36	lmı	munity from liability	21
		A person who makes a public interest disclosure is not subject to any civil or criminal liability or any liability arising by way of administrative process, including disciplinary action, for making the disclosure.	22 23 24 25

37	Со	nfidentiality provisions do not apply	1
	Without limiting section 36, a person who makes a public interest disclosure does not by doing so—
		(a) commit an offence under any Act that imposes a duty to maintain confidentiality in relation to a matter or any other restriction on the disclosure of information; or	4 5 6
		(b) breach an obligation by way of oath or rule of law or practice or under an agreement requiring the person to maintain confidentiality or otherwise restricting the disclosure of information in relation to a matter.	7 8 9 10
38	Protection from defamation action
		Without limiting section 36, in a proceeding for defamation, a person who makes a public interest disclosure has a defence of absolute privilege for publishing the information disclosed.
39	Liability for own conduct
	(1)	A person's liability for the person's own conduct is not affected by the person's disclosure of that conduct under this Act.	16 17 18
	(2)	In this section—	19
		liability includes civil or criminal liability or any liability arising by way of administrative process, including disciplinary action.	20 21 22
40	Reprisal and grounds for reprisal
	(1)	A person must not cause, or attempt or conspire to cause, detriment to another person because, or in the belief that—	23 24 25
		(a) the other person or someone else has made, or intends to make, a public interest disclosure; or	26 27

		(b) the other person or someone else is, has been, or intends to be, involved in a proceeding under the Act against any person.	1 2 3
	(2)	An attempt to cause detriment includes an attempt to induce a person to cause detriment.	4 5
	(3)	A contravention of subsection (1) is a reprisal or the taking of a reprisal.	6 7
	(4)	A ground mentioned in subsection (1) as the ground for a reprisal is the unlawful ground for the reprisal.	8 9
	(5)	For the contravention mentioned in subsection (3) to happen, it is sufficient if the unlawful ground is a substantial ground for the act or omission that is the reprisal, even if there is another ground for the act or omission.	10 11 12 13
41	Off	Offence of taking reprisal
	(1)	A person must not take a reprisal.	15
		Maximum penalty—167 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.	16 17
	(2)	An offence against subsection (1) is an indictable offence.	18
42	Da	mages entitlement for reprisal	19
	(1)	A reprisal is a tort and a person who takes a reprisal is liable in damages to any person who suffers detriment as a result.	20 21
	(2)	Any appropriate remedy that may be granted by a court for a tort, including exemplary damages, may be granted by a court for the taking of a reprisal.	22 23 24
	(3)	If the claim for damages goes to trial in the Supreme Court or the District Court, it must be decided by a judge sitting without a jury.	25 26 27
	(4)	The right of a person to bring proceedings for damages under this section does not affect any other right or remedy available to the person arising from the reprisal.	28 29 30

	(5)	Proceedings for damages may be brought under this section even if a prosecution in relation to the reprisal has not been brought, or can not be brought, under section 41.	1 2 3
	(6)	The Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 does not apply to proceedings for damages brought under this section.	4 5 6
43	Vic	Vicarious liability of public sector entity
	(1)	If any of a public sector entity's employees contravenes section 40 in the course of employment, both the public sector entity and the employee, as the case may be, are jointly and severally civilly liable for the contravention, and a proceeding under section 42 may be taken against either or both.	8 9 10 11 12
	(2)	It is a defence to a proceeding against a public sector entity under section 42 if the public sector entity proves, on the balance of probabilities, that the public sector entity took reasonable steps to prevent the employee contravening section 40.
	(3)	In this section—	18
		public sector entity includes—	19
		(a) a corporate entity; and	20
		(b) a GOC.	21
44	Со	mplaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991	22
	(1)	A person may make a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal.	23 24
	(2)	The complaint may be dealt with under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 , chapters 6 and 7 as if the complaint were about an alleged contravention of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 .	25 26 27 28
	(3)	However—	20

		(a) if a person commences proceedings in a court under section 42 in relation to a reprisal, the person can not subsequently make a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about the reprisal; and	1 2 3 4
		(b) if the person makes a complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal and the complaint is accepted under that Act, the person can not subsequently commence proceedings under section 42 in relation to the reprisal.	5 6 7 8 9
	(4)	A complaint under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about a reprisal may be made even if a prosecution in relation to the reprisal has not been brought, or can not be brought, under section 41.	10 11 12 13
45	Reasonable management action not prevented
	(1)	Nothing in this part is intended to prevent a manager from taking reasonable management action in relation to an employee who has made a public interest disclosure.
	(2)	However, a manager may take reasonable management action in relation to an employee who has made a public interest disclosure only if the manager's reasons for taking the action do not include the fact that the person has made the public interest disclosure.
	(3)	In this section—	23
		manager , of an employee, means a person to whom the employee reports or a person who directly or indirectly supervises the employee in the performance of the employee's functions as an employee.	24 25 26 27
