'13 Conduct money—Act, s 97(3)

- ‘(1) A person who is given a notice under section 97(1) of the Act is entitled to be paid an allowance, as conduct money, in an amount sufficient to meet the reasonable expenses of complying with the notice.
- ‘(2) If the reasonable expenses involve travel and accommodation expenses, those components of the expenses are to be calculated as stated in sections 15 and 16.
- ‘(3) The conduct money must be paid to the person—
  - (a) at the time the person is given the notice under section 97(1) of the Act; or
  - (b) within a reasonable time before the person is required to comply with the notice.
- ‘(4) Payment of conduct money is in addition to payment of any other amount to which the person is entitled under section 11 or 12.

'14 Travel expenses

- ‘(1) For section 14(2), the amount of the travel expenses payable to a person who is given a notice under section 97(1) of the Act is—
  - (a) the amount payable for fares on public transport for return travel between the person’s place of employment, practice or residence (whichever is the furthest from the tribunal) and the tribunal; or
  - (b) if there is no public transport available—the amount calculated at the rate per kilometre payable under the Public Service Act 2008 to a public service employee required to use the employee’s private motor vehicle for official purposes, taken to the nearest whole cent.
- ‘(2) If it is reasonable for the person to travel to and from the tribunal by air, the amount of the travel expenses to be paid is the amount payable for economy class air travel by the person to and from the tribunal.

- ‘(3) For calculating travel expenses, in deciding whether public transport is available, regard is to be had to whether a public transport system operates by which a person could conveniently—
- (a) travel to the tribunal in reasonable time before the person is required to attend a hearing or produce a document or other thing; and
  - (b) return to the person’s place of employment, practice or residence (whichever is the furthest from the tribunal) after the person has attended the hearing or produced the document or other thing.
- ‘(4) In this section—
- public transport means any form of passenger transport that is available for use by the public on payment of a fare.

‘15 Accommodation expenses

‘For section 14(2), the amount of the accommodation expenses payable to a person who is given a notice under section 97(1) of the Act is the amount calculated at the rate payable under the Public Service Act 2008 to a public service officer.

‘Part 5 Other provisions

‘16 Prescribed amount

‘For the definition prescribed amount in schedule 3 of the Act, the amount prescribed is $25000.’.
