|                  | Examples of persons to whom this section may apply—   | 13                   |
|                  | • a person conducting an analysis of a relevant thing  | 14                   |
|                  | • a veterinary surgeon who treats a trade species animal   | 1516             |
|                  | • a person who monitors the residue of chemicals on agricultural produce for a supermarket or grocery store  | 171819       |

|                  | (3) However, the person is not required to comply with subsection (2) if the person becomes aware,   | 3233             |

before the person would otherwise be required to 1
advise the standards officer under the subsection, 2
that another person has advised the standards 3
officer as required under subsection (2). 4

Example— 5

A person would not be required to advise the standards 6 officer that the residue of a chemical in or on a relevant 7
thing exceeds the maximum residue limit prescribed for 8
the thing if a person who conducted an analysis of the 9
thing had already advised the standards officer about it 10
as soon as the results of the analysis were known. 11

(4) A person complies with subsection (2)(b) if the 12
person gives the standards officer a laboratory 13
report about the residue of a chemical in or on a 14
sample of the relevant thing that contains all of the 15
required information for the relevant thing. 16

(5) However, if the laboratory report does not contain 17
all of the required information for the relevant 18
thing, the person only complies with subsection 19
(2)(b) if the person also gives the standards 20
officer— 21

(a) the required information that is not 22
contained in the laboratory report for the 23
relevant thing; and 24

(b) sufficient information for the standards 25
officer to identify the laboratory report to 26
which the required information mentioned 27
in paragraph (a) relates. 28

Example— 29

the sample number for the relevant thing the 30
subject of the laboratory report 31

(6) In this section— 32

distinguishing number, for a relevant thing, 33
includes a number with 1 or more letters or 34
symbols. 35

laboratory number, for a relevant thing, means 36

the distinguishing number given to a sample of the thing by a laboratory that analysed the thing. 1 2
required information, for a relevant thing, means 3
the following information about the thing— 4
(a) a description of the relevant thing; 5
(b) if the relevant thing has a sample number— 6
the sample number; 7
(c) if the relevant thing has a laboratory 8
number—the laboratory number; 9
(d) the name of the residue of the chemical in or 10
on the relevant thing; 11
(e) the concentration of the residue of the 12
chemical in or on the relevant thing; 13
(f) the maximum residue limit prescribed for 14
the residue of the chemical in or on the 15
relevant thing; 16
(g) the name and address of the person who 17
manufactured or produced the relevant 18
thing; 19
(h) if the information mentioned in paragraph 20
(g) is not reasonably available—the name 21
and address of the person from whom the 22
relevant thing was obtained. 23
sample number, for a relevant thing, means a 24 distinguishing number given to the sample of the 25
thing by a person who made the sample of the 26
thing. 27

| confidential information —   | 27                   |
| (a) means any information that—   | 28                   |
| (i) could identify an individual; or  | 29                   |
| (ii) is about a person’s current financial position or financial background; or   | 3031             |

- (iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but
- (b) does not include—
- (i) information that is publicly available; or
- (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.
- 36 Exchange of information with prescribed government entity
- (1) The chief executive may enter into an arrangement (an information-sharing arrangement) with a prescribed government entity for the purpose of sharing or exchanging information—
- (a) held by the chief executive or the prescribed government entity; or
- (b) to which the chief executive or the prescribed government entity has access.
- (2) An information-sharing arrangement may relate only to information that helps—
- (a) the chief executive or an inspector perform functions under this Act; or
- (b) the prescribed government entity, or a person employed or engaged by the entity, perform functions under a law of the State, another State or the Commonwealth.
- (3) Under an information-sharing arrangement, the chief executive and the prescribed government entity are, despite another Act or law, authorised to—

101A Use of body-worn cameras

- (1) It is lawful for an inspector to use a body-worn camera to record images or sounds while the inspector is exercising a power under this division.
- (2) Use of a body-worn camera by an inspector under subsection (1) includes use that is—
- (a) inadvertent or unexpected; or
  - (b) incidental to use while exercising the inspector's power.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect an ability the inspector has at common law or under another Act to record images or sounds.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) is a provision authorising the use by an inspector of a listening device, for the purposes of the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971, section 43(2)(d).
- (5) In this section—
- body-worn camera* means a device—
- (a) worn on clothing or otherwise secured on a person; and
  - (b) designed to be used to—
    - (i) record images; or
    - (ii) record images and sounds.

82N Seizure of vehicles by plantation officer

- (1) A plantation officer may seize, remove and detain a vehicle in a licence area for which the plantation officer is appointed if the plantation officer reasonably believes the vehicle has been abandoned in the area.
- (2) However, subsection (3) applies if—
- (a) the owner of, or a person who claims a proprietary interest in, a vehicle detained under subsection (1) provides evidence of the person’s ownership of, or interest in, the vehicle to a plantation officer at the place where the vehicle is detained; and
- (b) the plantation officer is satisfied the person is the owner of, or has a proprietary interest in, the vehicle.
- (3) The plantation officer must return the vehicle to the person.
- (4) The plantation officer must ensure a person to whom a vehicle is returned under subsection (3) signs a receipt for the vehicle.
