DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTRES ACT 1990

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 28 May 1996]

An Act to provide for the establishment and operation of dispute resolution centres to provide mediation services in connection with certain disputes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990.

Interpretation

2.(1) In this Act—

“council” means the dispute resolution centres Council established by this Act.

“director” means a person holding office or duly acting as director of a dispute resolution centre.

“dispute resolution centre” means a dispute resolution centre established under this Act.

“functions” includes powers, authorities and duties.

“mediation” includes—

- (a) the undertaking of any activity for the purpose of promoting the discussion and settlement of disputes; and
- (b) the bringing together of the parties to any dispute for that purpose, either at the request of 1 of the parties to the dispute or on the initiative of a director; and

- (c) the follow-up of any matter the subject of any such discussion or settlement.

“mediation session” means a meeting in accordance with this Act between 2 or more parties who are in dispute on any matter.

“mediator”, in relation to a dispute resolution centre, means—

- (a) the director of the centre; or
(b) any person for the time being accredited under section 19 as a mediator for the centre.

“member” means a member of the council.

“Queensland Council of Social Service Inc.” means the body by that name incorporated on 15 December 1986 under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 as amended.

(2) A reference in this Act to the discharge of a function includes, where the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

(3) A reference in this Act to the parties to a mediation session includes a reference to the parties to a dispute in respect of which an application for a mediation session is duly made, but does not include a reference to the mediator conducting the mediation session.

(4) A reference in this Act to the conduct of a mediation session by a mediator includes a reference to the conduct of a mediation session in the presence, or under the supervision, of the mediator.

PART 2—ADMINISTRATION

Division 1—The council

Establishment of council

3. There is to be a council called the Dispute Resolution Centres Council having functions—

- (a) to determine policy guidelines for, and give directions with

- respect to, the operation of dispute resolution centres; and
- (b) to make such reports or recommendations to the Minister on any matter relating to dispute resolution centres, or on any other matter to which this Act relates, as the council considers necessary or appropriate; and
  - (c) to report on and make recommendations concerning the need for an evaluation under section 34 and to assist with the making of such an evaluation; and
  - (d) to do such supplemental, incidental and consequential acts as may be necessary or expedient for the exercise of its functions or the establishment and operation of dispute resolution centres.

Council must have regard to finances

4. In the discharge of its functions, the council must have regard to the financial resources available for the establishment and operation of dispute resolution centres.

Directions to council by Minister

5. The council is, in the discharge of its functions (except in relation to the contents of a report or recommendation made by it to the Minister), subject to the control and direction of the Minister.

Membership

6.(1) The council is to consist of—

- (a) directors of the dispute resolution centres who are to be members ex officio; and
- (b) not more than 8 members appointed by the Minister of whom—
  - (i) 1 is to be a magistrate nominated by the Chief Stipendiary Magistrate; and
  - (ii) 1 is to be the commissioner of the police service or the commissioner's nominee; and
  - (iii) 1 is to be a person nominated by the Queensland Council of

Social Service Inc.; and

- (iv) 1 is to be an officer of the department nominated by the Minister; and
- (v) not more than 4 are to be persons selected and nominated by the Minister because they have such special interest or experience as the Minister considers to be of assistance in the administration of this Act.

(2) The members specified in subsection (1)(b) are in this Act referred to as the appointed members of the council.

(3) If nomination of a person for appointment as a member is not made within the time or in the manner specified by the Minister when the Minister requests the nomination, the Minister may appoint any person to be a member instead of the person required to be appointed on the nomination.

President

7.(1) The council is to have a president, who is to be a member of the council appointed as president by the Minister.

(2) An appointment under subsection (1) may be made by the instrument (if any) by which the person appointed as president is appointed as a member or by another instrument.

Term of office

8. An appointed member of the council, subject to this Act, is to hold office for such term, not exceeding 3 years, as is specified in the instrument of appointment of the member but if otherwise qualified is eligible for reappointment.

Disqualifications for appointment as member

9. A person who—

- (a) is an undischarged bankrupt or is taking advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or

(b) is convicted in Queensland of an indictable offence (whether on indictment or summarily) or is convicted elsewhere in respect of an act or omission that, if it occurred in Queensland, would constitute an indictable offence; or

(c) is a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1974;

is not qualified to be or to continue as a member.

Vacation of office

10.(1) The office of an appointed member of the council becomes vacant if the member—

(a) dies; or

(b) resigns office by writing signed by the member and given to the Minister; or

(c) is absent from 4 consecutive meetings of the council of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post except on leave granted by the council, and is not, before the expiration of 4 weeks from the last of those meetings, excused by the council for being absent from those meetings; or

(d) ceases to be qualified to continue as an appointed member; or

(e) ceases to hold the office or position necessary for appointment as a member.

(2) The Minister may, for any cause that appears to the Minister sufficient, remove any appointed member of the council from office.

(3) On the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of an appointed member of the council, the Minister may appoint a person to the vacant office so that the council is constituted in accordance with section 6.

Meetings of the council

11.(1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the council and for the conduct of business at those meetings, subject to this Act, is to be as determined by the council.

(2) The president of the council or, in the absence of the president, the member chosen by the members present at the meeting to act as president may preside at any meeting of the council.

(3) Five members form a quorum at any meeting of the council and any duly convened meeting of the council at which a quorum is present is competent to transact any business of the council and has and may discharge all the functions of the council.

(4) The person presiding at any meeting of the council, in the event of an equality of votes, has in addition to a deliberative vote a second or casting vote.

(5) A decision supported by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting at a meeting of the council is the decision of the council.

Minutes

12. The council must cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings at its meetings, and must submit to the Minister a copy of the minutes (whether or not confirmed) of each meeting within 14 days after the day on which the meeting is held.

Subcommittees

13.(1) The council may establish such standing or special subcommittees as it thinks fit to assist and advise it in connection with the discharge of its functions or to discharge, pursuant to a delegation made under section 17, the functions of the council that have been delegated to the subcommittee.

(2) A person may be appointed as a member of a subcommittee whether or not the person is a member of the council.

Procedure of subcommittee

14.(1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a subcommittee and for the conduct of business at those meetings, subject to this Act and any direction given by the council, is to be as determined by the subcommittee.

(2) A quorum of a subcommittee consists of such number of the members of the subcommittee as the council determines, and any duly convened meeting of a subcommittee at which a quorum is present is competent to transact any business of the subcommittee and has and may discharge all the functions of the subcommittee.

(3) The person presiding at any meeting of a subcommittee, if the council so approves in relation to the subcommittee, has in addition to a deliberative vote a second or casting vote.

(4) A decision supported by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting at a meeting of a subcommittee is the decision of the subcommittee.

Application of public service legislation

15. The Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988 does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of a member of the council or of a subcommittee and any such member is not subject to that Act in the capacity of member.

Use of facilities and staff

16. For the purposes of this Act, the council, with the approval of the Minister and of the department or local government or public authority or organisation concerned, and on such terms as may be arranged, may make use of the facilities, or the services of any officers, employees or other staff, of any department of the government of the State or of any local government or public authority or other organisation.

Delegation by council

17.(1) The council may delegate to a member, subcommittee or director such of the council's functions (other than this power of delegation) as it thinks fit, and may revoke wholly or in part any such delegation.

(2) A function which is delegated under this section, while the delegation remains unrevoked, may be discharged by the delegate from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(3) A delegation under this section may be made subject to conditions or limitations.

(4) Notwithstanding any delegation under this section, the council may continue to exercise all or any of the functions delegated.

(5) Any act or thing done in the discharge of a function delegated under this section has the same force and effect as if it had been done by the council.

Division 2—Staff of dispute resolution centre

Directors

18.(1) There is to be a director for each dispute resolution centre and the same person may be the director for more than 1 dispute resolution centre.

(2) A director is, in the discharge of the director's functions, subject to the control and direction of the council.

Mediators

19. The Minister, on the recommendation of the director of a dispute resolution centre made subject to and in accordance with the policy guidelines determined by, and any directions of, the council, may accredit a person (other than the director) as a mediator for the centre and may revoke any such accreditation.

Staff

20.(1) The director and staff of a dispute resolution centre (other than a mediator accredited under section 19) are to be appointed or employed under and in accordance with the Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988.

(2) A mediator accredited under section 19 is entitled to be paid such remuneration as is determined in respect of the mediator by the Minister.

Delegation by director

21.(1) The director of a dispute resolution centre may authorise a member of the staff of the centre to discharge such of the director's functions (including any functions delegated to the director under this Act, but not including this power of authorisation) as the director thinks fit, and the director, or any successor as director of the centre, may revoke wholly or in part any such authorisation.

(2) A function which is authorised to be discharged under this section, while the authorisation remains unrevoked, may be discharged from time to time in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

(3) An authorisation under this section may be made subject to conditions or limitations.

(4) Notwithstanding any authorisation under this section, the director may continue to discharge all or any of the functions to which the authorisation relates.

(5) Any act or thing done in the discharge of a function by a person authorised under this section to discharge the function has the same force and effect as if it had been done by the director.

(6) Where the discharge of a function of the director depends on the opinion, belief or state of mind of the director and the function is in accordance with this section authorised to be discharged by another person, the function, subject to any restriction imposed by the director, may be discharged in accordance with the opinion, belief or state of mind of that other person.

PART 3—DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTRES

Establishment of dispute resolution centres

22. Dispute resolution centres may be established and operated in accordance with this Act for the purpose of providing mediation services.

Premises of dispute resolution centres

23. Dispute resolution centres may be established at such premises as the Governor in Council may determine by order in council.

Place of operation of dispute resolution centres

24.(1) The principal office of a dispute resolution centre is at the premises specified in relation to the centre in the order in council under section 23.

(2) The activities of a dispute resolution centre may be conducted at the principal office or at such other places as the director of the centre, subject to the policy guidelines determined by, and any directions of, the council, may approve from time to time.

Records

25.(1) The director of a dispute resolution centre must ensure that such records relating to the activities of the centre are made and kept as are necessary or appropriate to enable a proper evaluation of dispute resolution centres under section 34 to be made.

(2) The council is entitled to inspect any records of a dispute resolution centre.

(3) The records of a dispute resolution centre may be disposed of only in accordance with the directions of the council.

(4) Subsection (3) does not derogate from the operation of the Libraries and Archives Act 1988.

Centres to be part of department

26. Dispute resolution centres are to operate within and as parts of the department, and nothing in this Act derogates from the operation of the provisions of the Public Service Management and Employment Act 1988, or any other Act so far as they apply to that department and any such part thereof.

Use of certain words

27.(1) The words ‘dispute resolution centre’ or the letters ‘DRC’ are not to be used in the name of any centre, organisation, body or group or any other place or establishment, or any part thereof, nor is any centre, organisation, body or group, or any other place or establishment, or any part thereof, to be held out as a dispute resolution centre (whether or not as established under this Act) by the use of the words ‘dispute resolution centre’ or the letters ‘DRC’ or in any other manner—

- (a) unless in either case it is in fact a dispute resolution centre established under this Act; or
- (b) except in either case with the consent of the council.

(2) In this section, a reference to—

- (a) the words “dispute resolution centre” includes a reference to those words whether or not they appear consecutively and to words that are substantially the same as those words; and
- (b) the letters “DRC” includes a reference to matter that is substantially the same as those letters.

(3) A person who—

- (a) uses or causes to be used the words ‘dispute resolution centre’ or the words ‘DRC’; or
- (b) holds out or causes to be held out anything as a dispute resolution centre;

in contravention of subsection (1), commits an offence against this Act.

(4) It is a defence to prove that the usage or holding out in question was established before the commencement of this section.

PART 4—MEDIATION

Provision of mediation services

28.(1) The director of a dispute resolution centre, subject to the policy guidelines determined by, and any directions of, the council, is responsible for the provision of mediation services and for the operation and management of the centre.

(2) Each mediation session is to be conducted by 1 or more mediators assigned for the purpose by the director.

(3) No dispute may be accepted for mediation under this Act unless the director consents.

Conduct of mediation sessions

29.(1) The procedure for commencing and conducting a mediation session at a dispute resolution centre, subject to the policy guidelines determined by, and any directions of, the council, is to be as determined by the director.

(2) Mediation sessions are to be conducted with as little formality and technicality, and with as much expedition, as possible.

(3) The rules of evidence do not apply to mediation sessions.

(4) A dispute may not be adjudicated or arbitrated upon at a mediation session.

(5) A mediation session is to be conducted in the absence of the public, but persons who are not parties to a mediation session may be present at or participate in a mediation session with the permission of the director.

Disputes

30.(1) The council may determine that specified classes of disputes are not to be the subject of mediation sessions, or that specified classes of disputes may be the subject of mediation sessions, but nothing in this subsection limits any other provisions of this Act.

(2) A mediation session may be commenced or continued whether or not the dispute is justiciable before any court, tribunal or body and whether or not the dispute is the subject of any legal proceedings.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, persons may be treated as being in dispute on any matter if they are not in agreement on the matter (whether or not any relevant negotiations are still in progress).

Mediation to be voluntary

31.(1) Attendance at and participation in mediation sessions are voluntary.

(2) A party to a mediation session may withdraw from the mediation session at any time.

(3) Notwithstanding any rule of law or equity, any agreement reached at, or drawn up pursuant to, a mediation session is not enforceable in any court, tribunal or body.

(4) Except as expressly provided in this Act, nothing in this Act affects any rights or remedies that a party to a dispute has apart from this Act.

Refusal or termination of mediation

32.(1) The director of a dispute resolution centre may decline to consent to the acceptance of any dispute for mediation under this Act at the centre.

(2) A mediation session may be terminated at any time by the mediator or by the director.

Representation by agent

33.(1) A party to a mediation session is not entitled to be represented by an agent unless—

- (a) it appears to the director that—
  - (i) an agent should be permitted in order to facilitate mediation; and
  - (ii) the agent proposed to be appointed has sufficient knowledge of the matter in dispute to enable the agent to represent the party effectively; and
- (b) the director so approves.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent—

- (a) where a corporation within the meaning of the Companies (Queensland) Code is party to a mediation session—an officer of the corporation; or
- (b) where a corporation that is a body corporate constituted under the Building Units and Group Titles Act 1980, is a party to a mediation session—the proprietor or, if there is more than 1 proprietor, 1 of the proprietors, constituting that corporation; or

- (c) where any other corporation is a party to a mediation session—an agent appointed by the corporation; from representing that corporation.

(3) Where a director approves of the representation of a party by an agent, the approval of the director may be given subject to such conditions as the director considers reasonable to ensure that any other party to the mediation session is not substantially disadvantaged by the agent appearing at the mediation session and, where the director does so, the entitlement of the agent to represent the party is subject to compliance by the agent with those conditions.

(4) Contravention of any provision of this section does not invalidate any mediation session.

PART 5—MISCELLANEOUS

Evaluations

34. The Minister may cause or arrange for an evaluation to be made, at such times and in respect of such periods as the Minister thinks fit, of dispute resolution centres and of their operation and activities.

Exoneration from liability

35.(1) No matter or thing done or omitted to be done by—

- (a) the council or a subcommittee of the council; or
- (b) a member of, or a person acting under the direction of or with the authority of, the council or any such subcommittee; or
- (c) a mediator; or
- (d) a director or a member of the staff of a dispute resolution centre;

if the matter or thing is done in good faith for the purpose of executing this Act, subjects any of them to any action, liability, claim or demand.

(2) A police officer, or any other officer or person, is not liable to be

proceeded against in respect of—

- (a) failure to charge a person with an offence or to initiate or proceed with proceedings for an offence, or any similar failure; or
- (b) the arrest of a person followed by such a failure; or
- (c) failure to offer evidence at the hearing of a charge referred to in paragraph (a);

if the failure is reasonable—

- (d) by reason of the reference of the dispute to which the alleged offence relates for mediation under this Act or by reason of an agreement reached by the parties to a dispute so referred; and
- (e) in all the circumstances of the case.

(3) In subsection (2)—

“offence” does not include an offence constituted wholly or partly by domestic violence within the meaning of the Domestic Violence (Family Protection) Act 1989.

(4) Nothing in this Act prevents a charge referred to in subsection (2)(a) from being laid or any proceedings so referred to from being instituted or proceeded with, or any evidence being offered in relation to such a charge, or any incidental act, matter or thing from being done by any person at any time.

(5) No person is to be concerned to inquire whether or not any circumstance has arisen requiring or authorising a person to act in the office of a member or of a director, and anything done or omitted to be done by that person while so acting is as valid and effectual and has the same consequences as if it had been done or omitted to be done by that member or director.

Privilege

36.(1) In this section—

“mediation session” includes any steps taken in the course of making arrangements for a mediation session or in the course of the follow-up of a mediation session.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the like privilege with respect to defamation

exists with respect to—

- (a) a mediation session; or
- (b) a document or other material sent to, or produced at, a dispute resolution centre for the purpose of enabling a mediation session to be arranged;

as exists with respect to proceedings before the Supreme Court and a document produced in these proceedings.

(3) The privilege conferred by subsection (2) does not extend to a publication made otherwise than—

- (a) at a mediation session; or
- (b) as provided by subsection (2)(b); or
- (c) as provided by section 37(2).

(4) Evidence of anything said or of any admission made in a mediation session is not admissible in any proceedings before any court, tribunal or body.

(5) A document prepared for the purposes of, or in the course of, or pursuant to, a mediation session, or any copy thereof is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings before any court, tribunal or body.

(6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply with respect to any evidence or document—

- (a) where the persons in attendance at, or named during, the mediation session and, in the case of a document, all persons named in the document—consent to admission of the evidence or document; or
- (b) in proceedings instituted with respect to—
  - (i) any act or omission in connection with which a disclosure has been made pursuant to section 37(2)(c); or
  - (ii) an offence under section 37(3) concerning the disclosure of the evidence or document.

Secrecy

37.(1) A mediator is not competent to commence to discharge the functions of a mediator without first taking an oath before a justice of the peace in or to the effect of the form set out in schedule 1 or making an affirmation in or to the effect of the form set out in schedule 2.

(2) A person who is or has been a member of the council or a subcommittee of the council, a mediator, a director, a member of the staff of a dispute resolution centre or a person making an evaluation under section 34 or carrying out research referred to in paragraph (e) may disclose information obtained in connection with the administration or execution of this Act only as follows—

- (a) with the consent of the person from whom the information was obtained;
- (b) in connection with the administration or execution of this Act;
- (c) where there are reasonable grounds to believe that disclosure is necessary to prevent or minimise the danger of injury to any person or damage to any property;
- (d) where the disclosure is reasonably required for the purpose of referring any party or parties to a mediation session to any person, agency, organisation or other body and the disclosure is made with the consent of the parties to the mediation session for the purpose of aiding in the resolution of a dispute between those parties or assisting any such parties in any other manner;
- (e) where the disclosure does not reveal the identity of a person without the consent of the person and is reasonably required for the purposes of research carried out by, or with the approval of, the council or an evaluation pursuant to section 34;
- (f) in accordance with a requirement imposed by or under a law of the State (other than a requirement imposed by a subpoena or other compulsory process) or the Commonwealth.

(3) A person to whom subsection (2) applies who discloses information obtained in connection with the administration or execution of this Act otherwise than as authorised by the subsection commits an offence against this Act.

Power to accept appointment

38.(1) Where, by or under any Act, provision is made requiring the whole of the time of the holder of a specified office to be devoted to the duties of that office or prohibiting the holder of a specified office from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office, the provision does not operate to disqualify a holder of that office from—

- (a) holding that office and also the office of a member of the council or of a subcommittee of the council; or
- (b) holding that office and also the office of a mediator or retaining any remuneration payable to a mediator.

(2) The office of a member of the council, a member of a subcommittee of the council or a mediator is not, for the purposes of any Act an office or place of profit under the Crown.

Annual report

39.(1) As soon as practicable after 30 June, but on or before 31 December, in each year, the council must prepare and submit to the Minister a report on the activities, operations and use of dispute resolution centres during the period of 12 months ending on 30 June in that year.

(2) The Minister must lay the report, or cause it to be laid, before Parliament within 10 sitting days of receiving the report.

Proceedings

40.(1) A person who commits an offence against this Act may be prosecuted in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886 on the complaint of an officer of the department authorised generally or in a particular case by the Minister.

(2) The identity of the complainant and the complainant's authority to lay the complaint, as stated in the complaint, is to be presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

(3) A person convicted of an offence against this Act is liable where no other penalty is expressly prescribed to a penalty not exceeding 15 penalty units.

Regulations

41. The Governor in Council may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act with respect to all matters necessary or expedient to be prescribed for the proper administration of this Act or to achieve the objects and purposes of this Act.
