- (a) the auditor-general; or
- (b) a person authorised, in writing, by the auditor-general.

“case appraisal” see section 97.

“case appraiser” means—

- (a) a case appraiser approved under section 99; or
- (b) a judge.

“Chief Justice” means the Chief Justice of Queensland.

“court” means the Supreme Court of Queensland.

“dispute” means—

- (a) a dispute in a proceeding; or
- (b) something else about which the parties are in dispute that may be dealt with in a mediation at the same time as an ADR dispute.

“division” means a division of the court.

“Full Court” means the Full Court of the Supreme Court, and includes the Supreme Court sitting as the Court of Criminal Appeal and the court as a court consisting of 2 or more judges.

“judge” means a judge of the court.

“judge of appeal” includes the President of the Court of Appeal.

“mediation” see section 96.

“mediator” means a mediator approved under section 98 or a mediator within the meaning of the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990.

“party” means a party to a dispute.

¹ Section 98 (Approval of mediators)

² Section 99 (Appeal of case appraisers)

“President” means the President of the Court of Appeal.

“proceeding” means a proceeding in a court (whether or not between parties), and includes—

- (a) an incidental proceeding in the course of, or in connection with, a proceeding; and
- (b) an appeal or stated case.

“referring order” means an order made under section 102 referring a dispute to an ADR process.

“remuneration” includes salary, pension, leave of absence (whether annual leave, long leave or leave on account of illness or otherwise) and any other allowance, benefit or entitlement in respect of judicial service, whether paid or provided to a judge or his or her spouse, widow, widower, child or estate or otherwise.

“rules” means rules of court of the court, and includes rules of court of the Court of Appeal and the Trial Division.

“stated case” means—

- (a) a case stated under an Act or the rules by the court in the Trial Division or a judge; or
- (b) a case stated under an Act by another court or a judge of another court, or a justice or other person, for the opinion, decision, direction or determination of the court.

“Supreme Court Acts” see schedule 2, part 1.

“Supreme Court jurisdiction Act” means—

- (a) a Supreme Court Act; or
- (b) an Act mentioned in schedule 2, part 2; or
- (c) a law prescribed under a regulation for this definition.

“Supreme Court precincts” means any land or building, or the part of any land or building, used for the purposes of the court.

“this Act” includes the rules.

Words and expressions used in Supreme Court Act, pt 13

2A. Words and expressions used in the Supreme Court Act 1995, part 13³ have the same respective meanings as in this Act.

Interpretation—meaning of appeal

3. For the purposes of this Act, a proceeding in the court under an Act—
- (a) is an appeal if described in that Act, or in any statutory rule made under that Act, as an appeal; and
 - (b) subject to the rules, is not an appeal if not so described.

Interpretation—references to Full Court etc.

4. In an Act (other than this Act) or the rules a reference to the Full Court or Court of Criminal Appeal is a reference to the Court of Appeal.

The Crown

6. The Crown in all its capacities is bound by, and has the benefit of, this Act.

PART 2—THE COURTDivision 1—Continuance, jurisdiction and compositionContinuance

7. The Supreme Court of Queensland, as formerly established as the superior court of record in Queensland, is continued in existence.

³ Part 13 contains provisions relocated from the Judicature Act 1876.

Jurisdiction generally

8.(1) The court has all jurisdiction that is necessary for the administration of justice in Queensland.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the court—

- (a) is the supreme court of general jurisdiction in and for the State; and
- (b) has, subject to the Commonwealth Constitution, unlimited jurisdiction at law, in equity and otherwise.

Jurisdiction of court not impaired etc.

9. Except as provided in this Act, this Act does not take away, lessen or impair any jurisdiction or power that was, immediately before the commencement of this section, vested in or capable of being exercised by the court or 1 or more judges.

Composition of court

11. The court consists of a Chief Justice, a President of the Court of Appeal, other judges of appeal, a Senior Judge Administrator, and such judges as are appointed by the Governor in Council.

Appointment of judges

12. The Governor in Council may, by commission, appoint a barrister or solicitor of the court of at least 5 years standing to be a judge.

Title of Chief Justice

13. The Chief Justice is called the Chief Justice of Queensland.

Administrative responsibility of Chief Justice

13A.(1) Without limiting the responsibilities, functions or powers of the Chief Justice, the Chief Justice, subject to this Act, is responsible for the administration of the Supreme Court and its divisions and the orderly and expeditious exercise of the court's jurisdiction and power.

(2) Subject to this Act, the Chief Justice has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done to perform responsibilities under subsection (1).

Acting judges

14.(1) If a judge is or will be on leave, or otherwise absent, or is or will be, for any reason, unable to perform the functions of the office, the Governor in Council, after consultation between the Minister and the Chief Justice, may, by commission, appoint a person who is qualified to be appointed as a judge to act as a judge for such period (not longer than 6 months) as is specified in the commission.

(2) If the Chief Justice certifies that it is desirable that 1 or more persons be appointed to act as a judge to assist in ensuring the orderly and expeditious exercise of the jurisdiction and powers of the court in the Trial Division, the Governor in Council may, by commission, appoint 1 or more persons, who is or are qualified to be appointed as a judge to act as a judge for such period (not longer than 6 months) as is specified in the commission or commissions.

(3) While a person is acting as a judge—

- (a) the person has all the powers and functions of a judge; and
- (b) this Act and other Acts apply to the person as if the person were a judge.

(4) The Governor in Council may determine the remuneration to be paid and provided in relation to a person who acts as a judge (not being less than the remuneration paid and provided to a judge).

(5) The fact that a person who holds a commission to act as a judge sits and otherwise acts as a judge is sufficient evidence of the person's authority to do so.

(6) A person who has acted as a judge may attend sittings of the court for the purpose of giving judgment in, or otherwise completing, a proceeding that was heard by the person while the person was acting as a judge, despite the fact that the person is no longer a judge.

Jurisdiction not affected by vacancies

15. The jurisdiction of the court, or of a division of the court, is not affected by a vacancy in any office in the court.

Division 2—Divisions of the courtDivisions of court etc.

16.(1) The court is divided into—

- (a) the office of the Chief Justice; and
- (b) 2 divisions, namely, the Court of Appeal and the Trial Division.

(2) The Chief Justice may sit as, and exercise the powers and perform the functions of, a judge in either division of the court.

Division 3—Provisions relating to judges generallySeniority

21.(1) The Chief Justice is senior to all other judges of the court.

(2) The President of the Court of Appeal is senior to all other judges of the court apart from the Chief Justice.

(3) Subject to section 121 (Seniority of first judges of appeal), judges of appeal have seniority after the President of the Court of Appeal, and have seniority in relation to each other according to the dates of their commissions as judges of appeal.

(4) Subject to section 121 (Seniority of first judges of appeal), if the commissions of 2 or more judges of appeal have the same date, the judges of appeal have seniority in relation to each other according to the seniority assigned by their commissions or, in the absence of such an assignment, according to the order of their being sworn in.

(5) The Senior Judge Administrator has seniority after the judges of appeal.

(6) The remaining judges have seniority in relation to each other

according to the dates of their commissions.

(7) If the commissions of 2 or more judges have the same date, the judges have seniority in relation to each other according to the seniority assigned by their commissions or, in the absence of such an assignment, according to the order of their being sworn in.

(8) In subsections (6) and (7), a reference to a judge includes a judge who has ceased to be the Senior Judge Administrator.

Accepting and holding of other public offices

22.(1) Subject to this section, a judge may accept and hold another public office.

(2) A judge who accepts another public office—

- (a) must immediately notify the Attorney-General in writing; and
- (b) must immediately resign the other public office if the Governor in Council determines, after consultation between the Attorney-General and the Chief Justice, that the holding of that office, or the conditions on which it is held, would be inconsistent with the proper discharge of the office of a judge.

(3) A judge may receive remuneration in relation to the acceptance or holding of another public office only with the approval of the Governor in Council.

(4) In this section—

“public office” includes—

- (a) an office or appointment granted or made by the Government of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory; and
- (b) an office or appointment in or in relation to a university or other educational institution, a hospital or a charitable institution.

Retirement of judges

23.(1) A judge must retire on reaching 70 years of age.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a judge who, before attaining 70 years of age, starts the hearing of a proceeding remains a judge for the purposes of finishing the proceeding.

Resignation

25. A judge may resign a judicial office by signed notice given to the Governor.

Temporary judicial office holders

26.(1) When—

- (a) the office of Chief Justice, President of the Court of Appeal or Senior Judge Administrator is vacant; or
- (b) the Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal or the Senior Judge Administrator is, for any reason, unable to discharge the person's office; the next most senior judge, who is willing, is to act in the office.

(2) When the Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal or the Senior Judge Administrator is on leave or otherwise absent or is, for any other reason, unable to perform all of the ordinary functions of the person's office, the next most senior judge, who is willing, is to perform the functions of the office that the person is unable to perform.

(3) While a judge is acting in a more senior judicial office—

- (a) the judge has all the powers and functions of the office; and
- (b) this Act and other Acts apply to the judge as if the judge were the holder of the office.

(4) While a judge is performing functions of a more senior judicial office, then, to the extent necessary to enable the person to perform the functions—

- (a) the judge has all the powers and functions of the office; and
- (b) this Act and other Acts apply to the judge as if the judge were the holder of the office.

(5) The fact that a judge acts in, or performs functions of, a more senior judicial office is sufficient evidence of the judge's authority to do so.

(6) Anything done by a judge in purporting to act in, or perform functions of, a more senior judicial office is not invalid merely because the occasion for the judge to act in, or perform functions of, the office had not arisen or had ceased.

Entitlements of temporary judicial office holders

27.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a judge who acts in, or performs functions of, a more senior judicial office under section 26⁴ or 39⁵ is not entitled to receive additional remuneration for doing so.

(2) The Governor in Council may determine that a judge who acts in, or performs functions of, a more senior judicial office under section 26² or 39³ is to receive specified additional remuneration (not being more than the remuneration of the office concerned) for doing so.

PART 3—THE COURT OF APPEAL

Division 1—Composition, jurisdiction and powers

Composition

28. The Court of Appeal consists of—

- (a) the President of the Court of Appeal; and
- (b) not less than 3, nor more than 5, other judges of appeal.

Jurisdiction and powers

29.(1) Subject to this Act, the Court of Appeal has jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters that, immediately before the commencement of this section, the Full Court had jurisdiction to hear and determine.

⁴ Section 26 (Temporary judicial office holders)

⁵ Section 39 (Additional judges of appeal)

(2) The Court of Appeal has such additional jurisdiction as is conferred on it by or under this Act, another Act or a Commonwealth Act.

(3) The Court of Appeal may, in proceedings before it, exercise every jurisdiction or power of the court, whether at law or in equity or under any Act, Commonwealth Act or Imperial Act.

Way in which court may be constituted

30.(1) Subject to this Act, any 3 or more judges of appeal constitute, and may exercise all the jurisdiction and powers of, the Court of Appeal.

(2) More than 1 Court of Appeal may sit at the same time.

(3) When more than 1 Court of Appeal is sitting at the same time, each may exercise the jurisdiction and powers of the Court of Appeal.

(4) A rule of court may provide that the jurisdiction and powers of the Court of Appeal may, in particular kinds of proceedings, be exercised by fewer than 3 judges of appeal.

Constitution of court if 1 judge of appeal unable to continue

31.(1) If—

- (a) after the Court of Appeal (including the court constituted under this section) has started the hearing, or further hearing, of a proceeding; and
- (b) before the proceeding has been determined;

1 of the judges of appeal constituting the court dies, resigns as a judge or otherwise becomes unable to continue as a member of the court for the purposes of the proceeding, the hearing and determination of the proceeding may be finished by the remaining judges of appeal if at least 2 judges of appeal remain and the parties consent.

(2) The Court of Appeal constituted under this section may have regard to any evidence given or received, and arguments adduced, by or before the Court of Appeal as previously constituted.

(3) Any question in the proceeding is to be decided in the same way, and the judgment of the Court of Appeal constituted under this section has the same force and effect, as if the court were not constituted under this section.

Arrangement of business of Court of Appeal

32.(1) Subject to section 13A, the President of the Court of Appeal is responsible for the administration of the Court of Appeal and for ensuring the orderly and expeditious exercise of the jurisdiction and powers of the Court of Appeal.

(2) Subject to this Act, the President has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for ensuring the orderly and expeditious exercise of the jurisdiction and powers of the Court of Appeal.

Annual report

32A.(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, but within 2 months after the end of the financial year, the President of the Court of Appeal must prepare and give to the Chief Justice a written report about the operation of the Court of Appeal during the year.

(2) The report must be prepared in consultation with the other judges of appeal, other than the judges of appeal who are absent from duty or otherwise unavailable.

Division 2—Judges of appealAppointment

33.(1) The Governor in Council may, by commission, appoint a judge to be a judge of appeal.

(2) A judge may be appointed to be a judge of appeal either at the time of the person's appointment as a judge or at any time afterwards.

Judge of appeal continues to be judge

34. A judge of appeal continues to be a judge, and may, with the consent of the Chief Justice, sit as, and exercise any of the powers of, a judge in the Trial Division.

Judge of appeal continues in office while judge

35.(1) A judge of appeal holds office as a judge of appeal while the person holds office as a judge.

(2) A judge of appeal may resign office as a judge of appeal without resigning office as a judge.

Appointment of President

36.(1) The Governor in Council may, by commission, appoint a judge of appeal to be the President of the Court of Appeal.

(2) A judge of appeal may be appointed to the President of the Court of Appeal either at the time of the person's appointment as a judge of appeal or at any time afterwards.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the Governor in Council may act under section 33 and this section to appoint a judge, or a person qualified to be appointed as a judge, to be the President of the Court of Appeal.

President continues in office while judge of appeal

37.(1) The President of the Court of Appeal holds office as President while the person holds office as a judge of appeal.

(2) The President may resign office as President without resigning office as a judge of appeal.

Additional judges of appeal

39.(1) If a judge of appeal is on leave, or otherwise absent, or is, for any reason, unable to perform the functions of the office, the Governor in Council, after consultation between the Minister and the Chief Justice, may, by commission, appoint a judge to act as an additional judge of appeal for such period (not longer than 6 months) as is specified in the commission.

(2) A judge who is willing to act as an additional judge of appeal for a particular period, or for the purposes of a particular proceeding, may so act if the Chief Justice directs it.

(3) While a judge is acting as a judge of appeal—

- (a) the judge has all the powers and functions of a judge of appeal; and
- (b) this Act and other Acts apply to the judge as if the judge were a judge of appeal.

(4) The fact that a judge sits and otherwise acts as an additional judge of appeal is sufficient evidence of the judge's authority to do so.

(5) Anything done by or in relation to a judge while the judge is purporting to act as judge of appeal is not invalid merely because the occasion for the judge to act had not arisen or had ceased.

(6) A judge who has acted as an additional judge of appeal may attend sittings of the Court of Appeal for the purpose of giving judgment in, or otherwise completing, a proceeding that was heard by the Court of Appeal while the judge was acting, despite the fact that the judge is no longer a judge of appeal.

Presiding judge of appeal

40.(1) At a sitting of the Court of Appeal at which the Chief Justice is present, the Chief Justice is to preside.

(2) At a sitting of the Court of Appeal at which the Chief Justice is not present, the President of the Court of Appeal is to preside.

(3) At a sitting of the Court of Appeal at which neither the Chief Justice nor the President of the Court of Appeal is present, the senior judge of appeal present is to preside.

Decision

41.(1) The decision of the Court of Appeal is to be in accordance with the opinion of the majority of judges of appeal present at the hearing.

(2) If the judges of appeal present are equally divided in opinion, the decision of the Court of Appeal is to be in accordance with the opinion of the judge who is presiding at the hearing.

Reserved judgments

42.(1) If a proceeding is set down for judgment, it is not necessary for all or any of the judges of appeal before whom it was heard to be present in court to state their opinions on the proceeding when the judgment is obtained.

(2) The opinion of any of the judges of appeal may be reduced to writing and may be made public by any judge of appeal at a sitting of the Court of Appeal at which judgment in the proceeding is delivered.

(3) A question in the proceeding is to be decided in the same way, and the judgment of the Court of Appeal has the same effect, as if each judge of appeal whose opinion is so made public had been present in court and declared his or her opinion in person.

(4) For the purpose of delivering judgment under this section, the Court of Appeal may be constituted by a single judge of appeal who need not have been present at the hearing.

Powers of judge of appeal

43.(1) A judge of appeal may exercise the powers of the Court of Appeal—

- (a) to give a judgment by consent or make an order by consent; and
- (b) to dismiss an appeal or other proceeding for want of prosecution or for other cause specified in an Act or a rule of court about the practices and procedures of the Court of Appeal; and
- (c) to dismiss an appeal or other proceeding on the application of the appellant, applicant or plaintiff; and
- (d) to deal with matters incidental to the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c).

(2) A judge of appeal may exercise the powers of the Court of Appeal—

- (a) to make an order or give a direction concerning the institution of an appeal or other proceeding in the Court of Appeal; or
- (b) to make an order or give a direction in an appeal or other proceeding, other than an order or direction involving the determination or decision of the appeal or other proceeding.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the powers that a judge of appeal may exercise under subsection (1).

(4) The Court of Appeal may discharge or vary—

- (a) a judgment given by a judge of appeal; or
- (b) an order made or direction given by a judge of appeal.

(5) Subject to subsection (4), a judgment, order or direction given or made by a judge of appeal has effect as a judgment, order or direction of the Court of Appeal, whether or not the judgment, order or direction is within the powers of the judge of appeal under this section.

Remuneration of judges of appeal

44. Subject to this Act, the salary, allowances and other remuneration of the President of the Court of Appeal and the other judges of appeal is to be determined, paid and provided in accordance with—

- (a) the Constitution Act 1867, section 17; and
- (b) the Supreme Court Act 1995, section 196; and
- (c) the Supreme Court Act 1995, section 227; and
- (d) the Judges (Pensions and Long Leave) Act 1957; and
- (e) the Judges (Salaries and Allowances) Act 1967.

Remuneration of new judges of appeal after Courts Reform Amendment Act 1997

44A. Under section 44, the remuneration and conditions of a judge of appeal, other than the President of the Court of Appeal, appointed after the commencement of this section are to be the same as the remuneration and conditions of a judge of the Trial Division.

Appropriation

45. Amounts payable in accordance with section 44⁶ are payable out of the consolidated fund, which is appropriated accordingly.

PART 4—THE TRIAL DIVISION*Division 1—Jurisdiction and powersComposition, jurisdiction and powers of Trial Division

55.(1) The Trial Division of the court consists of the judges of the court other than the Chief Justice, the President of the Court of Appeal and the other judges of appeal.

(2) The jurisdiction and powers of the court that are not required to be exercised only by the Court of Appeal may be exercised by the court in the Trial Division.

Single judge to constitute the court

56.(1) All proceedings in the Trial Division are to be heard and disposed of before a single judge.

(2) For those proceedings, the judge constitutes, and is to exercise all the jurisdiction and powers of, the court.

(3) This section does not affect the hearing and disposal of proceedings before a master or other officer of the court in accordance with an Act or the rules.

(4) This section does not affect any right to trial by jury under an Act, the rules or a practice of the court.

⁶ Section 44 (Remuneration of judges of appeal)

Division 2—Senior Judge Administrator and other judgesAppointment of Senior Judge Administrator

57.(1) The Governor in Council may, by commission, appoint a judge to be Senior Judge Administrator.

(2) The appointment of a Senior Judge Administrator may be for a term (not less than 5 years) specified in the commission.

(3) A judge may be appointed Senior Judge Administrator either at the time of the person's appointment as a judge or at any time afterwards.

Senior Judge Administrator continues to be judge

58. The Senior Judge Administrator continues to be a judge, and may sit as, and exercise any of the powers of, a judge.

Senior Judge Administrator continues in office while judge

59.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Senior Judge Administrator holds office as Senior Judge Administrator while the person holds office as a judge.

(2) A person who is the Senior Judge Administrator vacates the office—

- (a) if the person is appointed as Chief Justice, President of the Court of Appeal or another judge of appeal; or
- (b) if the person was appointed as Senior Judge Administrator for a specified term—when the term ends.

(3) The Senior Judge Administrator may resign office as Senior Judge Administrator without resigning office as a judge.

Arrangement of business of Trial Division

60.(1) Subject to section 13A, the Senior Judge Administrator is responsible to the Chief Justice for the administration of the court in the Trial Division and for ensuring the orderly and expeditious exercise of the jurisdiction and powers of the court in the Trial Division.

(2) Subject to this Act and other Acts, the Senior Judge Administrator has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for the administration of the court in the Trial Division and for ensuring the orderly and expeditious exercise of the jurisdiction and powers of the court in the Trial Division.

Annual report

61.(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, but within 2 months after the end of the financial year, the Senior Judge Administrator must prepare and give to the Chief Justice a written report about the operation of the Trial Division during the year.

(2) The report must be prepared in consultation with the other judges of the Trial Division, other than the judges who are absent from duty or otherwise unavailable.

PART 5—REMOVAL AND REMISSION

Removal and remission

68.(1) If a proceeding is started in another court, but is a proceeding that is required to be heard and determined only by the Court of Appeal—

- (a) the proceeding is taken to have been duly started when it was started in the other court; and
- (b) the Court of Appeal may, on application by a party or of its own motion, order that the proceeding be removed into the Court of Appeal; and
- (c) on an order being made under paragraph (b), the proceeding must be continued and disposed of in the Court of Appeal; and
- (d) subject to any order under paragraph (b), the proceeding may be continued and disposed of in the other court.

(2) If a proceeding is started in the Court of Appeal, but is a proceeding that the Court of Appeal considers could be more conveniently heard and determined in another court—

- (a) the proceeding is taken to have been duly started when it was started in the Court of Appeal; and
- (b) the Court of Appeal may, on application by a party or of its own motion, order that the proceeding be remitted to the other court; and
- (c) on an order for remission being made under paragraph (b), the proceeding must be continued and disposed of in the other court; and
- (d) subject to any order under paragraph (b), the proceeding may be continued and disposed of in the Court of Appeal.

(3) If a proceeding is pending before the Court of Appeal, the Court of Appeal may, on application by a party or of its own motion, order that the whole or a part of the proceeding be remitted to another court for the determination (by trial or otherwise) of the proceeding or any question of fact or law arising in the proceeding.

(4) Subject to section 697, the Court of Appeal may accept any determination of the other court in whole or part.

(5) If a proceeding (whether by way of appeal or otherwise), or a proceeding on a stated case (other than a case stated by another court), is started in the other court—

- (a) the Court of Appeal, if satisfied that special circumstances exist that make it desirable to do so, may, on application by a party or of its own motion, order that the proceeding be removed into the Court of Appeal; and
- (b) on an order being made under paragraph (a), the proceeding must be continued and disposed of in the Court of Appeal.

(6) A proceeding may be removed into the Court of Appeal under this section despite any decision or determination in the proceeding being expressed by an Act to be final or without appeal.

⁷ Section 69 (Appeal in proceedings in the court)

(7) In this section—

“another court” means the Trial Division or a District Court.

PART 6—APPEALS TO COURT OF APPEAL

Appeal in proceedings in the court

69.(1) Subject to this and any other Act, an appeal lies to the Court of Appeal from—

- (a) any judgment or order of the court in the Trial Division; and
- (b) without limiting paragraph (a)—
 - (i) a judgment or order of the court in the Trial Division made under this Act; and
 - (ii) any opinion, decision, direction or determination of the court in the Trial Division on a stated case; and
 - (iii) any determination of the court in the Trial Division or a District Court in a proceeding remitted under section 68⁸.

(2) Subject to any other Act, a rule of court may provide that leave to appeal is required in proceedings specified in the rule.

Disqualification of judge of appeal

70. A judge must not sit in judgment on the hearing of an appeal from a judgment given, or an order made, by the judge.

⁸ Section 68 (Removal and remission)

PART 8—ADR PROCESSES

Division 1—Preliminary

Objects of part

94. The objects of this part are—

- (a) to provide an opportunity for litigants to participate in ADR processes in order to achieve negotiated settlements and satisfactory resolutions of disputes; and
- (b) to introduce ADR processes into the court system to improve access to justice for litigants and to reduce cost and delay; and
- (c) to provide a legislative framework allowing ADR processes to be conducted as quickly, and with as little formality and technicality, as possible; and
- (d) to safeguard ADR processes—
 - (i) by ensuring they remain confidential; and
 - (ii) by extending the same protection to participants in an ADR process they would have if the dispute were before the Supreme Court.

Division 2—Important terms

ADR process

95.(1) An “ADR process” is a process of mediation or case appraisal under which the parties are helped to achieve an early, inexpensive settlement or resolution of their dispute.

(2) In division 6,⁹ an “ADR process” includes all the steps involved in an ADR process, including, for example—

- (a) pre-mediation and post-mediation sessions; and

⁹ Division 6 (Confidentiality, protection and immunity)

- (b) a case appraisal session; and
- (c) joint sessions; and
- (d) private sessions; and
- (e) another step prescribed under the rules.

Mediation

96. “Mediation” is a process under the rules under which the parties use a mediator to help them resolve their dispute by negotiated agreement without adjudication.

Case appraisal

97.(1) “Case appraisal” is a process under the rules under which a case appraiser provisionally decides a dispute.

- (2) A case appraiser’s decision is not binding on the parties until—
- (a) the time prescribed under the rules for filing an election to go to trial has passed; and
 - (b) the Supreme Court, by order, gives effect to the decision.

Division 3—Establishment of ADR processes

Approval of mediators

98. The Senior Judge Administrator, subject to the direction of the Chief Justice, may approve, or refuse to approve, a person as a mediator.

Approval of case appraisers

99. The Senior Judge Administrator, subject to the direction of the Chief Justice, may approve, or refuse to approve, a person as a case appraiser.

ADR register

100.(1) The registrar must keep a register of information about ADR processes.

(2) The register may be kept in the form (whether or not in a documentary form) the registrar considers appropriate.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the registrar may change the form in which a register or a part of a register is kept.

(4) The register must contain—

- (a) the name and address of each mediator and each case appraiser (other than a judge); and
- (b) other information prescribed under the rules; and
- (c) other information decided by the Senior Judge Administrator and agreed to by the Chief Justice.

(5) However, subsection (4) does not require the registrar to enter in the register the name and address of, and the other information about, a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990.

Parties may agree to ADR process

101.(1) The parties to a dispute may agree to refer their dispute to an ADR process.

(2) If the parties agree to the referral, they must file a consent order in the form prescribed under the rules with the registrar.

(3) A consent order filed under this section is taken to be a referring order.

Court may consider and order reference to ADR process

102.(1) The Supreme Court may require the parties or their representatives to attend before it to enable the court to decide whether the parties' dispute should be referred to an ADR process.

(2) The court may, by order (“referring order”), refer the dispute for mediation or case appraisal.

(3) Without limiting the court's discretion, the court may take the following matters into account when deciding whether to refer a dispute to case appraisal—

- (a) whether the costs of litigating the dispute to the end are likely to be disproportionate to the benefit gained;
- (b) the likelihood of an appraisal producing a compromise or an abandonment of a claim or defence;
- (c) other circumstances justify an appraisal.

(4) If the court decides to refer the dispute to a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990, it is sufficient if the order appoints the director of a specified dispute resolution centre as mediator.

Parties must attend at ADR process if Supreme Court orders

103.(1) If a referring order is made, the parties—

- (a) must attend before the ADR convenor appointed to conduct the ADR process; and
- (b) must not impede the ADR convenor in conducting and finishing the ADR process within the time allowed under the referring order.

(2) If a party impedes the ADR process, the Supreme Court may impose sanctions against the party, including, for example—

- (a) by ordering that any claim for relief by the defaulting party is stayed until further order; and
- (b) by taking the party's action into account when awarding costs in the proceeding or in another related proceeding between the parties.

Procedure at case appraisal

104.(1) At a case appraisal, the case appraiser—

- (a) must decide the procedure to be used at the case appraisal; and
- (b) may adopt any procedure that will, in the case appraiser's opinion, enable a sound opinion of the likely outcome of the dispute to be reached; and

(c) must finish the case appraisal as quickly as possible.

(2) However, the case appraiser may, in special circumstances—

(a) receive evidence; and

(b) examine witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses, who have been lawfully called before the case appraiser.

(3) The Supreme Court may, at any time, give directions about procedure to be used at the case appraisal.

(4) This section is subject to section 105.

Subpoenas

105.(1) A person may be subpoenaed to appear at a case appraisal only by order of the Supreme Court.

(2) A person may not be subpoenaed to appear at a mediation.

(3) A person subpoenaed to appear at a case appraisal must not be compelled to answer a question, or produce a document, the person could not be compelled to answer or produce before the Supreme Court.

Division 4—Party unable to pay share of costs

Party unable to pay share of costs

106.(1) If, at any time, the Supreme Court is of the opinion a party to an ADR process is unable, because of the party's financial circumstances, to pay the party's percentage of the ADR costs, the court may make an order appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the order may provide—

(a) the reference to the ADR process be cancelled; or

(b) the referring order be revoked and another referring order made.

Division 5—What to do when ADR process is finishedMediated resolution agreement

107.(1) If, at a mediation, the parties agree on a resolution of their dispute or part of it, the agreement must be written down and signed by or for each party and by the mediator.

(2) The agreement has the same effect as any other compromise.

Mediator to file certificate

108. As soon as practicable after a mediation has finished, the mediator must file with the registrar a certificate about the mediation in the form prescribed under the rules.

Case appraiser to file certificate and decision

109. As soon as practicable after a case appraisal has finished, the case appraiser must file with the registrar—

- (a) a certificate about the case appraisal in the form prescribed under the rules; and
- (b) the case appraiser's decision (if any).

Orders giving effect to mediation agreement

110.(1) A party may apply to the Supreme Court for an order giving effect to an agreement reached after mediation.

(2) However, a party may apply for the order only after the mediator's certificate is filed with the registrar.

(3) The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Orders giving effect to case appraiser's decision

111.(1) A party may apply to the Supreme Court for an order giving effect to a case appraiser's decision after the time prescribed under the rules for electing to go to trial has passed.

(2) However, a party may apply for the order before the time mentioned in subsection (1) if all parties agree.

(3) The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Division 6—Confidentiality, protection and immunity

ADR convenors to maintain secrecy

112.(1) An ADR convenor must not, without reasonable excuse, disclose information coming to the convenor's knowledge during an ADR process.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) It is a reasonable excuse to disclose information if the disclosure is made—

- (a) with the agreement of all the parties to the ADR process; or
- (b) for this part; or
- (c) for statistical purposes without revealing, or being likely to reveal, the identity of a person about whom the information relates; or
- (d) for an inquiry or proceeding about an offence happening during the ADR process; or
- (e) for a proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process; or
- (f) under a requirement imposed under an Act.

Ordinary protection and immunity allowed

113.(1) In performing the functions of mediator or case appraiser, an ADR convenor has the same protection and immunity as a judge performing the functions of a judge.

(2) A party appearing in an ADR dispute has the same protection and immunity the party would have if the dispute were being heard before the Supreme Court.

(3) A witness attending in an ADR dispute has the same protection and immunity as a witness attending before the Supreme Court.

(4) A document produced at, or used for, an ADR dispute has the same protection during the ADR dispute it would have if produced before the Supreme Court.

(5) In subsection (2)—

“party” includes a party’s lawyer or agent.

Admissions made to ADR convenors

114.(1) Evidence of anything done or said, or an admission made, at an ADR process about the dispute is admissible at the trial of the dispute or in another civil proceeding before the Supreme Court or elsewhere only if all parties to the dispute agree.

(2) In subsection (1)—

“civil proceeding” does not include a civil proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process.

Division 7—Miscellaneous

Revocation of approval as mediator or case appraiser

115.(1) The Senior Judge Administrator, subject to the direction of the Chief Justice, may revoke the approval of a person as a mediator or case appraiser.

(2) The Senior Judge Administrator must give the person a statement of reasons for the revocation.

Appeal against refusal to approve and revocation of approval as mediator or case appraiser

116. An appeal lies to the Court of Appeal, by leave of that court, against—

- (a) a refusal to approve a person as a mediator or case appraiser; or

- (b) the revocation of approval of a person as a mediator or case appraiser.

PART 8A—USE OF VIDEO LINK FACILITIES

Purpose of part

116A. The purpose of this part is to provide for the use of video link facilities for certain proceedings before the Supreme Court.

Definitions for part

116B. In this part—

“detainee” means—

- (a) for section 116C(1)—someone who is in custody at a correctional institution; and
- (b) otherwise, someone who is—
 - (i) in custody at a correctional institution; and
 - (ii) a party to a proceeding.

“proceeding”, for a provision of this part, other than section 116C(1), means a proceeding to which section 116C(1) applies.

Use of video link facilities in proceedings

116C.(1) This section applies to a proceeding if—

- (a) a detainee is entitled or required to be present before the Supreme Court for the proceeding; and
- (b) the proceeding is—
 - (i) about an offence with which the detainee is charged, including a proceeding for the detainee’s bail or remand; or

- (ii) an appeal under the District Courts Act 1967, section 118¹⁰ or the Criminal Code, chapter 67¹¹ in relation to an offence of which the detainee has been convicted (“appeal proceeding”); and
- (c) video link facilities are available linking the correctional institution where the detainee is in custody and the court.

(2) A proceeding for the detainee’s bail or remand or an appeal proceeding must be conducted using the video link facilities, unless the court, in the interests of justice, otherwise orders.

(3) In a proceeding, other than a proceeding for the detainee’s bail or remand or an appeal proceeding, the court may order the proceeding be conducted using video link facilities only if all parties consent.

(4) The video link facilities may only be used to link the proceeding before the court at the place the court is sitting with the detainee, or the detainee and the detainee’s representative, at the correctional institution.

Detainee taken to be before the court

116D.(1) A person present at the part of the correctional institution used for the conduct of a proceeding, when the proceeding is being conducted, is taken to be in the presence of the Supreme Court for all purposes.

(2) The part of the correctional institution used for the proceeding is taken to be part of the court for the conduct of the proceeding.

(3) Any entitlement of, or requirement for, the detainee under any law or court order to be present before the court in the proceeding is taken to be satisfied by the detainee’s use of video link facilities for the proceeding.

Way video link facilities must be operated

116E.(1) Video link facilities, when used for a proceeding, are to be operated in a way that ensures two-way audio and visual communication between the detainee and the Supreme Court.

¹⁰ Section 118 (Appeal to the Court of Appeal in certain cases)

¹¹ Chapter 67 (Appeal—Pardon)

(2) If video link facilities fail during a proceeding, the court may adjourn the proceeding or make another appropriate order, as if the detainee were still in the presence of the court.

Facilities for private communication

116F.(1) The Supreme Court and the correctional institution must make facilities available for private communication between the detainee and the detainee's representative in a proceeding if the representative is at the place where the court is sitting.

(2) A communication between the detainee and the detainee's representative is as confidential and as inadmissible in any proceeding as it would be if it took place while the detainee and the detainee's representative were in each other's presence.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit any other protection applying to the communication.

Variation or revocation of order

116G. The Supreme Court may, at any time, vary or revoke an order made under section 116C.

PART 9—RULES OF COURT

Rule making power

117.(1) The Governor in Council, with the agreement of 2 or more judges, may make rules of court under this Act for a jurisdiction law.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a rule may make provision about any matter that—

- (a) is required or permitted to be prescribed under a jurisdiction law; or
- (b) is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to a jurisdiction law.

(3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), a rule may also make provision about—

- (a) the practices and procedures of the Supreme Court and its registries; or
- (b) another matter mentioned in schedule 1.

(4) In this section—

“jurisdiction law” means—

- (a) this Act; or
- (b) a Supreme Court jurisdiction Act; or
- (c) another law giving jurisdiction to the Supreme Court.

PART 10—MISCELLANEOUS

Order etc. on terms

119. The court may make an order, give a direction or leave or do anything else that it is authorised to do on such terms and conditions (if any) as the court considers appropriate.

Supreme Court precincts

119A. Subject to this Act, the Chief Justice has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for the control and management of the Supreme Court precincts, including power to obtain, grant, prohibit or limit access to and from the precincts or part of the precincts.

Annual report

119B.(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, but within 4 months after the end of the financial year, the Chief Justice must prepare and give to the Minister a written report about the operation of the Supreme Court during the year.

(2) The Minister must table a copy of the report in the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days after receiving the report.

Finances and staffing of court

119C.(1) The court is part of the department for the purposes of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977.

(2) The staff of the court (other than the judges' associates) are to be appointed under the Public Service Act 1996.

Regulation-making power

120. The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

PART 11—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Seniority of first judges of appeal

121.(1) If all or some of the judges of appeal (other than the President of the Court of Appeal) appointed before 31 December 1991 consent to the application of this section to them before being sworn in, the Governor in Council may assign them equal seniority in relation to each other.

(2) For the purposes of the application of this Act in relation to a particular matter that is to be determined by seniority, the seniority of those judges of appeal in relation to each other is to be determined by agreement between them or, failing agreement, by the President of the Court of Appeal.

Judicial entitlements of first judges of appeal

122.(1) The Governor in Council is to determine, at or before the time of their appointment, the remuneration to be paid and provided in respect of the judicial service of the President of the Court of Appeal and the other judges of appeal.

(2) The rate of salary, and the allowances and the rate of allowances, payable to the President of the Court of Appeal and to the other judges of appeal on and after 1 July 1992 are to be fixed from time to time by determinations made by the Salaries and Allowances Tribunal under the Judges (Salaries and Allowances) Act 1967.

(3) In making its determinations, the tribunal is to give effect to determinations of the Governor in Council under subsection (1).

(4) However, subsection (3) does not prevent the making of a determination by the tribunal amalgamating the salary, general allowance and jurisprudential allowance of a judge of appeal if—

- (a) the tribunal also makes a determination amalgamating the salary, general allowance and jurisprudential allowance of the other judges of the court; and
- (b) the amalgamation for the judge of appeal is to the same proportional extent as the amalgamation for the other judges of the court.

(5) The remuneration in respect of the judicial service of the President of the Court of Appeal and the other judges of appeal determined in accordance with this section is to be paid and provided and is not to be reduced.

(6) Amounts payable in accordance with this section are payable out of the consolidated fund, which is appropriated accordingly.

(7) This section applies only to a judge of appeal appointed on or before 30 June 1992.

Part heard proceedings etc.

123.(1) Subject to this Act, and unless the Court of Appeal otherwise orders, this Act does not apply to, and the repeals and amendments made by this Act do not affect, a proceeding heard, in whole or part, in the Full Court before the commencement of this section.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), if a proceeding has been heard, in whole or part, in the Full Court before the commencement of this section, then, subject to this Act, and unless the Court of Appeal otherwise orders, this Act does not apply to, and the repeals and amendments made by this Act do not affect—

- (a) the completion after the commencement of this section of any step in the proceeding taken before the commencement of this section; or
- (b) the taking and completion after the commencement of this section of any step in the proceeding.

(3) The Court of Appeal may make orders under this section on application by a party or of its own motion.

(4) In this section—

“judgment” includes any rule, decree or order.

“step” includes—

- (a) the entry or other perfecting of a judgment; and
- (b) anything done or to be done in consequence of an appeal to the High Court;

whether before or after the final judgment.

References to Senior Puisne Judge

124. In an Act or document, a reference to the Senior Puisne Judge may, if the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Senior Judge Administrator.

Leave granted to appeal

125.(1) Leave granted before the commencement of this section to appeal to the Full Court has effect, after that commencement, as if it were leave granted to appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), leave granted under the District Courts Act 1967, section 92(2)¹² before the commencement of this section has effect, after that commencement, as if it were leave granted under that section as amended by this Act.

¹² Section 92(2) (Appeal to Court of Appeal in certain cases) was renumbered as section 118(2) in reprint 2 of the District Courts Act 1967.

(3) This section does not apply to a proceeding to which section 123¹³ applies.

Court may resolve difficulties

126.(1) If a difficulty arises in—

- (a) the application of this Act to a particular matter; or
- (b) the application, to a particular matter, of another Act because of the operation of this Act;

the Court of Appeal or the court in the Trial Division may, on application by a party or of its own motion, make such order as it considers proper to resolve the difficulty.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) has effect despite anything contained in this Act or another Act in force immediately before the commencement of this section.

Transitional provisions for Courts Reform Amendment Act 1997

127.(1) A rule in force immediately before the commencement of this section that was made under section 32, as in force immediately before the commencement, is taken to be made under section 117.

(2) Despite the Legislative Standards Act 1992, section 9A, the Parliamentary Counsel and any member of the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel is to disclose to an officer of the department or the Law Reform Commission instructions from the Litigation Reform Commission for the drafting of court rules not completed at the time of the commission's abolition to enable the preparation of the rules of court to continue.

¹³ Section 123 (Part heard proceedings etc.)
