduct a controlled purchase operation is cancelled, this division continues to apply to a person authorised to engage in conduct for the purposes of the operation as if the authority had not been cancelled, for as long as the person—
 - (a) is unaware of the cancellation; and
 - (b) is not reckless about the existence of the cancellation.
- (3) For this section, a person is reckless about the existence of the variation or cancellation of an authority if—
 - (a) the person is aware of a substantial risk that the variation or cancellation has happened; and
 - (b) having regard to the circumstances known to the person, it is unjustifiable to continue to engage in conduct that was, but may no longer be, authorised by the authority because of the variation or cancellation.

208I Notification requirements

- (1) If any loss of or serious damage to property happens in the course of or as a direct result of a controlled purchase operation, the authorised person supervising the operation must report the loss or damage to the chief executive as soon as practicable.

- (2) The chief executive must take all reasonable steps to notify the owner of the property of the loss or damage.
- (3) The chief executive is not required to notify the owner of property under this section until the chief executive is satisfied that notification would not—
 - (a) compromise or hinder the operation; or
 - (b) compromise the identity of an authorised person or controlled purchase officer; or
 - (c) endanger the life or safety of any person; or
 - (d) prejudice any legal proceeding; or
 - (e) otherwise be contrary to the public interest.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to property of the department.
- (5) If any personal injury happens in the course of or as a direct result of a controlled purchase operation, the authorised person supervising the operation must report the injury to the chief executive as soon as possible.

208J Admissibility of evidence

Evidence gathered because of a controlled purchase operation is not inadmissible only because the evidence was obtained by a person while engaging in an unlawful act if the unlawful act was authorised under this division.

- (3) The termination day must be at least 14 days after the day the relevant lessor gives the lessee the termination notice.
- (4) The termination notice must—
 - (a) be in the approved form; and

- (b) be given before the end of the closure order.
- (5) Subsection (2) applies—
 - (a) despite any other Act or anything to the contrary in the lease or another agreement or arrangement; and
 - (b) even if the closure order is subsequently revoked, found to have been wrongfully made or found by a court to be invalid.
- (6) The termination is taken—
 - (a) to be a termination of the lease for a repudiation of the lease by the lessee; and

 - (b) the Retail Shop Leases Act 1994, part 8;
 - (c) the Small Business Commissioner Act 2022, part 3.

- (11) If a lease is terminated under this section and the lessee has not removed the lessee's property from the premises under the lease, the relevant lessor may deal with the property as the relevant lessor considers appropriate, including, for example, by disposing of the property.
- (12) This section does not limit or affect any other power of the relevant lessor to terminate the lease or deal with property not removed from the premises.

- (1) If a lease of premises subject to a closure order ends—
 - (a) the order ends when the lease ends; and the premises has ended within 7 days after the end of the lease.

- (2) However, if the premises are leased to the same lessee in the period stated in the closure order, the order is reinstated and ends on the last day of the period stated in the order.
- (3) A person must comply with a requirement to give a notice under subsection (1)(b) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

- (3) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (1) if the relevant lessor has a reasonable excuse for permitting the person to use the premises for the supply or possession of illicit tobacco or illicit nicotine products as part of a business activity.
- (4) The relevant lessor bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (3).

209CF Civil penalty for contravention by relevant lessor

- (1) The chief executive may apply to the court for an order under this section if the chief executive is reasonably satisfied a relevant lessor has contravened section 209CE(1).
- (2) If the court is satisfied the relevant lessor has contravened section 209CE(1), the court may make—
 - (a) an order that the relevant lessor pay the State as a civil penalty—
 - (i) if the relevant lessor is an individual—an amount of not more than the amount that is equivalent to 1,000 penalty units; or
 - (ii) if the relevant lessor is a corporation—an amount of not more than the amount that is equivalent to 5,000 penalty units; and
 - (b) any other order the court considers appropriate.
- (3) In deciding whether a relevant lessor has contravened section 209CE(1), the court may have regard to the following—
 - (a) whether there is a pattern of supply or possession of illicit tobacco or illicit nicotine products at the premises;
 - (b) whether the chief executive has notified the relevant lessor that 1 or more closure orders have been made in relation to the premises;
 - (c) whether the relevant lessor and the person using the premises have an arm's length relationship;

- (d) whether the rent for the premises is significantly above market value or paid well in advance;
 - (e) whether the lease is in writing;
 - (f) whether the relevant lessor has taken steps to terminate the lease of the premises or otherwise prevent the supply or possession of illicit tobacco or illicit nicotine products at the premises.
- (4) However, the court must not make an order under subsection (2) against the relevant lessor if the relevant lessor has a reasonable excuse for permitting the person to use the premises for the supply or possession of illicit tobacco or illicit nicotine products as part of a business activity.
 - (5) The relevant lessor bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (4).
 - (6) The court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil proceedings when hearing a proceeding under this section.
 - (7) Evidence or information acquired under this Act in relation to an offence against section 209CE, including, for example, under a warrant issued under section 184 or under section 215A, is admissible in a proceeding under this section.
 - (8) A contravention of section 209CE(1) found under this section is not an offence.
 - (9) An application for an order in relation to a contravention of section 209CE(1) must be made within 2 years after the contravention or alleged contravention first comes to the notice of the chief executive.

- (3) Otherwise, the proceeding for the contravention of section 209CE(1) is dismissed.
- (4) In this section—

209CH No criminal proceeding after successful civil proceeding

A criminal proceeding for an offence against section 209CE may not be commenced against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct in relation to which an order has been made against the person under section 209CF(2).

209CI Evidence given by individual in civil proceeding not admissible in criminal proceeding

- (1) Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in a criminal proceeding for an offence against the individual if the individual previously gave the information or produced the documents in a civil proceeding against the individual for a contravention of section 209CE(1) (whether or not an order under section 209CF(2) was made).
