‘Division 2                    Interlock condition                    17

‘91J    Persons to whom div 2 applies                    18

- ‘(1) This division applies to a person who— 19
- (a) is convicted of a drink driving offence committed after the commencement of this section; and 20 21
  - (b) is disqualified, other than under a prescribed provision, by or because of the conviction or offence, or under the penalty imposed for the offence, for a particular period (the disqualification period) from holding or obtaining a Queensland driver licence. 22
23
25
26
- ‘(2) This division also applies to a person who is subject to a non-Queensland interlock requirement. 27 28
- ‘(3) Despite subsection (2), this division does not apply to a person mentioned in the subsection if, were this division to apply to 29 30

the person, the person’s interlock period would have ended under section 91M.	1 2
‘(4) In this section—	3
prescribed provision means section 79B(4), 81(4)(b), 89(1) or 90(1).	4 5
‘91K Interlock condition	6
‘(1) A Queensland driver licence granted to a person mentioned in section 91J(1) after the person’s disqualification period ends is subject to the condition ( interlock condition ) that, during the interlock period applying to the person, the person may drive only—	7 8 9 10 11
(a) if paragraph (b) or (c) does not apply—a motor vehicle that is a nominated vehicle fitted with a prescribed interlock; or	12 13 14
(b) when the person is receiving driver training from a person accredited as a driver trainer under a regulation—	15 16 17
(i) a motor vehicle mentioned in paragraph (a); or	18
(ii) a motor vehicle provided by the accredited driver trainer; or	19 20
(c) when the person is taking a practical driving test under the driver licensing regulation—any motor vehicle.	21 22
‘(2) A Queensland driver licence granted to a person mentioned in section 91J(2) during the person’s non-Queensland interlock period is subject to the interlock condition.	23 24 25
‘91L Nomination of vehicle	26
‘(1) For section 91K(1)(a), a person—	27
(a) may nominate only a motor vehicle of a class the person is authorised to drive under the person’s Queensland driver licence; and	28 29 30

[s 17]

---

(b) may nominate more than 1 motor vehicle.	1
Examples—	2
• the person’s own motor vehicle	3
• a motor vehicle owned by the person’s spouse, friend or employer	4 5
‘(2) A particular vehicle can not be the nominated vehicle for more than 1 person unless a regulation provides for identifying the driver of the vehicle at a particular time.	6 7 8
Example of what a regulation may provide for—	9
a scheme involving the driver using a PIN or swipe card or keeping a logbook	10 11
‘(3) The nomination must be made in the approved form to the chief executive.	12 13
‘91M Interlock period	14
‘The interlock period is the period—	15
(a) starting—	16
(i) for a person mentioned in section 91J(1)—when the person is first granted a Queensland driver licence after the person’s disqualification period ends; or	17 18 19 20
(ii) for a person mentioned in section 91J(2)—when the person’s non-Queensland interlock period starts; and	21 22 23
(b) ending when whichever of the following happens first—	24
(i) a period of 5 years elapses after—	25
(A) for a person mentioned in section 91J(1)—the person’s disqualification period ended; or	26 27 28
(B) for a person mentioned in section 91J(2)—the person was first issued with a non-Queensland driver licence after	29 30 31

becoming subject to a non-Queensland interlock requirement of the jurisdiction that issued the licence;	1 2 3
(ii) the person’s prescribed period ends;	4
(iii) the day, if any, the person’s Queensland driver licence is cancelled under section 127 because of a disqualification for a drink driving offence.	5 6 7
Note—	8
If a person’s interlock period ends under subparagraph (iii)—	9 10
(a) the interlock condition ends under section 91O; and	11
(b) any interlock exemption relating to the person stops having effect under section 91S(d); and	12 13
(c) section 91K may apply in relation to the disqualification mentioned in the subparagraph.	14 15
‘91N Prescribed period	16
‘(1) The prescribed period for a person is the period of 12 months during which—	17 18
(a) the person held a valid Queensland driver licence and had—	19 20
(i) a nominated vehicle fitted with a prescribed interlock; or	21 22
(ii) an interlock exemption that had effect; or	23
(b) the person, while driving under the authority of a valid non-Queensland driver licence—	24 25
(i) complied with a non-Queensland interlock requirement; or	26 27
(ii) had an exemption from the non-Queensland interlock requirement that had effect; or	28 29
(c) the person satisfied paragraph (a) for part of the period and satisfied paragraph (b) for the balance of the period.	30 31

- Example—* 1
- The prescribed period may comprise 3 months during which the 2 person satisfies paragraph (a)(i), 3 months during which the 3 person satisfies paragraph (a)(ii), 3 months during which the 4 person satisfies paragraph (b)(i) and 3 months during which the 5 person satisfies paragraph (b)(ii). 6
- ‘(2) However, if a person’s prescribed period is extended under 7 division 4, the prescribed period for the person is the period 8 comprising— 9
- (a) the period of 12 months mentioned in subsection (1); 10 and 11
- (b) each period— 12
- (i) by which the period mentioned in subsection (1) is 13 extended under division 4; and 14
- (ii) during which the person meets the requirements of 15 subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c). 16
- Example—* 17
- If a person’s prescribed period is extended under division 4 for a period 18 of 3 months, the person’s prescribed period is the period of 15 months 19 during which the person meets the requirements of subsection (1)(a), (b) 20 or (c). 21
- ‘(3) The prescribed period need not be continuous. 22
- ‘(4) In this section— 23
- valid* means— 24
- (a) in relation to a Queensland driver licence— 25
- (i) the licence has not expired; or 26
- (ii) the licence has not been cancelled or suspended; or 27
- (iii) the licensee is not disqualified from holding or 28 obtaining a Queensland driver licence; or 29
- (b) in relation to a non-Queensland driver licence— 30
- (i) the licence has not expired; or 31
- (ii) the licence has not been cancelled or suspended; or 32

(iii) the licensee is not disqualified from holding or obtaining the licence in the jurisdiction in which it may be issued.	1 2 3
‘91O When interlock condition ends	4
‘The interlock condition ends when the interlock period ends.	5
‘Division 3 Interlock exemption	6
‘91P Applying for interlock exemption	7
‘(1) A person mentioned in section 91J(1) may apply to the chief executive for an interlock exemption.	8 9
‘(2) The application can not be made sooner than 6 weeks before the end of the person’s disqualification period.	10 11
‘(3) A person mentioned in section 91J(2) may, at any time, apply to the chief executive for an interlock exemption.	12 13
‘(4) An application under subsection (1) or (3) must be made in the approved form and be accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.	14 15 16
‘91Q Deciding application for interlock exemption	17
‘(1) The chief executive—	18
(a) must decide an application for an interlock exemption in the prescribed 28-day period; and	19 20
(b) must grant or refuse to grant the exemption.	21
‘(2) If the chief executive grants the exemption, the chief executive may impose restrictions applying to the exemption.	22 23
‘(3) The chief executive may only grant an interlock exemption if the chief executive is satisfied—	24 25

- (a) that the shortest reasonable distance using a motor vehicle, or shortest reasonable travelling time using a motor vehicle, between the applicant’s place of residence and the nearest place of business of a prescribed interlock installer is greater than the distance or time prescribed under a regulation; or
  - (b) that, as evidenced by a doctor’s certificate provided to the chief executive, the applicant has a medical condition preventing the applicant from providing a sufficient breath sample to operate an approved interlock; or
  - (c) of another matter prescribed under a regulation for this subsection.
- ‘(4) If the chief executive reasonably believes further information or documents are required to make a decision about the application, the chief executive may give the applicant a written notice requesting the applicant, within a stated period of at least 28 days, to give further information or documents relevant to the application.
- ‘(5) If the applicant does not comply with a notice given under subsection (4), the chief executive may declare, by further written notice given to the applicant, that the application is taken to be withdrawn on a day stated in the notice.
- ‘(6) A notice given under subsection (5) must state—
- (a) the reasons for the decision to make the declaration; and
  - (b) the prescribed review information for the decision.
- ‘(7) If the chief executive does not decide the application within the prescribed 28-day period, the chief executive is taken to have made a decision (a deemed decision) refusing to grant the exemption on the last day of the period.
- ‘(8) Despite subsection (7), the chief executive may continue to consider the application and make a considered decision in relation to it.

‘(9)	If a considered decision is made, the considered decision replaces any deemed decision for the purposes of this Act.	1 2
‘(10)	As soon as practicable after a deemed decision or considered decision is made, the chief executive must give the applicant a written notice stating—	3 4 5
	(a) the prescribed review information for the decision; and	6
	(b) for a considered decision, the reasons for the decision.	7
	Note—	8
	Sections 65 and 65A provide for the review of the decision.	9
‘(11)	In this section—	10
	considered decision means a decision in accordance with subsection (3).	11 12
	prescribed 28-day period means the later of the following periods—	13 14
	(a) 28 days after the chief executive receives the application;	15 16
	(b) 28 days after the chief executive receives further information or documents about the application under subsection (4).	17 18 19
‘91R	Decision on application and exemption certificate	20
‘(1)	The chief executive must inform an applicant for an interlock exemption of the chief executive’s decision on the application by written notice.	21 22 23
‘(2)	If the chief executive decides to grant the exemption, the written notice must contain a brief statement of—	24 25
	(a) the matters of which the chief executive was satisfied under section 91Q(3); and	26 27
	(b) the matters in relation to which the person must notify the chief executive, under section 91Y, of any change.	28 29

[s 17]

---

- ‘(3) Also, if the chief executive decides to grant the exemption, the chief executive must give the applicant a certificate about the exemption (the exemption certificate). 1 2
3
- ‘(4) The exemption certificate must be in the approved form and 4
must state— 5
- (a) the exemption’s expiry date; and 6
- (b) any restrictions applying to the exemption; and 7
- (c) to the extent it is relevant, the information mentioned in 8
section 91S. 9
- ‘(5) If the chief executive decides to refuse to grant the exemption, 10
the notice must state— 11
- (a) the reasons for the decision; and 12
- (b) the prescribed review information for the decision. 13
- ‘91S When interlock exemption stops having effect 14
- ‘A person’s interlock exemption stops having effect when 15 whichever of the following happens first— 16
- (a) the expiry date stated on the exemption certificate; 17
- (b) 14 days elapse after the person gives the chief executive 18
a notice under section 91Y; 19
- (c) the exemption is cancelled under section 19; 20
- Note— 21*
- Section 19 provides the procedure for cancelling an approval 22 which, as defined in section 17A, includes an interlock 23 exemption. 24
- (d) the interlock period ends. 25
- ‘91T What happens when interlock exemption stops 26
having effect 27

(c)	outline the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the ground; and	1 2
(d)	state the period, of not more than 3 months, by which the prescribed period is to be extended; and	3 4
(e)	invite the person to show cause, within a stated time of at least 28 days, why the proposed action should not be taken.	5 6 7
‘(3)	The chief executive may, before or after the end of the time stated in the show cause notice, extend the time within which the person may show cause.	8 9 10
‘(4)	If, after considering any personal or written representations made within the time stated or allowed, the chief executive still considers a ground exists to take the proposed action, the chief executive may extend the prescribed period for a period not longer than the period stated in the show cause notice.	11 12 13 14 15
‘(5)	The chief executive must give the person written notice of the decision stating the following—	16 17
(a)	the period for which the prescribed period is extended;	18
(b)	the reasons for the decision;	19
(c)	the prescribed review information for the decision.	20

'Chapter 5D Heavy vehicle speeding 7

'Part 1 Preliminary 8

'163AA Main purpose of ch 5D 9

'The main purpose of this chapter is to improve road safety 10 and compliance with road safety laws by imposing 11 responsibility for speeding by heavy vehicles on persons 12 whose business activities influence the conduct of the drivers 13 of heavy vehicles. 14

'163AB Outline of the main features of ch 5D 15

'This chapter— 16

(a) requires persons who are most directly responsible for 17
the operation of a heavy vehicle to take reasonable steps 18 to ensure their activities do not cause drivers to exceed 19 speed limits; and 20

(b) requires anyone who schedules the activities of a heavy 21 vehicle, or its driver, to take reasonable steps to ensure 22 the schedule of the vehicle and the driver does not cause 23
the driver to exceed speed limits; and 24

(c) requires heavy vehicle loading managers to take 25 reasonable steps to ensure the loading or unloading 26

arrangements for a heavy vehicle do not cause the driver to exceed speed limits; and	1 2
(d) requires particular persons who consign goods for transport by a heavy vehicle, or who receive the goods, to take reasonable steps to ensure the terms of consignment of the goods do not cause drivers to exceed speed limits; and	3 4 5 6 7
(e) prohibits anyone from asking a driver to exceed speed limits and from entering into an agreement that causes a driver to exceed speed limits.	8 9 10
‘163AC Definitions for ch 5D	11
‘In this chapter—	12
cause , a thing, includes—	13
(a) contribute to causing the thing; and	14
(b) encourage the thing.	15
driver means the driver of a heavy vehicle and includes an employed driver and a self-employed driver.	16 17
employed driver means a driver who is employed by someone else to drive a heavy vehicle under a contract of employment, apprenticeship or training.	18 19 20
employer means a person who engages someone else to drive a heavy vehicle under a contract of employment, apprenticeship or training.	21 22 23
Example —	24
a labour hire company	25
party in the chain of responsibility see section 163AN.	26
prime contractor means a person who engages someone else to drive a heavy vehicle under a contract for services.	27 28
Example —	29
a logistics business that engages a subcontractor to transport goods	30

self-employed driver means a driver who is not an employed driver.	1 2
speed limit , in relation to a driver, means a speed limit applying to the driver under the Queensland Road Rules.	3 4
‘Part 2	Particular duties and offences 5
‘Division 1	Employers, prime contractors and operators 6 7
‘163AD Duty of employer, prime contractor or operator to ensure business practices will not cause driver to exceed speed limit etc.	8 9 10
‘(1) A relevant party for a driver must take all reasonable steps to ensure the relevant party’s business practices will not cause the driver to exceed a speed limit.	11 12 13
Maximum penalty—80 penalty units.	14
Examples of reasonable steps—	15
• regular consultation with other parties in the chain of responsibility, unions and industry associations to address compliance issues	16 17
• reviewing driving, work and trip records	18
• a program to report and monitor (for example, by GPS tracking) incidents of speeding and related risks and hazards	19 20
• training and information for drivers, staff and parties in the chain of responsibility about speeding	21 22
• regular maintenance of vehicle components that relate to complying with speed limits (for example, speedometer, engine management system and speed limiters)	23 24 25
Notes—	26
1 Section 57DB sets out some of the factors a court may consider in deciding whether a person has taken all reasonable steps.	27 28

2	Section 57DC sets out 1 method by which an employer, prime contractor and operator can take all reasonable steps for this subsection.	1 2 3
‘(2)	In this section—	4
	business practices , of a relevant party for a driver, means the practices of the relevant party in running the relevant party’s business, and includes each of the following—	5 6 7
(a)	the operating policies and procedures of the business;	8
(b)	the human resource and contract management arrangements of the business;	9 10
(c)	arrangements for managing safety.	11
	relevant party , for a driver, means any of the following—	12
(a)	an employer of the driver, if the driver is an employed driver;	13 14
(b)	a prime contractor of the driver, if the driver is a self-employed driver;	15 16
(c)	an operator of the vehicle, if the driver of the vehicle is to make a journey for the operator.	17 18
‘163AE	Duty of employer not to cause driver to drive if particular requirements not complied with	19 20
	‘An employer of an employed driver must not cause the driver to drive the heavy vehicle unless—	21 22
(a)	the employer has complied with section 163AD; and	23
(b)	the employer, after making reasonable inquiries, is satisfied each scheduler for the vehicle has complied with sections 163AG and 163AH.	24 25 26
	Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	27

[s 31]

---

‘163AF Duty of prime contractor or operator not to cause driver to drive if particular requirements not complied with	1 2 3
‘(1) This section applies to—	4
(a) a prime contractor of a self-employed driver (the driver ); and	5 6
(b) an operator of a heavy vehicle being driven by someone else (also the driver ).	7 8
‘(2) The prime contractor, or operator, must not cause the driver to drive the heavy vehicle unless—	9 10
(a) the prime contractor, or operator, has complied with section 163AD; and	11 12
(b) the prime contractor, or operator, after making reasonable inquiries, is satisfied each scheduler for the vehicle has complied with sections 163AG and 163AH.	13 14 15
Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	16

‘Division 2	Schedulers	17
--------------------	-------------------	----

‘163AG Duty to ensure driver’s schedule will not cause driver to exceed speed limit	18 19
‘A scheduler for a heavy vehicle must take all reasonable steps to ensure the schedule for the driver will not cause the driver to exceed a speed limit.	20 21 22
Maximum penalty—80 penalty units.	23
Examples of reasonable steps—	24
• consulting drivers about their schedules and work requirements	25
• taking account of the average speed that can be travelled lawfully on scheduled routes	26 27
• allowing for traffic conditions or other delays in schedules	28
• contingency planning concerning schedules	29

- Notes—* 1
- 1 Section 57DB sets out some of the factors a court may consider in 2 deciding whether a person has taken all reasonable steps. 3
- 2 Section 57DC sets out 1 method by which a scheduler can take all 4 reasonable steps for this section. 5

‘163AH Duty not to cause driver to drive if particular 6 requirements not complied with 7

- ‘A scheduler for a heavy vehicle must not cause the driver to 8 drive the heavy vehicle unless— 9
- (a) the scheduler has complied with section 163AG; and 10
- (b) the driver’s schedule for driving the vehicle allows— 11
- (i) for compliance with all speed limits; and 12
- (ii) for the driver to take all required rest breaks in 13
compliance with all laws regulating the driver’s 14 work and rest hours; and 15
- (iii) for traffic conditions and other delays that could 16 reasonably be expected. 17

Examples for subparagraph (iii)— 18

- the actual average speed able to be travelled lawfully 19 and safely by the driver on the route to be travelled by 20
the vehicle 21
- known traffic conditions, for example, road works or 22 traffic congestion on the route 23
- delays caused by loading, unloading or queuing 24

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units. 25

‘Division 3	Loading managers	1
‘163AI Duty of loading manager to ensure loading arrangements will not cause driver to exceed speed limit		2 3 4
‘A loading manager must take all reasonable steps to ensure the arrangements for loading and unloading heavy vehicles at the premises in relation to which the person is the loading manager will not cause a driver to exceed a speed limit.		5 6 7 8
Examples of reasonable steps—		9
• reviewing loading and unloading times and delays at loading and unloading places		10 11
• identifying potential loading and unloading congestion in consultation with drivers and other parties in the chain of responsibility		12 13 14
• having a system of setting and allocating loading and unloading times that a driver can reasonably rely on		15 16
• allowing loading and unloading to happen at an agreed time		17
Notes—		18
1 Section 57DB sets out some of the factors a court may consider in deciding whether a person has taken all reasonable steps.		19 20
2 Section 57DC sets out 1 method by which a loading manager can take all reasonable steps for this section.		21 22
Maximum penalty—80 penalty units.		23
‘Division 4	Particular consignors and consignees	24 25
‘163AJ Consignors to whom div 4 applies		26
‘This division applies only to a consignor who engages a particular operator of a heavy vehicle, either directly or indirectly or through an agent or other intermediary, to		27 28 29

transport goods for the consignor by road for commercial purposes. 1 2

‘163AK Consignees to whom div 4 applies 3

‘This division applies only to a consignee— 4

- (a) who, with the consignee’s authority, is named or otherwise identified in the relevant transport documentation as the intended consignee of goods transported by road by a particular operator of a heavy vehicle; and 5 6
7
9
- (b) who knows, or who ought reasonably to have known, that the goods were to be transported by road. 10 11

‘163AL Duty of consignor or consignee to ensure terms of consignment will not cause driver to exceed speed limit etc. 12
13
14

‘(1) A consignor or consignee must take all reasonable steps to ensure the terms of consignment will not cause the driver to exceed a speed limit. 15
16

Maximum penalty—80 penalty units. 18

‘(2) A consignor or consignee must take all reasonable steps to ensure the terms of consignment will not cause a relevant party for the driver to cause the driver to exceed a speed limit. 19
20
21

Maximum penalty—80 penalty units. 22

Examples of reasonable steps for subsections (1) and (2)— 23

- ensuring contractual arrangements and documentation for the consignment and delivery of goods enable speed limit compliance 24 25
- contingency planning concerning consignments and delivery times 26
- regular consultation with other parties in the chain of responsibility, unions and industry associations to address compliance issues 27

2	Section 57DC sets out 1 method by which a consignor or consignee can take all reasonable steps for subsection (1) or (2).	1 2
‘(3)	In this section—	3
	driver means the driver of the heavy vehicle by which the consigned goods are transported.	4 5
	relevant party , for a driver, means—	6
(a)	an employer of the driver, if the driver is an employed driver; or	7 8
(b)	a prime contractor of the driver, if the driver is a self-employed driver; or	9 10
(c)	an operator of the vehicle.	11
‘163AM	Duty of consignor or consignee not to make a demand that may result in driver exceeding the speed limit	12 13 14
	‘A consignor or consignee must not make a demand that affects, or may affect, a time in a schedule for the transport of the consigned goods unless—	15 16 17
(a)	the consignor or consignee has complied with section 163AL; and	18 19
(b)	the consignor or consignee is satisfied, after making reasonable inquiries, that the making of the demand will not cause a person to fail to comply with section 163AG or 163AH.	20 21 22 23
	Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.	24
‘Division 5	Particular requests etc. and contracts prohibited	25 26
‘163AN	Who is a party in the chain of responsibility	27
‘(1)	Each of the following persons is a party in the chain of responsibility for a heavy vehicle—	28 29

- (a) an employer of the driver; 1
- (b) a prime contractor for the driver; 2
- (c) an operator of the vehicle; 3
- (d) a scheduler for the vehicle; 4
- (e) a loading manager for goods in the vehicle; 5
- (f) a consignor of goods transported or to be transported by the vehicle to whom division 4 applies; 6 7
- (g) a consignee of goods transported or to be transported by the vehicle to whom division 4 applies. 8 9

Note— 10

The performance of any of these functions, whether exclusively or 11 occasionally, decides whether a person falls within any of these 12 definitions, rather than the person’s job title or contractual description. 13

- ‘(2) A person may be a party in the chain of responsibility in more 14
than 1 capacity. 15

Example— 16

A person may be a driver’s employer, an operator and a consignor of 17 goods at the same time in relation to a heavy vehicle and be subject to 18 duties in each of the capacities. 19

‘163AO Particular requests etc. prohibited 20

‘A person must not ask, direct or require, directly or indirectly, 21 a driver, or a party in the chain of responsibility for a heavy 22 vehicle, to do something the person knows, or reasonably 23 ought to know, would have the effect of causing the driver to 24 exceed a speed limit. 25

Example of a requirement that contravenes this section— 26

a requirement that the driver complete a journey in a time the person 27 knows or reasonably ought to know can not be complied with unless the 28 driver exceeds the speed limit or does not take all the rest time the driver 29 is required to take under the fatigue management regulation 30

Maximum penalty—80 penalty units. 31

‘(1) In a proceeding for a prescribed offence in which the speed at 29 which a motor vehicle travelled is relevant, the prosecution 30 may, under this section, rely on the average speed of the vehicle between 2 points on a road as evidence of the actual speed of the vehicle for the purpose of proving the offence.

Example of a prescribed offence in which the speed of a motor vehicle is relevant—

Queensland Road Rules, section 20 (Obeying the speed limit)

- ‘(2) The following provisions apply in relation to the proceeding—
- (a) the average speed of the vehicle calculated under this section is admissible and is evidence of the actual speed at which the vehicle travelled between the 2 points on the road;
- (b) the vehicle is, for the purpose of calculating the vehicle’s average speed, taken to have travelled between the 2 points on the road by means of the shortest practicable distance between the points regardless of the actual route taken between the points.
- ‘(3) The average speed of a motor vehicle between 2 points on a road is to be calculated using the following formula (and expressed in kilometres per hour rounded down to the next whole number)—

$$\frac{D \times 3.6}{T}$$

where—

D is the shortest practicable distance, expressed in metres and rounded down to the next whole number, between the 2 points.

T is the time, expressed in seconds, that elapsed between the vehicle passing the 2 points.

- ‘(4) A certificate purporting to be signed by the commissioner that certifies any 1 or more of the following matters is admissible in a proceeding mentioned in subsection (1) and is evidence of any of the matters certified—

[s 40]

---

- (a) the shortest practicable distance, expressed in metres and rounded down to the next whole number, between 2 points on a road; 1
3
- (b) the time (expressed in seconds) that elapsed between a motor vehicle passing 2 points on a road; 4 5

‘19B Using digital photo and digitised signature	23
‘(1) The chief executive may, with a person’s consent, use the person’s most recent digital photo and digitised signature for any of the following purposes—	24 25 26
(a) to help identify the person for deciding whether or not to grant an application for a relevant certificate;	27 28
(b) to reproduce the person’s digital photo and digitised signature on a document evidencing a relevant certificate;	29 30 31

- (c) for a digital photo taken under section 19A(1)(b), to establish the person's connection to the person's most recent digital photo for the purposes of—
- (i) a relevant certificate; or
  - (ii) a document evidencing a relevant certificate.
- '(2) The chief executive may use a person's most recent digital photo and digitised signature to help in an investigation of, or proceeding for, an offence that—
- (a) happens—
    - (i) in making the application for which the person's digital photo and digitised signature are taken under section 19A(1); or
    - (ii) during the retention period for the digital photo and digitised signature; and
  - (b) involves a person obtaining or attempting to obtain any of the following by a false statement, misrepresentation or any other dishonest way—
    - (i) a relevant certificate or its renewal;
    - (ii) a PIN or anything else for—
      - (A) a relevant certificate; or
      - (B) a document evidencing a relevant certificate.
- '(3) In this section—
