	16 Definitions for division	5
	In this division—	6
	limit of disturbance , for an Enterprise Mine lease, means—	7 8
	(a) the area shown as the limit of disturbance for the lease on the restricted mine path map; or	9 10 11
	(b) if the area mentioned in paragraph (a) is amended under section 19—the area as amended.	12 13 14
	restricted mine path map area , for an Enterprise Mine lease, means any of the following for the lease—	15 16 17
	(a) the dredge path;	18
	(b) the dry mining area;	19
	(c) the limit of disturbance.	20
	threatened ecosystem means an ecosystem identified as one of the following in the database known as the Regional Ecosystem Description Database kept by the department—	21 22 23 24
	(a) an endangered dominant ecosystem;	25
	(b) an endangered sub-dominant ecosystem;	26
	(c) an of concern dominant ecosystem;	27
	(d) an of concern sub-dominant ecosystem.	28
	Editor's note—	29
	The Regional Ecosystem Description Database is available for inspection—	30 31

[s 13]

- (a) during office hours, at the Queensland Herbarium, Brisbane Botanic Gardens, Mt Coot-tha Road, Toowong and each regional office of the department; and 1 2
3
4
- (b) on the department's website. 5

17 Statutory conditions of environmental authority for Enterprise Mine 6
7

- (1) Environmental authority EPML00575913 is taken to include the following conditions (the statutory conditions)— 8 9
10
 - (a) subject to paragraph (c), mining activities that are the winning of a mineral from the place where it occurs may be conducted only within the restricted mine path for an Enterprise Mine lease; 11 12
13
14
15
 - (b) mining activities that are the winning of a mineral from the place where it occurs within the restricted mine path for an Enterprise Mine lease may be conducted only until the end of 31 December 2019; 16 17
18
19
20
 - (c) dredging may be conducted only within the dredge path; 21
22
 - (d) disturbance of land may only occur within the limit of disturbance. 23 24
- (2) If a condition of environmental authority EPML00575913 is inconsistent with a statutory condition, the statutory condition prevails to the extent of the inconsistency. 25 26
27
28
- (3) The administering authority for the environmental authority under the Environmental Protection Act may amend the environmental authority to ensure it is consistent with the statutory conditions. 29 30
31
32
33
- (4) In this section— 34

- disturbance of land* means any of the following—
- (a) compacting, removing, covering, exposing or stockpiling earth;
 - (b) removing or destroying vegetation or topsoil from land to an extent that the land is susceptible to erosion;
 - (c) carrying out mining;
 - (d) submerging an area with tailings or waste;
 - (e) constructing infrastructure on land, including roads, tracks, bridges, culverts, dams, buildings, fixed machinery, hardstand areas, airstrips, and helipads;
 - (f) releasing contaminants into the soil or subsoil.

18 Application by Enterprise Mine lease holder to amend restricted mine path map area

- (1) The holder of an Enterprise Mine lease may, within 4 months after the commencement, apply to the Minister to amend a restricted mine path map area for the lease to add an area of land to, or remove an area of land from, the restricted mine path map area.
- (2) The holder may apply under subsection (1) only once.
- (3) The application must be—
 - (a) in the approved form for an amendment application under the Environmental Protection Act, section 224; and
 - (b) accompanied by—
 - (i) if land is proposed to be added to the restricted mine path map area—a cultural heritage study for the land; and

[s 13]

- (ii) a map showing the location of any threatened ecosystem that may be affected by the proposed amendment; and
 - (c) supported by enough information to allow the Minister to decide the application.
- (4) In this section—
- cultural heritage study* see the Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Act 2003, schedule 2.

19 Minister to decide application

- (1) The Minister must, within 20 business days after receiving an application under section 18(1), decide to grant or refuse the application.
- (2) The Minister may amend the restricted mine path map area to add an area of land only if—
 - (a) the land proposed to be added is not, or does not include, a threatened ecosystem; and
 - (b) the Minister is satisfied that, compared to any adverse impact of the restricted mine path map area before the addition of the land, the amended area is not likely to have a significantly greater adverse impact on—
 - (i) Aboriginal cultural heritage; or
 - (ii) a threatened ecosystem; and
 - (c) the addition of the land will not result in the total area of the restricted mine path for an Enterprise Mine lease, or the total area of the limit of disturbance, being increased in size; and
 - (d) the addition of the land is consistent with the conditions applying under environmental authority EPML00575913; and

(e)	there is an ILUA that regulates future acts in relation to the land.	1 2
(3)	In this section—	3
	Aboriginal cultural heritage see the Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Act 2003 , section 8.	4 5
	future act see the Native Title Act 1993 (Cwlth), section 233.	6 7
	ILUA means an indigenous land use agreement for which an application for registration, on the Register of Indigenous Land Use Agreements, has been made under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cwlth).	8 9 10 11 12
20	Steps after making decision	13
(1)	If the Minister decides to grant the application, the Minister must, within 10 business days after making the decision—	14 15 16
(a)	amend the environmental authority to give effect to the amendment of the restricted mine path map area; and	17 18 19
(b)	record particulars of the amendment in the appropriate register under the Environmental Protection Act, section 540, as if the environmental authority had been amended under that Act; and	20 21 22 23 24
(c)	give the applicant a copy of the amended environmental authority.	25 26
(2)	The amendment takes effect on—	27
(a)	the day the Minister decides the application under section 19; or	28 29
(b)	if a later day is stated in the environmental authority—the later day.	30 31

[s 14]

	(3)	If the Minister decides to refuse the application, the Minister must, within 10 business days after making the decision, give the applicant written notice of the decision.	1 2 3 4
	21	Application to amend environmental authority under the Environmental Protection Act	5 6
	(1)	Sections 17, 18 and 19 do not stop the holder of environmental authority EPML00575913, whether or not amended under section 19, from applying to amend the environmental authority under the Environmental Protection Act, chapter 5, part 7.	7 8 9 10 11 12
	(2)	However, an amendment of the environmental authority under the Environmental Protection Act can not be made if the amendment would—	13 14 15
		(a) amend a restricted mine path map area; or	16
		(b) amend a condition of the environmental authority mentioned in section 17(1).	17 18
	(3)	This section applies despite any provision of the Environmental Protection Act or any other Act or law.	19 20 21

	Section 344A—	21
	insert—	22
	(2) Subsection (3) applies to land on which a final rehabilitation site exists.	23 24
	(3) The chief executive may authorise the holder of an environmental authority that is in force for the land to enter the land, or part of the land, to carry out activities under the environmental authority (also rehabilitation activities) for the rehabilitation or environmental management of the land.	25 26 27 28 29 30 31

- (4) An authorisation under subsection (3) must be in writing and state the period for which the holder is authorised to enter the land. 1
2
3
- (5) However, the chief executive may authorise the holder to enter the land under subsection (3) only if— 4 5
6
- (a) a provision of an Act prevented the holder of an expired mining tenement for the final rehabilitation site from applying to renew the tenement within the renewal period for the tenement; or 7 8
9
10
11
- (b) an application to renew an expired mining tenement for the final rehabilitation site was refused other than because the Minister was not satisfied about a matter mentioned in— 12
13
14
15
- (i) section 93(3)(b)(i) or (ii); or 16
- (ii) section 286A(1)(a). 17
- (6) If the chief executive authorises a holder to enter land under subsection (3), the following persons are also authorised to enter the land to carry out rehabilitation activities mentioned in the subsection— 18 19
20
21
22
- (a) an officer or employee of the holder; and 23
- (b) a person engaged by the holder under a contract or other arrangement to carry out the rehabilitation activities. 24
25
26
- (7) In this section— 27
- expired mining tenement*, for a final rehabilitation site, means a mining lease or mining claim for the site— 28 29
30
- (a) under which a mining activity was carried out; and 31 32
- (b) that is no longer in force. 33

[s 28]

	renewal period —	1
	(a) for an expired mining tenement that is a mining claim—means the period stated in section 93(1) in which the holder of the mining claim may apply for its renewal; or	2 3 4 5
	(b) for an expired mining tenement that is a mining lease—means the period that is—	6 7
	(i) at least 6 months, or any shorter period allowed by the Minister, before the current term of the lease expires; and	8 9 10
	(ii) not more than 1 year before the current term expires.	11 12

	345 Compensation	4
	(1) The holder of an environmental authority who is authorised under section 344A(3) to enter land must pay compensation to each owner of the land—	5 6 7 8
	(a) in compliance with an agreement (a compensation agreement) between the holder and each owner of the land; or	9 10 11
	(b) as decided by the Land Court.	12
	(2) A compensation agreement has no effect unless the agreement is—	13 14
	(a) in writing; and	15
	(b) signed by or for the parties to the agreement; and	16 17
	(c) filed.	18
	(3) If a compensation agreement is required by a law of Queensland to be stamped, it may not be filed until it is stamped according to law.	19 20 21
	(4) At any time before a compensation agreement is made, a person who could be a party to the agreement may apply in writing to the chief executive to have the Land Court decide the amount of compensation and the terms, conditions and times of its payment.	22 23 24 25 26 27
	(5) If a person applies to the chief executive under subsection (4), the chief executive must refer the issue of compensation to the Land Court for its decision.	28 29 30 31

[s 30]

346 Land Court's decision about compensation	1
(1) This section applies if the chief executive refers a matter to the Land Court under section 345(5).	2 3
(2) The Land Court must fix a date for the hearing and immediately give written notice of the date to—	4 5 6
(a) the chief executive; and	7
