8

‘(2) The document must be produced at the place and time stated in the requirement.

10

‘(3) The place stated in the requirement—

11

(a) may be other than the place where the document is ordinarily kept; but

12
13

(b) must be reasonable in the circumstances of the making of the requirement.

14
15

‘(4) The time stated in the requirement must be reasonable in the circumstances of the making of the requirement.

16
17

‘(5) To avoid any doubt, it is declared that—

18

(a) the document must be produced in its original form; and 19

(b) the forest officer may keep possession of the document for the time the forest officer reasonably requires to exercise the forest officer’s powers under section 18(1)(e).

20
22

‘(6) The forest officer may continue to keep possession of the document after the forest officer has finished exercising the forest officer’s powers under section 18(1)(e) if the forest officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds that continued retention of the document is necessary—

23
25
26

(a) for the purpose of an inquiry under section 18(1)(c); or

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

‘Chief executive’s approval and making of suppression direction

‘75B.(1) The chief executive must consider an application under section 75A(1) or (4) by a person.

‘(2) The chief executive must approve the application and, in writing, direct the name and postal address of the person (the “protected person”) be excluded from the publicly available parts of the valuation rolls and other documents kept under this Act in relation to the parcel of land stated in the application, if the chief executive is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the inclusion of the person’s name and postal address would place at risk—

- (a) the personal safety of the person or someone else mentioned in the application; or
- (b) the property of the person or someone else mentioned in the application.

‘(3) A direction has effect for 5 years from the date of the chief executive’s approval, under subsection (2), of the application.

‘(4) The direction must state—

- (a) the name of the person for whose benefit the direction is made; and
- (b) the parcel of land of which the person is an owner; and
- (c) the valuation rolls and other documents from which the protected person’s name and postal address are to be excluded; and
- (d) the date of the chief executive’s approval and the date the direction stops having effect.

‘(5) The chief executive must promptly give written notice to the applicant of the chief executive’s decision and, if a direction is made, a copy of the direction.

‘(6) If the chief executive does not approve the application, the notice must also state—

- (a) the reasons for the decision; and
- (b) that the applicant may appeal against the decision to a Magistrates Court within 42 days after the day the notice is received by the applicant.

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

‘(7) If there is a change of ownership involving a protected person or parcel of land stated in a suppression direction, the protected person must give written notice to the chief executive about the change and the chief executive must issue an amended direction under subsection (2).

‘(8) However, an amendment must not change the date of the approval or date the direction stops having effect.

‘Grounds for revocation of suppression direction

‘75C. Each of the following is a ground for the revocation of a suppression direction—

- (a) the direction was obtained on the basis of incorrect or misleading information;
- (b) the direction is no longer required because the grounds for the direction, as mentioned in section 75B(2), no longer exist.

‘Procedure for revocation of suppression direction

‘75D.(1) If the chief executive considers that reasonable grounds exist to revoke a suppression direction (the “action”), the chief executive must give the protected person a written notice (the “show cause notice”) that—

- (a) states the action proposed; and
- (b) states the grounds for proposing to take the action; and
- (c) outlines the facts and circumstances that form the basis for the chief executive’s belief; and
- (d) invites the protected person to show cause within a stated time, of not less than 42 days, why the action proposed should not be taken.

‘(2) If, after considering all representations made within the specified time, the chief executive still believes that grounds to take the action exist, the chief executive may revoke the suppression direction.

‘(3) The chief executive must inform the protected person of the decision by written notice.

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

‘(4) If the chief executive decides to revoke the suppression direction, the notice must state—	1 2
(a) the reasons for the decision; and	3
(b) that the person who was a protected person may appeal against the decision within 42 days to a Magistrates Court.	4 5
‘(5) The decision takes effect on the later of the following—	6
(a) the day on which the notice is given to the person;	7
(b) the day stated in the notice.	8
 ‘Right to appeal to the Court	 9
‘75E.(1) An applicant for a suppression direction may appeal against the chief executive’s decision to refuse to make the direction.	10 11
‘(2) Also, a person who was a protected person may appeal against the chief executive’s decision to revoke the direction.	12 13
‘(3) The appeal may be made to the Magistrates Court nearest the place where the applicant or person resides.	14 15
 ‘How to start appeal	 16
‘75F.(1) An appeal is started by—	17
(a) filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk of the court of the Magistrates Court; and	18 19
(b) serving a copy of the notice on the chief executive.	20
‘(2) The notice of appeal must be filed within 42 days after the appellant receives notice of the decision appealed against.	21 22
‘(3) The Court may at any time extend the period for filing the notice of appeal.	23 24
‘(4) The notice of appeal must state the grounds of the appeal.	25

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

‘Action pending outcome of appeal

‘75G.(1) This section applies if, under section 75(1)(b), a person serves the chief executive with a copy of a notice of appeal against—

- (a) the chief executive’s decision about the person’s application under section 75A (an “application appeal”); or
- (b) the chief executive’s decision, under section 75D(4), to revoke a direction (a “revocation appeal”).

‘(2) For an application appeal, the chief executive must exclude the name and postal address of the person from the publicly available parts of the valuation rolls or other documents under this Act, unless the chief executive considers that the application under section 75A was frivolous or vexatious.

‘(3) For a revocation appeal, the chief executive must continue to exclude the name and postal address of the person from the publicly available parts of the valuation rolls or other documents under this Act, unless the chief executive considers that the appeal is frivolous or vexatious.

‘(4) The exclusion under subsection (2), or continuation of the exclusion under subsection (3), extends until the application appeal or revocation appeal is decided or otherwise ends.

‘Hearing procedures

‘75H.(1) The power under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921 to make rules for Magistrates Courts includes power to make rules for appeals to Magistrates Courts under this Act.

‘(2) The procedure for an appeal to a Magistrates Court under this Act is to be in accordance with—

- (a) the rules made under the Magistrates Courts Act 1921; or
- (b) in the absence of relevant rules—directions of the Court.

‘(3) An appeal is to be by way of rehearing, unaffected by the chief executive’s decision.

‘(4) In deciding an appeal, the Court—

- (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

- (b) must observe natural justice; and 1
- (c) may hear the appeal in court or chambers. 2

‘Powers of Court on appeal’ 3

‘75L.(1) In deciding an appeal, the Court may— 4

- (a) confirm the decision appealed against; or 5
- (b) set aside the decision and substitute another decision; or 6
- (c) set aside the decision and return the matter to the chief executive 7 with directions that the Court considers appropriate. 8

‘(2) In substituting another decision, the Court has the same powers as 9
the chief executive. 10

Example— 11

The Court may decide that an unsuccessful applicant for a direction be granted 12
the direction. 13

‘(3) If the Court substitutes another decision, the substituted decision is 14 taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be the chief executive’s decision. 15

‘Appeal to District Court on questions of law only’ 16

‘75J. A party aggrieved by the decision of the Court may appeal to a 17
District Court, but only on a question of law. 18

‘Holder of driller’s licence to keep certain information about boreholes and give it to the chief executive ‘48A.(1) The holder of a driller’s licence must keep information prescribed under a regulation about the boreholes drilled by the holder.

‘(2) The holder must keep the information about a borehole as the driller is drilling the borehole.

‘(3) Subject to subsection (4), the holder must give to the chief executive a copy of the information about a borehole within 60 days of completing the drilling of the borehole.

‘(4) However, a regulation may prescribe an area in relation to which a holder of a driller’s licence need not give to the chief executive a copy of the information about boreholes drilled within the area.

‘(5) The chief executive may issue a document containing forms suitable for use for keeping the information mentioned in subsection (1) to each holder of a driller’s licence and, if the chief executive issues a document to a holder, the holder must use the forms.’.

the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular. 7

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units. 8

‘(2) It is enough for a complaint for an offence against subsection (1) to 9 state the statement made was false or misleading to the person’s 10 knowledge. 11

‘Impersonation of authorised officer 12

‘224I. A person must not pretend to be an authorised officer. 13

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units. 14

‘Division 1B—Enforcement of certain notices 15

‘Definitions for div 1B 16

‘224J. In this division— 17

“compliance section” means section 64A or 76. 18

“court” means the Supreme Court. 19

“enforcement injunction” means an injunction under section 224K. 20

“involved person”, for a contravention, means a person involved in the 21
contravention who— 22

(a) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention; or 23

(b) has induced the contravention (whether through threats, promises 24 or another way); or 25

*Natural Resources and Other Legislation
Amendment*

- (c) has been in any way (directly or indirectly) knowingly concerned in, or a party to, the contravention; or 1 2
- (d) has conspired with others to effect the contravention. 3

‘Orders to enforce notice under compliance section 4

‘224K.(1) This section applies if, on the application of the chief executive or an authorised officer, the court is satisfied that a person has engaged, is engaging, or proposes to engage, in conduct constituting a contravention of a notice under a compliance section. 5
6
8

‘(2) The court may make all or any of the following orders— 9

- (a) an order granting an injunction, on terms the court considers appropriate— 10 11
 - (i) restraining the person from engaging in the conduct; or 12
 - (ii) if the conduct involves failing to do something—requiring the person to do the thing; 13
14
- (b) an order directing the person to compensate the State for loss or damage suffered because of the contravention; 15
- (c) another order the court considers appropriate. 17

‘(3) If the court has power under subsection (2) to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in particular conduct, or requiring a person to do anything, the court may make any other order (including granting an injunction) it considers appropriate against an involved person for the contravention concerned. 18
19
20
21
22

‘Consent injunctions 23

‘224L. On an application for an enforcement injunction, the court may grant the injunction by consent of all of the parties to the proceeding (whether or not the court is satisfied that the section under which the application is made applies). 24

‘Interim injunctions 1

‘224M.(1) The court may grant an interim injunction pending 2 determination of an application for an enforcement injunction. 3

(2) However, the court must not require the chief executive, authorised 4 officer or another person, as a condition of granting an interim injunction, to 5 give an undertaking as to damages. 6

‘Factors relevant to granting restraining injunction 7

‘224N. The court may grant an enforcement injunction restraining a 8 person from engaging in conduct whether or not— 9

- (a) it appears to the court that the person intends to engage again, or 10 to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; or 11
- (b) the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; or 12
- (c) there is an imminent danger of substantial damage— 13
 - (i) to someone else if the person fails to do the thing; or 14
 - (ii) to a watercourse, lake or spring, or to vegetation, if the 15
person engages in conduct of that kind. 16

‘Factors relevant to granting mandatory injunction 17

‘224O. The court may grant an enforcement injunction requiring a 18 person to do a thing whether or not— 19

- (a) it appears to the court that the person intends to fail again, or to 20 continue to fail, to do the thing; or 21
- (b) the person has previously failed to do the thing; or 22
- (c) there is an imminent danger of substantial damage— 23
 - (i) to someone else if the person fails to do the thing; or 24
 - (ii) to a watercourse, lake or spring, or to vegetation, if the 25
person engages in conduct of that kind. 26
