- ‘(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the licensee has started a proceeding in the tribunal for review of the authority’s direction under section 72(15) and either—
- (a) the licensee has not withdrawn the proceeding and the proceeding or any appeal from the proceeding has not been decided; or
 - (b) the tribunal has decided that none of the items listed in the direction needed rectification.
- ‘(5) Subsection (6) applies if—
- (a) a licensee is given a direction or directions before the renewal day for the licensee’s licence; and
 - (b) the licensee starts a proceeding for review of the authority’s direction under section 72(15); and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the licensee withdraws the proceeding after the renewal day for the licensee’s licence; or
 - (ii) the proceeding is decided after the renewal day for the licensee’s licence and the decision is that 1 or more of the items listed on the direction needed rectification.
- ‘(6) The amount of the next renewal fee payable by the licensee is increased by an amount equivalent to the value of a penalty unit for each direction given to the licensee.
- ‘(7) Subsection (8) applies if—
- (a) a direction to rectify building work is given to a licensee before the renewal day for the licensee’s licence; and
 - (b) the period for rectification stated in the direction expires after the renewal day for the licensee’s licence; and
 - (c) the licensee has not rectified the work before the renewal day for the licensee’s licence.
- ‘(8) For the purposes of this section, the direction is taken to have been given after the renewal day for the licensee’s licence.’.
