Particulars the Registrar may record

29.(1) The Registrar may record in the freehold land register anything that the Registrar is permitted to record by this or another Act.

(2) The Registrar may also record in the freehold land register anything that the Registrar considers should be recorded to ensure that the register is an accurate, comprehensive and useable record of freehold land in the State.

Registrar must register instruments

30.(1) If a person lodges an instrument and complies with the requirements of this Act for its registration, the Registrar must register the instrument.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not prevent the person from withdrawing the instrument.

Instruments form part of the freehold land register

31. On registration of an instrument in the freehold land register, the instrument forms part of the register.

Registrar must give distinguishing reference to each instrument

32. In registering an instrument affecting a lot, the Registrar must give the instrument a distinguishing reference and record the reference in the particulars in the freehold land register about the lot.

Separate part of the freehold land register for powers of attorney

33. The Registrar must keep a separate part of the freehold land register for registered powers of attorney.

Other information not part of the freehold land register

36.(1) A document purporting to be a certified copy of the indefeasible title of a lot obtained under section 35(1)(b) (Entitlement to search register) is evidence of the indefeasible title.

(2) A document purporting to be a certified copy of a registered instrument obtained under section 35(1)(b) is evidence of the registered instrument.

Division 2—Indefeasible titleCreation of indefeasible title

37. An indefeasible title for a lot is created on the recording of the particulars of the lot in the freehold land register.

Meaning of “indefeasible title”

38. The indefeasible title for a lot is the current particulars in the freehold land register about the lot.

Single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots

39.(1) The Registrar may create a single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots that have the same registered owner by including a single set of particulars for the lots in the freehold land register.

(2) The Registrar may act under this section if the Registrar considers that, in the special circumstances of the case, it is appropriate for the lots to have a single indefeasible title.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the Registrar may act under this section if the lots—

- (a) share a common boundary; or
- (b) have a boundary that adjoins the same part of a road or watercourse.

Separation of single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots

40.(1) If the Registrar has created a single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots, the Registrar may create separate indefeasible titles for any of the lots by cancelling the single set of particulars for the lots in the freehold land register and including separate particulars for the lots.

(2) This section does not prevent the Registrar from also acting under section 39 (Single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots) for 2 or more of the lots.

Transfer of land forming part of indefeasible title

41. If the Registrar registers an instrument of transfer for only part of the land in the indefeasible title of a lot, the Registrar must create separate indefeasible titles for the part of the land that is transferred, and the part that is not transferred, by cancelling the particulars for the lot in the freehold land register and including separate particulars for each of the parts in the register.

*Division 3—Certificates of titleIssuing of certificates of title

42.(1) The Registrar must issue a certificate containing the indefeasible title for a lot (the “certificate of title”) at the written request of the registered owner.

(2) However, the Registrar must not issue the certificate of title for the lot if the lot is subject to a registered mortgage.

(3) Also, if an instrument has been lodged to register an interest in the lot, the Registrar may refuse to issue the certificate of title until the instrument has been registered.

(4) The Registrar may give the certificate of title to the registered owner—

- (a) by posting it to the owner or to someone else specified in the owner’s request, at the address specified in the request; or
- (b) by personally giving it to the owner or someone else specified in the request.

Certification to be included in certificate of title

43. The certificate must be certified by the Registrar as an accurate statement of the current particulars in the freehold land register about the lot.

Note about issue of certificate of title etc.

44. If the Registrar issues a certificate of title for a lot, the Registrar—

Cancellation of certificate of title on deposit

45. Unless the Registrar otherwise directs, a certificate of title that is deposited in the land registry is cancelled, whether or not a note of the cancellation is made on it.

Evidentiary effect of certificate of title

46. A certificate of title of a lot is conclusive evidence of the indefeasible title for the lot when it is issued—

- (a) other than in the circumstances described in sections 169(3)(b) (Quality of registered interests) and 170(1)(c) to (g) (Exceptions to s 169); or

- (a) must be of the registered owner's whole interest in the lot other than for any part of the lot reserved below the surface to the registered owner; and
- (b) operates on registration of the plan, without anything further, to vest the lot in the State.

Particulars of lots to be recorded on registration of plan

52. In registering a plan of subdivision, the Registrar must record in the freehold land register particulars of each proposed lot not dedicated to public use.

Lodged plan that is withdrawn and re-lodged

53. If a plan of subdivision is lodged within the time specified in section 5.3 of the Local Government (Planning and Environment) Act 1990 and is withdrawn and re-lodged under section 144 (Withdrawing lodged instrument before registration), it must be treated for the purposes of sections 160 (Time from when instrument forms part of register etc.) and 163 (Priority of registered instruments) to have been lodged when it was first lodged.

- (b) a single indefeasible title for several interests by including a single set of particulars in the freehold land register for the interests.

Severing joint tenancy

59.(1) A registered owner of a lot subject to a joint tenancy may unilaterally sever the joint tenancy by registration of a transfer executed by the registered owner.

(2) However, the Registrar may register the instrument of transfer only if a registered owner satisfies the Registrar that a copy of the instrument has been given to all other joint tenants.

(3) On registration of the instrument of transfer, the registered owner becomes entitled as a tenant in common with the other registered owners.

(4) This section does not limit the matters that the appropriate form for an instrument of lease may require to be included in the instrument.

(3) If an instrument of surrender of lease is lodged, the Registrar may register the instrument and record the date of surrender specified in the instrument in the freehold land register.

Liability of mortgagee in possession of leased lot

80.(1) A mortgagee of a leasehold interest in a lot who enters into possession under the lease (whether by taking the rents or profits or in another way) is liable under the lease to the same extent as the lessee was liable under the lease before the mortgagee entered into possession.

- (b) the owner of the lot benefited by the easement holds an interest in the lot burdened by the easement.

Same person becoming registered owner of benefited and burdened lots

- (a) the registered owner asks the Registrar to extinguish the easement; or
- (b) the Registrar creates a single indefeasible title for the lots.

Owner of benefited land acquiring interest in burdened land

88. An easement is not extinguished merely because the owner of the lot benefited by the easement acquires an interest, or a greater interest, in the lot burdened by the easement.

Easements for public utility providers

Registration of plan showing proposed easement

94.(1) A plan designating a proposed easement may be registered only if the designation includes the words ‘proposed easement’.

(2) The designation—

- (a) does not create an easement; and
- (b) is not evidence of a present intention to create an easement.

Creation of easement by plan of subdivision

95.(1) An easement may be created by registering—

- (a) a plan of subdivision showing clearly the nature and location of the easement to be created on the plan’s registration; and

- (c) the supply of water, gas, electricity, telecommunication facilities or another public utility service.

Rights created on registration of plan and instrument

97.(1) On registration of a plan under this Subdivision, the proposed easement shown on the plan is created and, without anything further, vests in the person entitled to the benefit of it.

(2) If the easement is in favour of a public utility provider, the registered owner of a lot burdened by the easement may recover from the public utility provider a reasonable contribution towards the cost of keeping the part of the lot affected by the easement in a condition appropriate for enjoyment of the easement.

(3) The liability to contribute may be amended or excluded by agreement.

Division 5—Application by adverse possessorApplication may not be made about encroachment

98. An application may not be made under this division if it is about land that is an encroachment as defined in section 183 of the Property Law Act 1974.

Right to make application not affected by death etc.

101.(1) If a person who may apply to be registered as owner of a lot by lodging an application under this division dies without making the application, the application may be made in the person’s name by the person’s legal personal representative.

(2) If the applicant dies before the application has been dealt with under this division, the application may be continued, and any necessary steps taken, in the person’s name by the person’s legal personal representative.

Refusal of application

102. The Registrar may refuse to register the applicant as owner of the lot if the Registrar is not satisfied that the information and documents in support of the application establish that the applicant is an adverse possessor.

Notice of application

103.(1) Before registering the applicant as an adverse possessor, the Registrar must, to the extent the Registrar considers practicable, give written notice of the application to—

- (a) all registered proprietors of the lot and adjoining lots; and
- (b) anyone else the Registrar considers may have an interest in the lot.

(2) The notice is in addition to the public notice that the applicant must give under section 18(3) (Registrar may require public notice to be given of certain proposed action).

(3) The notice must include a statement to the effect that the applicant will be registered as the owner of the lot if a caveat is not lodged by a specified day.

(4) The specified day must be at least 2 months and not more than 6 months from the day public notice is last required to be given.

Objecting by caveat

104. A person who claims an interest in the lot may lodge a caveat over the lot at any time before the applicant is registered as owner of the lot.

Lapsing of caveat

105.(1) If the Registrar is not satisfied—

- (a) that the caveator has an interest in the lot; or
- (b) that any interest that the caveator has in the lot has not been extinguished under the Limitation of Actions Act 1974;

the Registrar must, by written notice given to the caveator, require the caveator to start a proceeding to recover the lot in the Supreme Court within 6 months after the notice is given.

(2) The caveat lapses unless, within the required time, the caveator—

- (a) starts a proceeding in the Supreme Court to recover the lot; and
- (b) gives written notice to the Registrar that the proceeding has started.

(3) The caveat also lapses if—

- (a) the proceeding is withdrawn or dismissed; or
- (b) judgment in the proceeding is given against the caveator and the time for appealing against the judgment expires without an appeal being lodged; or
- (c) if the judgment in the proceeding is given against the caveator and the judgment is appealed—the appeal is dismissed or withdrawn.

(4) In this section—

“required time” means—

- (a) the 6 months mentioned in subsection (1); or
- (b) if the Registrar proposes to act under section 107(1)(b) (Refusing or compromising application)—the time allowed under section 107(3).

Reviving or replacing caveat

106. If the caveat lapses or is withdrawn, cancelled or removed, the caveator may revive or replace the caveat with another caveat on the same, or substantially the same, grounds only with the Supreme Court’s leave.

Refusing or compromising application

107.(1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the caveator has an interest in the lot that has not been extinguished under the Limitation of Actions Act 1974, the Registrar may—

- (a) refuse to register the applicant as owner of the lot; or
- (b) if the caveator agrees, register the applicant as the holder of a lesser interest in the lot that the Registrar considers appropriately reflects—
 - (i) the use made of the lot by the applicant; and
 - (ii) the period that the applicant has used the lot.

(2) If the caveator does not agree to the registration of the applicant for a lesser interest in the lot, the caveator may start a proceeding in the Supreme Court to recover the lot.

(3) The proceeding must be started within 1 month of receiving written notice from the Registrar of the Registrar's intention to register the applicant as proprietor of a lesser interest in the lot.

(4) If the caveator does not start a proceeding within 1 month, the Registrar may register the applicant as the holder of a lesser interest in the lot.

Registering adverse possessor as owner

108.(1) The Registrar may register the applicant as owner of all or part of the lot if the Registrar is satisfied that the applicant is an adverse possessor of the lot or part of it and—

- (a) no caveat has been lodged by the day specified under section 103 (Notice of application); or
- (b) if a caveat is lodged by the day specified under section 103—
 - (i) the caveat has lapsed or has been withdrawn, cancelled or removed; and
 - (ii) has not been revived or replaced under section 106 (Reviving or replacing caveat).

(2) If the Registrar registers the applicant as owner of the lot, the Registrar must—

- (a) cancel the registration of the person previously registered as the owner of the lot; and
- (b) create in the applicant's name an indefeasible title free of all other interests in the lot.

Division 6—Trusts, deceased estates and bankruptcy

Trusts generally not to be registered

109. If an interest in a lot is held in trust, the trustee may be registered as trustee of the interest only as permitted by section 110 (Instrument of transfer to trustee).

Instrument of transfer to trustee

110.(1) An instrument of transfer may be lodged—

- (a) to transfer an interest in a lot to a trustee; or
- (b) by the registered owner to declare that the registered owner holds the interest in a lot as trustee.

(2) The Registrar may register the instrument of transfer.

(3) A document specifying details of the trust, or the document creating the trust, must be deposited with the instrument of transfer.

(4) The document deposited with the instrument of transfer does not form part of the freehold land register.

(5) The Registrar must keep a certified copy of the document and return the original to the person who deposited it.

Registering personal representative

111.(1) A person may lodge an application to be registered as personal representative for a registered proprietor of a lot who has died.

(2) The Registrar may register the lot in the name of the person as personal representative only if—

- (a) if the person has obtained a grant of representation, or the resealing of a grant of representation, in Queensland—the grant or resealing, or an office copy of the grant or resealing issued by the Supreme Court, is deposited; or

- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the registered proprietor died without a will—

- (i) letters of administration of the deceased person's estate have not been granted in Queensland within 6 months after the death; and
- (ii) the gross value of the deceased person's Queensland estate at the date of death was no more than the amount prescribed by regulation or, if no amount is prescribed, $150 000; and
- (iii) the Registrar is of the opinion that the person would succeed in an application for a grant of representation; or

- (c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the registered proprietor died leaving a will—the Registrar is of the opinion that the person would succeed in an application for a grant of representation.

(3) A person registered under this section without a grant of representation has the same rights, powers and liabilities as if a grant of representation had been made to the person.

(4) The validity of an act done or payment made in good faith by a person registered under this section is not affected by a later grant of representation.

(5) If the grantee of a grant of representation is different from the person registered under subsection (2), the person registered must—

- (a) account to the grantee for all property of the deceased person controlled by the person before the grant; and
- (b) take all action necessary to divest from the person and vest in the grantee all property of the deceased person remaining under the person's control.

Registering beneficiary

112.(1) A person who is beneficially entitled under a will to a lot of a deceased registered proprietor may apply to the Registrar to be registered as proprietor of the lot.

(2) However, the Registrar may register the person only if—

- (a) the written consent of the deceased's personal representative is given; and
- (b) the person satisfies the Registrar that the person is beneficially entitled to the lot.

Form of application

113. An application under section 111 (Registering personal representative) or 112 (Registering beneficiary) must state—

- (a) the lot to which the application refers; and
- (b) the interest for which registration is sought; and

- (c) the nature of other interests in the lot known to the applicant.

Applying for Supreme Court order

114.(1) This section applies to—

- (a) the Attorney-General; or
- (b) a trustee or beneficiary under a trust; or
- (c) a personal representative, a devisee or anyone else interested in—
 - (i) a lot of a deceased registered proprietor; or
 - (ii) a trust involving a lot of a deceased registered proprietor.

(2) A person to whom this section applies may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that a named person be registered as proprietor of a lot.

(3) The Supreme Court may make 1 or more of the following orders—

- (a) that a person be registered as proprietor of the lot;
- (b) that a person be removed from the freehold land register as proprietor of the lot;
- (c) that a caveat be lodged to protect a person's interest in the lot;
- (d) that a person advertise in a specified form, content or way;
- (e) that costs be paid by any person or out of any property.

(4) The Registrar must register particulars of an order if a request to register the order is lodged and an office copy of the order is deposited.

(5) An order does not vest an interest in the lot until it is registered.

Transmission on bankruptcy

115. The Registrar may register a transmission of an interest in a lot under a law about bankruptcy only if a request to register the transmission is lodged.

PART 7—OTHER DEALINGS

Division 1—Writs of execution

Registering a writ of execution

116. The Registrar may register a writ of execution only if a request to register it, and an office copy of it, is lodged.

Effect of registering a writ of execution

117. For purchasers, lessees, mortgagees and creditors, a writ of execution—

- (a) cannot, until registered, bind or affect registered lots, whether or not there is actual or constructive notice of the writ; and
- (b) binds or affects registered lots only if the writ is executed and put in force within—
 - (i) 6 months of its lodgment; or
 - (ii) the extended time allowed by the court where the writ is filed and notified to the Registrar.

Cancellation of registration

118. Registration of a writ of execution may be cancelled if—

- (a) a request to cancel it is lodged; and
- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the time, or extended time, for executing and putting the writ into force has ended.

Discharging or satisfying writ of execution

119. Discharge or satisfaction of a writ of execution may be registered if a request to register it is lodged.

Transfer of lots sold in execution

120.(1) If a lot is sold under a registered writ of execution, the sheriff, registrar or clerk of the court of the relevant court may execute an instrument of transfer to the purchaser.

(2) On registration of the transfer, the transferee becomes the registered owner of the lot subject to—

- (a) registered interests; and
- (b) equitable mortgages notified by caveat lodged before registration of the writ of execution.

Division 2—Caveats

Requirements of caveats

121.(1) A caveat must be signed by or for the caveator.

(2) The caveat must state—

- (a) the name of the caveator; and
- (b) an address where documents can be served on the caveator; and
- (c) unless the Registrar dispenses with it, the name and address of—
 - (i) the registered owner of the lot affected by the caveat; and
 - (ii) anyone else having the right to deal with the lot affected by the caveat; and
- (d) the registered interest affected by the caveat; and
- (e) if the caveat relates to only a part of a lot—a description of the affected part; and
- (f) the interest claimed by the caveator; and
- (g) the grounds on which the interest is claimed.

(3) This section applies to all caveats under this Act.

Lodging a caveat

122.(1) A caveat may be lodged by any of the following—

- (a) a person claiming an interest in a lot;
- (b) the Registrar under section 17 (Registrar may prepare and register caveat);
- (c) the registered owner of the lot;
- (d) a person to whom an Australian court has ordered that an interest in a lot be transferred;

- (e) a person who has the benefit of a subsisting order of an Australian court in restraining a registered proprietor from dealing with a lot.

(2) However a caveat may only be lodged by an equitable mortgagee if it is a caveat to which section 126 applies.

Notifying caveat

123. The Registrar must give written notice of lodgment of a caveat to each person whose interest or whose right to registration of an instrument is affected by the caveat.

Effect of lodging caveat

124.(1) Lodgment of a caveat prevents registration of an instrument affecting the lot until the caveat lapses or is withdrawn, removed or cancelled.

(2) However, lodgment of a caveat does not prevent registration of the following—

- (a) an instrument specified in the caveat as an instrument to which the caveat does not apply;
- (b) an instrument if the caveator consents to its registration;
- (c) an instrument executed by a mortgagee whose interest was registered before lodgment of the caveat if—
 - (i) the mortgagee has power under the mortgage to execute the instrument; and
 - (ii) the caveator claims an interest in the lot as security for the payment of money or money's worth;
- (d) an instrument of transfer of mortgage executed by a mortgagee whose interest was registered before lodgment of the caveat;
- (e) another interest that, if registered, will not affect the interest claimed by the caveator.

(3) The exceptions mentioned in subsection (2)(c) and (d) do not apply to a caveat lodged by the Registrar.

(4) The exception in subsection (2)(d) does not apply to a caveat lodged by the registered owner.

Withdrawing a caveat

125. A caveator may withdraw a caveat by lodging a request to withdraw it.

Lapsing of caveat

126.(1) This section does not apply to a caveat if—

- (a) it is lodged by the registered owner; or
- (b) the consent of the registered owner is deposited when the caveat is lodged; or
- (c) an office copy of a court order mentioned in section 122(d) or (e) (Lodging a caveat) is deposited when the caveat is lodged; or
- (d) it is lodged by the Registrar under section 17 (Registrar may prepare and register caveat); or
- (e) is lodged other than under this division.

(2) A caveatee of a caveat to which this section applies may serve on the caveator a notice requiring the caveator to start a proceeding in the Supreme Court to establish the interest claimed under the caveat.

(3) The caveatee must notify the Registrar within 14 days of service of the notice on the caveator.

(4) If a caveator does not want a caveat to which this section applies to lapse, the caveator must—

- (a) start a proceeding in the Supreme Court to establish the interest claimed under the caveat—
 - (i) if a notice under subsection (2) is served on the caveator—within 14 days after the notice is served on the caveator; or
 - (ii) if a notice under subsection (2) is not served on the caveator—within 3 months after the lodgment of the caveat; and

- (b) notify the Registrar within the 14 days or the 3 months that a proceeding has been started and identify the proceeding.

(5) If the caveator does not comply with subsection (4), the caveat lapses.

(6) The caveator is taken to have complied with subsection (4)(a) if a proceeding has been started in the Supreme Court to establish the interest claimed under the caveat before the caveat was lodged.

(7) The Registrar may remove a caveat that has lapsed from the freehold land register.

Removing a caveat

127.(1) A caveatee may at any time apply to the Supreme Court for an order that a caveat be removed.

(2) The Supreme Court may make the order whether or not the caveator has been served with the application, and may make the order on the terms it considers appropriate.

Cancelling a caveat

128.(1) The Registrar may cancel a caveat if a request to cancel the caveat is lodged and the Registrar is satisfied that—

- (a) the interest claimed by the caveator has ceased or the claim to it has been abandoned or withdrawn; or
- (b) the claim of the caveator has been settled by agreement or otherwise satisfied; or
- (c) the nature of the interest claimed does not entitle the caveator to prevent registration of an instrument that has been lodged.

(2) The Registrar must notify the caveator of the Registrar's intention to cancel the caveat at least 7 days before cancelling it.

(3) If an instrument that has been lodged will, on registration, give full effect to an interest claimed in a caveat, the Registrar may remove the caveat immediately before registering the instrument.

Further caveat

129. If a caveat lapses or is withdrawn, cancelled or removed for a lot, the person who was the caveator may lodge another caveat for the lot on the same, or substantially the same, grounds only with the Supreme Court's leave.

Compensation for improper caveat

130.(1) A person who lodges or continues a caveat without reasonable cause must compensate anyone else who suffers loss or damage as a result.

(2) In a proceeding for compensation under subsection (1), the Supreme Court may include in a judgment for compensation a component for exemplary damages.

(3) In a proceeding for compensation under subsection (1), proof that a caveat was not lodged or was not continued without reasonable cause rests on the person who lodged or continued the caveat.

Notices to the caveator

131.(1) A notice to a caveator under this division is sufficiently served if left at or sent to the address mentioned in section 121(2)(b) (Requirements of caveats).

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that a notice under this division will not reach the caveator if served in the way mentioned in subsection (1), the notice may be served in a way specified in a written direction by the Registrar.

(3) If the Registrar is informed in writing, and is satisfied, that the name or address of the caveator has changed, the Registrar must note on the caveat details of the new name or address.

(4) A new name or address noted under subsection (3) becomes the name or address for service of a notice on the caveator.

Division 3—Powers of attorney and disabilities

Power of attorney

132.(1) By giving and registering a power of attorney, the donor authorises the donee to deal with any interest in land that may be dealt with by the donor under this Act.

(2) However, the authority given by a registered power of attorney is subject to any limitations expressly stated in the power of attorney.

Registering a power of attorney

133.(1) The Registrar may register a power of attorney by recording particulars of it in the power of attorney register if a request to register it is lodged and the power of attorney is deposited with the request.

(2) The Registrar must keep a certified copy of the registered power of attorney and return the original to the person who deposited it.

Effect of registering a power of attorney

134.(1) An act done by the donee under and in accordance with the terms of a registered power of attorney has the same effect as if the act were done by the donor.

(2) A registered power of attorney is evidence that the donee is authorised to do anything within the terms of the power of attorney.

(3) The Registrar may register an instrument executed under a registered power of attorney without being satisfied that the power of attorney has not been revoked.

(4) The Registrar must not register an instrument executed under a registered power of attorney if the instrument became effective after—

- (a) registration of an instrument of revocation or disclaimer of the power of attorney; or
- (b) someone else is registered as owner of the relevant lot after the death or bankruptcy of the donor.

Revoking or disclaiming a power of attorney

135.(1) A registered power of attorney may be revoked by registering an instrument of revocation or disclaimer.

(2) This section also applies to enduring powers of attorney.

Persons under a disability

136. The Supreme Court may authorise a person to act for a registered proprietor of a lot who appears to the Court to be incapable of managing the person's own affairs because, for example, of age or mental or intellectual incapacity.

Acts for minors and by attorneys etc.

137.(1) If—

- (a) an act is required or permitted to be done by or in relation to a person under this Act; and
- (b) the person is a minor or is mentally or intellectually impaired or incapable of managing the person's own affairs;

the act may be done by or in relation to a person who is responsible by law for the management and care of the first person's interests.

(2) If an act is required or permitted to be done by or in relation to a person under this Act, the act may be done by or in relation to the person's attorney appointed under this division.

PART 7A—SETTLEMENT NOTICE

Definitions for part

138. In this part—

“affected person”, for a particular lot, means—

Depositing settlement notice

140.(1) A settlement notice, in the approved form, may be deposited by or for a transferee in relation to a transaction.

(2) The Registrar must record the information in the settlement notice under section 34.¹

Effect of settlement notice

141.(1) The deposit of a settlement notice prevents registration of an instrument affecting the lot or an interest in the lot until the notice lapses or is withdrawn, removed or cancelled.

(2) However, a settlement notice does not prevent registration of—

¹ Under section 34 the Registrar may keep information separately from the freehold land register.

- (a) an instrument specified in the settlement notice as an instrument to which the notice does not apply; or
- (b) an instrument if the transferee consents to its registration; or
- (c) an instrument of transfer of mortgage executed by a mortgagee whose interest was registered before lodgment of the notice; or
- (d) another interest that, if registered, will not affect the interest the subject of the notice; or
- (e) an instrument lodged before the notice.

Withdrawing settlement notice

142. A transferee may withdraw a settlement notice by depositing a request to withdraw it.

Lapsing of settlement notice

143. A settlement notice lapses—

- (a) 2 months after it is deposited; or
- (b) when all instruments directly related to the transaction, and specified in the settlement notice, have been lodged;

whichever happens first.

Removing settlement notice

144.(1) An affected person may at any time apply to the Supreme Court for an order that a settlement notice be removed.

(2) The Supreme Court may make the order whether or not the transferee has been served with the application, and may make the order on the terms it considers appropriate.

Cancelling settlement notice

145.(1) The Registrar may cancel a settlement notice if a request to cancel the notice is deposited and the Registrar is satisfied that—

- (a) the transferee's interest in the transaction specified in the notice has ceased, or has been abandoned or withdrawn; or
- (b) the transferee's interest has been settled by agreement or otherwise satisfied; or
- (c) the nature of the transferee's interest does not entitle the transferee to prevent registration of an instrument that has been lodged.

(2) The Registrar must notify the transferee of the Registrar's intention to cancel the settlement notice at least 7 days before cancelling it.

No further settlement notice for same transaction

146. If a settlement notice for a lot lapses or is withdrawn, removed or cancelled, another settlement notice cannot be deposited for the lot for the same transaction.

Compensation for improper settlement notice

147.(1) A person who deposits or continues a settlement notice without reasonable cause must compensate anyone else who suffers loss or damage as a result.

(2) In a proceeding for compensation under subsection (1)—

- (a) the Supreme Court may include in a judgment for compensation a component for exemplary damages; and
- (b) proof that a settlement notice was not deposited or was not continued without reasonable cause rests on the person who lodged or continued the notice.

Notices to the transferee

148. A notice under this part to a transferee is sufficiently served if left at or sent to the address specified in the settlement notice.

Registrar may withdraw instrument

149.(1) The Registrar may withdraw an instrument that has been lodged but prevented from being registered by a settlement notice.

(2) However, the Registrar must notify the person who lodged the instrument of the Registrar's intention to withdraw the instrument at least 14 days before withdrawing it.

(3) An instrument withdrawn by the Registrar under subsection (1) is taken to have been withdrawn under section 144(1)(a).²

Priority of instruments

150. Instruments lodged, but prevented from being registered by a settlement notice, are taken to have been lodged (in the order in which they were lodged) immediately after lodgment of the directly related instruments specified in the notice.

Effect of transferee's notice on caveat

151. A person's right to lodge a caveat is not affected by a settlement notice.

Minor correction of settlement notice

152. On receiving a written request from the transferee specified in a settlement notice, the Registrar may make a correction in the notice if the Registrar is satisfied that it is minor.

PART 8—INSTRUMENTS

Division 1—General

When instrument capable of registration

153. The Registrar may register an instrument only if—

² Under section 159(1)(a) the Registrar may withdraw an instrument. An instrument that is withdrawn loses its priority.

- (a) it complies with this Act; and
- (b) it appears on its face to be capable of registration.

Lodging certificate of title

154.(1) An instrument may be registered for a lot only if any certificate of title for the lot is returned for cancellation.

(2) However, a certificate of title need not be returned for cancellation with any of the following—

- (a) an instrument of transfer of a registered lease that is lodged without the lessor's consent;
- (b) a request to register a writ of execution;
- (c) a caveat lodged under part 7 (Other dealings), division 2 (Caveats);
- (d) a request to register a power of attorney;
- (e) an instrument for which the Registrar has dispensed with production of the certificate of title.

Correcting unregistered instruments

155.(1) The Registrar may correct an obvious error in a lodged plan of survey by—

- (a) drawing a line through the error without making the original words illegible; and
- (b) writing in the correct information; and
- (c) dating and initialling the correction.

(2) The Registrar may correct an obvious error in a lodged instrument (other than a plan of survey) by noting the correction on the instrument.

(3) The Registrar may correct an obvious error in a lodged instrument only if the Registrar is satisfied that the instrument is incorrect and the correction will not prejudice the rights of a person.

(4) An instrument corrected by the Registrar under this section has the same effect as if the relevant error had not been made.

Requisitions

156.(1) The Registrar may, by written notice (the “requisition”) given to a person who has lodged or deposited an instrument or other document, require the person—

- (a) to re-execute, complete or correct the instrument or document if it appears to the Registrar to be wrong, incomplete or defective; or
- (b) to produce to the Registrar specified information, or deposit a specified instrument or document, in support of the person’s application to register the instrument.

(2) The Registrar may require the instrument, document or information to be verified by statutory declaration or affidavit.

(3) The requisition may specify when, and the place where, it must be complied with.

(4) The Registrar may extend the time for complying with the requisition.

(5) The Registrar may refuse to deal with the instrument or document lodged or deposited by the person (and any instrument that depends on it for registration) until the person complies with the requisition.

Rejecting instrument for failure to comply with requisition

157.(1) If a requisition under section 141 (Requisitions) is not complied with by a person within the time specified or extended by the Registrar, the Registrar may reject the instrument or document to which the requisition relates and any instrument that depends on it for registration.

(2) An instrument rejected under subsection (1) loses its priority under section 163 (Priority of registered instruments) and must be returned by the Registrar to the person who lodged it.

(3) A memorandum recording the rejection of an instrument under subsection (1) may be endorsed on the rejected instrument or in a separate record kept in the land registry.

(4) This section does not prevent re-lodgment of a rejected instrument after the requisition has been complied with.

158.(1) The Registrar may permit the following persons to borrow a lodged instrument before it is registered—

- (a) a person who lodged or deposited an instrument; or
- (b) a person on whose behalf an instrument was lodged or deposited; or
- (c) the agent of a person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b).

Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—50 penalty units.

Withdrawing lodged instrument before registration

159.(1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the order in which an instrument has been lodged in relation to other instruments is such that the instrument will not give effect to the intention expressed in it or a related instrument, or is an instrument that should not have been lodged, the Registrar may—

- (a) withdraw the instrument; or
- (b) permit the instrument to be withdrawn.

(2) An instrument that is withdrawn by the Registrar under subsection (1) remains in the land registry, unless the instrument is an instrument that should not have been lodged.

(3) The Registrar may re-lodge an instrument that has been withdrawn by the Registrar.

(4) On receiving a written application, the Registrar may re-lodge an instrument that the Registrar has permitted to be withdrawn.

(5) An instrument withdrawn under subsection (1) loses its priority and is taken to have been lodged on the date and at the time endorsed on it by the Registrar at the time of its re-lodgment.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply to a plan of subdivision mentioned in section 53 (Lodged plan that is withdrawn and re-lodged).

Registrar may call in instrument for correction or cancellation

160. The Registrar may require a person to deposit an instrument for correction or cancellation.

Execution and proof

161.(1) For a corporation, an instrument is validly executed if—

- (b) the instrument is sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with section 46 of the Property Law Act 1974.

(2) For an individual, an instrument is validly executed if—

- (a) it is executed in a way permitted by law; and

(4) The witnessing of an instrument may be proved in any way permitted by law.

(5) This section does not apply to a plan of survey.

- (b) have the individual execute the document in the presence of the person; and
- (c) not be a party to the instrument.

Substitute instrument

163.(1) If the Registrar is satisfied that a registered instrument has been lost or destroyed, the Registrar may issue a substitute instrument.

(2) The Registrar may endorse on the substitute instrument—

- (a) that the instrument is a substitute replacing a lost or destroyed instrument; and
- (b) the date that the substitute instrument was issued; and
- (c) that the substitute is to be used in place of the original instrument; and
- (d) the location of the original instrument so far as it is known; and
- (e) other known circumstances of the loss or destruction.

(3) On the issue of the substitute instrument under subsection (1)—

- (a) the substitute instrument becomes the registered instrument instead of the original instrument; and
- (b) the substitute instrument has the priority to which the original instrument was entitled.

(4) The Registrar must record in the freehold land register that the substitute instrument has been issued and the date it was issued.

Dispensing with production of instrument

164.(1) The Registrar may dispense with the production of an instrument.

(2) The Registrar may require evidence that a person seeking to deal with a relevant lot is the registered proprietor, and that the instrument—

- (a) has been lost or no longer exists; and
- (b) is not deposited as security or for safe custody.

(3) The Registrar must record in the freehold land register that production of the instrument has been dispensed with and the date production of it was dispensed with.

Requiring plan of survey to be lodged

165.(1) The Registrar may require a registered proprietor of a lot who proposes to transfer, lease or otherwise deal with all or part of the lot to lodge a plan of survey of the lot.

(2) The plan of survey must comply with the Surveyors Act 1977 and must be certified as accurate by a licensed surveyor.

Destroying instrument in certain circumstances

166.(1) The Registrar may destroy a part of the freehold land register or an instrument held in the land registry if the part of the register or the instrument—

- (a) is not evidence of an existing interest; or
- (b) is evidence of an existing interest of which there is accurate evidence in another part of the register; or
- (c) will not be required for registering the effect of a transaction.

(2) Before destroying a part of the register or an instrument under subsection (1), the Registrar must copy it in whatever way the Registrar considers appropriate.

(3) However, the Registrar must not destroy an original will.

(4) The Registrar may return a suitably perforated cancelled deed of grant or certificate of title to the person who, immediately before its cancellation, was entitled to it.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (1) is subject to the Libraries and Archives Act 1988.

“document” means a document containing provisions that are treated as terms of an instrument to which it is to apply or applies.

Document to which instrument refers may be registered

169.(1) The Registrar or another person may lodge a document and may amend the document by lodging a further document.

(2) The lodged document must be given a distinguishing reference and must be registered.

Document that is part of an instrument
