5 Insertion of new r 709A

Chapter 17A, part 3, division 1, after rule 709—

insert—

‘709A Failure to serve costs statement

- ‘(1) If a party entitled to be paid costs does not serve a costs statement under rule 705 within a reasonable time, the party liable to pay the costs may, by notice, require the other party to serve a costs statement under rule 705.
- ‘(2) If the party entitled to be paid costs does not serve a costs statement under rule 705 within 30 days after service of a notice under subrule (1), the court may direct the party entitled to be paid costs to serve a costs statement under rule 705 within a stated time.

- ‘(3) If the party entitled to be paid costs does not comply with the court’s direction, the court may—
- (a) either—
- (i) set aside the costs order; or
- (ii) allow costs in a fixed amount, which may be nominal; and
- (b) order the party to pay to another party costs incurred because of the failure to comply with the direction.’.

6 Amendment of r 710 (Application for costs assessment)

Rule 710(1)—

omit, insert—

- ‘(1) This rule applies to a party—
- (a) who has served a costs statement under rule 705; or
- (b) on whom a costs statement under rule 705 is served.
- ‘(1A) The party may, not less than 21 days after service of the costs statement, apply for a costs assessment.’.
