under section 81H(1). 2

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units. 3

‘81H Request for inspector to enquire into giving of 4 provisional improvement notice 5

‘(1) Within 7 days after a provisional improvement notice is given 6 to a person— 7

(a) the person given the notice; or 8

(b) if the person given the notice is a worker—the relevant 9
person for the worker; 10

may ask the chief executive to arrange for an inspector to 11 attend the workplace to enquire into the circumstances 12 relating to the giving of the notice. 13

‘(2) The operation of the notice is suspended until the inspector 14 completes the inspector’s enquiry. 15

‘(3) A qualified workplace health and safety representative may 16 ask the chief executive to arrange for an inspector to attend the 17 workplace to enquire into the circumstances relating to the 18 giving of the notice if— 19

(a) the person given the notice has not complied with the 20
notice within the time stated in the notice; and 21

(b) subsection (1) does not apply. 22

‘81I Attendance of inspector in relation to provisional 23 improvement notice 24

‘(1) As soon as practicable after the request is made, the chief 25
executive must arrange for an inspector to— 26

(a) attend the workplace; and 27

(b) enquire into the circumstances relating to the giving of 28
the provisional improvement notice. 29

‘(2) The inspector must— 30

‘(1) This section applies if the industrial commission decides to decide the application after a consideration of the documents filed and without a hearing.	17 18 19
‘(2) The industrial commission must give the applicant and the representative a written notice stating—	20 21
(a) the industrial commission is considering whether to suspend or cancel the qualified workplace health and safety representative’s entitlement to give a provisional improvement notice (the proposed action ); and	22 23 24 25
(b) the reason for the proposed action; and	26
(c) if the proposed action is suspension of the entitlement—the proposed suspension period; and	27 28
(d) an invitation—	29
(i) to the representative to show in writing, within a stated time of at least 14 days after the date of the	30 31

- notice, why the proposed action should not be taken; and
- (ii) to the applicant to comment in writing, within a stated time of at least 14 days after the date of the notice, on the appropriateness of the proposed action.
- ‘(3) The industrial commission may take action under subsection (4) if, after considering all documents filed in the application and all written submissions made within the time allowed under subsection (2)(d), the industrial commission—
- (a) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the representative has unreasonably given a provisional improvement notice to a person; and
- (b) considers the representative’s entitlement to give a provisional improvement notice should be suspended or cancelled.
- ‘(4) The industrial commission may—
- (a) if the proposed action is to suspend the entitlement—suspend the entitlement for no longer than the proposed suspension period; or
- (b) if the proposed action is to cancel the entitlement—cancel the entitlement or suspend it for a period.
- ‘(5) The industrial commission must give the applicant and the representative a written notice stating—
- (a) the decision; and
- (b) the reasons for the decision; and
- (c) that the applicant or the authorised representative may appeal against the decision under part 11.
- ‘(6) In this section—

‘81Q Applications decided at a hearing 4

- ‘(1) This section applies if the industrial commission decides to decide the application at a hearing. 5 6
- ‘(2) The industrial commission must give the applicant and the representative at least 14 days notice of the hearing date. 7 8
- ‘(3) To the extent practicable, the hearing is to be conducted under the rules applying to hearings of the industrial commission under the Industrial Relations Act 1999 with necessary changes or, if the rules make no provision or insufficient provision, in accordance with directions of the industrial commission. 9 10
12
13
14
- ‘(4) The industrial commission may take action under subsection (5) if, after considering the evidence and submissions in relation to the application, the industrial commission— 15 16
17
  - (a) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the representative has unreasonably given a provisional improvement notice to a person; and 18
19
20
  - (b) considers the representative’s entitlement to give a provisional improvement notice should be suspended or cancelled. 21
22
23
- ‘(5) The industrial commission may— 24
  - (a) suspend the entitlement for a stated period; or 25
  - (b) cancel the entitlement. 26
