CHAPTER 5—ADMINISTRATION PART 1—COMPENSATION When compensation is payable 86.(1) The owner of an interest in land (the "owner") is entitled to be 4 paid compensation only if the existing use that may be made of the land is changed by a prohibition imposed by a coastal plan or the declaration of a 6 control district. 7 (2) However, for land other than rural land, the owner is entitled to 8 compensation only if— 9 the owner was the owner at the time of the change; and 10 (b) the owner makes an application for the land; and 11 (c) the application is made within 2 years of the change; and 12 the application clearly indicates that a compensation claim may be (d) 13 made if the application is refused; and 14 the application is refused only because this Act applies to the 15 application. 16 (3) However, for rural land, the owner is entitled to compensation only 17 if— 18 (a) the owner was the owner at the time of the change; and 19 (b) the land was regularly used as rural land during the 2 previous 20 years; and 21 22 (c) the owner makes a written application to the chief executive for compensation. 23 (4) In this section— 24 "application for the land" means— 25

an application to build a structure, the proposed use of which was as of right under the planning scheme as it applied immediately before the change; or

(b) an application for the subdivision of land that is consistent with the provisions of the planning scheme that regulated the subdivision of land immediately before the change.	1 2 3
"existing use" includes a lawful as of right use that may have been made of the land immediately before the change.	4 5
"primary producer" means a person whose major source of income is from primary production.	7
"rural land" means land used only by a primary producer for grazing stock or cultivating crops.	9
Matters for which compensation is not payable	10
87.(1) To remove any doubt, the owner is not entitled to be paid compensation—	11 12
(a) for development, or an activity, unlawfully carried out; or	13
(b) if the change merely requires the development, or an activity, to be carried out on a different part of the land to that preferred by the owner.	14 15 16
(2) If compensation is payable under another Act, the claim for compensation must be made under the other Act.	17 18

(4) If the chief executive fails to decide the claim within 60 days of receiving the claim, the owner may appeal to the court as if the chief executive had decided to reject the claim.	12 13 14
What is reasonable compensation	15
90.(1) Reasonable compensation is (subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4)) an amount equal to the difference between the market value of the interest immediately after the change and what would have been the market value of the interest if the change had not been made.	16 17 18 19
(2) Any benefit the owner obtains from the change is to be taken into account in calculating the reasonable compensation.	20 21
(3) If the owner owns land adjacent to the land for which the payment of compensation is sought, the payment of compensation must also take into account any benefit accruing to the adjacent land because of the change.	22 23 24
(4) If the land for which compensation is claimed has, since the change, become or ceased to be separate from other land, the amount of compensation is not to be increased because it has become or ceased to be separate from other land.	25 26 27 28
Payment of compensation	29
91. The compensation must be paid within 30 days after the last day an	30

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the things to which the court may have regard in making its decision.	9 10
Payment of compensation to be recorded	11
94.(1) As soon as practicable after the compensation is paid, the chief executive must give the registrar of titles written notice that the land is affected by chapter 5, part 1.7	12 13 14
(2) The notice must be in a form approved by the registrar.	15
(3) The registrar must keep the information stated in the notice as information under the Land Title Act 1994 , section 34.	16 17
