(b) if a later day is stated in the notice—the later day.	29
‘(4) The power of the chief executive to change the conditions of a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence includes the power to add conditions to the licence.	30 31 32

‘39D Recording change of conditions	1
‘(1) The holder of a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence must return the licence to the chief executive within 7 days after receiving an information notice under section 39C(2)(a), unless the holder has a reasonable excuse.	2 3 4 5
Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	6
‘(2) On receiving the licence, the chief executive must—	7
(a) amend the licence to include the changed conditions and return it to the holder; or	8 9
(b) give the holder a replacement licence showing the changed conditions.	10 11
‘(3) The amendment of the licence does not depend on it being amended or replaced under this section.	12 13
‘39E Replacement of licence	14
‘(1) The holder of a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence may apply to the chief executive for a replacement licence if—	15 16
(a) the licence has been damaged, destroyed or lost; or	17
(b) the holder has changed his or her name.	18
‘(2) The application must be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	19 20
‘(3) The chief executive must consider the application and either grant or refuse to grant the application.	21 22
‘(4) The chief executive may grant the application only if the chief executive is satisfied—	23 24
(a) for an application to replace a licence that has been damaged, destroyed or lost—the licence has been damaged, destroyed or lost; or	25 26 27
(b) for an application to replace a licence because of a change of name—the holder of the licence has changed his or her name.	28 29
‘(5) If the chief executive decides to grant the application, the chief executive must immediately give the applicant a replacement licence.	30 31
‘(6) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the application, the chief executive must immediately—	32 33

- (a) give the applicant an information notice for the decision; and 1
- (b) if the chief executive believes the holder of the licence is an 2 employee of a casino operator—give a copy of the notice to the 3

‘Division 5—Suspension and cancellation of casino key employee and 8 casino employee licences 9

‘44 Grounds for suspension or cancellation 10

‘(1) Each of the following is a ground for suspending or cancelling a 11 casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence— 12

- (a) the licence was issued because of a materially false or misleading 13 representation or document; 14
- (b) the holder of the licence has a conviction, other than a spent 15 conviction, for— 16
 - (i) an offence against this Act or a gaming Act; or 17
 - (ii) another offence that is an indictable offence, whether dealt 18 with on indictment or summarily; 19
- (c) the holder of the licence— 20
 - (i) is not a suitable person to hold the licence; or 21
 - (ii) acts in a way that is inappropriate for a casino’s operations; 22
or 23
 - (iii) contravenes a provision of this Act, other than a provision a 24
contravention of which is an offence against this Act; or 25
 - (iv) contravenes a condition of the licence. 26

‘(2) In deciding if the holder of a licence is a suitable person to hold the 27 licence, the chief executive may have regard to the matters mentioned in 28 section 37(1)(c)(i) to (iii).¹ 29

1 Section 37 (Consideration of application)

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

- ‘(3) For subsection (1)(c)(ii), the holder of a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence acts in a way that is inappropriate for a casino’s operations if the licensee does, or omits to do, an act that results in—
- (a) the operation of the casino at which the licensee is employed not being conducted under the system of internal controls and administrative and accounting procedures approved by the chief executive under section 75² for the casino’s operations; and
 - (b) the integrity of the casino’s operations being jeopardised.
- ‘(4) In this section—
- “spent conviction” means a conviction—
- (a) for which the rehabilitation period under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 has expired under that Act; and
 - (b) that is not revived as prescribed by section 11 of that Act.
- ‘44A Procedure for suspension or cancellation
- ‘(1) If the chief executive believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence, the chief executive must—
- (a) give the holder of the licence a written notice (a “show cause notice”); or
 - (b) take action under section 44E³ if the chief executive considers—
 - (i) a matter relating to the ground for suspension or cancellation is reasonably capable of being rectified; and
 - (ii) it is appropriate to give the licence holder an opportunity to rectify the matter without giving a show cause notice.
- ‘(2) The show cause notice must state each of the following—
- (a) the action (the “proposed action”) the chief executive proposes taking under this division;
 - (b) the grounds for the proposed action;

2 Section 75 (Chief executive’s approval)

3 Section 44E (Direction to rectify)

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

(c) the facts and circumstances that are the basis for the grounds;	1
(d) if the proposed action is suspension of the licence—the suspension period;	2 3
(e) that the holder may make, within a stated period, written representations to show why the proposed action should not be taken.	4 5 6
‘(3) The stated period must end at least 21 days after the holder is given the notice.	7 8
‘(4) If the chief executive believes the holder is an employee of a casino operator, the chief executive must immediately give a copy of the notice to the casino operator.	9 10 11
‘(5) The casino operator may make, within the stated period, written representations to show why the proposed action should not be taken.	12 13
‘44B Considering representations	14
‘The chief executive must consider all written representations (the “accepted representations”) made under section 44A(2)(e) or (5).	15 16
‘44C Ending show cause process without further action	17
‘(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations, the chief executive no longer believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the casino key employee licence or casino employee licence.	18 19 20 21
‘(2) The chief executive—	22
(a) must not take any further action about the show cause notice; and	23
(b) must give each of the following written notice stating that no further action is to be taken—	24 25
(i) the holder of the licence;	26
(ii) a casino operator to whom a copy of the show cause notice was given under section 44A(4).	27 28
‘44D Censuring licensee	29
‘(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations, the chief executive still believes a ground exists to suspend	30 31

or cancel the casino key employee licence or casino employee licence but—	1 2
(a) does not believe suspension or cancellation of the licence is warranted; and	3 4
(b) does not consider it is appropriate to take action under section 44E.	5 6
‘(2) The chief executive may censure the holder for a matter relating to the ground for suspension or cancellation.	7 8
‘(3) If the chief executive decides to censure the holder, the chief executive must give the holder an information notice for the decision.	9 10
‘(4) If the chief executive believes the holder is an employee of a casino operator, the chief executive must immediately give a copy of the information notice to the casino operator.	11 12 13
‘44E Direction to rectify	14
‘(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted representations, the chief executive still believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the casino key employee licence or casino employee licence but considers—	15 16 17 18
(a) a matter relating to the ground for suspension or cancellation is reasonably capable of being rectified; and	19 20
(b) that it is appropriate to give the holder of the licence an opportunity to rectify the matter.	21 22
‘(2) This section also applies if—	23
(a) the chief executive has not given a show cause notice to the holder of the casino key employee licence or casino employee licence; and	24 25 26
(b) the chief executive believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the licence; and	27 28
(c) the chief executive considers—	29
(i) a matter relating to the ground for suspension or cancellation is reasonably capable of being rectified; and	30 31
(ii) that it is appropriate to give the holder of the licence an opportunity to rectify the matter without giving a show cause notice; and	32 33 34

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

- (d) the holder has been given— 1
- (i) written notice that the chief executive proposes to give a 2 direction under this section; and 3
- (ii) a reasonable opportunity to make representations about the 4 proposed direction. 5
- ‘(3) However, this section applies because of subsection (1) only if the 6
chief executive does not believe suspension or cancellation of the casino 7 key employee licence or the casino employee licence is warranted. 8
- ‘(4) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the holder of the 9 licence, direct the holder to rectify the matter within the period stated in the 10 notice. 11
- ‘(5) The notice must state the reason for the decision to give the 12 direction. 13
- ‘(6) The period stated in the notice must be reasonable, having regard to 14
the nature of the matter to be rectified. 15
- ‘(7) If the chief executive believes the holder is an employee of a casino 16 operator, the chief executive must immediately give a copy of the notice to 17
the casino operator. 18
- ‘(8) The holder of a casino key employee licence or a casino employee 19 licence must comply with a direction under this section. 20
- ‘44F Suspension or cancellation of licence 21
- ‘(1) This section applies if, after considering the accepted 22 representations, the chief executive— 23
- (a) still believes a ground exists to suspend or cancel the casino key 24 employee licence or casino employee licence; and 25
- (b) believes suspension or cancellation of the licence is warranted. 26
- ‘(2) This section also applies if— 27
- (a) there are no accepted representations for the show cause notice; 28
or 29
- (b) a direction to rectify a matter is given to the holder of the casino 30
key employee or casino employee licence under section 44E(4) 31 and the holder fails to comply with the direction within the 32 period stated in the notice for the direction. 33

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

‘(3) The chief executive may—	1
(a) if the proposed action stated in the show cause notice is to suspend the licence—suspend the licence for no longer than the proposed suspension period; or	2 3 4
(b) if the proposed action stated in the show cause notice is to cancel the licence—cancel the licence or suspend it for a period.	5 6
‘(4) If the chief executive suspends or cancels the licence, the chief executive must immediately—	7 8
(a) give the holder of the licence an information notice for the decision; and	9 10
(b) if the chief executive believes the holder is an employee of a casino operator—give a copy of the information notice to the casino operator.	11 12 13
‘(5) The decision takes effect on—	14
(a) the day the information notice is given to the holder; or	15
(b) if a later day is stated in the notice—the later day.	16
‘(6) If the licence is cancelled, the person who held the licence must, within 14 days after receiving the information notice for the decision, return the licence to the chief executive.	17 18 19
Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—40 penalty units.	20
‘44G Immediate suspension of licence	21
‘(1) This section applies if the chief executive believes—	22
(a) a ground exists to suspend or cancel a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence; and	23 24
(b) it is necessary to immediately suspend the licence—	25
(i) in the public interest; or	26
(ii) to ensure the integrity of the conduct of casino operations is not jeopardised.	27 28
‘(2) The chief executive may immediately suspend the licence by written notice given to the holder of the licence.	29 30
‘(3) The notice must state the reason for the decision to immediately suspend the licence.	31 32

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

- ‘(4) If the chief executive believes the holder of the licence is an employee of a casino operator, the chief executive must give a copy of the notice to the casino operator. 1
3
- ‘(5) The chief executive must, within 7 days after giving the holder a notice under subsection (2)— 4 5
- (a) give the holder a show cause notice; and 6
- (b) if the chief executive believes the holder is an employee of a casino operator—give a copy of the show cause notice to the casino operator. 7
9
- ‘(6) The licence is suspended under this section until the show cause notice is finally dealt with.’. 10

	‘(2) The inspector may require the person to state the person’s name and residential address.	12 13
	‘(3) When making the requirement, the inspector must warn the person it is an offence to fail to state the person’s name or residential address, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	14 15 16
	‘(4) The inspector may also require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or residential address if—	17 18
	(a) the inspector reasonably suspects the stated name or address to be false; and	19 20
	(b) in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the person to—	21 22
	(i) be in possession of evidence of the correctness of the stated name and address; or	23 24
	(ii) otherwise be able to give the evidence.	25
	‘(5) A person of whom a requirement is made under subsection (2) or (4) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	26 27 28
	Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	29
	‘(6) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (5) if—	30
	(a) the person was required by an inspector who suspected the person was committing or attempting to commit, or had committed, an offence against this Act, to state the person’s name	31 32 33 and residential address or to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name or residential address; and

(b) the person is not proved to have committed the offence.’

Clause 19 Insertion of new pt 9A

Before part 10—

insert—

‘PART 9A—APPEALS TO GAMING COMMISSION

‘91A Who may appeal

‘A person who is or was an applicant for, or a holder of, a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence may appeal to the gaming commission against the following decisions of the chief executive—

(a) a decision, under section 38(1), refusing to grant an application for the licence;

(b) a decision, under section 39, imposing a condition on the licence;

(c) a decision, under section 39C(1), changing a condition of the licence;

(d) a decision, under section 39E(3), refusing to grant an application to replace the licence;

(e) a decision, under section 44D(2), censuring the holder of the licence;

(f) a decision, under section 44F(3)(a) or (b), suspending the
licence;

(g) a decision, under section 44F(3)(b), cancelling the licence.

‘91B Starting appeal

‘(1) An appeal is started by—

(a) filing a notice of appeal with the registrar of the gaming commission; and

(b) serving a copy of the notice on the chief executive.

‘(2) The notice of appeal must be—

Gambling Legislation Amendment Bill 2002

(a)	accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation; and	1
(b)	filed within 28 days after the appellant receives the information notice for the decision.	2 3
‘(3)	The gaming commission may at any time extend the period for filing the notice of appeal.	4 5
‘(4)	The notice of appeal must state fully the grounds, and the facts relied on, for the appeal.	6 7
‘91C	Stay of operation of decision	8
‘(1)	The gaming commission may grant a stay of the operation of a decision appealed against to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.	9 10
‘(2)	The stay—	11
(a)	may be granted on conditions the gaming commission considers appropriate; and	12 13
(b)	has effect for the period stated by the commission; and	14
(c)	may be amended or revoked by the commission.	15
‘(3)	The period of the stay must not extend past the time when the commission decides the appeal.	16 17
‘(4)	An appeal against a decision does not affect the operation of the decision unless the commission stays the decision.	18 19
‘91D	Hearing procedures	20
‘(1)	In deciding an appeal, the gaming commission—	21
(a)	has the same powers as the chief executive in making the decision appealed against; and	22 23
(b)	is not bound by the rules of evidence; and	24
(c)	must comply with natural justice; and	25
(d)	may hear the appeal in public or in private.	26
‘(2)	An appeal is by way of rehearing unaffected by the decision appealed against on the material before the chief executive and any further evidence allowed by the gaming commission.	27 28 29

‘91E Power to gather evidence	1
‘(1) The gaming commission may, by written notice signed by the registrar of the gaming commission, require a person—	2 3
(a) to give written answers to questions, or produce a document, stated in the notice for an appeal mentioned in the notice; or	4 5
(b) to appear before the gaming commission at a stated time and place to answer questions, or produce a stated document, relating to an appeal mentioned in the notice.	6 7 8
‘(2) The answers mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must, if the notice requires, be verified by statutory declaration.	9 10
‘(3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse—	11
(a) fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2); or	12
(b) if appearing for examination before the gaming commission—	13
(i) fail to take or make an oath when required by a member of the commission or the registrar; or	14 15
(ii) fail to answer a question relevant to the appeal to the best of the person’s knowledge, information or belief.	16 17
Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	18
‘(4) A member of the gaming commission may administer an oath to a person appearing before the commission for examination.	19 20
‘(5) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to comply with a requirement to answer a question or produce a document if complying with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person.	21 22 23
‘91F Powers of gaming commission on appeal	24
‘(1) In deciding an appeal, the gaming commission may—	25
(a) confirm the decision appealed against; or	26
(b) set aside the decision and substitute the commission’s own decision; or	27 28
(c) set aside the decision and return the issue to the chief executive with the directions the commission considers appropriate.	29 30
‘(2) A decision of the gaming commission under subsection (1)(b) is, other than for this part, taken to be the decision of the chief executive.	31 32

‘(1) This section applies to keno dollars that would have been capable of being used or redeemed under this Act before 23 June 1997 at a casino.	2 3
‘(2) The keno dollars may be redeemed for cash with the casino operator only within 1 year after the commencement.	4 5
‘(3) The casino operator must pay unredeemed keno dollars by cheque to the chief executive as soon as practicable after the keno dollars become unredeemed keno dollars.	6 7 8
‘(4) In this section—	9
“unredeemed keno dollars” means keno dollars that are not redeemed for cash within 1 year after the commencement.	10 11
‘132 Dealing with existing applications	12
‘(1) This section applies to an application for a casino key employee licence or a casino employee licence made under section 35(1) and not decided before the commencement.	13 14 15
‘(2) The application must be decided under this Act as in force immediately after the commencement.	16 17
‘133 Appeals	18
‘(1) Subsection (2) applies if—	19
(a) immediately before the commencement a person could have appealed against a direction, under section 92, of a casino operator or a casino manager; and	20 21 22
(b) the person has not appealed before the commencement.	23
‘(2) Despite section 93(1), the person may appeal, and the Minister may hear and decide the appeal under this Act.’.	24 25

(ii) gives the commission information and materials for which it reasonably asks to help it decide the application; and

(b) the commission is, after considering the application and any information or materials requested under paragraph (a)(ii), satisfied there is good reason to allow the deferment of the date for the licensed premises.

Example of good reason to allow a deferment—

The commission might consider the fact that licensed premises are under construction and the construction work is substantially complete or has been delayed for reasons outside the licensee's control are good reasons for deferment of the relevant date.

‘(4) However, the commission may fix a date under subsection (3) only if the date is not more than 2 years after the day the gaming machine licence was granted.

‘(5) The commission may grant a deferment of the relevant date on conditions the commission considers appropriate and, if a condition is not complied with, the deferment does not operate beyond the date of the noncompliance.

‘(6) In this section—

“gaming machine licence” means a gaming machine licence granted after the commencement of this section.

“relevant date”, in relation to a gaming machine licence, means—

(a) the date that is 1 year after the day the licence was granted; or

(b) for premises for which the commission has fixed a later date under subsection (3)—the date fixed by the commission or an earlier date on which the deferment ceases to operate under subsection (5).’.

‘166 Dealing with submissions

‘(1) This section applies to a control system submission or control system (change) submission made to the chief executive by a licensed supplier.

‘(2) The chief executive must consider the submission and either approve or refuse to approve the proposed control system or proposed change of the approved control system.

‘(3) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the licensed supplier, require the supplier, within a reasonable time stated in the notice, to give the chief executive further information that is necessary and reasonable to help the chief executive make a decision about the submission.

‘(4) In considering whether to give an approval, the chief executive must have regard to—

- (a) whether the submission satisfies the requirements under this subdivision for the submission; and
- (b) whether the proposed control system, or approved control system as proposed to be changed, is capable of providing satisfactory and effective control over the supplier’s supply operations.

‘(5) The chief executive may refuse to give an approval if the licensed supplier fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (3) without a reasonable excuse.

‘(6) If the chief executive approves the proposed control system, or proposed change of the approved control system, the chief executive must immediately give the licensed supplier written notice of the decision.

‘(7) If the chief executive refuses to approve the proposed control system, or proposed change of the approved control system, the chief executive must immediately give the licensed supplier a written notice that—

- (a) states the decision and the reasons for the decision; and
- (b) if the chief executive believes the submission can easily be changed to enable the chief executive to give an approval—
 - (i) explains how the submission may be changed; and
 - (ii) invites the licensed supplier to resubmit the submission after making the appropriate changes.

	‘167 Direction to change approved control system	1
	‘(1) The chief executive may, by written notice given to a licensed supplier, direct the supplier to change the supplier’s approved control system within the period, and in the way, stated in the notice.	2 3 4
	‘(2) The licensed supplier must comply with the direction.	5
	‘(3) If the licensed supplier does not comply with the direction, at the end of the period stated in the notice the supplier’s approved control system is taken to have been changed in the way stated in the notice.’.	6 7 8
