	83A Appointment of person in charge of operations	4
		5
	(1) The commissioner may appoint a person as the person in charge of operations for controlling and extinguishing a fire, or for controlling another incident, if the commissioner considers it appropriate and necessary in the circumstances.	6 7 8 9 10
	(2) However, the commissioner may appoint a person as the person in charge of operations for controlling and extinguishing a fire under subsection (1) in an area for which a rural fire brigade is in charge of fire fighting and fire prevention under section 138(2) only if there is no first officer for the rural fire brigade, within the meaning of section 140(4), who is available for controlling or extinguishing the fire.	11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19
	(3) The appointment under subsection (1) may be—	20
	(a) written or oral; and	21
	(b) for the duration of an event or for a stated or indefinite period.	22 23
	(4) The appointment of a person as the person in charge of operations ends—	24 25
	(a) for an appointment for the duration of an event—at the end of the event; or	26 27
	(b) for an appointment for a stated period—at the end of the stated period; or	28 29
	(c) for an appointment for an indefinite period—when the commissioner gives the person notice that the appointment has ended.	30 31 32 33
	(5) Despite subsection (4), the appointment of a	34
