[s 24]

- dominant purpose of carrying out the opinion poll or research is—
- (i) to promote or oppose, directly or indirectly, a registered political party or the election of a candidate; or
  - (ii) to influence, directly or indirectly, voting at the election.
- (3) Section 199—
relocate to part 11, division 10 and renumber as section 282A.

Clause 24 Insertion of new s 201A

After section 201—
insert—

201A CPI indexation of particular amounts

- (1) This section applies if a provision in this part mentions the amount of $12400, CPI indexed for a financial year.
- (2) For each financial year occurring after the financial year ending on 30 June 2014, the amount of $12400 is adjusted for the financial year on 1 July using the formula—

$$\frac{A \times B}{C}$$

where—

A is—

- (a) for the financial year ending on 30 June 2015—$12400; and
- (b) for each subsequent financial year—the amount of $12400, CPI indexed for the year immediately before 1 July in a year.

B is the CPI number published for the March quarter in the year.

[s 49]

- (i) endorsed by the political party for the duration of the financial year for which the policy development payment is payable; and
- (ii) a member of the political party on the day the entitlement to the policy development payment is decided.
- (2) However, a registered political party is not eligible for a policy development payment if the agent of the political party has requested, in writing to the commission, that no policy development payment is to be made to the political party.
- (3) A request made under subsection (2) continues in effect until the request is withdrawn, in writing to the commission, by the political party's agent.

240 Amount of policy development payment to which eligible registered political party is entitled

- (1) The policy development payment to which each eligible registered political party is entitled for a financial year is the amount worked out using the following formula—

$$\frac{A \times B}{C}$$

where—

A is the amount prescribed under a regulation for this definition.

B is the total number of formal first preference votes given to each relevant candidate endorsed by the political party in the last general election occurring in or before the financial year (the last election).

relevant commencement means the day the Electoral Reform Amendment Act 2013, section 38 is taken to have commenced under section 2 of that Act.

419 Application of previous pt 11, div 4 to claims for advance payment of election funding lodged before relevant commencement

- (1) This section applies if, before the relevant commencement, a claim for advance payment of election funding by a registered political party or candidate was lodged with the commission under part 11, division 4 but not decided.
- (2) The commission's decision, and any advance payment of election funding under that part as in force immediately before the relevant commencement, is not affected by the commencement of the Electoral Reform Amendment Act 2013.
- (3) Part 11, division 4 as in force immediately before the relevant commencement continues to apply to the party or candidate in relation to any advance payment mentioned in subsection (2) made to the party or candidate.

420 Recovery of advance payments of election funding lodged and paid after relevant commencement

If a claim for advance payment of election funding lodged after the relevant commencement by a registered political party or candidate under part 11, division 4 as in force immediately before the relevant commencement, is paid before the assent day—

- (a) the amount of the advance payment is taken to be an overpayment; and
- (b) the overpayment may be recovered by the State as a debt due to the State.
