‘Complaints against practitioners, their clerks and employees

‘5E.(1) A person (“complainant”) may make a written complaint to the council about the conduct of a practitioner or a practitioner’s clerk or employee.

‘(2) If a complainant claims to have suffered pecuniary loss because of a practitioner’s conduct, the complainant when making the written complaint or at a later time before the complaint is finally dealt with—

- (a) may give notice of a claim for compensation against the practitioner¹ to the council; and
- (b) if notice of the claim is given—must state, to the best of the complainant’s knowledge, the pecuniary loss suffered.

‘(3) The council may require the complainant, within a reasonable stated time—

- (a) to provide further details of the complaint, including any notice about a claim for compensation, in the way the council reasonably directs; and
- (b) to verify the complaint by statutory declaration; and
- (c) if the complaint alleges overcharging by the practitioner—to pay a stated reasonable fee to cover the cost of a costs assessor’s report on the reasonableness of the practitioner’s bill.

‘(4) A complainant who fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (3) is taken to have withdrawn the complaint immediately after the reasonable stated time ends.

‘(5) A complaint under this section must be made to the council within 3 years after the conduct complained of happens.

‘(6) In this section—

“conduct” means—

- (a) for a practitioner—alleged malpractice, professional misconduct,

¹ Notice of a claim for compensation does not affect the complainant’s rights to pursue the claim at law (but see section 6R(6)) and, in particular, does not affect the running of time for the Limitation of Actions Act 1974.

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

or unprofessional conduct or practice; or	1
(b) for a practitioner’s clerk or employee—alleged misconduct or default in relation to the practitioner’s practice.	2 3
‘Council to investigate conduct	4
‘5F.(1) The council must investigate a complaint made under section 5E.	5
‘(2) The council may also investigate the conduct of a practitioner or a practitioner’s clerk or employee at any time if it considers the conduct may amount to—	6 7 8
(a) for a practitioner—malpractice, professional misconduct, or unprofessional conduct or practice; or	9 10
(b) for a practitioner’s clerk or employee—misconduct or default in relation to the practitioner’s practice.	11 12
‘Council’s powers for investigations	13
‘5G. The council may, for an investigation—	14
(a) require a practitioner to give the council, in writing or personally, within a stated reasonable time an explanation of the matter being investigated; or	15 16 17
(b) require a practitioner to appear before the council at a stated reasonable time and place; or	18 19
(c) require a practitioner to produce to the council within a stated reasonable time any document in the practitioner’s custody, possession or control that the practitioner is entitled at law to produce; or	20 21 22 23
(d) engage a costs assessor to report on the reasonableness of a practitioner’s bill of costs.	24 25
‘Practitioners to comply with council’s requirements	26
‘5H.(1) A practitioner must comply with a council requirement under section 5G.	27 28

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

‘(2) If the practitioner fails to comply with the requirement, the council may give the practitioner written notice that if the failure continues for a further 14 days after the notice is given the practitioner may be dealt with for professional misconduct.

‘(3) If notice under subsection (2) is given and the failure continues for the 14 day period—

(a) the practitioner is taken to have committed professional misconduct, unless the practitioner has a reasonable excuse for not complying with the requirement within the period; and

(b) the council may bring a charge of professional misconduct against the practitioner.

‘(4) In a hearing before the tribunal about a charge of professional misconduct, a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (2) and any enclosures with the notice is evidence of the matters in the notice and the enclosures.

‘(5) A practitioner may refuse to give the council an explanation of a matter being investigated if the practitioner satisfies the council that to give the explanation would contravene, or invalidate, a policy for professional indemnity insurance held by the practitioner.

‘Council may facilitate mediation process if parties agree

‘5L.(1) If the council considers that the matter of a complaint is capable of resolution by mediation, the council may suggest to the complainant and the person complained about (the “parties”) that they enter into a process of mediation to resolve the matter of the complaint.

‘(2) If the parties agree to enter into a mediation process, the council may facilitate the mediation to the extent it considers appropriate.

‘Things council may do following investigation

‘5J. The council may do any of the following things after conducting an investigation—

(a) censure or admonish a practitioner;

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

(b) seek and obtain undertakings from a practitioner about the complaint;	1 2
(c) if the complaint was an allegation of overcharging—recommend to a practitioner that the practitioner—	3 4
(i) reduce the practitioner’s bill of costs or refund an amount to the complainant; and	5 6
(ii) if the practitioner’s bill of costs was assessed by a costs assessor at the complainant’s expense—pay to the complainant an amount equal to the amount of the costs assessor’s fee;	7 8 9 10
(d) bring a charge of malpractice, professional misconduct or unprofessional conduct or practice against a practitioner;	11 12
(e) bring a charge of misconduct or default in relation to a practitioner’s practice against a clerk or employee employed in relation to that practice;	13 14 15
(f) dismiss the complaint and take no action in relation to the notice of the claim for compensation.	16 17
‘Delegation under pt 2	18
‘5N.(1) The council may delegate its powers under this part to—	19
(a) a committee established under this Act; or	20
(b) an officer or employee of the society; or	21
(c) a practitioner.	22
‘(2) However, the council may delegate its powers under subsection (1) only if, in the council’s opinion, the committee, officer or employee, or practitioner is appropriately qualified to exercise the power.’	23 24 25

- (b) the legal ombudsman. 24

‘(2) The council or, if the charge was brought by the legal ombudsman, 25

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

the ombudsman must give the tribunal a copy of the particulars of loss received from the complainant. 1
2

‘Hearings involving allegations of overcharging’ 3

‘6K.(1) This section applies if a hearing is concerned with an allegation of overcharging by a practitioner and the council has not already engaged a costs assessor to report on the reasonableness of the practitioner’s bill of costs. 4
5
7

‘(2) The tribunal may— 8

(a) require the complainant to pay a stated reasonable fee to cover the cost of a costs assessor’s report on the reasonableness of the practitioner’s bill; and 9
11

(b) engage a costs assessor to report on the reasonableness of the practitioner’s bill. 12
13

‘(3) The tribunal may adjourn the hearing until the fee is paid and the costs assessor’s report is available. 14
15

‘Hearings to be in public unless tribunal orders otherwise’ 16

‘6L.(1) Tribunal hearings must be held in public, unless the tribunal orders otherwise. 17
18

‘(2) The tribunal may make an order under subsection (3) if it is satisfied that it is desirable to do so— 19
20

(a) because of the confidential nature of the evidence or other matter; or 21
22

(b) for another appropriate reason. 23

‘(3) The tribunal may, by order— 24

(a) direct that a hearing, or part of a hearing, is to be held in private; and 25
26

(b) give directions about the persons who may be present at a hearing held in private. 27
28

‘(4) The tribunal may, by order, prohibit or restrict the publication of— 29

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	16
‘Institution of proceedings by tribunal	17
‘6P.(1) The tribunal may, in its own name or by its agent, bring a proceeding for the imposition or enforcement of a penalty under this division.	18 19 20
‘(2) This section does not, by implication, affect the council’s power under section 5D to bring a proceeding for the imposition or enforcement of a penalty under this division.	21 22 23
‘Protection of members etc.	24
‘6Q.(1) A tribunal member has, in the performance of the member’s duties as a member, the same protection and immunity as a Supreme Court judge carrying out the functions of a judge.	25 26 27

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

‘(2) A person representing a person before the tribunal has the same protection and immunity as a barrister appearing for a party in a proceeding in the Supreme Court. 1
3

‘(3) A person appearing before the tribunal as a witness has the same protection as a witness in a proceeding in the Supreme Court. 4
5

‘(4) A document produced at, or used for, a hearing has the same protection during the hearing it would have if produced before the Supreme Court. 6
7
8

Division 5—Tribunal orders 9

‘Orders tribunal may make against a practitioner after charge brought under this part 10
11

‘6R.(1) The tribunal may make any of the following orders in relation to a practitioner the tribunal finds guilty of a charge brought under this Act— 12
13

- (a) an order that the practitioner be struck off the roll of solicitors; 14
- (b) an order that the practitioner be suspended from practice, with or without conditions; 15
16
- (c) an order that the practitioner pay a penalty of not more than $100 000 to the fund; 17
18
- (d) a compensation order directing the practitioner to pay a stated amount to the complainant; 19 20
- (e) an order that the practitioner waive or repay the whole or part of any fees or costs paid by or charged to a stated person; 21
22
- (f) an order that the practitioner pay to a complainant the amount the complainant paid to— 23 24
 - (i) the council under section 5E(3)(c); or 25
 - (ii) the tribunal under section 6K(2)(a); 26
- (g) an order that the practitioner carry out stated work for a stated person either free of charge or for a stated fee; 27
28
- (h) an order that the practitioner waive any lien in relation to a stated 29

*Queensland Law Society Legislation Amendment
(No. 2)*

- document or class of documents, with or without conditions; 1
- (i) if an order under paragraph (a) is not made—an order that the 2 practitioner— 3
- (i) make the practitioner’s practice documents available for 4 inspection at the times and by the persons stated in the order; 5 or 6
- (ii) make reports about the practitioner’s practice in a way and at 7
the times and to the persons stated in the order; or 8
- (iii) comply with stated conditions, including, for example, 9
attendance at legal education programs. 10
- ‘(2) The tribunal may also censure a practitioner it finds guilty of a 11 charge under this Act, if it does not order the practitioner to be struck off the 12 roll of solicitors. 13
- ‘(3) The tribunal may order that no further action be taken against the 14 practitioner, whether or not the tribunal finds the practitioner guilty of a 15 charge brought under this Act. 16
- ‘(4) The tribunal may make a compensation order only if it is satisfied 17 that— 18
- (a) a complainant has suffered pecuniary loss because of the 19
practitioner’s malpractice, professional misconduct, or 20 unprofessional conduct or practice; and 21
- (b) the complainant has given notice of a claim for compensation, 22 and particulars of the complainant’s loss, to the council or the 23
legal ombudsman. 24
- ‘(5) The amount payable under a compensation order must not be more 25 than $7 000 or a higher amount prescribed under a regulation. 26
- ‘(6) A compensation order made by the tribunal under this section does 27 not affect the claimant’s right to recover damages for the same loss in other 28 proceedings, but— 29
- (a) the amount paid under the compensation order must be taken into 30 account in the other proceedings; and 31
- (b) the tribunal’s findings giving rise to the compensation order are 32

‘Orders about costs

‘6U.(1) The tribunal may make an order about costs in a hearing under this part it considers appropriate.

‘(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the tribunal may—

- (a) fix the amount of costs, or any part of the costs; or
- (b) direct that the costs be assessed by a costs assessor and, after assessment, be referred back to the tribunal for further order; or
- (c) direct that the costs be taxed.

‘(3) Costs in relation to a hearing are chargeable as if the matter were before the Supreme Court, unless the tribunal otherwise orders.

‘Form of order

‘6V. A tribunal order must—

- (a) be signed by the presiding member; and
- (b) state the tribunal’s findings in relation to the facts of the case.

‘Orders to be filed in Supreme Court and are enforceable as orders of the court

‘6W.(1) A tribunal order—

- (a) must be filed in a Supreme Court registry; and
- (b) on being filed, is taken to be an order of the Supreme Court and may be enforced accordingly.

‘(2) Subsection (1)(b) is subject to section 6R(6)(b).

‘Orders may be inspected

‘6X. A tribunal order filed in the Supreme Court registry may be inspected on payment of the fee (if any) prescribed under the Rules of the Supreme Court.

‘Service of orders

‘6Y.(1) The person bringing a charge must give a copy of a tribunal order relating to the charge to the following persons—

- (a) if a person against whom the order was made was not present at the time the order was made—the person;
- (b) the legal ombudsman, unless the ombudsman brought the charge;
- (c) the council, unless the council brought the charge;
- (d) the Minister.

‘(2) Service may be effected on the Minister by giving a copy of the order to the chief executive.

‘(3) A copy of the order must be served within 7 days after the order is made.

‘Division 6—Appeals

‘Appeal may be made to Court of Appeal

‘6Z.(1) A party dissatisfied with a tribunal decision may appeal the decision to the Court of Appeal.

‘(2) An appeal is by way of rehearing, unless all parties to the appeal accept the facts as found by the tribunal.

‘(3) The appeal must be made—

- (a) if the dissatisfied party is the Minister—within 30 days after a copy of the tribunal’s order is served on the Minister under section 6Y(2); or
- (b) otherwise—within 28 days after the tribunal’s order is made.

‘(4) The appeal must be made and heard in accordance with rules of court made for this Act.

‘(5) Without limiting subsection (4), the rules may provide for the extent to which any record of the proceeding before the tribunal may be used for the appeal.
