After section 26—

insert—
Division 3A  Members’ function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office

26A  Member’s function, and obligations about function

(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

26B  Council may remove member from office

(1) The council may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least 10 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—

(a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and

(b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.
(3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day the member receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

(4) The council’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).2

Division 3B Extending terms of office

26C Minister may extend terms of office

(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—
(a) is in the best interests of the university; and
(b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.

(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

(4) This section—
(a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and
(b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.’.

2 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25 (Powers of appointment imply certain incidental powers)
Clause 17  Amendment of s 30 (Chancellor)

(1) Section 30(4)—
renumber as section 30(5).

(2) Section 30—
insert—

‘(4) The person elected must not be a student or a member of the university’s academic staff or general staff.’.

Clause 18  Amendment of s 31 (Deputy chancellor)

Section 31(3), ‘3 years’—

omit, insert—

‘4 years’.

Clause 19  Omission of pt 4, div 1 (Convocation)

Part 4, division 1—

omit.

Clause 20  Insertion of new s 40AA

Part 4, division 4, after section 40—

insert—

‘40AA President of academic board

‘(1) There is to be a president of the academic board.

‘(2) The council must decide who is the president.

‘(3) The president holds office for the term, not longer than 3 years, decided by the council.’.

Clause 21  Amendment of s 40A (Excluded matters for Corporations legislation)

(1) Section 40A(1)(a)—

omit.
Section 40A(1)(b) and (c)— rerunber as section 40A(1)(a) and (b).

Clause 22 Insertion of new pt 4A

Before part 5—

insert—

‘Part 4A Matters relating to offices of chancellor, deputy chancellor, vice-chancellor and president

‘40C Disqualification from office

‘(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president if—

(a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

(b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

‘(2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—

(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president despite the conviction.
‘(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—
(a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president; and
(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.

‘(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

‘40D Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office

‘(1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office if at least 10 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president has not complied with—
(a) section 26A(2); or
(b) a conduct obligation.

‘(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

‘(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or president’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day he or she receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

3 Section 26A (Member’s function, and obligations about function)
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

140E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D—

(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and

(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—

(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

140F Vacation of office

(1) The office of the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president becomes vacant if he or she—

(a) can not continue as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president under section 40C; or

(b) is removed from office under section 40D.

(2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.’.

Clause 23 Amendment of s 57 (Making of university statutes)

(1) Section 57(2)(e)—

omit.

(2) Section 57(2)(f), after ‘members’—

insert—

‘, including the voting rights of part-time academic staff and part-time general staff’.
(3) Section 57(2)—
   insert—
   '(fa) the process for removing a person from office under section 26B or 40D;4
   (fb) the spending of funds under a delegation under section 11(3);'.

(4) Section 57(2)(f) to (j)— renumber as section 57(2)(e) to (k).

Clause 24 Amendment of s 61 (Forming and taking part in corporations)
   Section 61(1), 'include'—
   omit, insert—
   'include any of'.

Clause 25 Insertion of new ss 62A–62C
   After section 62—
   insert—
   '62A Protection from liability
      '(1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.
      '(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

'62B Report about person's criminal history
   '(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

4 Section 26B (Council may remove member from office) or 40D (Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office)
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and
(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and
(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).

(4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.

(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

(6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

(7) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

62C Delegation by Minister

The Minister may delegate the Minister’s power under section 62B(1) to an appropriately qualified officer of the department.’.
Clause 26  Insertion of new pt 8, div 2

Part 8, after section 78—

insert—

‘Division 2  Transitional provisions for the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005

‘Subdivision 1  Preliminary

‘79  Definitions for div 2

‘In this division—

commencement means the commencement of the provision in which the term is used.

new additional members see section 85.

new appointed members see section 81(2).

pre-amended Act means this Act as in force before the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 2.

‘Subdivision 2  Provisions about council membership

‘80  Continuation of official members

‘Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(2)(c) or (e) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘81  Appointment of new appointed members

‘(1)  The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 5 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.
‘(2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).

‘82 Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members

‘(1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.

‘(2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (3); or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(3) Despite section 18, the person’s term of office ends when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘83 Continuation of elected members

‘(1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.

‘(2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under section 84; or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person’s term of office is 3 years.

‘84 Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

‘(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.

‘(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(3) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.
(4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the pre-amended Act.

(5) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.

(7) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

(8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

(9) The person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

(10) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(11) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(12) Subsections (3), (5), (7) and (9) apply despite section 83(3).

(13) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 2.

85 Appointment of new additional members

The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint 4 persons as additional members (the new additional members) under section 16.
Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

(1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (2); or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(2) Despite section 20, the person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

Council need not include additional members

Despite section 12, the council need not include additional members before the new additional members’ terms of office start.

Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

(1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 84(1) is conducted.

(2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 2, had not commenced.

Subdivision 3 Constitution of council

Constitution of council

(1) This section applies until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(2) Despite section 17, the council is taken to be properly constituted when it has 12 or more members, whether they be additional, appointed, elected or official members.'

‘Division 3A Members’ function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office’

‘26A Member’s function, and obligations about function’

‘(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.'
'26B Council may remove member from office

'(1) The council may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least 12 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or
(b) a conduct obligation.

'(2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—

(a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and
(b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.

'(3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

(a) the day the member receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

'(4) The council’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).8

'Division 3B Extending terms of office

'26C Minister may extend terms of office

'(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—

(a) is in the best interests of the university; and

8 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25 (Powers of appointment imply certain incidental powers)
(b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.

‘(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

‘(4) This section—

(a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and

(b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.’.

'Division 2  Matters about disqualification or removal from office

'32A  Disqualification from office

'(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor or vice-chancellor if—

(a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

(b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

'(2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—

(a) if the person was the chancellor or vice-chancellor when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor or vice-chancellor; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor or vice-chancellor despite the conviction.

'(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—

(a) the person is restored as the chancellor or vice-chancellor; and

(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.

'(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor or vice-chancellor under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor or vice-chancellor ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

32B Council may remove chancellor or vice-chancellor from office

(1) The council may remove the chancellor or vice-chancellor from office if at least 12 members are satisfied the chancellor or vice-chancellor has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2);\(^9\) or

(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor or vice-chancellor from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor or vice-chancellor notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

(3) The chancellor’s or vice-chancellor’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

(a) the day he or she receives the notice;

(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

32C Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 32B despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 32B—

(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and

(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—

(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

9 Section 26A (Member’s function, and obligations about function)
‘32D  Vacation of office

‘(1) The office of the chancellor or vice-chancellor becomes vacant if he or she—

(a) can not continue as the chancellor or vice-chancellor under section 32A; or

(b) is removed from office under section 32B.

‘(2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.’.

‘66A Protection from liability

(1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.

(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

‘66B Report about person’s criminal history

(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor or vice-chancellor, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).

(4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.

(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

(6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.
‘(7) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

‘Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.
'83 Appointment of new appointed members

(1) The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 7 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.

(2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).

'84 Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—
   (a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (3); or
   (b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(3) Despite section 18, the person’s term of office ends when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

'85 Continuation of elected members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—
   (a) the person’s term of office ends under section 86; or
   (b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person’s term of office is 3 years.

'86 Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.
(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

(3) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.

(7) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

(8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

(9) The person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

(10) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(11) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(12) Subsections (3), (5), (7) and (9) apply despite section 85(3).

(13) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 3.
‘87 Appointment of new additional members

‘The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint 4 persons as additional members (the new additional members) under section 16.

‘88 Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

‘(1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—
(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (2); or
(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(2) Despite section 20, the person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘89 Council need not include additional members

‘Despite section 12, the council need not include additional members before the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘90 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

‘(1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 86(1) is conducted.

‘(2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 3, had not commenced.

Clause 62  Insertion of new pt 2, divs 3A and 3B

After section 26—

   insert—
Division 3A Members’ function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office

Member’s function, and obligations about function

(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

Council may remove member from office

(1) The council may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least 15 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—

(a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and

(b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.
‘(3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day the member receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

‘(4) The council’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).14

‘Division 3B Extending terms of office

‘26C Minister may extend terms of office

‘(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of the elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—
(a) is in the best interests of the university; and
(b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.

‘(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

‘(4) This section—
(a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and
(b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.’.

‘Part 4A  Matters relating to offices of chancellor, deputy chancellor, vice-chancellor and chairperson

‘40C  Disqualification from office

‘(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson if—

(a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

(b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

‘(2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—

(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson despite the conviction.

‘(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—

(a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.
(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

40D Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office

(1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office if at least 15 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or
(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or chairperson’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

(a) the day he or she receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

40E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D—

(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or

15 Section 26A (Member’s function, and obligations about function)
her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and

(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—

(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

'40F Vacation of office

(1) The office of the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson becomes vacant if he or she—

(a) can not continue as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under section 40C; or

(b) is removed from office under section 40D.

(2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.'.

Clause 67 Amendment of s 57 (Making of university statutes)

(1) Section 57(2)—

insert—

‘(ea) the process for removing a person from office under section 26B or 40D;\(16\)

(eb) the spending of funds under a delegation under section 11(3);’.

(2) Section 57(2)(aa) to (i)— renumber as section 57(2)(b) to (l).

\(16\) Section 26B (Council may remove member from office) or 40D (Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office)
Clause 68 | Amendment of s 61 (Forming and taking part in corporations)

Section 61(1), ‘include’—

omit, insert—

‘include any of’.

Clause 69 | Insertion of new ss 62A–62C

After section 62—

insert—

‘62A Protection from liability

‘(1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.

‘(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

‘62B Report about person’s criminal history

‘(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

'(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).

'(4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.

'(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

'(6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

'(7) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

‘62C Delegation by Minister

‘The Minister may delegate the Minister’s power under section 62B(1) to an appropriately qualified officer of the department.’.

Division 2

Transitional provisions for the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005

Subdivision 1

Preliminary

1. 68 Definitions for div 2
   - In this division—
     - commencement means the commencement of the provision in which the term is used.
     - new additional member see section 74.
     - new appointed members see section 70(2).
     - pre-amended Act means this Act as in force before the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4.

Subdivision 2

Provisions about council membership

1. 69 Continuation of official members
   - Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(2)(c), (e) or (f) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

1. 70 Appointment of new appointed members
   - (1) The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 8 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.
   - (2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).
Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—
   (a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (3); or
   (b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(3) Despite section 18, the person’s term of office ends when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

Continuation of elected members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—
   (a) the person’s term of office ends under section 73; or
   (b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person’s term of office is 3 years.

Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.

(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

(3) The person’s term of office ends when the person who is the member’s successor is elected under the ballot.

(4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the pre-amended Act.
'(5) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

'(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.

'(7) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

'(8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

'(9) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(f) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

'(10) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

'(11) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

'(12) Subsections (3), (5), (7) and (9) apply despite section 72(3).

'(13) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4.

‘74 Appointment of new additional member

‘The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint a person as the additional member (the new additional member) under section 16.

‘75 Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

‘(1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—
(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (2); or
(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(2) Despite section 20, the person’s term of office ends when the new additional member’s term of office starts.

‘76 Council need not include additional members
‘Despite section 12, the council need not include an additional member before the new additional member’s term of office starts.

‘77 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member
‘(1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 73(1) is conducted.

‘(2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 4, had not commenced.

‘Subdivision 3 Constitution of council

‘78 Constitution of council
‘(1) This section applies until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘(2) Despite section 17, the council is taken to be properly constituted when it has 15 or more members, whether they be additional, appointed, elected or official members.’.

(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson despite the conviction.

(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—

(a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.

(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

39C Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office

(1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office if at least 15 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

‘(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or chairperson’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

(a) the day he or she receives the notice;

(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

‘39D Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

‘(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 39C despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

‘(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 39C—

(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and

(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—

(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

‘39E Vacation of office

‘(1) The office of the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson becomes vacant if he or she—

(a) can not continue as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under section 39B; or

(b) is removed from office under section 39C.

‘(2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.’.

After section 26—

insert—

‘Division 3A Members’ function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office

‘26A Member’s function, and obligations about function

‘(1) A member has the function of ensuring the senate performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the senate any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

‘26B Senate may remove member from office

‘(1) The senate may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least 15 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.
(2) If the senate decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the senate must as soon as practicable—
   (a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and
   (b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.

(3) If the senate gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
   (a) the day the member receives the notice;
   (b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

(4) The senate’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).26

Division 3B Extending terms of office

26C Minister may extend terms of office

(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the senate, extend the terms of office of the elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—
   (a) is in the best interests of the university; and
   (b) is necessary for the senate to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.

(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

'Part 4A Matters relating to offices of chancellor, deputy chancellor, vice-chancellor and president

'35C Disqualification from office

(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president if—
   (a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or
   (b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

(2) If the senate considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the senate may—
(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—
  (i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president; and
  (ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or
(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president despite the conviction.

‘(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—
  (a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president; and
  (b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.

‘(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

‘35D Senate may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office

‘(1) The senate may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office if at least 15 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president has not complied with—
  (a) section 26A(2); or
  (b) a conduct obligation.

‘(2) If the senate decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president from office under subsection (1), the senate must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

27 Section 26A (Member’s function, and obligations about function)
‘(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or president’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day he or she receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

‘35E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor
‘(1) The senate may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 35D despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.
‘(2) If the senate removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 35D—
(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and
(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—
(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

‘56B Report about person’s criminal history

‘(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or president, or an elected or additional member, the senate may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).

‘(4) However, the Minister or senate may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or senate written consent for the request.

‘(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

‘(6) The Minister or senate must ensure that a report given to the Minister or senate under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

‘(7) In this section—

'(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.

'(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

'(3) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member who is the member’s successor is elected under the ballot.

'(4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the pre-amended Act.
'(5) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

'(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.

'(7) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

'(8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

'(9) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

'(10) Subsection (11) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(e) of the pre-amended Act.

'(11) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(f) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

'(12) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

'(13) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

'(14) Subsections (3), (5), (7), (9) and (11) apply despite sections 19(1) and (2) and 60(2).

'(15) In this section—

31 Corporations Act, part 2D.6 (Disqualification from managing corporations)
'Division 3A  Members’ function, and removing elected, appointed and additional members from office

'26A  Member’s function, and obligations about function

'(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

'(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

'26B  Council may remove member from office

'(1) The council may remove an elected, appointed or additional member from office if at least 9 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.

'(2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—

(a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and

(b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.
‘(3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

   (a) the day the member receives the notice;

   (b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

‘(4) The council’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).32

‘Division 3B Extending terms of office

‘26C Minister may extend terms of office

‘(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of the elected, appointed and additional members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—

   (a) is in the best interests of the university; and

   (b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all elected, appointed and additional members.

‘(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

‘(4) This section—

   (a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and

   (b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.’.

‘39AA Chairperson of academic board

‘(1) There is to be a chairperson of the academic board.

‘(2) The council must decide who is the chairperson.

‘(3) The chairperson holds office for the term, not longer than 3 years, decided by the council.’.

Clause 133 Insertion of new pt 4A

Before part 5—
insert—
‘Part 4A Matters relating to offices of chancellor, deputy chancellor, vice-chancellor and chairperson

‘39C Disqualification from office

‘(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson if—

(a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

(b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

‘(2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—

(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson despite the conviction.

‘(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—

(a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.
‘(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

‘39D Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office

‘(1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office if at least 9 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson has not complied with—
(a) section 26A(2); or
(b) a conduct obligation.

‘(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

‘(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or chairperson’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day he or she receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

‘39E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

‘(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 39D despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

‘(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 39D—
(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or

33 Section 26A (Member’s function, and obligations about function)
her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and

(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—

(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or

(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

'39F Vacation of office

'(1) The office of the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson becomes vacant if he or she—

(a) can not continue as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under section 39C; or

(b) is removed from office under section 39D.

'(2) The office of the deputy chancellor becomes vacant if his or her office as a member becomes vacant under section 24 or he or she otherwise stops being a member.’.

Clause 136  Insertion of new ss 61A–61C

After section 61—

insert—

‘61A Protection from liability

‘(1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.

‘(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

‘61B Report about person’s criminal history

‘(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).
‘(4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.

‘(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

‘(6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.

‘(7) In this section—

criminal history, of a person, means the person’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

‘61C Delegation by Minister

‘The Minister may delegate the Minister’s power under section 61B(1) to an appropriately qualified officer of the department.’.

‘Subdivision 2     Provisions about council membership

‘78     Continuation of official members
‘Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(2)(c) or (e) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘79     Appointment of new appointed members
‘(1) The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 5 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.
‘(2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).

‘80     Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members
‘(1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.
‘(2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—
   (a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (3); or
   (b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.
‘(3) Despite section 18, the person’s term of office ends when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.
‘81 Continuation of elected members

‘(1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.

‘(2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under section 82; or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person’s term of office is 3 years.

‘82 Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

‘(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.

‘(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(3) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the post-amended Act is elected under the ballot.

‘(4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) or (c) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(5) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member who is the member’s successor is elected under the ballot.

‘(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(7) The person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘(8) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘(9) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.
‘(10) Subsections (3), (5) and (7) apply despite section 81(3).

‘(11) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 7.

‘83 Appointment of new additional members

‘The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint 3 persons as additional members (the new additional members) under section 16.

‘84 Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

‘(1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (2); or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(2) Despite section 20, the person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘85 Council need not include additional members

‘Despite section 12, the council need not include additional members before the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘86 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

‘(1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 82(1) is conducted.

‘(2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 7, had not commenced.
‘Subdivision 3  Constitution of council

‘87 Constitution of council

(1) This section applies until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

(2) Despite section 17, the council is taken to be properly constituted when it has 12 or more members, whether they be additional, appointed, elected or official members.’.

Clause 153 Insertion of new pt 2, divs 3A and 3B

After section 26—

‘Division 3A Members’ function, and removing additional, appointed and elected members from office

‘26A Member’s function, and obligations about function

‘(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) In performing the function, a member—

(a) must act honestly and in the best interests of the university; and

(b) must exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence; and

(c) must disclose to the council any conflict that may arise between the member’s personal interests and the interests of the university; and

(d) must not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

26B Council may remove member from office

(1) The council may remove an additional, appointed or elected member from office if at least 12 members are satisfied the member has not complied with—

(a) section 26A(2); or

(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable—

(a) give the member notice of the decision and the reasons for it; and

(b) if the member is an appointed member—give the Minister a copy of the notice.

(3) If the council gives a member a notice under subsection (2)(a), the member’s term of office ends on the later of the following—

(a) the day the member receives the notice;

(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

(4) The council’s power to remove an appointed member from office under this section does not limit the Governor in Council’s powers under the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25(1)(b)(i) or (iii).38

Division 3B Extending terms of office

26C Minister may extend terms of office

(1) The Minister may, by notice given to the council, extend the terms of office of the additional, appointed and elected members for not more than 1 year if the Minister is satisfied the extension—

(a) is in the best interests of the university; and

38 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 25 (Powers of appointment imply certain incidental powers)
(b) is necessary for the council to perform its functions and exercise its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

‘(2) If the Minister acts under subsection (1), the Minister must extend, by the same amount, the terms of office of all additional, appointed and elected members.

‘(3) The extension applies only to members holding office when the notice is given under subsection (1).

‘(4) This section—

(a) does not allow the Minister to extend the terms of office of the members for more than 1 year by again acting under subsection (1); and

(b) applies despite sections 18, 19(1) and (2) and 20.’.

Clause 159 Insertion of new pt 4A

Before part 5—

insert—

Part 4A Matters relating to offices of chancellor, deputy chancellor, vice-chancellor and chairperson

40C Disqualification from office

‘(1) A person can not become, or continue as, the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson if—

(a) the person is disqualified from managing corporations under the Corporations Act, part 2D.6; or

(b) subject to subsections (2) to (4), the person has a conviction for an indictable offence other than an offence in relation to which the person is disqualified from office under paragraph (a).

'(2) If the council considers it would be reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the indictable offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of which the person has been convicted, the council may—

(a) if the person was the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson when convicted—give notice to the person that the person—

(i) is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(ii) may be later re-elected or reappointed, despite the conviction; or

(b) otherwise—give written approval for the person to become the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson despite the conviction.

'(3) On the day the person receives a notice under subsection (2)(a)—

(a) the person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson; and

(b) if another person has been elected or appointed to fill the vacancy—the other person’s term of office ends.

'(4) If a person is restored as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson under subsection (3), the person’s term of office as the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson ends when it would have ended if the person had not been convicted of the offence.

'40D Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office

'(1) The council may remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office if at least 12 members are satisfied the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson has not complied with—
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

(a) section 26A(2); 39 or
(b) a conduct obligation.

(2) If the council decides to remove the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office under subsection (1), the council must as soon as practicable give the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

(3) The chancellor’s, vice-chancellor’s or chairperson’s term of office ends on the later of the following—
(a) the day he or she receives the notice;
(b) the day, if any, stated in the notice for that purpose.

40E Particular matters about removal of vice-chancellor

(1) The council may remove the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D despite the vice-chancellor’s terms of appointment.

(2) If the council removes the vice-chancellor from office under section 40D—
(a) the removal does not affect the vice-chancellor’s right to claim compensation or other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment applying when the appointment ends; and
(b) the vice-chancellor may only claim compensation and other entitlements under his or her terms of appointment as if—
(i) the appointment had been ended as permitted under the terms of appointment; or
(ii) his or her term of office had ended.

40F Vacation of office

After section 64—
insert—

* Section 26B (Council may remove member from office) 40D (Council may remove chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson from office)
‘64A Protection from liability

‘(1) A member is not civilly liable to someone for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.

‘(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to a member, the liability attaches instead to the university.

‘64B Report about person’s criminal history

‘(1) To decide whether to recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment under section 14(2) as an appointed member, the Minister may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(2) To decide whether a person is eligible to be the chancellor, vice-chancellor or chairperson, or an elected or additional member, the council may ask the commissioner of the police service for—

(a) a written report about the person’s criminal history; and

(b) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction mentioned in the criminal history.

‘(3) The commissioner of the police service must comply with a request under subsection (1) or (2).

‘(4) However, the Minister or council may make a request about a person under subsection (1) or (2) only if the person has given the Minister or council written consent for the request.

‘(5) The duty imposed on the commissioner of the police service to comply with the request applies only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access.

‘(6) The Minister or council must ensure that a report given to the Minister or council under this section is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was requested.
University Legislation Amendment Bill 2005

'7' In this section—

- criminal history, of a person, means the person’s criminal history as defined under the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, other than spent convictions.

'64C Delegation by Minister

  - new additional members see section 89.

  - new appointed members see section 85(2).

  - pre-amended Act means this Act as in force before the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 8.
Subdivision 2 Provisions about council membership

84 Continuation of official members

‘Despite section 13, a person who was an official member under section 13(c) or (e) of the pre-amended Act continues as an official member until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

85 Appointment of new appointed members

(1) The Minister must, within 1 year after the commencement, recommend to the Governor in Council 6 persons for appointment, under section 14(2), as appointed members.

(2) The Governor in Council may appoint the persons as appointed members (the new appointed members).

86 Continuation, and term of office, of appointed members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an appointed member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 14(1), the person continues as an appointed member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (3); or

(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

(3) Despite section 18, the person’s term of office ends when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

87 Continuation of elected members

(1) This section applies to a person who was an elected member immediately before the commencement.

(2) Despite section 15(1) and (2), the person continues as an elected member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under section 88; or
(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(3) Despite section 19(1) and (2), the person’s term of office is 3 years.

88 Ballot, and term of office, for elected members

‘(1) At least 14 days before the new appointed members are appointed, a ballot under section 15(3) of the post-amended Act must be conducted for elected members.

‘(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(3) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(a) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

‘(4) Subsection (5) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(b) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(5) The person’s term of office ends when the elected member who is the member’s successor is elected under the ballot.

‘(6) Subsection (7) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(7) The person’s term of office ends when the elected members mentioned in section 15(2)(c) of the post-amended Act are elected under the ballot.

‘(8) Subsection (9) applies to a person who, immediately before the ballot is conducted, is an elected member mentioned in section 15(2)(d) of the pre-amended Act.

‘(9) The person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘(10) A person is taken to be elected under the ballot when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘(11) Despite section 19(3), the term of office of a person elected under the ballot starts when the new appointed members’ terms of office start.
“(12) Subsections (3), (5), (7) and (9) apply despite section 87(3).

“(13) In this section—

post-amended Act means this Act as in force after the commencement of the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 8.

‘89 Appointment of new additional members

‘The council must, within 1 year after the commencement, appoint 4 persons as additional members (the new additional members) under section 16.

‘90 Continuation, and term of office, of additional members

‘(1) A person who was an additional member immediately before the commencement continues as an additional member until—

(a) the person’s term of office ends under subsection (2); or
(b) the person’s office sooner becomes vacant.

‘(2) Despite section 20, the person’s term of office ends when the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘91 Council need not include additional members

‘Despite section 12, the council need not include additional members before the new additional members’ terms of office start.

‘92 Dealing with casual vacancy in office of elected member

‘(1) This section applies if a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member after the commencement and before the ballot mentioned in section 88(1) is conducted.

‘(2) For appointing or electing a person to the office, the pre-amended Act continues to apply as if the University Legislation Amendment Act 2005, part 8, had not commenced.
‘Subdivision 3 Constitution of council

‘93 Constitution of council

‘(1) This section applies until the new appointed members’ terms of office start.

‘(2) Despite section 17, the council is taken to be properly constituted when it has 12 or more members, whether they be additional, appointed, elected or official members.’.
